Guarantees of Second Priority Senior Secured Floating Rate Notes Due 2016

This prospectus relates to the resale from time to time by the Selling Securityholders identified in this prospectus of (i) up to 2,042,465 shares of our common stock and (ii) up to $139,718,000 aggregate principal amount of our Second Priority Senior Secured Floating Rate Notes due 2016 (the 2016 notes).

The 2016 notes bear interest at the rate of 3-month LIBOR (subject to a 3.00% floor) plus 10.0% per year, accruing from the date of original issuance and payable quarterly in arrears on each February 15, May 15, August 15 and November 15, beginning February 15, 2010. The 2016 notes will mature on February 15, 2016.

The 2016 notes are our senior secured obligations and will rank equally in right of payment with all of our existing and future senior debt. The 2016 notes will be effectively junior in right of payment to any of our indebtedness that is secured by first priority liens on the assets securing the 2016 notes, including our senior secured revolving credit facility, or secured by assets not securing the 2016 notes, and will be junior in right of payment to all indebtedness of any future non-guarantor subsidiaries of Builders FirstSource, Inc. The 2016 notes are jointly and severally guaranteed by all of our subsidiaries. The subsidiary guarantees are the senior secured obligations of our subsidiary guarantors and will rank equal in right of payment with all of our subsidiary guarantors existing and future senior debt, but they will rank effectively junior in right of payment to the subsidiary guarantees of our senior secured revolving credit facility. The subsidiary guarantees are full and unconditional.

Each of Builders FirstSource Holdings, Inc., Builders FirstSource Northeast Group, LLC, Builders FirstSource Texas GenPar, LLC, Builders FirstSource MBS, LLC, their respective subsidiaries and our future significant restricted subsidiaries will jointly and severally guarantee the 2016 notes. Under certain circumstances, the guarantees may be released.

We have the right at any time to redeem some or all of the 2016 notes. If we experience a change of control, we may be required to offer to repurchase the 2016 notes at a purchase price equal to 101% of the principal amount, plus accrued and unpaid interest, if any, to the repurchase date.

The offered securities covered by this prospectus were issued in transactions exempt from the registration requirements of the Securities Act of 1933, as amended. Each Selling Securityholder irrevocably elected the amount of 2016 notes and common stock it would receive in the debt exchange transaction described in more detail in Summary The Recapitalization Transactions on or before December 30, 2009, subject to proration based upon the results of the Company's rights offering. The offered securities are being registered to permit the Selling Securityholders to sell the offered securities from time to time. The Selling Securityholders may offer and sell their common stock and 2016 notes described above in public or private transactions, or both. See Plan of Distribution for a more complete description of the ways in which the securities may be sold. This summary may not contain all of the information that you should consider before deciding whether or not you should purchase the securities offered hereunder. You should read the entire prospectus carefully, including the section entitled Risk Factors beginning on page 6 of this prospectus and the section entitled Risk Factors in our Annual Report on Form 10-K for the year ended December 31, 2008, which we refer to as our 2008 10-K, and all other information included or incorporated herein by reference in this prospectus in its entirety before you decide whether to purchase our securities.

Builders FirstSource, Inc.

Builders FirstSource, Inc. is a leading supplier and manufacturer of structural and related building products for residential new construction. We have operations principally in the southern and eastern United States with 55 distribution centers and 51 manufacturing facilities, many of which are located on the same premises as our distribution centers. We have successfully acquired and integrated 27 companies since our formation and are currently managed as three regional operating groups Atlantic, Southeast and Central with centralized financial and operational oversight. We compete in the professional segment of the U.S. residential new construction building products supply market. Because of the predominance of smaller privately owned companies and the overall size and diversity of the target customer market, the professional segment remains fragmented.

We serve a highly diversified customer base, ranging from production homebuilders to small custom homebuilders. For the year ended December 31, 2008 and the nine months ended September 30, 2009, our top 10 customers accounted for approximately 19.0% and 21.3% of sales, respectively. We believe we have a diverse geographical footprint, in 32 markets in 9 states. We offer an integrated solution to our customers providing manufacturing, supply, and installation of a full range of structural and related building products. We group our building products and services into five product categories: prefabricated components, windows and doors, lumber and lumber sheet goods, millwork, and other building products and services. In addition to our full range of construction services, we offer a comprehensive offering of products that includes approximately 60,000 stock keeping units.

We are incorporated under the laws of the State of Delaware. Our principal executive offices are located at 2001 Bryan Street, Suite 1600, Dallas, Texas 75201, and our telephone number is (214) 880-3500. Our website is www.bldr.com. The information on our website does not constitute part of this prospectus and should not be relied upon in connection with making any investment in our securities.

Recapitalization Transactions

On October 23, 2009, we announced a series of transactions (the Recapitalization Transactions) having the following components:

A rights offering to our existing stockholders to raise up to $205 million. In the rights offering, which expired on January 14, 2010, we distributed to stockholders of record as of the close of business on December 14, 2009, subscription rights exercisable for up to an aggregate of 58,571,428 shares of our common stock, which entitled the holder of each whole subscription right to purchase one share of common stock at a subscription price of $3.50 per share. Stockholders, other than JLL Partners Fund V, L.P. (JLL) and Warburg Pincus Private Equity IX, L.P. (Warburg Pincus), exercised rights for 25,744,898 shares of our common stock. JLL and Warburg Pincus each exercised rights for 12,857,143 shares of our common stock, with the remaining 7,112,244 shares available for issuance in the debt exchange described below (of which 2,042,465 shares were issued to the Selling Securityholders and are being offered by the Selling Securityholders hereby).

A debt exchange in which certain accredited holders of our outstanding Second Priority Senior Secured Floating Rate Notes due 2012 (2012 notes) exchanged, at par, in transactions exempt from registration under the Securities Act of 1933, as amended (the Securities Act), their outstanding 2012 notes for (i) up to $145.0 million aggregate principal amount of our 2016 notes, (ii) up to $130.0 million in cash from the proceeds of the rights offering, or (iii) a combination of cash and 2016 notes, and, (iv) to the extent the rights offering was not fully subscribed, shares of our common stock. For each $1,000

aggregate principal amount of 2012 notes validly submitted and accepted for exchange in the debt exchange, a noteholder received, at the noteholder's election, (a) $1,000 in principal amount of the 2016 notes, or (b) $1,000 in cash, or (c) a combination of cash and 2016 notes, subject to proration and certain adjustments, including the receipt of our common stock instead of cash. The Selling Securityholders made irrevocable elections related to the amount and kind of such securities the Selling Securityholders would receive in exchange for their 2012 notes on or before December 30, 2009, subject to proration based upon the results of the Company's rights offering. In the debt exchange, noteholders other than JLL and Warburg Pincus received an aggregate of $139,718,000 principal amount of 2016 notes and 2,042,465 shares of our common stock, offers and sales of which are registered pursuant to this registration statement.

A solicitation of consents to amend the indenture under which the 2012 notes were issued to eliminate substantially all of the restrictive covenants, certain conditions to defeasance, and certain events of default and to release the liens on the collateral securing the 2012 notes. Holders of approximately 97.0% of the aggregate principal amount of the 2012 notes, excluding JLL and Warburg Pincus, have delivered consents to the proposed amendments to the indenture governing the 2012 notes.

In connection with the Recapitalization Transactions, on October 23, 2009, we entered into a Support Agreement (as amended, the Support Agreement) with certain accredited holders of approximately 64.0% of the aggregate principal amount of our outstanding 2012 notes pursuant to which such holders agreed to exchange their 2012 notes in the debt exchange and to consent to the proposed amendments to the indenture governing the 2012 notes. The Selling Securityholders made irrevocable elections related to the amount and kind of such securities the Selling Securityholders would receive in exchange for their 2012 notes on or before December 30, 2009, subject to proration based upon the results of the Company's rights offering. In the debt exchange, noteholders other than JLL and Warburg Pincus received an aggregate of $139,718,000 principal amount of 2016 notes and 2,042,465 shares of our common stock, offers and sales of which are registered pursuant to this registration statement. Pursuant to the Support Agreement, we agreed to file a registration statement with the United States Securities and Exchange Commission (the SEC) to register for resale the shares of common stock and the 2016 notes received by the Selling Securityholders in the debt exchange. The securities exchanged for the 2012 notes by the Selling Securityholders pursuant to the Support Agreement are not freely tradable in the public market until this registration statement has been declared effective by the SEC, at which time the Selling Securityholders may, but are not required to, freely sell the shares of common stock and 2016 notes. This prospectus is a part of that registration statement.

As part of the Recapitalization Transactions, on October 23, 2009, we entered into an investment agreement (as amended, the Investment Agreement) with JLL and Warburg Pincus, who collectively beneficially owned approximately 50% of our common stock before giving effect to the Recapitalization Transactions, under which JLL and Warburg Pincus severally agreed to purchase from us, at the rights offering subscription price, unsubscribed shares of our common stock such that gross proceeds of the rights offering would be no less than $75.0 million. In addition, each of JLL and Warburg Pincus agreed (i) to exchange up to $48.909 million aggregate principal amount of 2012 notes indirectly held by it in the debt exchange and (ii) to the extent gross proceeds of the rights offering were less than $205.0 million, to exchange such 2012 notes for shares of our common stock at an exchange price equal to the rights offering subscription price, subject to proration from the participation of other holders of 2012 notes who submitted for exchange their 2012 notes for shares of our common stock not subscribed for through the exercise of rights in the rights offering. As stockholders of the Company as of the record date for the rights offering, JLL and Warburg Pincus had the right to subscribe for and purchase shares of our common stock under the basic subscription privilege, although they did not have the right to participate in the over-subscription privilege. JLL and Warburg Pincus each exercised rights to acquire 12,857,143 shares. The acquisition of shares by JLL and Warburg Pincus was effected in a transaction exempt from the registration requirements of the Securities Act of 1933, as amended. None of the securities owned by JLL or Warburg Pincus is being registered pursuant to the Registration Statement of which this prospectus forms a part. For information on certain registration rights that JLL and Warburg Pincus have, see Description of Capital Stock Registration Rights.

compliance with certain conditions. No appraisal of any collateral has been prepared by the Company or on its behalf. The value of the collateral at any time will depend on market and other economic conditions, including the availability of suitable buyers for the collateral. Certain Covenants

The 2016 notes Indenture contains certain covenants that restrict the Company's ability, and the ability of its restricted subsidiaries, to, among other things:

pay dividends or make other distributions on its capital stock or repurchase, repay or redeem its capital stock;

incur additional indebtedness;

incur liens;

enter into certain types of transactions with affiliates;

create restrictions on the payment of dividends or other amounts to it by its restricted subsidiaries;

sell all or substantially all its assets or merge with or into other companies; and

*Investing in our securities involves a high degree of risk. You should carefully consider the specific risks described below, the risks described in our 2008 10-K, which are incorporated herein by reference, and any risks described in our other filings with the SEC incorporated herein by reference, before making an investment decision. See the section of this prospectus entitled Where You Can Find More Information. Any of the risks we describe below or in the information incorporated herein by reference could cause our business, financial condition, or operating results to suffer. The market price of our common stock could decline if one or more of these risks and uncertainties develop into actual events. You could lose all or part of your investment. Some of the statements in this section of the prospectus are forward-looking statements. For more information about forward-looking statements, please see the section of this prospectus entitled Forward-Looking Statements.*

Risks Related to the 2016 Notes and the Collateral

The Company's substantial indebtedness could affect its cash flows and flexibility.

The Company currently has a substantial amount of outstanding indebtedness. This level of indebtedness could make it difficult for the Company to make interest payments on, or to repurchase, the 2016 notes. In addition, the Company may borrow additional money that could be secured ahead of the 2016 notes. See Description of 2016 Notes. The Company's subsidiaries also may incur additional debt that would be structurally senior to the 2016 notes. For more information about the Company's indebtedness after the Recapitalization Transactions, see Risks Related to the Company and the Company's Business and Description of 2016 Notes.

The Company's substantial indebtedness could have important consequences to holders of 2016 notes. For example, it could:

- require the Company to dedicate a substantial portion of its cash flow from operations to payments on its indebtedness, thereby reducing the availability of its cash flow for other general corporate purposes;

- limit the Company's ability to fund future working capital, capital expenditures, acquisitions, investments, restructurings and other general corporate requirements; and

- limit the Company's flexibility in responding to changes in its business and the industry in which it operates.

In order to pay the principal amount of the 2016 notes, the Company may be required to refinance its indebtedness, sell assets or operations, sell its equity securities or seek other capital contributions.

In order to pay the principal amount of the 2016 notes upon the occurrence of an event of default or in the event the Company's cash flows from operations are insufficient to allow it to pay the principal amount of the 2016 notes at maturity, the Company may be required to refinance its indebtedness, sell assets or operations, sell its equity securities or seek other capital contributions. Under the terms of our senior secured revolving credit facility and the indenture governing the 2016 notes (the 2016 notes Indenture), the Company is limited in its ability to refinance its indebtedness and sell assets to finance its operations. For example, upon a disposition of certain assets (including the capital stock of its subsidiaries) the Company will be required to offer to repurchase the 2016 notes with the proceeds of any such disposition that are not used to repay indebtedness under the Company's senior secured revolving credit facility, in permitted capital expenditures, or as otherwise permitted under the 2016 notes Indenture. See Description of 2016 Notes. The Company cannot assure you that it would be able to pay the principal amount of the 2016 notes if it took any of the above actions or that the 2016 notes Indenture or any of the Company's other debt instruments or the debt instruments of its subsidiaries then in effect would permit the Company to take any of the above actions. See Description of 2016 Notes.

Table of ContentsThe 2016 notes and the related guarantees are effectively subordinated to other indebtedness.

The 2016 notes effectively rank junior to all amounts owed under our senior secured revolving credit facility and to other indebtedness permitted to be incurred on a first priority basis under the 2016 notes Indenture, to the extent of the value of the collateral, because such senior priority indebtedness lenders will have a first-priority lien on the collateral pledged for the benefit of the 2016 notes. As a result, the lenders under the senior secured revolving credit facility and any other priority lien debt will be paid in full from the proceeds of the collateral pledged to them before holders of 2016 notes are paid from any remaining proceeds from the second lien collateral. In addition, subject to the restrictions contained in the 2016 notes Indenture, we may incur additional debt that is secured by first priority liens on the collateral or by liens on assets that are not pledged to the holders of the 2016 notes, all of which would effectively rank senior to the 2016 notes to the extent of the value of the assets securing such indebtedness.

If we default on our obligations to pay our indebtedness, we may not be able to make payments on the 2016 notes.

