Item 1.01. Entry into a Material Definitive Agreement

Agreement and Plan of Merger

On October 31, 2010, M&T Bank Corporation (M&T), a New York corporation, entered into a definitive Agreement and Plan of Merger (the Merger Agreement) with Wilmington Trust Corporation (Wilmington). The Merger Agreement provides that, upon the terms and subject to the conditions set forth in the Merger Agreement, MTB One, Inc. (Merger Sub), a corporation formed in Delaware as a wholly owned subsidiary of M&T, will merge with and into Wilmington, with Wilmington continuing as the surviving corporation and a wholly owned subsidiary of M&T (the Merger).

Pursuant to the Merger Agreement, each outstanding share of common stock of Wilmington will be converted into the right to receive 0.051372 shares of M&T common stock, and each outstanding share of Series A Fixed Rate Cumulative Perpetual Preferred Stock of Wilmington (Wilmington TARP Preferred) will be exchanged for one-one hundredth (1/100) of a share of M&T preferred stock with substantially the same rights, powers and preferences as the Wilmington TARP Preferred. The outstanding warrant to purchase Wilmington common stock, which was issued on December 12, 2008 to the United States Department of the Treasury, will be converted into a warrant to purchase M&T common stock, subject to appropriate adjustments. Stock-based awards granted under the Wilmington stock plans will vest and be converted into the right to receive the merger consideration and outstanding stock options granted under the Wilmington stock plans will be cancelled without consideration. Wilmington s employee stock purchase plan will be terminated prior to the closing of the Merger.

The Merger Agreement also provides that upon consummation of the Merger, the board of directors of M&T will be increased by one, and Mr. Donald E. Foley, Wilmington s Chief Executive Officer, will be appointed as a director of M&T.

The Board of Directors of Wilmington has adopted a resolution recommending approval of the Merger and adoption by its stockholders and Wilmington has agreed to submit the Merger Agreement to its stockholders for consideration.

Consummation of the Merger is subject to certain customary conditions, including, among others, approval of the stockholders of Wilmington, governmental filings and regulatory approvals and expiration of applicable waiting periods, accuracy of the representations and warranties of the other party (generally subject to a material adverse effect standard), and material compliance by the other party with its obligations under the Merger Agreement.

M&T and Wilmington have made customary representations, warranties and covenants in the Merger Agreement, including, among others, covenants (i) with respect to the conduct of their respective businesses during the interim period between the execution of the Merger Agreement and consummation of the Merger, (ii) not to engage in certain kinds of transactions during such period, (iii) that Wilmington will convene and hold a meeting of the stockholders of Wilmington to consider and vote upon the adoption of the Merger Agreement, and (iv) that, subject to certain exceptions, the Wilmington board of directors will recommend the adoption of the Merger Agreement by its stockholders. In addition, Wilmington has made certain additional customary covenants not to, including, among others, (x) solicit or facilitate inquiries or proposals relating to alternative business combination transactions or (y) subject to certain exceptions, engage in discussions or negotiations regarding, or provide any non-public information or data in connection with, alternative business combination transactions.

The representations, warranties and covenants of each party set forth in the Merger Agreement have been made only for purposes of that agreement and were solely for the benefit of the parties to the Merger Agreement, may be subject to limitations agreed upon by the contracting parties, including being qualified by confidential disclosures made for the purposes of allocating contractual risk between the parties to the Merger Agreement instead of establishing these matters as facts, and may be subject to standards of materiality applicable to the contracting parties that differ from those applicable to investors. In addition, such representations and warranties (a) will not survive consummation of the Merger and cannot be the basis for any claims under the Merger Agreement by the other party after termination of the Merger Agreement except as a result of a knowing breach as of the date of the Merger Agreement, and (b) were made only as of the date of the Merger Agreement or such other date as is specified in the Merger Agreement. Moreover, information concerning the subject matter of the representations and warranties may change after the date of the Merger Agreement, which subsequent information may or may not be fully reflected in the parties' public disclosures. Accordingly, the Merger Agreement is included with this filing only to provide investors with information regarding the terms of the Merger Agreement, and not to provide investors with any other factual information regarding the parties or their respective businesses. The Merger Agreement should not be read alone, but should instead be read in conjunction with the other information regarding the companies and the Merger that will be contained in, or incorporated by reference into, the proxy statement/prospectus that the parties will be filing in connection with the Merger, as well as in the Forms 10-K, Forms 10-Q and other filings that each of M&T and Wilmington make with the Securities and Exchange Commission.

The Merger Agreement provides certain termination rights for both Wilmington and M&T, and further provides that upon termination of the Merger Agreement under certain circumstances, Wilmington will be obligated to pay M&T a termination fee of $30 million.

The foregoing description of the Merger Agreement does not purport to be complete and is qualified in its entirety by reference to the full text of the Merger Agreement, which is filed as Exhibit 2.1 hereto and is incorporated by reference herein.
