Fidelity's relationship with ANFI is governed, in part, by agreements and arrangements entered into between them or among their respective subsidiaries. The following description is a summary of the material terms of these agreements and arrangements, which have been filed by ANFI, with the SEC as exhibits to the reports filed by ANFI pursuant to the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended (the "Exchange Act"). Because the following description is only a summary, it is not necessarily complete and is qualified in its entirety by reference to the relevant agreements.

ANFI's principal subsidiary American Title Company ("ATC"), was a wholly owned subsidiary of Fidelity until July 1, 1997, when ANFI acquired 60% of ATC's outstanding common stock for $6.0 million in cash. As a result of the reorganization and following ANFI's initial public offering, Fidelity owned approximately 28.0% of the outstanding ANFI Common Stock. In a private transaction on June 7, 2001, ANFI purchased 894,000 shares of ANFI Common Stock from Fidelity for $4.9 million, or $5.45 per share, which was Fidelity's cost. The fair market value of ANFI Common Stock on the transaction date was $4.99 per share. After this transaction Fidelity owned approximately 19.5% of ANFI Common Stock.

Edgar Filing: AMERICAN NATIONAL FINANCIAL INC - Form SC 13D

Chicago Title Insurance Company, a wholly-owned subsidiary of Fidelity (CTIC), entered into an Issuing Agency Agreement with ATC where ATC agreed that until June 30, 2007 it will act as an agent for CTIC with respect to the procurement of title insurance policies in 16 counties in California and Arizona, subject to certain exceptions. This exclusive arrangement with CTIC does not apply to other counties into which ANFI expands in the future. Under the Issuing Agency Agreement with CTIC, furnishing title insurance products and services, ATC pays Fidelity National Title Insurance Company, a wholly-owned subsidiary of Fidelity (FNTIC), an administration fee of 1% of gross premiums for administrative services including accounting, legal and human resources. This administrative service arrangement can be terminated by ATC upon 90 days notice to FNTIC.

ANFI leases title plants from FNTIC pursuant to a capital lease agreement expiring June 2007. Additionally, ANFI reimburses subsidiaries of Fidelity for expenses incurred on its behalf. Such reimbursements aggregated $3.7 million for the year ended December 31, 2001.

In June 1999, ANFI acquired National Title Insurance of New York (National) from a subsidiary of Fidelity for $3.3 million. Pursuant to the terms of the stock purchase agreement, effective with the purchase date, National pays Fidelity specific fees for certain administrative functions performed on behalf of ANFI. The fees related to National at December 31, 2001 were $206,500. ANFI also provides underwriting risk in National under this agreement with Fidelity only for those geographic areas which are not covered by ANFI's agency arrangements.