Any default under the agreements governing our indebtedness, including a default under our senior secured revolving credit facility that is not waived by the required lenders under the senior secured revolving credit facility, and the remedies sought by the holders of such indebtedness could preclude us from paying principal, premium, and interest on the 2016 notes and substantially decrease the market value of the 2016 notes. If we are unable to generate sufficient cash flow and are otherwise unable to obtain funds necessary to meet required payments of principal, premium, and interest on our indebtedness, or if we otherwise fail to comply with the various covenants, including financial and operating covenants, in the instruments governing our indebtedness (including covenants in the credit agreement governing our senior secured revolving credit facility and the 2016 notes Indenture), we could be in default under the terms of the agreements governing such indebtedness, including our senior secured revolving credit facility and the 2016 notes Indenture. In the event of such default, the holders of such indebtedness could elect to declare all the funds borrowed thereunder to be due and payable, together with accrued and unpaid interest, the lenders under the credit agreement that governs our senior secured revolving credit facility could elect to terminate their commitments thereunder, cease making further loans, and institute foreclosure proceedings against our assets that are pledged as collateral to support our obligations under the credit agreement governing our senior secured revolving credit facility, and we could be forced into bankruptcy or liquidation. In addition, some of our debt instruments, including those governing our senior secured revolving credit facility and our 2016 notes, contain cross-default provisions that provide that, even if we default on only one such debt instrument, all our debt under such instruments would become immediately due and payable. In such event, it is unlikely that we would be able to satisfy our obligations under all of such accelerated indebtedness, including the 2016 notes, simultaneously. If our operating performance declines, we may in the future need to obtain waivers from the required lenders under our senior secured credit facility to avoid being in default. If we breach our covenants under the credit agreement governing our senior secured revolving credit facility and seek a waiver, we may not be able to obtain a waiver from the required lenders thereunder. If this occurs, we would be in default under our credit agreement, the lenders could exercise their rights, as described above, and we could be forced into bankruptcy or liquidation. As of September 30, 2009, we had approximately $295.0 million of funded indebtedness outstanding, including $20.0 million of outstanding secured indebtedness under our senior secured revolving credit facility, secured by a first-priority lien, and other long-term debt of $4.1 million.

We may be unable to purchase the 2016 notes upon a change of control.

Upon the occurrence of certain change of control events, you may require us to purchase your 2016 notes at 101% of their principal amount, plus accrued and unpaid interest, if any. The terms of our senior secured revolving credit facility will limit our ability to purchase the 2016 notes in those circumstances. Any of our future debt agreements may contain similar restrictions and provisions. Accordingly, we may not be able to satisfy our obligations to purchase your 2016 notes unless we are able to refinance or obtain waivers under the senior secured revolving credit facility and other indebtedness with similar restrictions. In addition, we cannot assure you that we will have the financial resources to purchase your 2016 notes, particularly if that change of control event triggers a similar repurchase requirement for, or results in the acceleration of, other indebtedness. Our senior secured revolving credit facility provides that certain change of control events will constitute a default and could result in the acceleration of our indebtedness thereunder.

Table of Contents

If there is a default, proceeds from sales of the collateral will be applied first to satisfy amounts owed under our senior secured revolving credit facility, and the value of the collateral may not be sufficient to repay the holders of the 2016 notes.

We and each guarantor will secure our obligations under the 2016 notes and related guarantees by a second-priority lien on certain assets that are also pledged on a first priority basis to the lenders under our senior secured revolving credit facility and any other indebtedness that may be issued on a first-priority basis as permitted under the 2016 notes Indenture. As a result, upon any foreclosure on the collateral, proceeds will be applied first to repay amounts owed under our senior secured revolving credit facility and any other priority lien debt and only then to satisfy amounts owed to holders of the 2016 notes. The value of the 2016 notes in the event of a liquidation will depend on market and economic conditions, the availability of buyers, and similar factors. You should not rely upon the book value of the assets underlying the collateral as a measure of realizable value for such assets. By its nature, some or all the collateral may be illiquid and may have no readily ascertainable market value. Likewise, there is no assurance that the assets underlying the collateral will be saleable or, if saleable, that there will not be substantial delays in its liquidation. Accordingly, there can be no assurance that the proceeds of any sale of the collateral following any acceleration of the maturity of the 2016 notes would be sufficient to satisfy, or would not be substantially less than, amounts due on the 2016 notes after satisfying the obligations secured by the first priority liens.

If the proceeds of any sale of the assets underlying the collateral are insufficient to repay all amounts due on the 2016 notes, the holders of the 2016 notes (to the extent the 2016 notes are not repaid from the proceeds of the sale of the collateral) would have only an unsecured claim against our remaining assets, which claim will rank equal in priority to the unsecured claims of any unsatisfied portion of the obligations secured by the first-priority liens and our other unsecured senior indebtedness.

The liens on the collateral will be released if certain conditions are met.

The liens on the collateral will be released if the lenders under the senior secured revolving credit facility release their security interest in such collateral (so long as it is a release of less than all or substantially all of the collateral). In addition, with the consent of at least two thirds or more of the holders of outstanding 2016 notes, the liens on the collateral may be released. In the event that the liens are released, the 2016 notes will essentially become our unsecured obligations, and holders of the 2016 notes will not have recourse to any of our or our subsidiaries' assets, should there be any default on the 2016 notes or the guarantees.

The rights of holders of 2016 notes in the collateral may be adversely affected by the failure to perfect security interests in certain collateral.

The security interest in the collateral securing the 2016 notes includes assets, both tangible and intangible, whether now owned or acquired or arising in the future. There can be no assurance that the trustee or the collateral agent under the 2016 notes Indenture will monitor, or that we will inform the trustee or the collateral trustee of, the future acquisition of property and rights that constitute collateral and that the necessary action will be taken to properly perfect the security interest in such after-acquired property.

The rights of holders of 2016 notes to the collateral are governed, and limited, by the collateral trust agreement.

The rights of holders of 2016 notes to the collateral are governed by the collateral trust agreement. The holders of indebtedness under our senior secured revolving credit facility, which is secured on a first-priority basis, control certain matters related to the collateral securing such indebtedness and the 2016 notes pursuant to the terms of the collateral trust agreement. Under the collateral trust agreement, at any time that the indebtedness secured on a first-priority basis remains outstanding, many actions that may be taken in respect of the collateral, including the ability to commence enforcement proceedings against the collateral and to control the conduct of such proceedings, and the approval of amendments to, releases of collateral from the lien of, and waivers of past defaults under, the collateral documents, will be at the direction of the holders of such indebtedness, and the collateral agent on behalf of the holders of the 2016 notes may not have the ability to control or direct such actions, even if the rights of the holders of the 2016 notes are adversely affected.

Table of Contents

Certain defenses available to us and any of the guarantors may prevent the enforcement of the guarantees.

Enforcement of a guarantee against any guarantor would be subject to certain defenses available to guarantors generally and would also be subject to certain defenses available to us regarding enforcement of the 2016 notes, including, without limitation, the right to force the trustee under the 2016 notes Indenture to exercise its remedies prior to commencement of any action on the guarantee. All guarantors will waive, with respect to the 2016 notes, all such defenses to the extent they may legally do so. See Description of 2016 Notes The 2016 Notes and the Note Guarantees. If, however, a court voided any guarantee or held the 2016 notes or the guarantees unenforceable against us or any of the guarantors under applicable law, you would cease to have any claim against us or in respect of such guarantee, as the case may be.

Fraudulent conveyance and similar laws may adversely affect the validity and enforceability of the guarantees of the 2016 notes.

Each of the guarantor's obligations under its respective guarantee of the 2016 notes could be subject to avoidance or subordination under various state and federal fraudulent transfer laws or fraudulent conveyance laws in the event that a court were to find that (i) the guarantor in question received less than reasonably equivalent value or fair consideration in exchange for its guarantee and (ii) at the time of the issuance of its guarantee, such guarantor (A) was insolvent or was rendered insolvent as a result of the issuance of its guarantee, (B) was engaged, or was about to engage, in a business or transaction for which the property remaining with it was unreasonably small capital or for which its unencumbered assets constituted unreasonably small capital, or (C) intended to incur, or believed that it would incur, debts beyond its ability to pay as they mature. Furthermore, a court could avoid a guarantor's obligations under its guarantee without regard to solvency, capitalization, and other conditions described in clauses (ii)(A), (B), and (C) above if it finds that the obligations created by the guarantee were incurred with actual intent to hinder, delay, or defraud existing or future creditors.

The determination of insolvency for purposes of fraudulent transfer laws varies somewhat depending upon the law of the jurisdiction being applied. Generally, however, an entity is insolvent if (i) the sum of its debts (including unliquidated or contingent debts) is greater than all of its property, at a fair valuation, and (ii) the present fair saleable value of its assets is less than the amount that will be required to pay its probable liability on its existing debts as they become absolute and matured. Additionally, under many state fraudulent transfer laws, an entity is presumed to be insolvent if it is generally not paying its debts as they become due.

If the obligations under any of the guarantees were to be avoided, there can be no assurance that the recoveries under any remaining guarantees that are not avoided under the fraudulent transfer laws would be sufficient to pay the outstanding amounts due and owing under the 2016 notes. Moreover, if the guarantees are avoided under fraudulent transfer laws, the liens and security interests granted as security for the guarantees would also be avoided.

If a court voided any guarantee as a result of a fraudulent transfer laws, or held it unenforceable for any other reason, you would cease to have any claim in respect of such guarantee and would be the creditor of us and the remaining guarantors, and if a court subordinated any guarantee to other obligations of the guarantor, your ability to recover on the guarantee would be adversely affected.

Insolvency laws could limit your ability to enforce your rights under the 2016 notes and the guarantees or realize upon the collateral.

Any insolvency proceedings with regard to us or any guarantor would most likely be based on and governed by the insolvency laws of the jurisdiction under which the relevant entity is organized. As a result, in the event of insolvency with regard to any of these entities, the claims of holders of the 2016 notes against us or a guarantor may be subject to the insolvency laws of its jurisdiction of organization. The provisions of such insolvency laws differ substantially from each other including with regard to rights of creditors, priority claims, and procedure and may contain provisions that are unfavorable to holders of 2016 notes. In addition, there can be no assurance as to how the insolvency laws of these jurisdictions will be applied in insolvency proceedings relating to several jurisdictions.

Table of Contents

The lenders under our senior secured revolving credit facility have first-ranking security over substantially all of the tangible and intangible assets of us and the guarantors. In some jurisdictions, after the occurrence of, among other things, an insolvency event, secured lenders have additional rights with respect to insolvency proceedings, including among other things, the right to direct the disposition of any security. Under applicable federal bankruptcy laws, however, secured creditors are prohibited from repossessing their security from a debtor in a bankruptcy case, or from disposing of security repossessed from such a debtor, without the approval of the bankruptcy court. Moreover, applicable federal bankruptcy laws generally permit the debtor to continue to retain collateral even though the debtor is in default under the applicable debt instruments, provided generally that the secured creditor is given adequate protection. The meaning of the term adequate protection may vary according to the circumstances, but it is intended in general to protect the value of the secured creditor's interest in the collateral at the commencement of the bankruptcy case and may include cash payments or the granting of additional security, if and at such times as the presiding court in its discretion determines, for any diminution in the value of the collateral as a result of the stay of repossession or disposition of the collateral during the pendency of the bankruptcy case. In view of the lack of a precise definition of the term adequate protection and the broad discretionary powers of a U.S. bankruptcy court, we cannot predict whether payments under the 2016 notes would be made following commencement of and during a bankruptcy case, whether or when the trustee under the 2016 notes Indenture for the 2016 notes could foreclose upon or sell the collateral, or whether or to what extent holders of 2016 notes would be compensated for any delay in payment or loss of value of the collateral through the provision of adequate protection. Your ability to realize claims against us with respect to your 2016 notes, if we or any guarantor becomes insolvent, may be limited.

Under applicable insolvency laws, our or any guarantor's liabilities in respect of the 2016 notes may, in the event of insolvency or similar proceeding, also rank junior to some of our or any guarantor's debts that are entitled to priority under such law of such jurisdiction. For example, debts entitled to priority may include (a) amounts owed in respect of occupational pension schemes, (b) certain amounts owed to employees, (c) amounts owed to governmental agencies, and (d) expenses of an insolvency practitioner. In addition, in some jurisdictions, the examiner, administrator, or similar party may be legally required to consider the interests of third parties (including, for example, employees) in connection with the proceedings.

If a trading market for the 2016 notes does not develop, it may be difficult for you to sell the 2016 notes if you wish to liquidate your investment.

There is no established trading market for the 2016 notes. A liquid trading market may not develop for the 2016 notes, which would make it difficult to trade the 2016 notes and would adversely affect the price you would be able to receive for the 2016 notes should you be able to trade them. The Company does not intend to apply to list the 2016 notes on any securities exchange or to have the 2016 notes quoted on any automated quotation system.

The liquidity of any trading market and the market price for the 2016 notes will depend on, among other things: (1) the number of holders of the 2016 notes; (2) the Company's performance; (3) the market for securities that are similar to the 2016 notes; and (4) the interest of securities dealers in making a market in the 2016 notes. Even if a market for the 2016 notes does develop, the 2016 notes may trade at a discount, depending on the factors described above.

If no active trading market develops for the 2016 notes, you may not be able to resell the 2016 notes at their fair market value or at all. Future trading prices of 2016 notes will depend on many factors, including, among other things, prevailing interest rates, the Company's operating results and the market for similar securities.

Risks Related to the Common Stock

The price of the Company's common stock is volatile and may decline.

The market price of our common stock historically has experienced and may continue to experience significant price fluctuations similar to those experienced by the broader stock market in recent years. In addition, the price of our common stock may fluctuate significantly in response to various factors, including:

Table of Contents

the Recapitalization Transactions, which involved the issuance of an additional 58,571,428 shares of common stock;

actual or anticipated fluctuations in its results of operations;

announcements by the Company or its competitors of significant business developments, changes in customer relationships, acquisitions, or expansion plans;

changes in the prices of products the Company sells;

the Company's involvement in litigation, including litigation related to the Recapitalization Transactions;

the Company's sale of common stock or other securities in the future;

market conditions in the Company's industry;

changes in key personnel;

changes in market valuation or earnings of the Company's competitors;

the trading volume of the Company's common stock;

changes in the estimation of the future size and growth rate of the Company's markets; and general economic and market conditions.

Broad market and industry factors may materially harm the market price of our common stock, regardless of our operating performance. In the past, following periods of volatility in the market price of a company's securities, securities class action litigation has often been instituted against that company. If we were involved in any similar litigation we could incur substantial costs and our management's attention and resources could be diverted, which could adversely affect our financial condition, results of operations and cash flows. As a result, it may be difficult for you to resell your shares of common stock in the future.

Significant sales of our common stock, or the perception that significant sales may occur in the future, could adversely affect the market price of our common stock.

The sale of substantial amounts of our common stock could adversely affect the price of our common stock. Sales of substantial amounts of our common stock in the public market, and the availability of shares for future sale, including up to 58,571,428 shares of our common stock issued in the Recapitalization Transactions, and 2,283,561 shares of our common stock issuable as of January 14, 2010, upon exercise of outstanding options to acquire shares of our common stock under the Company's stock incentive plans, including the 2007 Incentive Plan, as it may be amended, could adversely affect the prevailing market price of our common stock and could cause the market price of our common stock to remain low for a substantial time. Additional options may also be granted under the Company's incentive plans, including the Company's 2007 Incentive Plan, as it may be amended. We cannot foresee the effect of such potential sales on the market, but it is possible that if a significant percentage of such available shares were attempted to be sold within a short period of time, the market for our shares of common stock would be adversely affected. It is also unclear whether or not the market for our common stock could absorb a large number of attempted sales in a short period of time, regardless of the price at which they might be offered. Even if a substantial number of sales do not occur within a short period of time, the mere existence of this market overhang could have a negative effect on the market for our common stock and our ability to raise additional capital.

Risks Related to the Company and the Company's Business

The industry in which we operate is dependent upon the homebuilding industry, the economy, the credit markets, and other important factors.

