Item 6. Indemnification of Directors and Officers.

Nevada law provides that Nevada corporations may include in their articles of incorporation provisions eliminating or limiting the personal liability of their directors and officers in shareholder actions brought to obtain damages for alleged breaches of fiduciary duties, as long as the alleged acts or omissions did not involve intentional misconduct, fraud, a knowing violation of law or payment of dividends in violation of the Nevada statutes. Nevada law also allows Nevada corporations to include in their articles of incorporation or bylaws provisions to the effect that expenses of officers and directors incurred in defending a civil or criminal action must be paid by the corporation as they are incurred, subject to an undertaking on behalf of the director or officer to repay such expenses if it is ultimately determined by a court of competent jurisdiction that such officer or director is not entitled to be indemnified by the corporation because he or she did not act in good faith and in a manner reasonably believed to be in or not opposed to the best interests of the corporation.

The respective articles of incorporation of the Company and its Nevada subsidiaries provide that a director or officer of such company shall not be personally liable to such company or its shareholders for damages for any breach of fiduciary duty as a director or officer, except for liability for (a) acts or omissions which involve intentional misconduct, fraud or a knowing violation of law, or (b) the payment of distributions in violation of Nevada Revised Statutes ("NRS") Section 78.300. In addition, NRS Section 78.751 and Article VII of the bylaws of each of such companies, under certain circumstances, provide for the indemnification of the officers and directors of such company against liabilities they may incur in such capacities. A summary of the circumstances in which such indemnification is provided for is set forth in the following paragraph, but such summary is qualified in its entirety by reference to Article VII of the bylaws of such company.

In general, any director or officer of the Company or its Nevada subsidiaries (each, an "Indemnitee") who was or is a party to, or is threatened to be made a party to, or is otherwise involved in any threatened, pending or completed action or suit (including, without limitation, an action, suit or proceeding by or in the right of such company), whether civil, criminal, administrative or investigative (a "Proceeding") by reason of the fact that the Indemnitee is or was a director or officer of such company or is or was serving in any capacity at the request of such company as a director, officer, employee, agent, partner or fiduciary of, or in any other capacity for, another corporation or any partnership, joint venture, trust or other enterprise shall be indemnified and held harmless by such company for actions taken by the Indemnitee and for all omissions to the full extent permitted by Nevada law against all expense, liability and loss (including, without limitation, attorneys' fees, judgments, fines, taxes, penalties and amounts paid or to be paid in settlement) reasonably incurred or suffered by the Indemnitee in connection with any Proceeding. The rights to indemnification specifically include the right to reimbursement from such company for all reasonable costs and expenses incurred in connection with the Proceeding and indemnification continues as to an Indemnitee who has ceased to be a director or officer. The board of directors may include employees and other persons as though they were Indemnitees. The rights to indemnification are not exclusive of any other rights that any person may have by law, agreement or otherwise.

The respective bylaws of the Company and its Nevada subsidiaries provide that such company may purchase and maintain insurance or make other financial arrangements on behalf of any person who otherwise qualifies as an Indemnitee under the foregoing provisions. Other financial arrangements to assist the Indemnitee are also permitted, such as the creation of a trust fund, the establishment of a program of self-insurance, the securing of such company's obligation of indemnification by granting a security interest or other lien on any assets (including cash) of such company and the establishment of a letter of credit, guarantee or surety.

The respective bylaws and articles of incorporation of the Company's Colorado subsidiaries provide that those companies shall, to the full extent permitted by the Colorado Business Corporation Act ("CBCA"), indemnify all of their directors and officers. Sections 7-109-101 to 7-109-110 of the CBCA provide in part that a corporation shall have the power to indemnify any person who was or is a party, or is threatened to be made a party, to any threatened, pending or completed action, suit or proceedings (other than an action by or in the right of the corporation) by reason of the fact that such person is or was a director, officer, employee or agent of the corporation or is or was serving at the request of the corporation as a director, officer, employee or agent of another corporation or other enterprise, against expenses (including attorneys' fees), judgments, fines and amounts paid in settlement actually and reasonably incurred by him in connection with such action, suit or proceedings if he acted in good faith and in a manner he reasonably believed to be in or not opposed to the best interests of the corporation, and with respect to any criminal action or proceedings, had no reasonable cause to believe his conduct was unlawful. Similar indemnity is authorized for such persons against expenses (including attorneys' fees) actually and reasonably incurred in defense or settlement of any threatened, pending or completed action or suit by or in the right of the corporation, if such person acted in good faith and in a manner he reasonably believed to be in or not opposed to the best interests of the corporation, and provided further that (unless a court of competent jurisdiction otherwise provides) such person shall not have been adjudged liable to the corporation. Any such indemnification may be made only as authorized in each specific case upon a determination by the shareholders or disinterested directors that indemnification is proper because the indemnitee has met the applicable standard of conduct. The indemnitee is presumed to be entitled to indemnification and the corporation has the burden of proof to overcome that presumption. Where an officer or a director is successful on the merits or otherwise in the defense of any action referred to above, the corporation must indemnify him or her against the expenses which such officer or director actually or reasonably incurred.

