UNAUDITED PRO FORMA CONSOLIDATED CONDENSED FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

On January 11, 2001 America Online, Inc. ("America Online") and Time Warner Inc. ("Time Warner") completed their previously announced merger pursuant to the Second Amended and Restated Agreement and Plan of Merger among the companies and certain of their subsidiaries dated as of January 10, 2000 (the "merger"). The combined company is named AOL Time Warner Inc. ("AOL Time Warner").

The following pro forma consolidated condensed financial statements are presented to illustrate the effects of the merger on the historical financial position and operating results of America Online and Time Warner. Because America Online and Time Warner have different fiscal years, and the combined company has adopted the calendar year-end of Time Warner, pro forma operating results are presented on two different bases: (1) a June 30 fiscal-year basis, which is consistent with America Online's historical fiscal year-end and (2) a December 31 calendar-year basis, which is consistent with both Time Warner's historical fiscal year-end and that of AOL Time Warner going forward. Management believes that it is meaningful to present pro forma financial information based on the calendar year-end of the combined company to facilitate an analysis of the pro forma effects of the merger.

The following pro forma consolidated condensed balance sheet of AOL Time Warner at September 30, 2000 gives effect to the merger as if it occurred as of that date. On a June 30 fiscal-year basis, the pro forma consolidated condensed statements of operations of AOL Time Warner for the three months ended September 30, 2000 and the year ended June 30, 2000 give effect to the merger as if it occurred as of July 1, 1999. On a December 31 calendar-year basis, the pro forma consolidated condensed statements of operations of AOL Time Warner for the nine months ended September 30, 2000 and the year ended December 31, 1999 give effect to the merger as if it occurred as of January 1, 1999.

Edgar Filing: AOL TIME WARNER INC - Form 8-K/A

The pro forma consolidated condensed financial statements have been derived from, and should be read in conjunction with, the historical consolidated financial statements, including the notes thereto, of each of America Online and Time Warner. For America Online, those financial statements are included in America Online's Quarterly Report on Form 10-Q for the quarter ended September 30, 2000, as adjusted by AOL Time Warner's Current Report on Form 8-K dated January 18, 2001, and America Online's Annual Report on Form 10-K for the year ended June 30, 2000, as amended. For Time Warner, those financial statements are included in Time Warner's Quarterly Report on Form 10-Q for the quarter ended September 30, 2000 and its Annual Report on Form 10-K for the year ended December 31, 1999, as amended, which are incorporated herein by reference.

The pro forma consolidated condensed financial statements are presented for informational purposes only and are not necessarily indicative of the financial position or results of operations of AOL Time Warner that would have occurred had the merger been consummated as of the dates indicated. In addition, the pro forma consolidated condensed financial statements are not necessarily indicative of the future financial condition or operating results of AOL Time Warner.

THE MERGER

The merger was structured as a stock-for-stock exchange. Prior to the merger, America Online and Time Warner formed a new holding company called AOL Time Warner and the new holding company formed two wholly owned subsidiaries. Upon the closing of the transaction, one such subsidiary merged with and into America Online and one such subsidiary merged with and into Time Warner. As a result, America Online and Time Warner each became a wholly owned subsidiary of AOL Time Warner. As part of the merger, each issued and then outstanding share of each class of common stock of Time Warner was converted into 1.5 shares of an identical series of common stock of AOL Time Warner. In addition, each issued and then outstanding share of each class of preferred stock of Time Warner was converted into one share of preferred stock of AOL Time Warner, with substantially identical terms except that such shares are convertible into approximately 6.25 shares of AOL Time Warner common stock. Lastly, each issued and then outstanding share of common stock of America Online was converted into one share of common stock of AOL Time Warner.

As a result of the merger, the former shareholders of America Online have an approximate 55% interest in AOL Time Warner and the former shareholders of Time Warner have an approximate 45% interest in AOL Time Warner, expressed on a fully diluted basis. The merger will be accounted for by AOL Time Warner as an acquisition of Time Warner under the purchase method of accounting for business combinations.

PRO FORMA ADJUSTMENTS

Pro forma adjustments for the merger reflect:

- o the issuance of approximately 2.0 billion shares of AOL Time Warner common stock and AOL Time Warner Series LMCN-V common stock in exchange for all of the 1.3 billion outstanding shares of Time Warner common stock and Series LMCN-V common stock;
- o the issuance of approximately 4.0 million shares of AOL Time Warner preferred stock in exchange for all of the 4.0 million outstanding shares of Time Warner preferred stock;
- o the issuance of options to purchase approximately 191.3 million shares of AOL Time Warner common stock in exchange for all of the outstanding options to purchase 127.5 million shares of Time Warner common stock;
- o the issuance of approximately 1.2 million shares of AOL Time Warner restricted common stock in exchange for all of the approximately 800 thousand outstanding shares of Time Warner restricted common stock; and
- o the incurrence of an additional $100 million of transaction costs by America Online and Time Warner, including legal and investment banking fees, that had not been recorded as of September 30, 2000.

