Item 5.02 Departure of directors or certain officers; Election of directors; Appointment of certain officers; Compensatory arrangements of certain officers.

On December 14, 2009, Matthew P. Lawlor (“Mr. Lawlor”) retired from his position as Chief Executive Officer of Online Resources Corporation (the “Company”), effective immediately. Mr. Lawlor will remain in his position as Chairman of the Board of Directors of the Company (the “Board”) until February 15, 2010. Thereafter, Mr. Lawlor will continue to serve on the Board as a Director.

Effective December 14, 2009, Raymond T. Crosier (“Mr. Crosier”), the current President and Chief Operating Officer of the Company, will serve as the interim Chief Executive Officer until a successor is named. Mr. Crosier, 54, has served as Chief Operating Officer of the Company since its initial public offering in 1999 and also became President in 2001. He joined the Company in 1996 and before assuming his current role, headed the Company’s sales, client services and technical implementation functions. He has over 25 years of management experience in payment systems, transaction processing and financial technology.

On December 14, 2009, the Board formed an executive management committee, consisting of Mr. Crosier and independent Directors Barry D. Wessler and John Dorman, to oversee the transition. Dr. Wessler and Mr. Dorman will also lead the search for a new chief executive officer.

On December 15, 2009, the Company issued a press release regarding Mr. Lawlor’s retirement. A copy of the Company’s press release appears as Exhibit 99.1 to this Current Report and is incorporated herein by reference.
