ISS RECOMMENDS THAT GOLDFIELD SHAREHOLDERS

VOTE FOR GOLDFIELD NOMINEES.

Finds performance exemplary.

MELBOURNE, Fla.--June 12, 2001--The Goldfield Corporation (AMEX: GV, www.goldfieldcorp.com) today announced that Institutional Shareholder Services (ISS) recommended that Goldfield shareholders vote FOR management's slate of director nominees at the Company's Annual Meeting, scheduled to be held on June 19, 2001, rather than the dissident nominees proposed by an internet shareholder activist.

ISS is widely recognized as the nation's leading independent proxy advisory firm. Their recommendations are relied upon by institutional investors, mutual funds, and other fiduciaries.

In reaching its decision to recommend that Goldfield shareholders vote FOR the six nominees on Goldfield's slate, ISS noted in its report that: "The company's operational and stock performance have been exemplary, especially for a micro-cap company. Management has implemented a specific long-term strategy for the company to improve shareholder value." The report concluded that "it would be in the best interests of all shareholders for the company to 'stay the course.'"

John Sottile, President of Goldfield, said that "the ISS report was a comprehensive and accurate analysis of Goldfield which impartially answered all significant questions raised by the dissidents."

Although ISS recognized that appropriate safeguards can offset the need for cumulative voting, ISS concluded that it was not necessary to remove existing cumulative voting provisions.