The building products industry is highly dependent on new home construction, which in turn is dependent upon a number of factors, including interest rates, consumer confidence, foreclosure rates, and the health of the economy and mortgage markets. Unfavorable changes in demographics, credit markets, consumer confidence, housing affordability, or inventory levels, or weakening of the national economy or of any regional or local economy in which we operate, could adversely affect consumer spending, result in decreased demand for homes, and adversely affect our business. Production of new homes may also decline because of shortages of qualified tradesmen, reliance on inadequately capitalized sub-contractors, and shortages of material. In addition, the homebuilding industry is subject to various local, state, and federal statutes, ordinances, rules, and regulations concerning zoning, building design and safety, construction, and similar matters, including regulations that impose restrictive zoning and density requirements in order to limit the number of homes that can be built within the boundaries of a particular area. Increased regulatory restrictions could limit demand for new homes and could negatively affect our sales and earnings. Because we have substantial fixed costs, relatively modest declines in our customers' production levels could continue to have a significant adverse effect on our financial condition, operating results and cash flows.

The homebuilding industry is undergoing a significant and sustained downturn. According to the U.S. Census Bureau, actual single family housing starts in the U.S. during 2008 declined 57.5% from 2006 to 2008 and declined 34.5% for the nine months ended September 30, 2009 compared to the prior year period. We believe that the market downturn is attributable to a variety of factors including: an economic recession; limited credit availability; excess home inventories; a substantial reduction in speculative home investment; a decline in consumer confidence; higher unemployment; and an industry-wide softening of demand. The downturn in the homebuilding industry has resulted in a substantial reduction in demand for our products and services, which in turn had a significant adverse effect on our business and operating results during fiscal 2007, 2008, and 2009 to date.

In addition, beginning in 2007, the mortgage markets experienced substantial disruption due to increased defaults, primarily as a result of credit quality deterioration. The disruption has continued to date and has precipitated evolving changes in the regulatory environment and reduced availability of mortgages for potential homebuyers due to an illiquid credit market, substantial declines in housing prices, and more restrictive standards to qualify for mortgages. During 2008, the conditions in the credit markets worsened and the economy fell into a recession. In addition, the credit markets and the financial services industry experienced a significant crisis characterized by the bankruptcy or failure of various financial institutions and severe limitations on credit availability. As a result, the credit markets have become highly illiquid as financial and lending institutions have severely restricted lending in order to conserve cash and protect their balance sheets. Although Congress and applicable regulatory authorities have enacted legislation and implemented programs designed to protect financial institutions and free up the credit markets, it is unclear whether these actions have been effective to date or will be effective in the future. Mortgage financing and commercial credit for homebuilders continues to be severely constrained. As the housing industry is dependent upon the economy as well as potential homebuyers' access to mortgage financing and homebuilders' access to commercial credit, it is likely there will be further damage to an already weak housing industry until conditions in the economy and the credit markets substantially improve.

We cannot predict the duration of the current market conditions, or the timing or strength of a future recovery of housing activity in our markets, if any. We also cannot provide any assurances that the homebuilding industry will not weaken further or that the operational strategies we have implemented to address the current market conditions will be successful. Continued weakness in the homebuilding industry would have a significant adverse effect on our business, financial condition and operating results.

In view of the current housing downturn, we may be required to take additional impairment charges relating to our operations or close under-performing locations.

During 2008, we recorded goodwill impairment charges of $39.9 million in continuing operations related to our Florida reporting unit and $4.0 million in discontinued operations, net of tax, related to our Ohio reporting unit. We also recorded in 2008 impairment charges related to long-lived assets, other than goodwill, of $7.0 million in continuing operations and $0.1 million in discontinued operations, net of tax. During 2009, we recorded an impairment charge of $0.5 million in continuing operations to reduce the carrying value of a parcel of real estate being held for sale. If the current weakness in the homebuilding industry continues, we may need to take additional goodwill and/or asset impairment charges relating to certain of our reporting units. Any such non-cash charges would have an adverse effect on our financial results. In addition, in response to industry and market conditions, we may have to close certain facilities in under-performing markets, although we have no specific plans for additional facility closures at this time. Such facility closures could have a significant adverse effect on our financial condition, operating results, and cash flows.

We may have future capital needs and may not be able to obtain additional financing on acceptable terms.

We are substantially reliant on cash on hand and our $250 million senior secured revolving credit facility to provide working capital and fund our operations. Our inability to renew or replace this facility when required or when business conditions warrant, could have a material adverse effect on our business, financial condition, and results of operations. As of September 30, 2009, our outstanding borrowings under this facility were $20.0 million, and our net available borrowing capacity in excess of our minimum liquidity covenant was $0. Our inability to borrow additional funds under this facility to fund our working capital requirements and our operations could have a significant adverse effect on our financial condition, operating results and cash flows.

Current economic conditions and conditions in the credit markets, the economic climate affecting our industry, and the success of our recapitalization transaction, as well as other factors, may constrain our financing abilities. Our ability to secure additional financing, if available, and to satisfy our financial obligations under indebtedness outstanding from time to time will depend upon our future operating performance, the availability of credit generally, economic conditions, and financial, business, and other factors, many of which are beyond our control. The prolonged continuation or worsening of the current market and macroeconomic conditions that affect our industry could require us to seek additional capital and have a material adverse effect on our ability to secure such capital on favorable terms, if at all.

We may be unable to secure additional financing or financing on favorable terms or our operating cash flow may be insufficient to satisfy our financial obligations under indebtedness outstanding from time to time, including our 2012 notes, our senior secured revolving credit facility, and the 2016 notes. The indenture governing the 2016 notes, moreover, among other restrictions, reduces the amount of permitted indebtedness allowed the Company. In addition, if financing is not available when needed, or is available on unfavorable terms, we may be unable to take advantage of business opportunities or respond to competitive pressures, any of which could have a material adverse effect on our business, financial condition, and results of operations. If additional funds are raised through the issuance of additional equity or convertible debt securities, our stockholders may experience significant dilution.

Our level of indebtedness could adversely affect our ability to raise additional capital to fund our operations, limit our ability to react to changes in the economy or our industry, and prevent us from meeting our obligations under our debt instruments.

As of September 30, 2009, our funded debt was $295.0 million, of which $20.0 million consisted of outstanding borrowings under our senior secured revolving credit facility and $275.0 million was indebtedness under our 2012 notes, and other long-term debt of $4.1 million. In addition, we have significant obligations under ongoing operating leases that are not reflected in our balance sheet.

As of September 30, 2009, $295.0 million of our debt was at a variable interest rate. If interest rates rise, our interest expense would increase. However, our interest rate swap contracts fix interest rates on a portion of our outstanding long-term debt balances. Based on debt outstanding at September 30, 2009, a 1% increase in interest rates would result in approximately $1.0 million of additional interest expense annually. In addition, the 2016 notes bear interest at a significantly higher interest rate (3-month LIBOR (subject to a 3.0% floor) plus 10.0%) than the interest rate under the 2012 notes (3-month LIBOR plus 4.25%).

Our substantial debt could have important consequences to us, including:

- increasing our vulnerability to general economic and industry conditions;

- requiring a substantial portion of our cash flow used in operations to be dedicated to the payment of principal and interest on our indebtedness, therefore reducing our ability to use our cash flow to fund our operations, capital expenditures, and future business opportunities;

- exposing us to the risk of increased interest rates, and corresponding increased interest expense, because a significant portion of our borrowings are at variable rates of interest;

- limiting our ability to obtain additional financing for working capital, capital expenditures, debt service requirements, acquisitions, and general corporate or other purposes; and

- limiting our ability to adjust to changing market conditions and placing us at a competitive disadvantage compared to our competitors who have less debt.

In addition, some of our debt instruments, including those governing our senior secured revolving credit facility and our notes, contain cross-default provisions that could result in our debt being declared immediately due and payable under a number of debt instruments, even if we default on only one debt instrument. In such event, it is unlikely that we would be able to satisfy our obligations under all of such accelerated indebtedness simultaneously.

We may incur additional indebtedness.

We may incur additional indebtedness under our senior secured revolving credit facility, which provides for up to $250.0 million of revolving credit borrowings. Given the severe housing downturn, we are currently substantially reliant on our cash on hand and our credit facility to fund our operations. In addition, we may be able to incur substantial additional indebtedness in the future, including collateralized debt, subject to the restrictions contained in the credit agreement governing our senior secured revolving credit facility and the indenture governing the 2016 notes. If new debt is added to our current debt levels, the related risks that we now face could intensify.

Our debt instruments contain various covenants that limit our ability to operate our business.

Our financing arrangements, including our senior secured revolving credit facility and the indenture governing our 2016 notes contain various provisions that limit our ability to, among other things:

transfer or sell assets, including the equity interests of our restricted subsidiaries, or use asset sale proceeds;

incur additional debt;

pay dividends or distributions on our capital stock or repurchase our capital stock;

make certain restricted payments or investments;

create liens to secure debt;

enter into transactions with affiliates;

merge or consolidate with another company or continue to receive the benefits of these financing arrangements under a change in control scenario (as defined in those agreements); and engage in unrelated business activities.

In addition, our senior secured revolving credit facility requires us to meet a specified financial ratio. This financial ratio is a fixed charge coverage ratio of 1:1 that is triggered if our available borrowing capacity, as determined under the borrowing base formula, is less than $35 million. The fixed charge coverage ratio is defined as the ratio of earnings before interest expenses, income taxes, depreciation, and amortization expenses minus capital expenditures, cash taxes paid, dividends, distributions and share repurchases or redemptions to the sum of scheduled principal payments and interest expense on a trailing 12 month basis from the trigger date. These covenants may restrict our ability to expand or fully pursue our business strategies. Our ability to comply with these and other provisions of the indenture governing our notes and the senior secured revolving credit facility may be affected by changes in our operating and financial performance, changes in general business and economic conditions, adverse regulatory developments, a change in control or other events beyond our control. The breach of any of these covenants, including those contained in our senior secured revolving credit facility, the indentures governing our 2012 notes and our 2016 notes, could result in a default under our indebtedness, which could cause those and other obligations to become due and payable. If any of our indebtedness is accelerated, we may not be able to repay it.

At September 30, 2009, our net available borrowing capacity under our senior secured revolving credit facility in excess of the $35 million liquidity covenant was zero due to a drop in our eligible borrowing base coupled with lower seasonal advance rates set forth under the credit agreement. Approximately $4.3 million of cash on hand at September 30, 2009 supported a short-fall in the calculation of the $35 million minimum liquidity covenant contained in the credit agreement. This covenant calculates as eligible borrowing base less outstanding borrowings. The resulting amount must exceed $35 million or we are required to meet a fixed charge coverage ratio of 1:1, which we currently would not meet. Further declines in our borrowing base, if any, could compel us to either repay outstanding borrowings under the senior secured revolving credit facility or increase cash on deposit with the agent.

We occupy most of our facilities under long-term non-cancelable leases. We may be unable to renew leases at the end of their terms. If we close a facility, we are still obligated under the applicable lease.

Most of our facilities are located in leased premises. Many of our current leases are non-cancelable and typically have terms ranging from 5 to 15 years and most provide options to renew for specified periods of time. We believe that leases we enter into in the future will likely be long-term and non-cancelable and have similar renewal options. If we close or idle a facility, we generally remain committed to perform our obligations under the applicable lease, which would include, among other things, payment of the base rent for the balance of the lease term. During 2007, 2008, and 2009, we closed or idled a number of facilities for which we remain liable on the lease obligations. Our obligation to continue making rental payments in respect of leases for closed or idled facilities could have a material adverse effect on our business and results of operations. Alternatively, at the end of the lease term and any renewal period for a facility, we may be unable to renew the lease without substantial additional cost, if at all. If we are unable to renew our facility leases, we may close or relocate a facility, which could subject us to construction and other costs and risks, and could have a material adverse effect on our business and results of operations. For example, closing a facility, even during the time of relocation, will reduce the sales that the facility would have contributed to our revenues. Additionally, the revenue and profit, if any, generated at a relocated facility may not equal the revenue and profit generated at the existing one.

We are a holding company and conduct all of our operations through our subsidiaries.

We are a holding company that derives all of our operating income from our subsidiaries. All of our assets are held by our direct and indirect subsidiaries. We rely on the earnings and cash flows of our subsidiaries, which are paid to us by our subsidiaries in the form of dividends and other payments or distributions, to meet our debt service obligations. The ability of our subsidiaries to pay dividends or make other payments or distributions to us will depend on their respective operating results and may be restricted by, among other things, the laws of their jurisdiction of organization (which may limit the amount of funds available for the payment of dividends and other distributions to us), the terms of existing and future indebtedness and other agreements of our subsidiaries, the senior secured revolving credit facility, the terms of the indentures governing our 2012 notes and 2016 notes, and the covenants of any future outstanding indebtedness we or our subsidiaries incur.

Our financial condition and operating performance and that of our subsidiaries is also subject to prevailing economic and competitive conditions and to certain financial, business, and other factors beyond our control. We cannot assure you that we will maintain a level of cash flows from operating activities sufficient to permit us to pay the principal, premium, and interest on our indebtedness.

If our cash flows and capital resources are insufficient to fund our debt service obligations, we may be forced to reduce or delay capital expenditures, sell assets, seek additional capital, or restructure or refinance our indebtedness. These alternative measures may not be successful and may not permit us to meet our scheduled debt service obligations. In the absence of such operating results and resources, we could face substantial liquidity problems and might be required to dispose of material assets or operations to meet our debt service and other obligations. The credit agreement governing our senior secured revolving credit facility and the indenture governing our 2016 notes restrict our ability to dispose of assets and use the proceeds from such disposition. We may not be able to consummate those dispositions or be able to obtain the proceeds that we could realize from them, and these proceeds may not be adequate to meet any debt service obligations then due.

The building supply industry is cyclical and seasonal.

The building products supply industry is subject to cyclical market pressures. Prices of building products are subject to fluctuations arising from changes in supply and demand, national and international economic conditions, labor costs, competition, market speculation, government regulation, and trade policies, as well as from periodic delays in the delivery of lumber and other products. For example, prices of wood products, including lumber and panel products, are subject to significant volatility and directly affect our sales and earnings. In particular, low market prices for wood products over a sustained period can adversely affect our financial condition, operating results and cash flows. For the nine months ended September 30, 2009, average prices for lumber and lumber sheet goods were 16.2% lower than the prior year. The current housing downturn has resulted in a prolonged period of relatively low market prices for wood products. Our lumber and lumber sheet goods product category represented 23.9% of total sales for the nine months ended September 30, 2009. We have no ability to control the timing and amount of pricing changes for building products. In addition, the supply of building products fluctuates based on available manufacturing capacity. A shortage of capacity or excess capacity in the industry can result in significant increases or declines in market prices for those products, often within a short period of time. Such price fluctuations can adversely affect our financial condition, operating results and cash flows.

In addition, although weather patterns affect our operating results throughout the year, adverse weather historically has reduced construction activity in the first and fourth quarters in our markets. To the extent that hurricanes, severe storms, floods, other natural disasters, or similar events occur in the markets in which we operate, our business may be adversely affected. We anticipate that fluctuations from period to period will continue in the future.

Table of Contents

The loss of any of our significant customers could affect our financial health.

