Magic Software Announces Strategic Alliance Agreement with Deloitte

Deloitte, a worldwide leading consulting firm, signs a strategic alliance agreement to offer Magic Software's iBOLT business integration suite to its customers

Or-Yehuda, Israel, February 9, 2011 Magic Software Enterprises Ltd. (NASDAQ: MGIC), a global provider of cloud and on-premise application platform and business integration solutions, today announced that together with LabSo Informatica, its official distributor in Italy, it has signed a strategic alliance agreement with Deloitte, a salesforce.com partner. Under this agreement, Deloitte will offer Magic Software's iBOLT integration suite to its diverse customer base including its salesforce.com customers.

Gianluca Pogliani, Director at Deloitte said, "iBOLT is a perfect addition to our vast Enterprise Application product portfolio and will help our customers reach their application integration strategy. We identified iBOLT as one of the best code-free integration tools available for salesforce.com and other supported ecosystems. iBOLT is the strategic choice to meet the compelling demand of integration services and process orchestration."

Roberto Boiocchi, CEO of LabSo Informatica said, "As the official Magic Software distributor in Italy, we're proud to have signed this agreement with Deloitte. This agreement is a result of the expansion of LabSo's iBOLT activities in Italy."

Guy Bernstein, CEO of Magic Software, added, "We are very pleased to have signed this agreement with Deloitte. We are excited to add a leading partner in Italy to the long list of our already existing salesforce.com partners around the globe."

iBOLT simplifies integration of business applications used for enterprise resource planning (ERP), customer relationship management (CRM), logistics, supply chain management and other enterprise systems.

iBOLT works natively with systems such as SAP Business One, SAP R/3, salesforce.com, Oracle JD Edwards, IBM i applications and databases (AS/400), Lotus Notes applications, Microsoft Dynamics CRM, SharePoint, forms and databases, EDI systems, and many more.
