ITEM 2.01. COMPLETION OF ACQUISITION OR DISPOSITION OF ASSETS

Edgar Filing: NextWave Wireless Inc. - Form 8-K

On May 11, 2007, NextWave Wireless Inc. ("NextWave") completed its previously announced acquisition of IPWireless, Inc. pursuant to the terms of the Agreement and Plan of Merger, dated as of April 6, 2007, among NextWave, IPW, LLC, a wholly owned subsidiary of NextWave ("Merger Sub") and IPWireless, Inc. ("IPW") (the "Merger Agreement"). IPW, previously a privately-held company headquartered in San Bruno, California, with research and development facilities in the United Kingdom, is a supplier of TD-CDMA network equipment and subscriber terminals, and develops 3GPP TDD UMTS standards which serve as the foundation for its next-generation mobile TV and wireless broadband public-safety network solutions. Its TD-CDMA mobile broadband technology was recently selected by New York City as part of the deployment of a citywide, public-safety wireless network. IPW will operate as a wholly-owned subsidiary of NextWave.

The merger consideration consists of approximately $100 million that was paid at closing, consisting of $25 million in cash and $75 million in shares of common stock of NextWave. The number of shares of common stock issued in connection with the merger was 7.7 million. As specified in the Merger Agreement, additional consideration of up to $135 million may be earned upon the achievement of certain revenue milestones relating to IPW's public safety business and TDTV business during the 2007 to 2009 timeframe, with potential payment of up to $50 million in late 2007 or 2008 (the "Additional Consideration"), and up to $7.5 million in 2008, up to $24.2 million in 2009, and up to $53.3 million in 2010. If earned, up to approximately $114 million of such additional consideration is payable in cash or shares of common stock at the election of NextWave, and approximately $21 million of such amounts are payable in cash or shares of common stock at the election of the representative of the IPW shareholders. Five million dollars of the consideration paid at closing and $21 million of the Additional Consideration that may be earned post-closing has or will be placed in escrow for 12 months from the closing date, which will be available to compensate NextWave for certain losses, including any losses it may incur as a result of any breach of the representations and warranties or covenants of IPW contained in the Merger Agreement. NextWave will adopt the IPWireless, Inc. Employee Stock Bonus Plan to provide IPW employees with shares of NextWave common stock having an aggregate value of up to $7 million, dependent on the achievement of certain revenue milestones relating to IPW's public safety business and TDTV business as an inducement for such employees to join the NextWave group and continue with the business following the merger.

A copy of our press release, dated May 14, 2007, announcing the completion of the merger, is attached hereto as Exhibit 99.1.

This description of the Merger Agreement does not purport to be complete and is qualified in its entirety by reference to the Merger Agreement, a copy of which was attached as Exhibit 2.1 to the Current Report on Form 8-K filed by the Company on April 12, 2007 and is incorporated herein by reference.