Our 10 largest customers generated approximately 19.0% and 21.3% of our sales for the year ended December 31, 2008 and the nine months ended September 30, 2009, respectively. We cannot guarantee that we will maintain or improve our relationships with these customers or that we will continue to supply these customers at historical levels. Due to the current housing downturn, many of our homebuilder customers have substantially reduced construction activity. Some homebuilder customers have exited or severely curtailed building activity in certain of our markets. This trend is likely to continue until there is a housing recovery in our markets. A continued housing downturn could have a significant adverse effect on our financial condition, operating results, and cash flows.

In addition to these factors, production homebuilders and other customers may: (1) seek to purchase some of the products that we currently sell directly from manufacturers, (2) elect to establish their own building products manufacturing and distribution facilities, or (3) give advantages to manufacturing or distribution intermediaries in which they have an economic stake. In addition, continued consolidation among production homebuilders could also result in a loss of some of our present customers to our competitors. The loss of one or more of our significant customers or deterioration in our relations with any of them could significantly affect our financial condition, operating results and cash flows. Furthermore, our customers are not required to purchase any minimum amount of products from us. The contracts into which we have entered with most of our professional customers typically provide that we supply particular products or services for a certain period of time when and if ordered by the customer. Should our customers purchase our products in significantly lower quantities than they have in the past, such decreased purchases could have a material adverse effect on our financial condition, operating results, and cash flows.

Our industry is highly fragmented and competitive, and increased competitive pressure may adversely affect our results.

The building products supply industry is highly fragmented and competitive. We face significant competition from local and regional building materials chains, as well as from privately-owned single site enterprises. Any of these competitors may (1) foresee the course of market development more accurately than do we, (2) develop products that are superior to our products, (3) have the ability to produce similar products at a lower cost, (4) develop stronger relationships with local homebuilders, or (5) adapt more quickly to new technologies or evolving customer requirements than do we. As a result, we may not be able to compete successfully with them. In addition, home center retailers, which have historically concentrated their sales efforts on retail consumers and small contractors, may in the future intensify their marketing efforts to professional homebuilders. Furthermore, certain product manufacturers sell and distribute their products directly to production homebuilders. The volume of such direct sales could increase in the future. Additionally, manufacturers of products distributed by us may elect to sell and distribute directly to homebuilders in the future or enter into exclusive supplier arrangements with other distributors. Consolidation of production homebuilders may result in increased competition for their business. Finally, we may not be able to maintain our operating costs or product prices at a level sufficiently low for us to compete effectively. If we are unable to compete effectively, our financial condition, operating results, and cash flows may be adversely affected.

We are subject to competitive pricing pressure from our customers.

Production homebuilders historically have exerted significant pressure on their outside suppliers to keep prices low because of their market share and their ability to leverage such market share in the highly fragmented building products supply industry. The current housing industry downturn has resulted in significantly increased pricing pressures from production homebuilders and other customers. In addition, continued consolidation among production homebuilders, and changes in production homebuilders purchasing policies or payment practices, could result in additional pricing pressure. If we are unable to generate sufficient cost savings to offset any price reductions, our financial condition, operating results and cash flows may be adversely affected. In addition, as a result of the housing downturn, several of our homebuilder customers have defaulted on amounts owed to us, or their payable days have become extended as a result of their financial condition. Such payment failures or delays may significantly adversely affect our financial condition, operating results, and cash flows.

The ownership position of JLL and Warburg Pincus limits other stockholders' ability to influence corporate matters.

Immediately following consummation of the Recapitalization Transactions, JLL beneficially owns approximately 25.6% of our outstanding common stock, and Warburg Pincus beneficially owns approximately 25.8% of our outstanding common stock. As a result, JLL and Warburg Pincus can exercise substantial control over matters requiring stockholder approval. Your interests as a holder of common stock may differ from the interests of JLL and Warburg Pincus.

Six of our ten directors hold positions with affiliates of either JLL or Warburg Pincus. Accordingly, JLL and Warburg Pincus have significant influence over our management and affairs and over all matters requiring stockholder approval, including the election of directors and significant corporate transactions, such as a merger or other sale of our company or its assets. This concentrated ownership position limits other stockholders' ability to influence corporate matters and, as a result, we may take actions that some of our stockholders do not view as beneficial. Additionally, JLL and Warburg Pincus are in the business of making investments in companies and may, from time to time, acquire and hold interests in businesses that compete directly or indirectly with us. These entities may also pursue, for their own accounts, acquisition opportunities that may be complementary to our business, and, as a result, those acquisition opportunities may not be available to us. Further, certain provisions of our amended and restated certificate of incorporation and amended and restated bylaws may limit your ability to influence corporate matters, and, as a result, we may take actions that some of our stockholders do not view as beneficial.

Our continued success will depend on our ability to retain our key employees and to attract and retain new qualified employees.

Our success depends in part on our ability to attract, hire, train, and retain qualified managerial, sales, and marketing personnel. We face significant competition for these types of employees in our industry and from other industries. We may be unsuccessful in attracting and retaining the personnel we require to conduct and expand our operations successfully. In addition, key personnel may leave us and compete against us. Our success also depends to a significant extent on the continued service of our senior management team. We may be unsuccessful in replacing key managers who either quit or retire. The loss of any member of our senior management team or other experienced, senior employees could impair our ability to execute our business plan, cause us to lose customers and reduce our net sales, or lead to employee morale problems and/or the loss of other key employees. In any such event, our financial condition, operating results, and cash flows could be adversely affected.

The nature of our business exposes us to product liability and warranty claims and other legal proceedings.

We are involved in product liability and product warranty claims relating to the products we manufacture and distribute that, if adversely determined, could adversely affect our financial condition, operating results, and cash flows. We rely on manufacturers and other suppliers to provide us with many of the products we sell and distribute. Because we do not have direct control over the quality of such products manufactured or supplied by such third-party suppliers, we are exposed to risks relating to the quality of such products. In addition, we are exposed to potential claims arising from the conduct of homebuilders and their subcontractors, for which we may be contractually liable. Although we currently maintain what we believe to be suitable and adequate insurance in excess of our self-insured amounts, there can be no assurance that we will be able to maintain such insurance on acceptable terms or that such insurance will provide adequate protection against potential liabilities. Product liability claims can be expensive to defend and can divert the attention of management and other personnel for significant periods, regardless of the ultimate outcome. Claims of this nature could also have a negative impact on customer confidence in our products and our company. In addition, we are involved on an ongoing basis in other types of legal proceedings. We cannot assure you that any current or future claims will not adversely affect our financial condition, operating results, and cash flows.

Product shortages, loss of key suppliers, and our dependence on third-party suppliers and manufacturers could affect our financial health.

Our ability to offer a wide variety of products to our customers is dependent upon our ability to obtain adequate product supply from manufacturers and other suppliers. Generally, our products are obtainable from various sources and in sufficient quantities. However, the loss of, or a substantial decrease in the availability of, products from our suppliers or the loss of key supplier arrangements could adversely impact our financial condition, operating results, and cash flows.

Although in many instances we have agreements with our suppliers, these agreements are generally terminable by either party on limited notice. Failure by our suppliers to continue to supply us with products on commercially reasonable terms, or at all, could put pressure on our operating margins or have a material adverse effect on our financial condition, operating results, and cash flows. Short-term changes in the cost of these materials, some of which are subject to significant fluctuations, are sometimes, but not always passed on to our customers. Our delayed ability to pass on material price increases to our customers could adversely impact our financial condition, operating results, and cash flows.

A range of factors may make our quarterly revenues and earnings variable.

We have historically experienced, and in the future will continue to experience, variability in revenues and earnings on a quarterly basis. The factors expected to contribute to this variability include, among others: (1) the volatility of prices of lumber and wood products, (2) the cyclical nature of the homebuilding industry, (3) general economic conditions in the various local markets in which we compete, (4) the pricing policies of our competitors, (5) the production schedules of our customers, and (6) the effects of the weather. These factors, among others, make it difficult to project our operating results on a consistent basis, which may affect the price of our stock.

We may be adversely affected by any disruption in our information technology systems.

Our operations are dependent upon our information technology systems, which encompass all of our major business functions. Our primary enterprise resource planning (ERP) system, which we use for operations representing approximately 97% of our sales, is a proprietary system that has been highly customized by our computer programmers. Our centralized financial reporting system currently draws data from our ERP systems. We rely upon such information technology systems to manage and replenish inventory, to fill and ship customer orders on a timely basis, and to coordinate our sales activities across all of our products and services. A substantial disruption in our information technology systems for any prolonged time period (arising from, for example, system capacity limits from unexpected increases in our volume of business, outages, or delays in our service) could result in delays in receiving inventory and supplies or filling customer orders and adversely affect our customer service and relationships. Our systems might be damaged or interrupted by natural or man-made events or by computer viruses, physical or electronic break-ins, or similar disruptions affecting the global Internet. As part of our continuing integration of our computer systems, we plan to integrate our ERPs into a single system. This integration may divert management's attention from our core businesses. In addition, we may experience delays in such integration or problems with the functionality of the integrated system, which could increase the expected cost of the integration. There can be no assurance that such delays, problems, or costs will not have a material adverse effect on our financial condition, operating results and cash flows.

We may be adversely affected by any natural or man-made disruptions to our distribution and manufacturing facilities.

We currently maintain a broad network of distribution and manufacturing facilities throughout the southern and eastern U.S. Any serious disruption to our facilities resulting from fire, earthquake, weather-related events, an act of terrorism, or any other cause could damage a significant portion of our inventory and could materially impair our ability to distribute our products to customers. Moreover, we could incur significantly higher costs and longer lead times associated with distributing our products to our customers during the time that it takes for us to reopen or replace a damaged facility. In addition, any shortages of fuel or significant fuel cost increases could seriously disrupt

our ability to

distribute products to our customers. If any of these events were to occur, our financial condition, operating results, and cash flows could be materially adversely affected.

We may be unable to successfully implement our growth strategy, which includes increasing sales of our prefabricated components and other value-added products, pursuing strategic acquisitions, and opening new facilities.

Our strategy depends in part on growing our sales of prefabricated components and other value-added products and increasing our market share. If any of these initiatives are not successful, or require extensive investment, our growth may be limited, and we may be unable to achieve or maintain expected levels of growth and profitability.

Our long-term business plan also provides for continued growth through strategic acquisitions and organic growth through the construction of new facilities or the expansion of existing facilities. Failure to identify and acquire suitable acquisition candidates on appropriate terms could have a material adverse effect on our growth strategy. Moreover, a significant change in our business, the economy, or the housing market, an unexpected decrease in our cash flow for any reason, or the requirements of our senior secured revolving credit facility and the indenture governing the 2016 notes could result in an inability to obtain the capital required to effect new acquisitions or expansions of existing facilities. Our failure to make successful acquisitions or to build or expand facilities, including manufacturing facilities, produce saleable product, or meet customer demand in a timely manner could result in damage to or loss of customer relationships, which could adversely affect our financial condition, operating results, and cash flows. In addition, although we have been successful in the past in integrating 27 acquisitions, we may not be able to integrate the operations of future acquired businesses with our own in an efficient and cost-effective manner or without significant disruption to our existing operations. Acquisitions, moreover, involve significant risks and uncertainties, including difficulties integrating acquired personnel and corporate cultures into our business, the potential loss of key employees, customers or suppliers, difficulties in integrating different computer and accounting systems, exposure to unforeseen liabilities of acquired companies, and the diversion of management attention and resources from existing operations. We may be unable to successfully complete potential acquisitions due to multiple factors, such as issues related to regulatory review of the proposed transactions. We may also be required to incur additional debt in order to consummate acquisitions in the future, which debt may be substantial and may limit our flexibility in using our cash flow from operations. Our failure to integrate future acquired businesses effectively or to manage other consequences of our acquisitions, including increased indebtedness, could prevent us from remaining competitive and, ultimately, could adversely affect our financial condition, operating results, and cash flows.

Federal, state, local, and other regulations could impose substantial costs and/or restrictions on our operations that would reduce our net income.

We are subject to various federal, state, local, and other regulations, including, among other things, regulations promulgated by the Department of Transportation and applicable to our fleet of delivery trucks, work safety regulations promulgated by the Department of Labor's Occupational Safety and Health Administration, employment regulations promulgated by the United States Equal Employment Opportunity Commission, accounting standards issued by the Financial Accounting Standards Board or similar entities, and state and local zoning restrictions and building codes. More burdensome regulatory requirements in these or other areas may increase our general and administrative costs and adversely affect our financial condition, operating results, and cash flows. Moreover, failure to comply with the regulatory requirements applicable to our business could expose us to substantial penalties that could adversely affect our financial condition, operating results and cash flows.

We are subject to potential exposure to environmental liabilities and are subject to environmental regulation.

We are subject to various federal, state, and local environmental laws, ordinances, and regulations. Although we believe that our facilities are in material compliance with such laws, ordinances, and regulations, as owners and lessees of real property, we can be held liable for the investigation or remediation of contamination on such properties, in some circumstances, without regard to whether we knew of or were responsible for such contamination. No assurance can be provided that remediation may not be required in the future as a result of spills or releases of petroleum products or hazardous substances, the discovery of unknown environmental conditions, or more stringent standards regarding existing residual contamination. More burdensome environmental regulatory requirements may increase our general and administrative costs and adversely affect our financial condition, operating results, and cash flows.

We may be adversely affected by uncertainty in the economy and financial markets, including as a result of terrorism and the war in the Middle East and Afghanistan.

Instability in the economy and financial markets, including as a result of terrorism and the war in the Middle East and Afghanistan, may result in a decrease in housing starts, which would adversely affect our business. In addition, the war, related setbacks or adverse developments, including a retaliatory military strike or terrorist attack, may cause unpredictable or unfavorable economic conditions and could have a material adverse effect on our financial condition, operating results, and cash flows. In addition, any shortages of fuel or significant fuel cost increases related to geopolitical conditions could seriously disrupt our ability to distribute products to our customers. Terrorist attacks similar to the ones committed on September 11, 2001, may directly affect our ability to keep our operations and services functioning properly and could have a material adverse effect on our financial condition, operating results, and cash flows.

Table of ContentsRATIO OF EARNINGS TO FIXED CHARGES

Our ratio of earnings to fixed charges for each of the fiscal years ended 2004 through 2008 and the nine months ended September 30, 2009 was as follows:

		Year Ended December 31,				Nine Months Ended September 30, 2009
	2004	2005	2006	2007	2008
Ratio of Earnings to Fixed Charges(1)	3.18	2.22	3.74	(A)	(A)	(A)

(1) For purposes of calculating this ratio, earnings are defined as (loss) income from continuing operations before income taxes plus fixed charges. Fixed charges include interest expense (including amortization of deferred financing costs) and an estimate of operating rental expense, approximately 33%, which management believes is representative of the interest component.

(A) Earnings for the years ended 2007 and 2008 and for the nine months ended September 30, 2009 were inadequate to cover fixed charges by

$6.9 million,
$138.3 million
and $60.8 million,
respectively.

