Item 3. Source and Amount of Funds or Other Consideration.

The information set forth or incorporated by reference in Items 4, 5 and 6 is hereby incorporated herein by reference.

Pursuant to a promissory note agreement between iVillage and America Online entered into in August 1995, iVillage issued to America Online a note in the principal amount of $500,000, with interest payable at the rate of 8% per annum evidencing a loan by America Online to iVillage of $500,000. The source of funds for this loan was the working capital of America Online.

In September 1995, iVillage and America Online entered into a securities purchase agreement pursuant to which (i) iVillage issued 1,000,000 shares of its Series A Convertible Preferred Stock to America Online in exchange for the cancellation of the $500,000 note issued in August 1995 together with all interest accrued thereon and the payment by America Online to iVillage of an additional $496,494; and (ii) America Online made an additional loan to iVillage in the form of a convertible secured note in an aggregate principal amount of $1,000,000 whereby iVillage received $650,000. The source of funds for these transactions was the working capital of America Online. In connection with such securities purchase agreement, iVillage also issued to America Online a stock subscription warrant (the "1995 Series B Warrant") representing, based on the formula set forth therein, the right to purchase 52,100 shares of iVillage's Series B Convertible Preferred Stock at an exercise price of $2.50 per share or, after giving effect to a one-for-three reverse stock split of iVillage (the "Stock Split") prior to iVillage's initial public offering of iVillage Common Stock in March 1999 (the "IPO"), 17,366 shares at an exercise price of $7.50 per share. The 1995 Series B Warrant is filed as Exhibit 2 to this Statement and is hereby incorporated herein by reference. The Series A Convertible Preferred Stock held by America Online automatically converted into an aggregate of 333,333 shares of iVillage Common Stock at the completion of the IPO.

In May 1996, iVillage entered into an information provider agreement with America Online pursuant to which America Online agreed to carry certain iVillage channels for a period of two years. As an inducement to, and in consideration of, America Online entering into such information provider agreement, iVillage issued to America Online a warrant (the "1996 Series B Warrant") to purchase 800,000 shares of iVillage's Series B Convertible Preferred Stock at an exercise price of $2.50 per share or, after giving effect to the Stock Split, 266,667 shares at an exercise price of $7.50 per share. The Series B Convertible Preferred Stock and Series B-1 Convertible Preferred Stock held by America Online automatically converted into 441,128 shares of iVillage Common Stock at the completion of the IPO and including the issuance of iVillage Common Stock as a result of the anti-dilution provisions related to the Series B Preferred Stock and Series B-1 Preferred Stock.

The Note and Warrant Purchase Agreement, dated February 27, 1997, by and among iVillage Inc. and each of the Purchasers identified therein (the "Note and Warrant Purchase Agreement"), is filed as Exhibit 4 to this Statement and is hereby incorporated herein by reference. Pursuant thereto, iVillage issued to America Online a convertible secured promissory note in an aggregate principal amount of $900,000 in exchange for a loan of this amount to iVillage from America Online. Item 4. Purpose of the Transaction.

America Online acquired the securities of iVillage described herein as an investment and holds them in the ordinary course of business and not with the purpose or effect of changing the control of iVillage.

As described in Item 3 above, AOL Time Warner became the ultimate beneficial owner of the iVillage Common Stock as a result of the consummation of the Holding Company Transaction.

AOL Time Warner and America Online intend to review and evaluate their investment in iVillage from time to time. On the basis of such review and evaluation, AOL Time Warner and America Online may acquire additional iVillage securities from time to time in market transactions or otherwise or may dispose of some or all of their holdings of iVillage securities from time to time in market transactions or otherwise.