No pro forma adjustments are necessary to reflect the merger of America Online into a separate wholly owned subsidiary of AOL Time Warner because America Online's net assets will be recorded at their historical cost basis and the exchange ratio for America Online common stock is one to one.

MERGER BENEFITS

Management expects that the strategic benefits of the merger will result in incremental revenue and cost-savings opportunities for the combined company. Those opportunities include, but are not limited to, the ability to cross-promote the combined company's products and services and the ability to offer consumers expanded broadband and online services. However, such incremental revenues or cost savings have not been reflected in the accompanying pro forma consolidated condensed statements of operations of AOL Time Warner.

PURCHASE ACCOUNTING

Under the purchase method of accounting, the estimated cost of approximately $147 billion to acquire Time Warner, including transaction costs, will be allocated to its underlying net assets in proportion to their respective fair values. Any excess of the purchase price over the estimated fair value of the net assets acquired will be recorded as goodwill. As more fully described in the notes to the pro forma consolidated condensed financial statements, a preliminary allocation of the excess of the purchase price, including transaction costs, over the book value of the net assets to be acquired has been made to goodwill and other intangible assets, including film libraries, cable television franchises, music catalogues and music copyrights. At this time, the work needed to provide the basis for estimating these fair values and related amortization periods has not been completed. It is expected that the final allocation of the excess of purchase price over the book value of the net assets acquired will not differ materially from the amounts included herein.

AOL Time Warner will periodically review the carrying value of the goodwill resulting from acquired businesses to determine whether an impairment may exist. AOL Time Warner will consider relevant cash flow information, including estimated future operating results, trends and other available information, in assessing whether the carrying value of goodwill can be recovered. If it is determined that the carrying value of goodwill will not be recovered from the undiscounted future cash flows of acquired businesses, the carrying value of such goodwill would be considered impaired and reduced by a charge to operations in the amount of the impairment. An impairment charge is measured as any deficiency in the amount of estimated undiscounted cash flows of acquired businesses available to recover the carrying value related to goodwill.

OTHER PRO FORMA CONSIDERATIONS

AOL Europe

America Online has a 50-50 joint venture with Bertelsmann AG ("Bertelsmann") called AOL Europe, which provides online services in several European countries. In March 2000, America Online and Bertelsmann announced a restructuring of AOL Europe in which America Online may be required to purchase Bertelsmann's 50% interest in AOL Europe for consideration ranging from $6.75 billion to $8.25 billion pursuant to certain put and call arrangements between the parties, as described more fully in America Online's Annual Report on Form 10-K for the year ended June 30, 2000. Should America Online acquire this interest, the purchase price will be payable, at America Online's option, in cash, stock or a combination of cash and stock.

The operations of AOL Europe are not material to AOL Time Warner's pro forma revenues and net loss. Accordingly, the primary financial impact of this potential acquisition is expected to be (i) incremental noncash amortization charges of $1-1.5 billion per year relating to intangible assets to be recognized in connection with the purchase price allocation and (ii) incremental financing costs and/or share dilution depending upon the ultimate purchase price and form of consideration.

Revenue Classification Changes

In December 1999, the Securities and Exchange Commission issued Staff Accounting Bulletin No. 101, "Revenue Recognition in Financial Statements" ("SAB 101"), which, as amended, was effective for AOL Time Warner in the fourth quarter of 2000. SAB 101 clarifies certain existing accounting principles for the timing of revenue recognition and the classification of revenues in financial statements. While AOL Time Warner's existing revenue recognition policies are consistent with the provisions of SAB 101, the new rules will result in some reclassifications between revenues and costs. As such, the accompanying pro forma consolidated condensed financial statements also have been adjusted to reflect the anticipated effect of AOL Time Warner adopting SAB 101 in the fourth quarter of 2000. This effect consists of a reduction of both revenues and costs in equal amounts.

Edgar Filing: AOL TIME WARNER INC - Form 8-K/A

Stock-Based Compensation

AOL Time Warner will account for its stock option plans in accordance with APB Opinion No. 25, Accounting for Stock Issued to Employees ("APB 25") and FASB Interpretation No. 44, Accounting for Certain Transactions Involving Stock Compensation ("FIN 44").