Table of ContentsMATERIAL UNITED STATES FEDERAL INCOME TAX CONSEQUENCES

The following is a general overview of the United States federal income tax consequences associated with the acquisition, ownership, and disposition of the 2016 notes and common stock that may be resold from time to time by the Selling Securityholders pursuant to this Prospectus. Except where noted, the following overview deals only with those holders who hold the 2016 notes and common stock as capital assets and does not deal with special situations, such as those of brokers, dealers in securities or currencies, certain former U.S. citizens or former permanent residents, financial institutions, tax-exempt entities, insurance companies, persons liable for alternative minimum tax, U.S. persons whose functional currency is not the U.S. dollar, persons holding the 2016 notes or common stock, as the case may be, as part of a hedging, integrated, conversion or constructive sale transaction or a straddle, controlled foreign corporations, passive foreign investment companies, regulated investment companies, and shareholders of such corporations, and traders in securities that elect to use a mark-to-market method of accounting for their securities holdings. If a partnership holds the 2016 notes or common stock, the tax treatment of a partner will generally depend upon the status of the partner and the activities of the partnership. Partners of partnerships that are considering acquiring 2016 notes or common stock should consult their own tax advisors. The following summary does not address state or local or non-United States tax consequences or United States federal tax consequences (e.g., estate or gift tax) other than income tax consequences.

Furthermore, the following overview is based on provisions of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended (the Code), the Treasury regulations promulgated thereunder, and administrative and judicial interpretations of the foregoing, all as in effect as of the date hereof and all of which are subject to change, possibly with retroactive effect. This overview does not address the tax consequences of the acquisition, ownership, or disposition of the 2016 notes and common stock to holders of 2016 notes and common stock other than those holders who acquire their 2016 notes and common stock from Selling Securityholders. No ruling has been or will be requested from the Internal Revenue Service (the IRS) on any of the tax matters discussed herein. Accordingly, there can be no assurance that the IRS will not challenge any of the U.S. federal income tax consequences described below or that any such challenge, if made, would not be sustained by a court.

As used herein, the term U.S. Holder means a beneficial owner of 2016 notes or common stock, as the case may be, that is, for United States federal income tax purposes, (1) an individual who is a citizen or resident of the United States, (2) a corporation created or organized in or under the law of the United States or of any political subdivision thereof, (3) any estate the income of which is includible in gross income for United States tax purposes, regardless of its source, or (4) a trust if (a) a United States court is able to exercise primary supervision over the administration of the trust and one or more United States persons have the authority to control all substantial decisions of the trust or (b) the trust was in existence on August 20, 1996, was treated as a United States person prior to that date, and elected to continue to be treated as a United States person. For purposes of this overview, the term non-U.S. Holder means a beneficial owner of 2016 notes or common stock who is not a U.S. Holder but who is, for United States federal income tax purposes, a nonresident alien, a corporation, estate, or trust.

Each U.S. Holder and non-U.S. Holder should consult its tax advisor regarding the particular tax consequences to such holder of the acquisition, ownership and disposition of the 2016 notes and common stock, as well as any tax consequences that may arise under the laws of any other relevant foreign, state, local, or other taxing jurisdiction.

U.S. Federal Income Tax Consequences to U.S. Holders*Original Issue Discount*

If a U.S. Holder has OID with respect to a 2016 note, such U.S. Holder generally must include such OID in gross income as it accrues, in advance of the receipt of cash attributable to that income. The 2016 notes will have OID if the issue price of the 2016 notes is less than their stated redemption price at maturity (other than by a de minimis amount). The issue price of the 2016 notes will depend upon whether a substantial amount of the 2016 notes or a substantial amount of the 2012 notes have been or will be traded on an established market within the meaning of the Code and applicable Treasury regulations, during the 60-day period ending 30 days after the issue date of the 2016 notes. In general, a debt instrument will be treated as traded on an established market during the applicable period if (i) it is listed on a national securities exchange or certain interdealer quotation systems, (ii) it appears on a system of general circulation that provides a reasonable basis to determine its fair market value by disseminating either recent price quotations of one or more identified brokers, dealers or traders or actual prices of recent sales transactions or (iii) under certain circumstances, price quotations for the debt instrument are readily available from dealers, brokers or traders. If the 2016 notes have been or will be traded on an established market, then the issue price of the 2016 notes generally will equal their fair market value on the issue date, while if the 2012 notes, but not the 2016 notes, have been or will be publicly traded, then the issue price of a 2016 note generally will equal the fair market value of a 2012 note on the issue date of the 2016 notes. If neither the 2016 notes nor the 2012 notes have been or will be publicly traded, the issue price of the 2016 notes generally will equal their stated principal amount. The Company intends to take the position that the 2016 notes will be traded on an established market during the relevant 60-day period referred to above, and the remainder of this discussion therefore assumes that the 2016 notes will have an issue price equal to their fair market value on the issue date.

After the issue date, the Company will notify U.S. Holders of the issue price of the 2016 notes and whether the 2016 notes were issued with OID.

Table of Contents

Under certain circumstances, U.S. Holders may have the right to require the Company to repurchase 2016 notes, and the Company will have the right to redeem 2016 notes, in each case prior to the stated maturity of the 2016 notes. Although the matter is uncertain, the Company intends to take the position that the possibility of such repurchase or redemption is disregarded in determining the yield and maturity date of the 2016 notes for purposes of the OID rules (including for purposes of the contingent payment debt regulations). In addition, in compliance with applicable Treasury regulations, the Company will provide to the IRS and make available to U.S. Holders certain information that is relevant in determining the amount of any OID accruing on the 2016 notes. The Company's positions and determinations regarding the foregoing will be binding on a U.S. Holder unless the U.S. Holder discloses a contrary position as required by applicable Treasury regulations. However, the Company's positions and determinations regarding the foregoing are not binding on the IRS. If the IRS were to successfully challenge the Company's positions and/or determinations regarding the foregoing, the amount and timing of accrual of OID on the 2016 notes and possibly the character of gain or loss on a U.S. Holder's disposition of the 2016 notes could be affected.

Because the 2016 notes are variable rate debt instruments that pay quarterly interest unconditionally, the following rules apply to determine the accrual of interest and OID on the 2016 notes. First, all stated interest with respect to the 2016 notes is treated as qualified stated interest. Second, the amount of qualified stated interest and the amount of OID, if any, that accrues during an accrual period is determined under the rules applicable to fixed rate debt instruments (as described more fully in the next paragraph) by assuming that the variable rate is a fixed rate equal to the qualified floating rate, as of the issue date, and a U.S. Holder generally will be required to include in income such qualified stated interest as it is paid or accrued, in accordance with the method of accounting (i.e., cash or accrual) used by such U.S. Holder for U.S. federal income tax purposes. Third, the qualified stated interest allocable to an accrual period is increased (or decreased) if the interest actually paid during an accrual period exceeds (or is less than) the interest assumed to be paid during the accrual period under the preceding sentence.

The amount of OID on a 2016 note, if any, generally will equal the excess of the stated redemption price at maturity of a 2016 note over its issue price (determined as described above). For this purpose, the stated redemption price at maturity of a 2016 note will equal the sum of all payments provided by the 2016 notes other than stated interest. The amount of OID includible in income by the U.S. Holder of the 2016 notes is generally the sum of the daily portions of OID with respect to the 2016 notes for each day during the taxable year or portion of the taxable year in which such U.S. Holder holds such 2016 notes (accrued OID). The daily portion is determined by allocating to each day in any accrual period a pro rata portion of the OID allocable to that accrual period. The amount of OID allocable to any accrual period is an amount equal to the excess, if any, of (1) the product of the 2016 note's adjusted issue price at the beginning of such accrual period and its yield to maturity (properly adjusted for the length of the accrual period) less (2) the amount of any stated interest allocable to the accrual period. The adjusted issue price of the 2016 notes at the beginning of any accrual period is equal to its issue price increased by the accrued OID for each prior accrual period previously includible in the gross income of the U.S. Holder and decreased by the amount of any payments previously made on the 2016 notes (other than stated interest payments).

Acquisition Premium

If a U.S. Holder's adjusted tax basis in a 2016 note immediately after the acquisition of such such note (i) is less than or equal to the stated redemption price at maturity of the 2016 note, but (ii) exceeds the adjusted issue price of such 2016 note, such excess will be considered acquisition premium. The basis of a U.S. Holder's 2016 note generally will equal the sum of the amount of cash and the fair market value of other property that such U.S. Holder paid for such 2016 note. In such case, a holder may reduce its OID inclusions (if any) with respect to the 2016 note by an amount equal to the amount of OID such holder would otherwise include in its gross income multiplied by a fraction, the numerator of which is the amount of acquisition premium and the denominator of which is the excess of the principal amount of the 2016 note over the adjusted issue price of the 2016 note. Alternatively, a holder may elect to amortize acquisition premium on a constant-yield basis.

Table of Contents*Amortizable Bond Premium*

If a U.S. Holder's adjusted tax basis in a 2016 note immediately after the acquisition of such note exceeds the stated redemption price at maturity of the 2016 note, the excess will constitute amortizable bond premium. In such case, the U.S. Holder will not be required to include any OID on the 2016 note in income, and a U.S. Holder generally may elect to deduct against its interest income on the 2016 notes the portion of the amortizable bond premium allocable to such year, determined in accordance with a constant yield method over the remaining term of the 2016 notes. The U.S. Holder's tax basis in the 2016 notes will be decreased by the amount of bond premium used to offset its interest income. An election to deduct amortizable bond premium applies to all taxable bonds held during or after the taxable year for which the election is made and can be revoked only with the consent of the IRS.

Market Discount

If a U.S. Holder purchases a 2016 note at a price that is less than such 2016 note's revised issue price (as defined below), the excess of the revised issue price over the U.S. Holder's purchase price will be treated as market discount. However, the market discount will be considered to be zero if it is less than the statutory de minimis amount equal to 1/4 of 1% of the stated redemption price at maturity of the 2016 note multiplied by the number of complete years to maturity from the date the U.S. Holder purchased the 2016 note. For this purpose, the revised issue price of a 2016 note is equal to the issue price of the 2016 note plus the aggregate amount of OID includible in the gross income of all holders for periods prior to the acquisition of the 2016 note by the U.S. Holder (determined without regard to the acquisition premium rules discussed above under U.S. Federal Income Tax Consequences to U.S. Holders Acquisition Premium).

A U.S. Holder generally will be required to treat any principal payment on, or any gain recognized on the sale, exchange, retirement or other disposition (including conversion) of, a 2016 note as ordinary income (generally treated as interest income) to the extent of the market discount which accrued but was not previously included in income. In addition, a U.S. Holder may be required to defer, until the maturity of the 2016 note or its earlier disposition in a taxable transaction, the deduction of all or a portion of such U.S. Holder's interest expense on any indebtedness incurred or continued to purchase or carry the 2016 note. In general, market discount will be considered to accrue ratably during the period from the date of the purchase of the 2016 note to the maturity date of the 2016 note, unless the U.S. Holder makes an irrevocable election (on an instrument-by-instrument basis) to accrue market discount under a constant yield method. Alternatively, a U.S. Holder may elect to include market discount in income currently as it accrues (under either a ratable or constant yield method), in which case the rules described above regarding the treatment as ordinary income of gain upon the disposition of the 2016 note and upon the receipt of certain payments and the deferral of interest deductions will not apply. The election to include market discount in income currently, once made, applies to all market discount obligations acquired on or after the first day of the first taxable year to which the election applies, and may not be revoked without the consent of the IRS.

Constant Yield Election

As an alternative to the above-described rules for including interest payments, OID and any market discount (as more fully described above) in income and amortizing any bond premium and any acquisition premium, a U.S. Holder may elect to include interest payments, OID and any market discount (including de minimis market discount) in income and amortize any bond premium and any acquisition premium on the constant yield method. A U.S. Holder making such an election would be deemed to have made an election to amortize bond premium on a constant yield method and an election to include market discount in income currently, which, as discussed above with respect to each such election, apply to all debt instruments held or subsequently acquired by such U.S. Holder. Particularly for U.S. Holders who use the cash method of accounting for U.S. federal income tax purposes, a constant yield election may have the effect of causing such U.S. Holders to include interest in income earlier than would be the case if no such election were made. The constant yield election described in this paragraph may not be revoked without the consent of the IRS. U.S. Holders should consult their own tax advisors regarding the making of this election.

Table of Contents

Sale, Exchange and Retirement of 2016 Notes

Upon the sale, exchange, retirement at maturity, or other taxable disposition of the 2016 notes, a U.S. Holder will recognize gain or loss equal to the difference between the amount realized by such holder (less an amount equal to any accrued and unpaid interest not previously included in income, which will be treated as ordinary interest income) and such holder's adjusted tax basis in the 2016 notes. Except as discussed above with respect to market discount, gain or loss recognized by a U.S. Holder generally will be capital. Capital gains may be subject to preferential rates in the hands of non-corporate U.S. Holders. The deductibility of capital losses is subject to limitations.

Common Stock

A U.S. Holder of the common stock generally will be required to include in income as ordinary dividend income the amount of any distributions paid on the common stock to the extent that such distributions are paid out of the Company's current earnings and profits for the taxable year or accumulated earnings and profits. Distributions in excess of such earnings and profits will be treated first as a non-taxable return of capital to the extent of such U.S. Holder's adjusted tax basis in such common stock and thereafter as gain from the sale or exchange of such common stock. Corporate U.S. Holders of the common stock may be entitled to a dividends-received deduction under Section 243 of the Code with respect to distributions out of earnings and profits. This potential deduction is subject to certain holding period requirements. Individual U.S. Holders of common stock may be entitled to a lower tax rate on any dividends paid on the common stock. U.S. Holders of the common stock are urged to consult their own tax advisors regarding the U.S. federal income tax treatment of any distributions paid on the common stock.

Sale, Exchange, Redemption or Other Taxable Disposition of Common Stock

Upon the sale, exchange, redemption, or other taxable disposition of the common stock, a U.S. Holder will recognize capital gain or loss equal to the difference between the amount of cash and fair market value of any property received on the sale and such U.S. Holder's adjusted tax basis in the common stock. Gain or loss recognized by a U.S. Holder generally will be capital gain or loss and will be long-term capital gain or loss if at the time of sale, exchange, redemption, or other taxable disposition, the common stock was held for more than one year. Long-term capital gains may be subject to preferential rates in the hands of non-corporate U.S. holders. The deductibility of capital losses is subject to certain limitations.

Backup Withholding and Information Reporting

In general, the Company or its paying agent must report to the IRS and to a U.S. Holder other than certain exempt recipients (such as corporations) on the following income:

accrual of OID and certain payments of principal and interest on the 2016 notes;

certain payments of dividend income derived in respect to the common stock; and proceeds of the sale of 2016 notes or common stock.

A backup withholding tax will apply to such payments if the U.S. Holder fails to provide a taxpayer identification number on a Form W-9, furnishes an incorrect taxpayer identification number, fails to certify foreign or other exempt status from backup withholding or if the payor receives notification from the IRS that the holder is subject to backup withholding as a result of a failure to report all interest or dividend income.

Backup withholding is not an additional tax. Any amounts withheld from a payment to a U.S. Holder under the backup withholding rules will be allowed as a credit against the holder's U.S. federal income tax liability and may entitle the holder to a refund, provided that the required information is timely furnished to the IRS.

