CVRD sells its stake in Siderar

Rio de Janeiro, December 28, 2006 Companhia Vale do Rio Doce (CVRD) informs that it entered into a stock sale and purchase agreement with Ternium S.A. (Ternium) to sell its stake in Siderar-S.A.I.C. (Siderar), steel company located in Argentina. According to the contract terms, Ternium, the controlling group of Siderar, will acquire for US$ 107.5 million the totality of Siderar shares held by CVRD, which represents 4.85% of its total capital.

The settled sales price was ARS$ 19.57 per Siderar share, equivalent to US$ 6.376 per share.

The sale of its stake in Siderar is aligned with CVRD's strategy for steel holdings, which prioritizes the reallocation of its resources to new or expansion projects that increase the demand for the Company's iron ore and pellets. Moreover, this divestiture will provide more funds for payment of the US$ 14.6 billion bridge loan taken to finance the Inco Limited (Inco) acquisition.

This press release may contain statements that express management's expectations about future events or results rather than historical facts. These forward-looking statements involve risks and uncertainties that could cause actual results to differ materially from those projected in forward-looking statements, and CVRD cannot give assurance that such statements will prove correct. These risks and uncertainties include factors: relating to the Brazilian and Canadian economy and securities markets, which exhibit volatility and can be adversely affected by developments in other countries; relating to the iron ore and nickel business and its dependence on the global steel industry, which is cyclical in nature; and relating to the highly competitive industries in which CVRD operates. For additional information on factors that could cause CVRD's actual results to differ from expectations reflected in forward-looking statements, please see CVRD's reports filed with the Brazilian Comissão de Valores Mobiliários and the U.S. Securities and Exchange Commission.
