Item 5.02. Departure of Directors or Certain Officers; Election of Directors; Appointment of Certain Officers; Compensatory Arrangements of Certain Officers.

Effective December 11, 2018, Columbia State Bank (the “Bank”), a wholly owned subsidiary of Columbia Banking System, Inc. (the “Company”), entered into a Change in Control Agreement (the “CIC Agreement”) with David C. Lawson, the Executive Vice President and Chief Human Resources Officer of the Company. The CIC Agreement replaces on the same terms the previous Change in Control Agreement between Mr. Lawson and the Bank that expired on September 25, 2018 and contains substantially similar terms as the change in control agreements entered into between the Bank and the Company’s other executive officers.

The CIC Agreement has a term of five years and provides that if Mr. Lawson’s employment is terminated without Cause or if he resigns for Good Reason within 365 days following a Change in Control (as each capitalized term is defined in the CIC Agreement) or sixty days prior to the public announcement of such Change in Control (provided that the Change in Control occurs within 18 months of his termination of employment), he will be entitled to receive a severance benefit equal to two times his then-current annual base salary, all of his options will vest and all restrictions on his restricted stock awards will lapse. During his employment and for a period of two years after any severance benefit is paid under the CIC Agreement, Mr. Lawson agrees not to compete with the Bank or the Company, nor solicit or interfere with any employee, customer or business relationship of the Bank or the Company.

A copy of the CIC Agreement will be filed as an Exhibit to the Company’s Annual Report on Form 10-K for the year ended December 31, 2018.