Table of Contents

U.S. Federal Income Tax Consequences to Non-U.S. Holders

Interest on 2016 Notes

Subject to the discussion below regarding backup withholding and information reporting, a non-U.S. Holder generally will not be subject to U.S. federal income tax on payments of interest on 2016 Notes, unless:

- a) the non-U.S. Holder directly or indirectly, actually or constructively, owns 10% or more of the total combined voting power of all classes of the Company's voting stock entitled to vote;
- b) the non-U.S. Holder is a controlled foreign corporation that is related to the Company directly or constructively through the ownership of common stock;
- c) the non-U.S. Holder is a bank whose receipt of interest on the 2016 notes is described in Section 881(c)(3)(A) of the Code;
- d) such income is effectively connected with a trade or business carried on by such non-U.S. Holder within the United States (and, if required by an applicable tax treaty, is attributable to a U.S. permanent establishment of such non-U.S. Holder); or
- e) such interest is contingent interest described in Section 871(h)(4) of the Code.

Interest the Company pays to a non-U.S. Holder that is effectively connected with its conduct of a trade or business within the United States (and, if required by an applicable tax treaty, is attributable to a U.S. permanent establishment) will not be subject to U.S. withholding tax, as described above, if the non-U.S. Holder complies with applicable certification and disclosure requirements. Instead, such interest generally will be subject to U.S. federal income tax on a net income basis, in the same manner as if the non-U.S. Holder were a resident of the United States and may be subject to an additional branch profits tax at a rate of 30% (or such lower rate as may be specified by an applicable tax treaty).

Sale, Exchange, Retirement or Other Taxable Disposition of 2016 Notes

In general, a non-U.S. Holder will not be subject to U.S. federal income tax on any gain realized upon a sale, exchange, retirement or other taxable disposition of the 2016 notes, unless:

- a) such gain is effectively connected with the conduct of a trade or business in the United States (and if a tax treaty applies, such gain is attributable to a U.S. permanent establishment of the non-U.S. Holder);
- b) in the case of a non-U.S. Holder that is an individual, such non-U.S. Holder is present in the United States for 183 days or more during the taxable year in which such sale, exchange, retirement or other taxable disposition occurs and certain other conditions are met.

Gain that is effectively connected with the conduct of a trade or business in the United States generally will be subject to U.S. federal income tax on a net income basis (but not U.S. withholding tax), in the same manner as if the non-U.S. Holder were a resident of the United States, and may be subject to an additional branch profits tax at a rate of 30% (or such lower rate as may be specified by an applicable tax treaty). An individual non-U.S. Holder who is subject to U.S. federal income tax because the non-U.S. Holder was present in the United States for 183 days or more during the year of sale or other taxable disposition of the 2016 notes will be subject to a flat 30% tax on the gain derived from such sale or other disposition, which may be offset by United States source capital losses.

Distributions with respect to Common Stock

In general, any distributions the Company makes to a non-U.S. Holder with respect to its shares of the common stock that constitute a dividend for U.S. federal income tax purposes will be subject to U.S. withholding tax at a rate of 30% of the gross amount, unless the non-U.S. Holder is eligible for a reduced rate of withholding tax under an applicable tax treaty and the non-U.S. Holder provides proper certification of its eligibility for such reduced rate. A distribution will constitute a dividend for U.S. federal income tax purposes to the extent of the Company's current earnings and profits for that taxable year or accumulated earnings and profits as determined for U.S. federal income tax purposes. Any distribution not constituting a dividend will be treated first as a non-taxable return of capital to the extent of such non-U.S. Holder's adjusted tax basis in such common stock and, thereafter, as gain from the sale or exchange of such common stock.

Table of Contents

Dividends the Company pays to a non-U.S. Holder that are effectively connected with its conduct of a trade or business within the United States (and, if required by an applicable tax treaty, are attributable to a U.S. permanent establishment) will not be subject to U.S. withholding tax, as described above, if the non-U.S. Holder complies with applicable certification and disclosure requirements. Instead, such dividends generally will be subject to U.S. federal income tax on a net income basis, in the same manner as if the non-U.S. Holder were a resident of the United States and may be subject to an additional branch profits tax at a rate of 30% (or such lower rate as may be specified by an applicable tax treaty).

Sale, Exchange, Redemption or Other Taxable Disposition of Common Stock

In general, a non-U.S. Holder will not be subject to U.S. federal income tax on any gain realized upon a sale, exchange or other taxable disposition of the common stock, unless:

- a) such gain is effectively connected with the conduct of a trade or business in the United States (and if a tax treaty applies, such gain is attributable to a U.S. permanent establishment of the non-U.S. Holder);
- b) in the case of a non-U.S. Holder that is an individual, such non-U.S. Holder is present in the United States for 183 days or more during the taxable year in which such sale, exchange, or other taxable disposition occurs and certain other conditions apply; or
- c) the Company is classified as a U.S. real property holding corporation within the meaning of Section 897(c)(2) of the Code for any day during a five-year period prior to the date of disposition of such stock interest. The Company believes that is not, and does not anticipate becoming, a U.S. real property holding corporation for U.S. federal income tax purposes.

Gain that is effectively connected with the conduct of a trade or business in the United States (or so treated) generally will be subject to U.S. federal income tax on a net income basis, in the same manner as if the non-U.S. Holder were a resident of the United States. If the non-U.S. Holder is a foreign corporation, the branch profits tax described above also may apply to such effectively connected gain. An individual non-U.S. Holder who is subject to U.S. federal income tax because the non-U.S. Holder was present in the United States for 183 days or more during the year of sale or other disposition of the Company's common stock will be subject to a flat 30% tax on the gain derived from such sale or other disposition, which may be offset by United States source capital losses.

Withholding and Information Reporting

In general, the Company or its paying agent must report to the IRS and to a non-U.S. Holder the amount of accrual of OID and certain payments of principal and interest on the 2016 notes, certain payments of dividend income derived in respect to the common stock; proceeds of the sale, exchange, retirement, redemption or other taxable disposition of 2016 notes or common stock, and the amount of U.S. federal withholding tax, if any, deducted from those payments. Copies of the information returns reporting such interest, dividend payments, and sales proceeds and any associated U.S. federal withholding tax also may be made available to the tax authorities in the country in which the non-U.S. Holder resides under the provisions of an applicable tax treaty.

A non-U.S. Holder generally will not be subject to backup withholding with respect to payments that the Company makes on the 2016 notes or the common shares provided that the Company or its paying agent does not have actual knowledge or reason to know that the non-U.S. Holder is a U.S. person (as defined under the Code), and the Company or its paying agent has received from the non-U.S. Holder an appropriate certification of non-U.S. status (i.e., IRS Form W-8BEN or other applicable IRS Form W-8).

Information reporting and, depending on the circumstances, backup withholding will apply to the payment of the proceeds of a taxable disposition of the 2016 notes or the common shares, as the case may be, that is effected within the United States or effected outside the United States through certain U.S.-related financial intermediaries, unless the non-U.S. Holder certifies under penalties of perjury as to its non-U.S. status, and the payor does not have actual knowledge or reason to know that the beneficial owner is a U.S. person, or the non-U.S. Holder otherwise establishes an exemption.

Any amounts withheld under the backup withholding rules may be allowed as a refund or a credit against a non-U.S. Holder's U.S. federal income tax liability provided the required information is furnished to the IRS on a timely basis. Non-U.S. Holders of 2016 notes and common stock should consult their own tax advisors regarding the application of information reporting and backup withholding in their particular situations, the availability of an exemption therefrom, and the procedure for obtaining an exemption, if applicable.

Dividend Policy

We have not paid regular dividends in the past. Any future determination relating to our dividend policy will be made at the discretion of our board of directors and will depend on a number of factors, including restrictions in our debt instruments, as well as our future earnings, capital requirements, financial condition, prospects, and other factors that our board of directors may deem relevant. The terms of our $250 million senior secured revolving credit facility and the indenture governing our 2016 notes restrict our ability to pay dividends.

A Guarantor may not sell or otherwise dispose of all or substantially all of its assets to, or consolidate with or merge with or into (whether or not such Guarantor is the surviving Person) another Person, other than the Company or another Guarantor, unless:

 - (a) the Person acquiring the property in any such sale or disposition or the Person formed by or surviving any such consolidation or merger assumes all the obligations of that Guarantor under the 2016 notes Indenture and its Note Guarantee pursuant to a supplemental indenture and appropriate security documents satisfactory to the trustee; or

Security

The obligations of the Company with respect to the 2016 notes, the obligations of the Guarantors under the Note Guarantees, all other Parity Lien Obligations and the performance of all other obligations of the Company, the Guarantors and the Company's other Restricted Subsidiaries under the Note Documents is secured equally and ratably by second priority Liens in the Collateral granted to the collateral trustee for the benefit of the holders of the Parity Lien Obligations. These Liens will be junior in priority to the Liens securing Priority Lien Obligations and to all other Permitted Prior Liens. The Liens securing Priority Lien Obligations have also been granted to the collateral trustee for the benefit of the holders of the Priority Lien Obligations. The Collateral comprises all of the assets of the Company and the other Pledgors, other than the Excluded Assets.

Collateral Trust Agreement

The Collateral Trust Agreement sets forth the terms on which the collateral trustee will receive, hold, administer, maintain, enforce and distribute the proceeds of all Liens upon any property of the Company or any other Pledgor at any time held by it, in trust for the benefit of the present and future holders of the Secured Obligations.

Collateral Trustee

The collateral trustee will hold (directly or through co-trustees or agents), and will be entitled to enforce, all Liens on the Collateral created by the security documents.

Except as provided in the Collateral Trust Agreement or as directed by an Act of Required Debtholders in accordance with the Collateral Trust Agreement, the collateral trustee will not be obligated:

- (1) to act upon directions purported to be delivered to it by any Person;
- (2) to foreclose upon or otherwise enforce any Lien; or
- (3) to take any other action whatsoever with regard to any or all of the security documents, the Liens created thereby or the Collateral.

The Company will deliver to each Secured Debt Representative copies of all security documents delivered to the collateral trustee.

Enforcement of Liens

If the collateral trustee at any time receives written notice that any event has occurred that constitutes a default under any Secured Debt Document entitling the collateral trustee to foreclose upon, collect or otherwise enforce its Liens thereunder, it will promptly deliver written notice thereof to each Secured Debt Representative. Thereafter, the collateral trustee may await direction by an Act of Required Debtholders and will act, or decline to act, as directed by an Act of Required Debtholders, in the exercise and enforcement of the collateral trustee's interests, rights, powers and remedies in respect of the Collateral or under the security documents or applicable law and, following the initiation of such exercise of remedies, the collateral trustee will act, or decline to act, with respect to the manner of such exercise of remedies as directed by an Act of Required Debtholders. Unless it has been directed to the contrary by an Act of Required Debtholders, the collateral trustee in any event may (but will not be obligated to) take or refrain from taking such action with respect to any default under any Secured Debt Document as it may deem advisable and in the best interest of the holders of Secured Obligations.

Restrictions on Enforcement of Parity Liens

Until the Discharge of Priority Lien Obligations, the holders of loans made under the Credit Agreement and other Priority Lien Obligations will have, subject to the exceptions set forth below in clauses (1) through (4) and the provisions described below under the heading Provisions of the 2016 Notes Indenture Relating to Security Relative Rights, and subject to the rights of the holders of Permitted Prior

Table of Contents

Liens, the exclusive right to authorize and direct the collateral trustee with respect to the security documents and the Collateral including, without limitation, the exclusive right to authorize or direct the collateral trustee to enforce, collect or realize on any Collateral or exercise any other right or remedy with respect to the Collateral and neither the trustee nor the holders of notes or other Parity Lien Obligations may authorize or direct the collateral trustee with respect to such matters. Notwithstanding the foregoing, the trustee and the holders of 2016 notes (together with any other holder of a Parity Lien Obligation) may, subject to the rights of the holders of other Permitted Prior Liens, direct the collateral trustee:

- (1) without any condition or restriction whatsoever, at any time after the Discharge of Priority Lien Obligations;
- (2) as necessary to redeem any Collateral in a creditor's redemption permitted by law or to deliver any notice or demand necessary to enforce (subject to the prior Discharge of Priority Lien Obligations) any right to claim, take or receive proceeds of Collateral remaining after the Discharge of Priority Lien Obligations in the event of foreclosure or other enforcement of any Permitted Prior Lien;
- (3) as necessary to perfect or establish the priority (subject to Priority Liens and other Permitted Prior Liens) of the Parity Liens upon any Collateral; provided that, the trustee and the holders of Parity Lien Obligations may not require the collateral trustee to take any action to perfect any Collateral through possession or control other than the collateral trustee agreeing pursuant to the Collateral Trust Agreement that the collateral trustee, as agent for the benefit of the holders of Priority Lien Obligations, agrees to act as agent for the benefit of the holders of Parity Lien Obligations; or

- (4) as necessary to create, prove, preserve or protect (but not enforce) the Parity Liens upon any Collateral.

Subject to the provisions described below under the heading Provisions of the 2016 Notes Indenture Relating to Security Relative Rights, until the Discharge of Priority Lien Obligations, none of the holders of 2016 notes or other Parity Lien Obligations or any Parity Lien Representative will:

- (1) request judicial relief, in an insolvency or liquidation proceeding or in any other court, that would hinder, delay, limit or prohibit the lawful exercise or enforcement of any right or remedy otherwise available to the holders of Priority Lien Obligations in respect of the Priority Liens or that would limit, invalidate, avoid or set aside any Priority Lien or subordinate the Priority Liens to the Parity Liens or grant the Parity Liens equal ranking to the Priority Liens;
- (2) oppose or otherwise contest any motion for relief from the automatic stay or from any injunction against foreclosure or enforcement of Priority Liens made by any holder of Priority Lien Obligations or any Priority Lien Representative in any insolvency or liquidation proceedings;
- (3) oppose or otherwise contest any lawful exercise by any holder of Priority Lien Obligations or any Priority Lien Representative of the right to credit bid Priority Lien Debt at any sale in foreclosure of Priority Liens;
- (4) oppose or otherwise contest any other request for judicial relief made in any court by any holder of Priority Lien Obligations or any Priority Lien Representative relating to the lawful enforcement of any Priority Lien; or
- (5) challenge the validity, enforceability, perfection or priority of the Priority Liens.

Notwithstanding the foregoing, both before and during an insolvency or liquidation proceeding, the holders of notes and other Parity Lien Obligations and the Parity Lien Representatives may take any actions and exercise any and all rights that would be available to a holder of unsecured claims, including, without limitation, the commencement of an insolvency or liquidation proceeding against the Company or any other Pledgor in accordance with applicable law; provided that, by accepting a note, each holder of notes will agree not to take any of the actions prohibited under clauses (1) through (5) of the preceding paragraph or oppose or contest any order that it has agreed not to oppose or contest under the provisions described below under the heading Insolvency or Liquidation Proceedings.

Table of Contents

At any time prior to the Discharge of Priority Lien Obligations and after (a) the commencement of any insolvency or liquidation proceeding in respect of the Company or any other Pledgor or (b) the collateral trustee and each Parity Lien Representative have received written notice from any Priority Lien Representative at the direction of an Act of Required Debtholders stating that (i) any Series of Priority Lien Debt has become due and payable in full (whether at maturity, upon acceleration or otherwise) or (ii) the holders of Priority Liens securing one or more Series of Priority Lien Debt have become entitled under any Priority Lien Documents to and have stated the intent to enforce any or all of the Priority Liens by reason of a default under such Priority Lien Documents, no payment of money (or the equivalent of money) will be made from the proceeds of Collateral by the Company or any other Pledgor to the collateral trustee (in its capacity as agent for the holders of Parity Lien Obligations), any Parity Lien Representative, any holder of notes or any other holder of Parity Lien Obligations (including, without limitation, payments and prepayments made for application to Parity Lien Obligations and all other payments and deposits made pursuant to any provision of the indenture, the 2016 notes, the Guarantees or any other Parity Lien Document).