Other than as described above, neither AOL Time Warner or America Online has any current plans or proposals that relate to or would result in (i) the acquisition or disposition of securities of iVillage; (ii) an extraordinary corporate transaction, such as a merger, reorganization or liquidation, involving iVillage or any of its subsidiaries; (iii) a sale or transfer of a material amount of assets of iVillage or any of its subsidiaries; (iv) any change in the present board of directors or management of iVillage, including any current plans or proposals to change the number or term of directors or to fill any existing vacancies on the board of directors of iVillage; (v) any material change in the present capitalization or dividend policy of iVillage; (vi) any other material change in iVillage's business or corporate structure; (vii) changes in iVillage's charter, by-laws or instruments corresponding thereto or other actions which may impede the acquisition of control of iVillage by any person; (viii) causing a class of securities of iVillage to be delisted from a national securities exchange or to cease to be authorized to be quoted in an inter-dealer quotation system of a registered national securities association; (ix) causing a class of equity securities of iVillage to become eligible for termination of registration pursuant to Section 12(g)(4) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended; or (x) any action similar to any of those enumerated in clauses (i) through (ix) of this sentence.

Item 5. Interest in Securities of iVillage.

The information set forth or incorporated by reference in Item 3 is hereby incorporated herein by reference.

On January 11, 2001, in connection with the Holding Company Transaction described in Item 3 above, America Online became a direct wholly owned subsidiary of AOL Time Warner. As a result, AOL Time Warner and America Online may be deemed to have shared power to vote and dispose of the 2,511,983 shares of iVillage Common Stock registered in the name of America Online and owned beneficially by AOL Time Warner.

Except as described herein, to the best knowledge of the Reporting Persons as of the date hereof, (i) none of the Reporting Persons nor any of the executive officers or directors of the Reporting Persons, beneficially owns any shares of iVillage Common Stock, and (ii) there have been no transactions in the shares of iVillage Common Stock effected during the past 60 days by the Reporting Persons, nor, to the best of the knowledge of the Reporting Persons, by any of the executive officers or directors of the Reporting Persons.

Item 6. Contracts, Arrangements, Understandings or Relationships with Respect to Securities of iVillage.

The information set forth or incorporated by reference in Item 3 is hereby incorporated herein by reference.

Pursuant to the Fourth Amended and Restated Registration Rights Agreement, dated December 4, 1998, by and among iVillage Inc., the Founders and each of the Investors identified therein (the "Registration Rights Agreement"), after the IPO, America Online and various other stockholders (so long as the number of shares of iVillage Common Stock represented by the securities held by those making such demand represents at least 40% of all such securities covered by the Registration Rights Agreement) are entitled to demand that iVillage file a registration statement with respect to the registration of their respective shares of iVillage Common Stock under the Securities Act, subject to certain limitations. iVillage is not required to effect: (i) more than four registrations; (ii) a registration during any period in which any other registration statement has been filed within 60 days following determination of the board of directors of iVillage to file a registration statement; or (iii) a registration for a period not to exceed 60 days, if the board of directors of iVillage has made a good faith determination that it would be seriously detrimental to iVillage or the holders of registration rights for a registration statement to be filed. America Online is also entitled to piggyback registration rights in connection with any registration by iVillage of its securities for its own account or the account of other securityholders. In the event that iVillage proposes to register any shares of common stock under the Securities Act, America Online is entitled to receive notice and is entitled to include its shares in the registration statement. These registration rights terminate when the shares held by America Online may be sold under Rule 144 during any three-month period. The Registration Rights Agreement is filed as Exhibit 7 to this Statement and is hereby incorporated herein by reference.

Pursuant to the Fourth Amended and Restated Stockholders' Agreement, dated as of December 4, 1998, by and among iVillage Inc., the Founders and each of the Investors identified therein (the "Stockholders'

CUSIP No. 46588H 10 5

Agreement"), America Online received the right to nominate one individual designated by America Online to iVillage's Board of Directors. The Stockholders' Agreement, however, was terminated on March 19, 1999 in connection with the IPO. Nevertheless, an officer of America Online continues to serve as a director of iVillage. Accordingly, America Online may be in a position to influence the operations and activities of iVillage. The Stockholders' Agreement is filed as Exhibit 8 to this Statement and is hereby incorporated herein by reference.

Except as described herein, to the best knowledge of the Reporting Persons as of the date hereof, (i) none of the Reporting Persons nor any of the executive officers or directors of the Reporting Persons, beneficially owns any shares of iVillage Common Stock, and (ii) there have been no transactions in the shares of iVillage Common Stock effected during the past 60 days by the Reporting Persons, nor, to the best of the knowledge of the Reporting Persons, by any of the executive officers or directors of the Reporting Persons."
