WHAT IS HAPPENING? Your Fund's Board of Trustees is requesting your vote on two proposals at an Annual Meeting of Shareholders to be held on March 14, 2008.

WHO IS ASKING FOR MY VOTE? The Trustees of Franklin Universal Trust (the "Fund"), in connection with the Fund's Annual Meeting of Shareholders (the "Meeting"), have requested your vote.

ON WHAT ISSUE AM I BEING ASKED TO VOTE?
You are being asked to vote on two proposals:
o The election of a Board of Trustees of the Fund
o A shareholder proposal.

HOW DO THE FUND'S TRUSTEES RECOMMEND THAT I VOTE?
The Fund's Trustees are unanimously asking you to vote:
o FOR the election of your Board's eleven nominees to the position of Trustee (Proposal 1), and o AGAINST the shareholder proposal to merge into an open- end fund (Proposal 2),

WHO ARE THE FUND'S NOMINEES? The Fund's nominees and the current Trustees of the Fund are:
Harris J. Ashton, Robert F. Carlson, Sam Ginn, Edith E. Holiday, Edward B. Jamieson, Charles B. Johnson, Rupert H. Johnson, Jr., Frank W.T. LaHaye,

Edgar Filing: FRANKLIN UNIVERSAL TRUST - Form DEFA14A

Frank A. Olson, Larry D. Thompson and John B. Wilson.

WHY DO THE FUND'S TRUSTEES RECOMMEND THAT I VOTE AGAINST THE SHAREHOLDER PROPOSAL

(PROPOSAL 2)? The shareholder proposal requests that the Fund's Board of Trustees promptly take the steps necessary to merge the Fund into the Franklin Income Fund, an open- end fund, or otherwise enable shareholders to realize net asset value for their shares. The Fund's Trustees oppose the shareholder proposal because they believe it is in your best interests to retain the Fund's closed- end structure. Closed- end funds do not have to keep sufficient cash on hand to meet possible redemptions as do open- end funds, so they can be fully invested at all times for the benefit of the shareholders. Also, no other closed- end fund offers your Fund's combination of investments in both high yield bonds and utility stocks, which provides investors with both high current income as well as the potential for capital appreciation. Combining this investment strategy with leverage and low cash balances, your Fund has delivered consistently strong market returns to investors over time. The Trustees believe strongly that your Fund remains viable in its closed- end form, but may not be able to provide the same benefits to shareholders if merged into Franklin Income Fund or another open- end fund.

WHAT SHOULD I DO WITH THE GREEN PROXY CARD I RECEIVED FROM BULLDOG INVESTORS?

We urge you to vote the Fund's WHITE proxy card and discard the GREEN proxy from Bulldog Investors. If you have already sent back the GREEN proxy card, you can still change your vote and we ask that you promptly complete, sign, date and return the enclosed WHITE proxy card because that will replace the GREEN proxy card you previously sent. If you have already sent in the WHITE proxy card, please do not send back any GREEN card you receive, even to vote against Bulldog's nominees. Doing so will cancel out your prior vote on the WHITE card.

WHO ARE THE DISSIDENT NOMINEES?

A group of dissident shareholders called Bulldog Investors has filed a proxy statement to elect their own nominees to the Fund's Board at the Meeting. Bulldog Investors has said that it wants to "permanently eliminate the Trust's persistent double- digit discount to net asset value ("NAV") through open- ending, liquidation or conducting a self- tender offer for 100% of the Trust's shares at NAV."

If the dissident nominees are elected, we strongly believe that your Trust would not continue to operate as a closed- end fund - it may be liquidated, open- ended or significantly diminished through a tender offer.

The dissident nominees all sit on the Board of Directors of the Mexico Equity and Income Fund, Inc. (NYSE: MXE), a publicly traded closed- end fund. As of December 31, 2007, MXE was trading at a discount of 14.30%, so the dissident nominees do not appear to have had any more success preventing "persistent double- digit discounts" in MXE than have the current Trustees of the Fund. This is not surprising, given that discounts tend to be cyclical and driven by market forces beyond the control of any single closed-end fund.

As discussed in the Trust's Opposition Statement to Proposal 2, the Fund's current Board believes that it is in shareholders' best interests to maintain the Fund as a closed- end fund. As a result, the Fund's current Board intends to vigorously contest the election of the dissident nominees.

THE BOARD RECOMMENDS THAT SHAREHOLDERS VOTE AGAINST THE SHAREHOLDER PROPOSAL AND