FIN 44 requires the intrinsic value of the unvested awards at the merger consummation date to be allocated to deferred compensation and recognized as noncash compensation cost over the remaining future vesting period. Because the ultimate amount to be allocated to deferred compensation will be based on the stock price of America Online common stock and the number of Time Warner's unvested employee stock options and restricted stock awards on the merger consummation date, AOL Time Warner's pro forma net loss is subject to changes in America Online's stock price until the merger consummation date. The accompanying pro forma consolidated condensed statements of operations base the deferred compensation charge on the $53.65 stock price of America Online as of September 30, 2000, the date of the pro forma consolidated condensed balance sheet. Since the closing price of America Online's stock on January 11, 2001, the date that the merger closed, was $47.23, there will be a $1.6 million reduction in noncash compensation costs per year ($960 thousand after-tax) compared to that included herein, which will decrease the pro forma net loss of AOL Time Warner.

AOL TIME WARNER INC.
 NOTES TO THE PRO FORMA CONSOLIDATED CONDENSED BALANCE SHEET
 (UNAUDITED)

- (a) Reflects the historical financial position of America Online at September 30, 2000, as reported in AOL Time Warner's Current Report on Form 8-K dated January 18, 2001.
- (b) Reflects the historical financial position of Time Warner at September 30, 2000.
- (c) Pro forma adjustments to record the merger as of September 30, 2000 reflect:

Edgar Filing: AOL TIME WARNER INC - Form 8-K/A

- o an increase in equity of $134.687 billion relating to the issuance of 1.988 billion shares of AOL Time Warner common stock (including the issuance of 171.2 million shares relating to the conversion of 114.1 million outstanding shares of Time Warner's Series LMCN-V common stock into an identical class of common stock of AOL Time Warner Series LMCN-V common stock), $0.01 par value per share, in exchange for approximately 1.325 billion outstanding shares of Time Warner common stock, based on an exchange ratio of 1.5 to 1. The AOL Time Warner common stock to be issued was valued based on a price per share of $67.75, which is the average market price of the America Online common stock for a few days before and after the date the merger was announced;
- o an increase in equity of $1.701 billion relating to the issuance of approximately 4.018 million shares of AOL Time Warner preferred stock, $0.10 par value per share, in exchange for all outstanding shares of Time Warner preferred stock. The shares of AOL Time Warner preferred stock to be issued, which will each be convertible into 6.24792 shares of AOL Time Warner common stock, were valued based on their common equivalent value of $423.30 per share;
- o an increase in equity of $10.088 billion relating to the issuance of options to purchase 191.321 million shares of AOL Time Warner common stock in exchange for all of the 127.547 million outstanding options to purchase shares of Time Warner common stock, based on a weighted-average fair value of $52.73 for all options. The fair value of the options was determined using the Black-Scholes option-pricing model and was based on the following weighted-average assumptions: expected volatility--46.3%; expected lives--5 years; a risk-free interest rate--6.46%; and expected dividend yield--0%;
- o an increase in equity of $81 million relating to the issuance of 1.2 million shares of AOL Time Warner restricted common stock in exchange for all 800 thousand shares of restricted common stock of Time Warner, based on the $67.75 fair value of AOL Time Warner common stock;
- o a reduction in equity of $45 million relating to a reclassification of a portion of the value of the purchase consideration resulting from the issuance of unvested AOL Time Warner stock options and restricted shares of common stock to deferred compensation, a contra-equity account. In accordance with FIN 44, the determination of deferred compensation was based on the product of the intrinsic value of these stock compensation awards and the portion of the awards that was unvested as of the merger date. The weighted-average intrinsic value of the awards was based on the difference between the $78.33 fair value of Time Warner common stock as of September 30, 2000, and the weighted-average price to employees to acquire the underlying shares of AOL Time Warner common stock. The amount of deferred compensation established in connection with the merger is comparable in amount to that recorded in Time Warner's historical balance sheet;
- o a reduction of $3.670 billion in deferred income tax liabilities and a corresponding increase in paid-in capital relating to the elimination of America Online's deferred tax valuation allowance against stock option-related tax benefits that will become realizable as a direct result of the merger;
- o a decrease in stockholders' equity of $9.823 billion relating to the elimination of Time Warner's historical shareholders' equity;

- o a decrease in other current assets of $84 million and a corresponding increase to goodwill related to the reclassification of transaction costs capitalized by America Online in connection with the acquisition of Time Warner;
- o an increase in accrued expenses of approximately $100 million and a corresponding increase to goodwill principally relating to the accrual of remaining transaction costs expected to be incurred by America Online and Time Warner, including legal and investment banking fees;
- o the elimination of approximately $25.532 billion of Time Warner's pre-existing goodwill and other intangible assets; and