Subject to the provisions described below under the heading Provisions of the 2016 Notes Indenture Relating to Security Relative Rights, all proceeds of Collateral received by the collateral trustee (in its capacity as agent for the holders of Parity Lien Obligations), any Parity Lien Representative, any holder of 2016 notes or other Parity Lien Obligations in violation of the immediately preceding paragraph will be held by the collateral trustee (in its capacity as agent for the holders of Parity Lien Obligations), the applicable Parity Lien Representative or the applicable holder of Parity Lien Obligations for the account of the holders of Priority Liens and remitted to any Priority Lien Representative upon demand by such Priority Lien Representative. The Parity Liens will remain attached to and, subject to the provisions described under the heading Provisions of the 2016 Notes Indenture Relating to Security Ranking of Parity Liens, enforceable against all proceeds so held or remitted. All proceeds of Collateral received by the collateral trustee (in its capacity as agent for the holders of Parity Lien Obligations), any Parity Lien Representative or any holder of notes or other Parity Lien Obligations not in violation of the immediately preceding paragraph will be received by the collateral trustee (in its capacity as agent for the holders of Parity Lien Obligations), such Parity Lien Representative or such holder of Parity Lien Obligations free from the Priority Liens and all other Liens except the Parity Liens.

Waiver of Right of Marshalling

The Collateral Trust Agreement provides that, prior to the Discharge of Priority Lien Obligations, the holders of notes and other Parity Lien Obligations, each Parity Lien Representative and the collateral trustee (in its capacity as agent for the holders of Parity Lien Obligations) may not assert or enforce any right of marshalling accorded to a junior lienholder, as against the holders of Priority Liens (in their capacity as priority lienholders). Following the Discharge of Priority Lien Obligations, the holders of Parity Lien Obligations and any Parity Lien Representative may assert their right under the Uniform Commercial Code or otherwise to any proceeds remaining following a sale or other disposition of Collateral by, or on behalf of, the holders of Priority Lien Obligations.

Insolvency or Liquidation Proceedings

If in any insolvency or liquidation proceeding and prior to the Discharge of Priority Lien Obligations, the holders of Priority Lien Obligations by an Act of Required Debtholders consent to any order:

- (1) for use of cash collateral;
- (2) approving a debtor-in-possession financing secured by a Lien that is senior to or on a parity with all Priority Liens upon any property of the estate in such insolvency or liquidation proceeding;
- (3) granting any relief on account of Priority Lien Obligations as adequate protection (or its equivalent) for the benefit of the holders of Priority Lien Obligations in the collateral subject to Priority Liens; or
- (4) relating to a sale of assets of the Company or any other Pledgor that provides, to the extent the assets sold are to be free and clear of Liens, that all Priority Liens and Parity Liens will attach to the proceeds of the sale; then, the holders of 2016 notes and other Parity Lien Obligations, in their capacity as holders of secured claims, and each Parity Lien Representative will not oppose or otherwise contest the entry of such order, so long as none of the holders of Priority Lien Obligations or any Priority Lien Representative in any respect opposes or otherwise contests any request made by the holders of 2016 notes or other Parity Lien Obligations or a Parity Lien Representative for the grant to the collateral trustee, for the benefit of the holders of 2016 notes and other Parity Lien Obligations, of a junior Lien upon any property on which a Lien is (or is to be) granted under such order to secure the Priority Lien Obligations, co-extensive in all respects with, but subordinated (as set forth herein under the heading Provisions of the 2016 Notes Indenture Relating to Security Ranking of Parity Liens) to, such Lien and all Priority Liens on such property.

Notwithstanding the foregoing, both before and during an insolvency or liquidation proceeding, the holders of 2016 notes and other Parity Lien Obligations and the Parity Lien Representatives may take any actions and exercise any and all rights that would be available to a holder of unsecured claims, including, without limitation, the commencement of insolvency or liquidation proceedings against the Company or any other Pledgor in accordance with applicable law; provided that, by accepting a 2016 note, each holder of 2016 notes will agree not to take any of the actions prohibited under clauses (1) through (5) of the second paragraph of the provisions described above under the heading Restrictions on Enforcement of Parity Liens or oppose or contest any order that it has agreed not to oppose or contest under clauses (1) through (4) of the preceding paragraph.

The holders of 2016 notes or other Parity Lien Obligations or any Parity Lien Representative will not file or prosecute in any insolvency or liquidation proceeding any motion for adequate protection (or any comparable request for relief) based upon their interest in the Collateral under the Parity Liens, except that:

- (1) they may freely seek and obtain relief: (a) granting a junior Lien co-extensive in all respects with, but subordinated (as set forth herein under the heading Provisions of the 2016 Notes Indenture Relating to Security Ranking of Parity Liens) to, all Liens granted in the insolvency or liquidation proceeding to, or for the benefit of, the holders of Priority Lien Obligations; or (b) in connection with the confirmation of any plan of reorganization or similar dispositive restructuring plan; and
- (2) they may freely seek and obtain any relief upon a motion for adequate protection (or any comparable relief), without any condition or restriction whatsoever, at any time after the Discharge of Priority Lien Obligations.

Order of Application

The Collateral Trust Agreement provides that if any Collateral is sold or otherwise realized upon by the collateral trustee in connection with any foreclosure, collection or other enforcement of Liens granted to the collateral trustee in the security documents, the proceeds received by the collateral trustee from such foreclosure, collection or other enforcement will be distributed by the collateral trustee in the following order of application:

FIRST, to the payment of all amounts payable under the Collateral Trust Agreement on account of the collateral trustee's and the indenture trustee's fees and any reasonable legal fees, costs and expenses or other liabilities of any kind incurred by the collateral trustee, the indenture trustee or any co-trustee or agent of the collateral trustee in connection with any security document;

SECOND, to the repayment of Indebtedness and other Obligations, other than Secured Debt, secured by a Permitted Prior Lien on the Collateral sold or realized upon;

THIRD, to the respective Priority Lien Representatives for application to the payment of all outstanding Priority Lien Debt and any other Priority Lien Obligations that are then due and payable in such order as may be provided in the Priority Lien Documents (and if not so provided therein, shall be payable pro rata) in an amount sufficient to pay in full in cash all outstanding Priority Lien Debt and all other Priority Lien Obligations that are then due and payable (including all interest accrued thereon after the commencement of any insolvency or liquidation proceeding at the rate, including any applicable post-default rate, specified in the Priority Lien Documents, even if such interest is not enforceable, allowable or allowed as a claim in such proceeding, and including the discharge, cash collateralization (at the lower of (1) 105% of the aggregate undrawn amount and (2) the percentage of the aggregate undrawn amount required for release of Liens under the terms of the applicable Priority Lien Document) of all outstanding letters of credit constituting Priority Lien Debt) or collateralization with a letter of credit in form and substance, and from a financial institution, satisfactory to the respective Priority Lien Representatives (such letter of credit to have a face amount equal to the lower of (1) 105% of the aggregate undrawn amount and (2) the percentage of the aggregate undrawn amount required for release of Liens under the terms of the applicable Priority Lien Document);

Table of Contents

FOURTH, to the respective Parity Lien Representatives for application to the payment of all outstanding Parity Lien Debt and any other Parity Lien Obligations that are then due and payable in such order as may be provided in the Parity Lien Documents (and if not so provided therein, shall be payable pro rata) in an amount sufficient to pay in full in cash all outstanding Parity Lien Debt and all other Parity Lien Obligations that are then due and payable (including, to the extent legally permitted, all interest accrued thereon after the commencement of any insolvency or liquidation proceeding at the rate, including any applicable post-default rate, specified in the Parity Lien Documents, even if such interest is not enforceable, allowable or allowed as a claim in such proceeding, and including the discharge, cash collateralization (at the lower of (1) 105% of the aggregate undrawn amount and (2) the percentage of the aggregate undrawn amount required for release of Liens under the terms of the applicable Parity Lien Document) of all outstanding letters of credit, if any, constituting Parity Lien Debt) or collateralization with a letter of credit in form and substance, and from a financial institution, satisfactory to the respective Parity Lien Representatives (such letter of credit to have a face amount equal to the lower of (1) 105% of the aggregate undrawn amount and (2) the percentage of the aggregate undrawn amount required for release of Liens under the terms of the applicable Parity Lien Document); and FIFTH, any surplus remaining after the payment in full in cash of the amounts described in the preceding clauses will be paid to the Company or the applicable Pledgor, as the case may be, its successors or assigns, or as a court of competent jurisdiction may direct.

If any Parity Lien Representative or any holder of a Parity Lien Obligation collects or receives any proceeds of such foreclosure, collection or other enforcement that should have been applied to the payment of the Priority Lien Obligations in accordance with the paragraph above, whether after the commencement of an insolvency or liquidation proceeding or otherwise, such Parity Lien Representative or such holder of a Parity Lien Obligation, as the case may be, will forthwith deliver the same to the collateral trustee, for the account of the holders of the Priority Lien Obligations and other Obligations secured by a Permitted Prior Lien, to be applied in accordance with the provisions set forth above under this heading Order of Application. Until so delivered, such proceeds will be held by that Parity Lien Representative or that holder of a Parity Lien Obligation, as the case may be, for the benefit of the holders of the Priority Lien Obligations and other Obligations secured by a Permitted Prior Lien.

The provisions set forth above under this heading Order of Application are intended for the benefit of, and will be enforceable as a third party beneficiary by, each present and future holder of Secured Obligations, each present and future Secured Debt Representative, and the collateral trustee as holder of Priority Liens and Parity Liens. The Secured Debt Representative of each future Series of Secured Debt will be required to deliver a Lien Sharing and Priority Confirmation to the collateral trustee and each other Secured Debt Representative at the time of incurrence of such Series of Secured Debt.

Release of Liens on Collateral

The Collateral Trust Agreement provides that the collateral trustee's Liens on the Collateral will be released:

- (1) in whole, upon (a) payment in full and discharge of all outstanding Secured Debt and all other Secured Obligations that are outstanding, due and payable at the time all of the Secured Debt is paid in full and discharged and (b) termination or expiration of all commitments to extend credit under all Secured Debt Documents and the cancellation or termination, cash collateralization (at the lower of (1) 105% of the aggregate undrawn amount and (2) the percentage of the aggregate undrawn amount required for release of Liens under the terms of the applicable Secured Debt Documents) or collateralization with a letter of credit in form and substance, and from a financial institution, satisfactory to the respective Secured Debt Representatives (such letter of credit to have a face amount equal to the lower of (1) 105% of the aggregate undrawn amount and (2) the percentage of the aggregate undrawn amount required for release of Liens under the terms of the applicable Secured Debt Document) of all outstanding letters of credit issued pursuant to any Secured Debt Documents;
- (2) as to any Collateral that is sold, transferred or otherwise disposed of by the Company or any other Pledgor to a Person that is not (either before or after such sale, transfer or disposition) the Company or any Guarantor in a transaction or other circumstance that complies with the Asset Sale provisions of the indenture and is permitted by all of the other Secured Debt Documents, at the time of such sale, transfer or other disposition or to the extent of the interest sold, transferred or otherwise disposed of; provided that the collateral trustee's Liens upon the Collateral will not be released if the sale or disposition is subject to the covenant described below under the heading Certain Covenants Merger, Consolidation or Sale of Assets;

- (3) as to a release of less than all or substantially all of the Collateral, if consent to the release of all Priority Liens on such Collateral has been given by an Act of Required Debtholders; and
- (4) as to a release of all or substantially all of the Collateral, if (a) consent to the release of that Collateral has been given by the requisite percentage or number of holders of each Series of Secured Debt at the time outstanding as provided for in the applicable Secured Debt Documents, and (b) the Company has delivered an officers certificate to the collateral trustee certifying that all such necessary consents have been obtained.

The security documents provide that the Liens securing the Secured Debt will extend to the proceeds of any sale of Collateral. As a result, the collateral trustee's Liens will apply to the proceeds of any such Collateral received in connection with any sale or other disposition of assets described in the preceding paragraph.

Release of Liens in Respect of 2016 Notes

The 2016 notes Indenture and the Collateral Trust Agreement provides that the collateral trustee's Parity Liens upon the Collateral will no longer secure the 2016 notes outstanding under the 2016 notes Indenture or any other Obligations under the 2016 notes Indenture, and the right of the holders of the 2016 notes and such Obligations to the benefits and proceeds of the collateral trustee's Parity Liens on the Collateral will terminate and be discharged:

- (1) upon satisfaction and discharge of the 2016 notes Indenture as set forth under the heading Satisfaction and Discharge;
- (2) upon a Legal Defeasance or Covenant Defeasance of the notes as set forth under the heading Legal Defeasance and Covenant Defeasance;
- (3) upon payment in full and discharge of all notes outstanding under the 2016 notes Indenture and all Obligations that are outstanding, due and payable under the 2016 notes Indenture at the time the notes are paid in full and discharged; or
- (4) in whole or in part, with the consent of the holders of the requisite percentage of notes in accordance with the provisions described below under the heading Amendment, Supplement and Waiver.

Amendment of Security Documents

The Collateral Trust Agreement provides that no amendment or supplement to the provisions of any security document will be effective without the approval of the collateral trustee acting as directed by an Act of Required Debtholders, except that:

- (1) any amendment or supplement that has the effect solely of adding or maintaining Collateral, securing additional Secured Debt that was otherwise permitted by the terms of the Secured Debt Documents to be secured by the Collateral or preserving, perfecting or establishing the priority of the Liens thereon or the rights of the collateral trustee therein will become effective when executed and delivered by the Company or any other applicable Pledgor party thereto and the collateral trustee;
- (2) no amendment or supplement that reduces, impairs or adversely affects the right of any holder of Secured Obligations:
 - (a) to vote its outstanding Secured Debt as to any matter described as subject to an Act of Required Debtholders or direction by the Required Parity Lien Debtholders (or amends the provisions of this clause (2) or the definition of Act of Required Debtholders or Required Parity Lien Debtholders),

Table of Contents

- (b) to share in the order of application described above under Order of Application in the proceeds of enforcement of or realization on any Collateral, or
- (c) to require that Liens securing Secured Obligations be released only as set forth in the provisions described above under the heading Release of Liens on Collateral, will become effective without the consent of the requisite percentage or number of holders of each Series of Secured Debt so affected under the applicable Secured Debt Document; and
- (3) no amendment or supplement that imposes any obligation upon the collateral trustee or any Secured Debt Representative or adversely affects the rights of the collateral trustee or any Secured Debt Representative, respectively, in its individual capacity as such will become effective without the consent of the collateral trustee or such Secured Debt Representative, respectively.

Any amendment or supplement to the provisions of the security documents that releases Collateral will be effective only in accordance with the requirements set forth in the applicable Secured Debt Document referenced above under the heading Release of Liens on Collateral. Any amendment or supplement that results in the collateral trustee's Liens upon the Collateral no longer securing the notes and the other Obligations under the 2016 notes Indenture may only be effected in accordance with the provisions described above under the heading Release of Liens in Respect of 2016 notes.

