In the action entitled Benner v. Becton Dickinson et al. (Case No. 99

Edgar Filing: BECTON DICKINSON & CO - Form 8-K

Civ.4798(WHP)), the United States District Court for the Southern District of New York issued an order on March 28, 2003 in favor of the Company, denying plaintiffs' motion for class certification. Of the eleven class action lawsuits which have been filed against the Company on behalf of healthcare workers who have allegedly sustained accidental needlesticks but have not been infected with any disease, class certification has now been denied in three states (Texas, Illinois, and New York), and five other cases have either been voluntarily withdrawn (Florida and Alabama), or dismissed by the court on the Company's motion (California, Pennsylvania, and New Jersey). The Company will continue to defend the three remaining matters vigorously (Ohio, Oklahoma and South Carolina).
