THOMSON NAMES DEIRDRE STANLEY
SENIOR VICE PRESIDENT AND GENERAL COUNSEL

STAMFORD, Conn. and TORONTO, July 10, 2002 The Thomson Corporation (NYSE: TOC; TSX: TOC) today announced that Deirdre Stanley, age 37, has joined Thomson as senior vice president and general counsel, effective July 8, 2002.

In this strategic leadership position, Ms. Stanley will have responsibility for heading the global legal function for Thomson, including overseeing all aspects of its legal affairs and leading the day-to-day operations of the legal department. Ms. Stanley will report to Robert D. Daleo, executive vice president and CFO of The Thomson Corporation.

"I am very pleased to welcome Deirdre to the Thomson executive team at this exciting moment in our corporate evolution, following our recent offering and listing on the New York Stock Exchange," said Mr. Daleo. "Deirdre brings extensive legal and strategic planning experience to this important role, and I look forward to her advice and counsel as we explore new opportunities for Thomson in the years ahead."

Most recently, Ms. Stanley served as executive vice president, business development & strategy for the Electronics Commerce Solutions Division of USA Networks, Inc. She joined USA Networks as deputy general counsel in 1999. Previously, she served as associate general counsel for domestic strategic transactions at GTE Corporation. Ms. Stanley started her career as a corporate associate with the Cravath, Swaine & Moore law firm, working in their New York and London offices.

Ms. Stanley holds a B.A. degree in Mathematics and Public Policy from Duke University, a J.D. from Harvard Law School, and completed a one-year Fellowship Program at the London School of Economics.
