Item 8.01 Other Events

On July 29, 2005 a class action complaint for alleged violations of the federal securities laws was filed in the United States District Court for the Southern District of New York (Docket Number 05 cv 6803), naming the Company, an officer and an officer/director. The action, entitled Nilesh Patel v. Avon Products, Inc. et al., was brought on behalf of purchasers of the Company's common stock between April 8, 2005 and July 18, 2005 and seeks damages for alleged false and misleading statements based on the failure to disclose (i) that the Company was experiencing increasing resistance to its expansion efforts in China because local businesses were dissatisfied with the Company's plans to direct sell in that market; (ii) that the Company's revenue growth in its Central and Eastern Europe markets was dramatically slowing from internally forecasted levels such that the Company would be unable to reach its stated earnings projections; (iii) that the Company's expansion efforts in Russia were being delayed due to a variety of factors; and (iv) as a result of the forgoing, Defendants lacked a reasonable basis for their earnings projections and positive statements about the Company. Additional similar complaints may be filed in the future. The Company does not intend to announce the filing of any similar complaints.