- (d) Reflects the historical operating results of America Online for the three months ended September 30, 2000 (as reported in AOL Time Warner's Current Report on Form 8-K dated January 18, 2001) and the year ended June 30, 2000.
- (e) Reflects the historical operating results of Time Warner for the three months ended September 30, 2000 and the year ended June 30, 2000. In order to conform Time Warner's fiscal year-end from a calendar year basis to America Online's June 30 year-end, Time Warner's historical operating results have been derived from the combination of Time Warner's quarterly historical operating results for such periods. Finally, as described more fully in its Current Report on Form 8-K dated April 19, 2000, which is incorporated herein by reference, reclassifications have been made to Time Warner's 1999 historical operating results to conform to Time Warner's year 2000 financial statement presentation.
- (f) Certain reclassifications have been made to conform both America Online's and Time Warner's historical financial statement presentations to the combined financial statement presentation of AOL Time Warner. These adjustments primarily include reclassifications of (i) income and losses related to equity method investees from operating income to other income (expense), net, (ii) gains and losses on the sale of investments from operating income to other income (expense), net, (iii) corporate expenses to selling, general and administrative costs which reduces operating income and (iv) merger-related costs from other income (expense), net, to operating income.
- (g) Pro forma adjustments to record the merger for the three months ended September 30, 2000 and the year ended June 30, 2000 reflect:
  - o decreases of $13 million and $60 million, respectively, in depreciation expense included in cost of revenues. These adjustments consist of (i) a decrease in depreciation expense of $17 million and $69 million, respectively, relating to a write-down in the carrying value of property, plant and equipment in the amount of $345 million, which had a weighted-average useful life of 5 years and was being depreciated on a straight-line basis, (ii) an increase in depreciation expense of $2 million and $8 million, respectively, relating to a write-up in the carrying value of property, plant and equipment in the amount of $240 million, which had a weighted-average useful life of 30 years and was being depreciated on a straight-line basis and (iii) an increase in depreciation expense of $2 million and $1 million, respectively, relating to the conforming of Time Warner's depreciation policies to America Online's policies;
  - o increases of $2 million and $7 million, respectively, in selling, general and administrative expense relating to the elimination of the periodic recognition of a $60 million deferred gain on a sales-leaseback transaction which was eliminated in the purchase price allocation;
  - o increases of $8 million and $19 million, respectively in selling, general and administrative expenses relating to an increase in pension expense. These adjustments are associated with the recognition of a $150 million pension asset due to the elimination of Time Warner's previously existing unrecognized gains in its pension plans;

- o increases of $1 million and $4 million in selling, general and administrative expenses relating to an increase in rent expense. These adjustments result from the recognition of a $50 million asset due to favorable lease arrangements that have a weighted-average remaining lease term of 14 years;
- o decreases of $339 million and $1.325 billion, respectively, in amortization of goodwill and other intangible assets relating to the elimination of Time Warner's amortization of pre-existing goodwill and other intangible assets;

 (UNAUDITED)

- o increases of $1.732 billion and $6.929 billion, respectively, in amortization of $174.485 billion of goodwill and other intangible assets, as set forth below. These amounts are being amortized on a straight-line basis:

	WEIGHTED- AVERAGE USEFUL LIFE	PURCHASE PRICE ALLOCATION	THR SEP ---

- o decreases of $88 million and $350 million, respectively, in other income (expense), net, relating to the amortization of the $4.100 billion excess of the fair value of investments accounted for under the equity method of accounting over their respective book value. The excess cost of these investments is being amortized on a straight-line basis over a weighted-average life of approximately 11.7 years; and

- o increases of $145 million and $577 million, respectively, in income tax benefits, provided at a 40% tax rate, on the aggregate pro forma reduction in pretax income before goodwill amortization.

In addition, pro forma net income (loss) per common share has been adjusted to reflect the issuance of additional shares of AOL Time Warner common stock in the merger, based on Time Warner's historical weighted-average shares outstanding for the periods presented and an exchange ratio of 1.5 to 1. Because the effect of stock options and other convertible securities would be antidilutive to AOL Time Warner, dilutive per share amounts on a pro forma basis are the same as basic per share amounts.

- (h) Pro forma adjustments reflect decreases in revenues and costs of $89 million for the three months ended September 30, 2000 and $306 million for the year ended June 30, 2000 resulting from applying the provisions of SAB 101. The new rules result in some reclassifications between revenues and costs in equal amounts.
- (i) EBITDA consists of operating income (loss) before depreciation and amortization. AOL Time Warner considers EBITDA an important indicator of the operational strength and performance of its businesses, including the ability to provide cash flows to service debt and fund capital expenditures. EBITDA, however, should not be considered an alternative to operating or net income as an indicator of the performance of AOL Time Warner, or as an alternative to cash flows from operating activities as a measure of liquidity, in each case determined in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles. This definition of EBITDA may not be comparable to similarly titled measures reported by other companies.
