Item 8.01. Other Events.

On August 22, 2011, the District Court of Harris County, Texas, 133rd Judicial District (the “Court”) issued a Preliminary Approval Order (the “Order”) preliminarily approving the settlement of a putative shareholder derivative action pending on behalf of TETRA Technologies, Inc. (the “Company”) captioned In re TETRA Technologies, Inc. Derivative Litigation, Cause No. 2008-23432, as set forth in the Stipulation of Settlement dated August 12, 2011 (the “Stipulation”). The Court ordered that the Company notify shareholders of the preliminary approval by inclusion of the notice of settlement of derivative action (the “Notice”) and the Stipulation as exhibits to a Current Report on Form 8-K filed with the Securities and Exchange Commission. Accordingly, copies of the Notice and Stipulation are filed as Exhibits 99.1 and 99.2, respectively, to this Current Report on Form 8-K. The settlement is subject to the final approval of the Court.

The original suits, filed by alleged stockholders purportedly on behalf of the Company between May 2008 and June 2008, were consolidated by the 133rd District Court on September 22, 2008. The suits named directors and certain officers of the Company as defendants. The factual allegations in the lawsuits mirrored those in a federal class action lawsuit that was settled in 2010. The claims were for breach of fiduciary duty, unjust enrichment, abuse of control, gross mismanagement and waste of corporate assets. The directors and officers named as individual defendants have denied expressly and continue to deny each and all of the claims and contentions alleged against them, and neither the individual defendants nor the Company have admitted any fault, wrongdoing or concession of liability in connection with the proposed settlement.

The Stipulation does not provide for the payment of monetary compensation to stockholders; rather, it provides for certain additions to the Company’s corporate governance policies and procedures and for the payment of plaintiff’s attorneys’ fees and litigation expenses, which will be paid by the Company’s D&O insurance coverage. The Court has set a settlement hearing date of October 17, 2011 to consider whether to grant final approval of the settlement, as described in the Notice. The foregoing summary of the settlement is qualified in its entirety by reference to the full text of the Stipulation, a copy of which is filed as Exhibit 99.2 to this Current Report on Form 8-K.

The Notice and the Stipulation can also be viewed on the Company’s website (www.tetrathec.com) under the Investor Relations section.
