On September 20, 2006, Companhia Siderurgica Nacional issued a press release in Brazil, a translation of which is set forth below. The following press release contains forward looking statements as discussed more fully below.

NOTICE TO THE MARKET

COMPANHIA SIDERURGICA NACIONAL

Corporate Taxpayer's ID (CNPJ) # 33.042.730/0001-04

Companhia Siderurgica Nacional ("CSN" or "The Company") hereby confirms that the discussions with the Wheeling-Pittsburgh Corporation ("WPC") regarding the proposal for a strategic alliance with the Company continue in a positive manner and emphatically denies the information disclosed this morning through a US press release by the United Steelworkers Union ("USW"), according to which the discussions between CSN and WPC have been supposedly interrupted.

The Company additionally announces that WPC and USW have agreed upon October 15, 2006 as the end of the Union's effective period of "Right to Bid".

CSN reiterates that both companies are increasingly confident over the possibility of executing the definitive merger agreements as soon as possible after October 15, 2006. Subsequently, after the due legal filings by both companies, WPC intends to hold a General Shareholders' Meeting in January 2007 to approve CSN's proposal.

"Any information that CSN's proposal has been withdrawn is totally untrue", says Marcos Lutz, CSN's executive officer responsible for the companies' integration process. "I would like to emphasize that there is absolutely no change in relation to our goal of merging CSN LLC, located in Indiana, USA, with the Wheeling-Pittsburgh Corporation. The recent negotiations between the US company and the Union, which defined October 15 as the deadline for the submission of an alternative proposal, is a positive fact and shows a more flexible position on the part of the Union, which had initially applied for a much longer term, up to 2007."

Marcos Lutz also stated that "if the Union is interested, CSN may eventually consider submitting a proposal with a cash alternative for those shareholders opting for more immediate profits."

Mr. James Bradley, WPC's CEO, added: "We continue to support the CSN arrangements because they represent an outstanding opportunity to enhance shareholder value while moving Wheeling-Pittsburgh to a new level of financial and steel manufacturing performance. It also will benefit our current employees and retirees, as well as future generations of Wheeling-Pittsburgh steelmakers".

In brief:

- o The Wheeling-Pittsburgh General Shareholders' Meeting, scheduled for November 17, 2006, will focus on the election of WPC's Board of Directors.
- o WPC's shareholders shall vote for a slate of directors comprised of current Board Members and appointed by an independent committee or a slate of directors appointed by Esmark.
- o There will be no vote regarding the WPC merger proposals during this Meeting.
- o The General Shareholders' Meeting to approve CSN's offer shall be held in January 2007.
- o The United Steelworkers Union - USW and WPC have established the date of October 15, 2006 as the deadline for the end of the Union's effective period for a "Right to Bid".