Additionally, the respective articles of incorporation and bylaws of the Company's Colorado subsidiaries provide for mandatory indemnification of directors to the fullest extent permitted by Colorado law. This provision does not eliminate the liability of a director for (a) a breach of the director's duty of loyalty to the corporation or its shareholders; (b) acts or omissions by the director not in good faith or which involve intentional misconduct or a knowing violation of law; (c) liability arising under Section 7-108-403 of the CBCA (relating to distributions to shareholders in violation of the CBCA); or (d) any transaction from which the director derived an improper personal benefit.

Item 9. Undertakings.

Edgar Filing: RIVIERA HOLDINGS CORP - Form S-8

(a) The undersigned registrant hereby undertakes:

- (1) To file, during any period in which offers or sales are being made, a post-effective amendment to this Registration Statement:
  - (i) to include any prospectus required by Section 10(a)(3) of the Securities Act of 1933;
  - (ii) to reflect in the prospectus any facts or events arising after the effective date of the Registration Statement (or the most recent post-effective amendment thereof) which, individually or in the aggregate, represent a fundamental change in the information set forth in the Registration Statement. Notwithstanding the foregoing, any increase or decrease in volume of securities offered (if the total dollar value of securities offered would not exceed that which was registered) and any deviation from the low or high end of the estimated maximum offering range may be reflected in the form of prospectus filed with the Commission pursuant to Rule 424(b) if, in the aggregate, the changes in volume and price represent no more than a 20% change in the maximum aggregate offering price set forth in the "Calculation of Registration Fee" table in the effective registration statement;
  - (iii) to include any material information with respect to the plan of distribution not previously disclosed in the Registration Statement or any material change to such information in the Registration Statement; provided, however, that paragraphs (a)(1)(i) and (a)(1)(ii) do not apply if the information required to be included in a post-effective amendment by those paragraphs is contained in periodic reports filed with or furnished to the Commission by the registrant pursuant to Section 13 or Section 15(d) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 that are incorporated by reference in this Registration Statement.
- (2) That, for the purpose of determining any liability under the Securities Act of 1933, each such post-effective amendment shall be deemed a new registration statement relating to the securities offered therein, and the offering of such securities at that time shall be deemed the initial bona fide offering thereof.
- (3) To remove from registration by means of a post-effective amendment any of the securities being registered which remain unsold at the termination of the offering.

Edgar Filing: RIVIERA HOLDINGS CORP - Form S-8

- (b) The undersigned registrant hereby undertakes that, for purposes of determining any liability under the Securities Act of 1933, each filing of the registrant's annual report pursuant to Section 13(a) or Section 15(d) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 that is incorporated by reference in this Registration Statement shall be deemed a new registration statement relating to the securities offered therein, and the offering of such securities at that time shall be deemed the initial bona fide offering thereof.
- (c) Insofar as indemnification for liabilities arising under the Securities Act of 1933 may be permitted to directors, officers and controlling persons of the registrant pursuant to the foregoing provisions, or otherwise, the registrant has been advised that in the opinion of the Securities and Exchange Commission such indemnification is against public policy as expressed in the Securities Act and is, therefore, unenforceable. In the event that a claim for indemnification against such liabilities (other than the payment by the registrant of expenses incurred or paid by a director, officer or controlling person of the registrant in the successful defense of any action, suit or proceeding) is asserted by such director, officer or controlling person in connection with the securities being registered, the registrant will, unless in the opinion of its counsel the matter has been settled by controlling precedent, submit to a court of appropriate jurisdiction the question whether such indemnification by it is against public policy as expressed in the Securities Act and will be governed by the final adjudication of such issue.

SIGNATURES

Pursuant to the requirements of the Securities Act of 1933, the registrant hereby certifies that it has reasonable grounds to believe that it meets all of the requirements for filing on Form S-8 and has duly caused this Registration Statement to be signed on its behalf by the undersigned, thereunto duly authorized, in the City of Las Vegas, State of Nevada, on July 1, 2005.