The Collateral Trust Agreement provides that, notwithstanding anything to the contrary under the heading Amendment of Security Documents, but subject to clauses (2) and (3) above:

- (1) any mortgage or other security document that secures Parity Lien Obligations (but not Priority Lien Obligations) may be amended or supplemented with the approval of the collateral trustee acting as directed in writing by the Required Parity Lien Debtholders, unless such amendment or supplement would not be permitted under the terms of the Collateral Trust Agreement or the other Priority Lien Documents; and
- (2) any amendment or waiver of, or any consent under, any provision of the Collateral Trust Agreement or any other security document that secures Priority Lien Obligations will apply automatically to any comparable provision of any comparable Parity Lien Document without the consent of or notice to any holder of Parity Lien Obligations and without any action by the Company or any other Pledgor or any holder of notes or other Parity Lien Obligations.

Voting

In connection with any matter under the Collateral Trust Agreement requiring a vote of holders of Secured Debt, each Series of Secured Debt will cast its votes in accordance with the Secured Debt Documents governing such Series of Secured Debt. The amount of Secured Debt to be voted by a Series of Secured Debt will equal (1) the aggregate principal amount of Secured Debt held by such Series of Secured Debt (including outstanding letters of credit whether or not then available or drawn), plus (2) other than in connection with an exercise of remedies, the aggregate unfunded commitments to extend credit which, when funded, would constitute Indebtedness of such Series of Secured Debt. Following and in accordance with the outcome of the applicable vote under its Secured Debt Documents, the Secured Debt Representative of each Series of Secured Debt will vote the total amount of Secured Debt under that Series as a block in respect of any vote under the Collateral Trust Agreement.

Provisions of the 2016 Notes Indenture Relating to Security

- (1) anything to the contrary contained in the security documents;

Table of Contents

- (2) the time of incurrence of any Series of Parity Lien Debt;
- (3) the order or method of attachment or perfection of any Liens securing any Series of Parity Lien Debt;
- (4) the time or order of filing or recording of financing statements, mortgages or other documents filed or recorded to perfect any Lien upon any Collateral;
- (5) the time of taking possession or control over any Collateral;
- (6) that any Parity Lien may not have been perfected or may be or have become subordinated, by equitable subordination or otherwise, to any other Lien; or
- (7) the rules for determining priority under any law governing relative priorities of Liens:
 - (a) all Parity Liens granted at any time by the Company or any other Pledgor will secure, equally and ratably, all present and future Parity Lien Obligations; and
 - (b) all proceeds of all Parity Liens granted at any time by the Company or any other Pledgor will be allocated and distributed equally and ratably on account of the Parity Lien Debt and other Parity Lien Obligations.

This section is intended for the benefit of, and will be enforceable as a third party beneficiary by, each present and future holder of Parity Lien Obligations, each present and future Parity Lien Representative and the collateral trustee as holder of Parity Liens. The Parity Lien Representative of each future Series of Parity Lien Debt will be required to deliver a Lien Sharing and Priority Confirmation to the collateral trustee and the trustee at the time of incurrence of such Series of Parity Lien Debt.

Ranking of Parity Liens

The 2016 notes Indenture provides that, notwithstanding:

- (1) anything to the contrary contained in the security documents;
- (2) the time of incurrence of any Series of Secured Debt;
- (3) the order or method of attachment or perfection of any Liens securing any Series of Secured Debt;
- (4) the time or order of filing or recording of financing statements, mortgages or other documents filed or recorded to perfect any Lien upon any Collateral;
- (5) the time of taking possession or control over any Collateral;
- (6) that any Priority Lien may not have been perfected or may be or have become subordinated, by equitable subordination or otherwise, to any other Lien; or
- (7) the rules for determining priority under any law governing relative priorities of Liens, all Parity Liens at any time granted by the Company or any other Pledgor will be subject and subordinate to all Priority Liens securing (i) Priority Lien Debt up to the Priority Lien Cap and (ii) all other Obligations in respect of Priority Lien Debt. Holders of 2016 notes are bound by the provisions of the Collateral Trust Agreement, including the provisions relating to the ranking of the Parity Liens and the order of application of proceeds from the enforcement of Parity Liens.

The provisions under the heading Ranking of Parity Liens are intended for the benefit of, and will be enforceable as a third party beneficiary by, each present and future holder of Priority Lien Obligations, each present and future Priority Lien Representatives and the collateral trustee as holder of Priority Liens. No other Person will be entitled to rely on, have the benefit of or enforce those provisions. The Parity Lien Representative of each future Series of Parity

Lien Debt will be required to deliver a Lien Sharing and Priority Confirmation to the collateral trustee and each Priority Lien Representative at the time of incurrence of such Series of Parity Lien Debt.

Table of Contents

In addition, the provisions under the heading Ranking of Parity Liens are intended solely to set forth the relative ranking, as Liens, of the Liens securing Parity Lien Debt as against the Priority Liens. Neither the notes nor any other Parity Lien Obligations nor the exercise or enforcement of any right or remedy for the payment or collection thereof are intended to be, or will ever be by reason of the foregoing provision, in any respect subordinated, deferred, postponed, restricted or prejudiced.

Relative Rights

Nothing in the Note Documents will:

- (1) impair, as between the Company and the holders of the 2016 notes, the obligation of the Company to pay principal of, premium and interest on the notes in accordance with their terms or any other obligation of the Company or any other Pledgor;
- (2) affect the relative rights of holders of notes as against any other creditors of the Company or any other Pledgor (other than holders of Priority Liens, Permitted Prior Liens or other Parity Liens);
- (3) restrict the right of any holder of notes to sue for payments that are then due and owing (but not enforce any judgment in respect thereof against any Collateral to the extent specifically prohibited by the provisions described above under the headings Collateral Trust Agreement Restrictions on Enforcement of Parity Liens or Collateral Trust Agreement Insolvency and Liquidation Proceedings);
- (4) restrict or prevent any holder of notes or other Parity Lien Obligations, the collateral trustee or any Parity Lien Representative from exercising any of its rights or remedies upon a Default or Event of Default not specifically restricted or prohibited by (a) Collateral Trust Agreement Restrictions on Enforcement of Parity Liens or (b) Collateral Trust Agreement Insolvency and Liquidation Proceedings ; or
- (5) restrict or prevent any holder of notes or other Parity Lien Obligations, the collateral trustee or any Parity Lien Representative from taking any lawful action in an insolvency or liquidation proceeding not specifically restricted or prohibited by (a) Collateral Trust Agreement Restrictions on Enforcement of Parity Liens or (b) Collateral Trust Agreement Insolvency and Liquidation Proceedings.

Compliance with Trust Indenture Act

The 2016 note Indenture provides that, to the extent applicable, the Company will comply with the provisions of TIA § 314.

To the extent applicable, the Company will cause TIA §313(b), relating to reports, and TIA § 314(d), relating to the release of property or securities subject to the Lien of the security documents, to be complied with. Any certificate or opinion required by TIA § 314(d) may be made by an officer of the Company except in cases where TIA § 314(d) requires that such certificate or opinion be made by an independent Person, which Person will be an independent engineer, appraiser or other expert selected by or reasonably satisfactory to the trustee. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in this paragraph, the Company will not be required to comply with all or any portion of TIA § 314(d) if it determines, in good faith based on advice of counsel, that under the terms of TIA § 314(d) and/or any interpretation or guidance as to the meaning thereof of the SEC and its staff, including no action letters or exemptive orders, all or any portion of TIA § 314(d) is inapplicable to one or a series of released Collateral.

Further Assurances; Insurance

The 2016 notes Indenture and the security documents provides that the Company and each of the other Pledgors will do or cause to be done all acts and things that may be required, or that the collateral trustee from time to time may reasonably request, to assure and confirm that the collateral trustee holds, for the benefit of the holders of Secured Obligations, duly created and enforceable and perfected Liens upon the Collateral (including any property or assets that are acquired or otherwise become Collateral after the notes are issued), in each case, as contemplated by, and with the Lien priority required under, the Secured Debt Documents.

Table of Contents

Upon the reasonable request of the collateral trustee or any Secured Debt Representative at any time and from time to time, the Company and each of the other Pledgors will promptly execute, acknowledge and deliver such security documents, instruments, certificates, notices and other documents, and take such other actions as shall be reasonably required, or that the collateral trustee may reasonably request, to create, perfect, protect, assure or enforce the Liens and benefits intended to be conferred, in each case as contemplated by the Secured Debt Documents for the benefit of the holders of Secured Obligations.

At any time when no Priority Lien Documents are in effect, the Company and the other Pledgors will:

- (1) keep their properties adequately insured at all times by financially sound and reputable insurers;
- (2) maintain such other insurance, to such extent and against such risks (and with such deductibles, retentions and exclusions), including fire and other risks insured against by extended coverage and coverage for acts of terrorism, as is customary with companies in the same or similar businesses operating in the same or similar locations, including public liability insurance against claims for personal injury or death or property damage occurring upon, in, about or in connection with the use of any properties owned, occupied or controlled by them;
- (3) maintain such other insurance as may be required by law;
- (4) maintain title insurance on all real property Collateral insuring the collateral trustee's Lien on that property, subject only to Permitted Prior Liens and other exceptions to title reasonably approved by the collateral trustee; provided that title insurance need only be maintained on any particular parcel of real property if and to the extent title insurance is maintained in respect of Priority Liens on that property; and
- (5) maintain such other insurance as may be required by the security documents.

Upon the request of the collateral trustee, the Company and the other Pledgors will furnish to the collateral trustee full information as to their property and liability insurance carriers. The collateral trustee, as agent for the holders of Secured Obligations, as a class, will be named as additional insured on all insurance policies of the Company and the other Pledgors and the collateral trustee will be named as loss payee, with 30 days' notice of cancellation or, if provided to the Company, notice of material change, on all property and casualty insurance policies of the Company and the other Pledgors.

Optional Redemption

Prior to February 15, 2011, the Company may redeem all or a part of the 2016 notes upon not less than 30 nor more than 60 days' notice, at a redemption price equaling 105% of the aggregate outstanding principal amount of the 2016 notes being redeemed, plus accrued and unpaid interest. On or after February 15, 2011, the Company may redeem all or a part of the 2016 notes upon not less than 30 nor more than 60 days' notice, at the redemption prices (expressed as percentages of aggregate outstanding principal amount of 2016 notes being redeemed) set forth below plus accrued and unpaid interest, on the notes redeemed, to the applicable redemption date, if redeemed during the twelve-month period beginning on February 15 of the years indicated below, subject to the rights of holders of 2016 notes on the relevant record date to receive interest on the relevant interest payment date:

Year	Percentage
2011	102.5%
2012	101%
2013 and thereafter	100%

Unless the Company defaults in the payment of the redemption price, interest will cease to accrue on the 2016 notes or portions thereof called for redemption on the applicable redemption date.

Mandatory Redemption

The Company is not required to make mandatory redemption or sinking fund payments with respect to the 2016 notes.

Table of Contents

Repurchase at the Option of Holders

Change of Control

If a Change of Control occurs, each holder of 2016 notes will have the right to require the Company to repurchase all or any part (equal to $1,000 or an integral multiple of $1,000) of that holder's 2016 notes pursuant to a Change of Control Offer on the terms set forth in the 2016 notes Indenture. In the Change of Control Offer, the Company will offer a Change of Control Payment in cash equal to 101% of the aggregate principal amount of 2016 notes repurchased plus accrued and unpaid interest, on the 2016 notes repurchased to the date of purchase, subject to the rights of holders of 2016 notes on the relevant record date to receive interest due on the relevant interest payment date. Within ten days following any Change of Control, the Company will mail a notice to each holder describing the transaction or transactions that constitute the Change of Control and offering to repurchase 2016 notes on the Change of Control Payment Date specified in the notice, which date will be no earlier than 30 days and no later than 60 days from the date such notice is mailed, pursuant to the procedures required by the 2016 notes Indenture and described in such notice. The Company will comply with the requirements of Rule 14e-1 under the Exchange Act and any other securities laws and regulations thereunder to the extent those laws and regulations are applicable in connection with the repurchase of the 2016 notes as a result of a Change of Control. To the extent that the provisions of any securities laws or regulations conflict with the Change of Control provisions of the 2016 notes Indenture, the Company will comply with the applicable securities laws and regulations and will not be deemed to have breached its obligations under the Change of Control provisions of the 2016 notes Indenture by virtue of such compliance.

On the Change of Control Payment Date, the Company will, to the extent lawful:

- (1) accept for payment all 2016 notes or portions of 2016 notes properly tendered pursuant to the Change of Control Offer;
- (2) deposit with the paying agent an amount equal to the Change of Control Payment in respect of all 2016 notes or portions of 2016 notes properly tendered; and
- (3) deliver or cause to be delivered to the trustee the 2016 notes properly accepted together with an officers certificate stating the aggregate principal amount of 2016 notes or portions of 2016 notes being purchased by the Company.

The paying agent will promptly mail to each holder of 2016 notes properly tendered the Change of Control Payment for such 2016 notes, and the trustee will promptly authenticate and mail (or cause to be transferred by book entry) to each holder a new note equal in principal amount to any unpurchased portion of the 2016 notes surrendered, if any. The Company will publicly announce the results of the Change of Control Offer on or as soon as practicable after the Change of Control Payment Date.

The provisions described above that require the Company to make a Change of Control Offer following a Change of Control will be applicable whether or not any other provisions of the 2016 notes Indenture are applicable. Except as described above with respect to a Change of Control, the 2016 notes Indenture does not contain provisions that permit the holders of the 2016 notes to require that the Company repurchase or redeem the 2016 notes in the event of a takeover, recapitalization or similar transaction.

The Company will not be required to make a Change of Control Offer upon a Change of Control if (1) a third party makes the Change of Control Offer in the manner, at the times and otherwise in compliance with the requirements set forth in the 2016 notes Indenture applicable to a Change of Control Offer made by the Company and purchases all 2016 notes properly tendered and not withdrawn under the Change of Control Offer, or (2) notice of redemption has been given pursuant to the 2016 notes Indenture as described above under the heading Optional Redemption, unless and until there is a default in payment of the applicable redemption price.

The definition of Change of Control includes a phrase relating to the direct or indirect sale, lease, transfer, conveyance or other disposition of all or substantially all of the properties or assets of the Company and its Subsidiaries taken as a whole. Although there is a limited body of case law interpreting the phrase substantially all, there is no precise established definition of the phrase under applicable law. Accordingly, the ability of a holder of 2016 notes to require the Company to repurchase its 2016 notes as a result of a sale, lease, transfer, conveyance or other disposition of less than all of the assets of the Company and its Subsidiaries taken as a whole to another Person or group may be uncertain.

Asset Sales

The Company will not, and will not permit any of its Restricted Subsidiaries to, consummate an Asset Sale unless:

- (1) the Company (or the Restricted Subsidiary, as the case may be) receives consideration at the time of the Asset Sale at least equal to the Fair Market Value of the assets or Equity Interests issued or sold or otherwise disposed of; and
- (2) at least 75% of the consideration received in the Asset Sale by the Company or such Restricted Subsidiary is in the form of cash or Cash Equivalents. For purposes of this provision, each of the following will be deemed to be cash:
 - (a) any liabilities, as shown on the Company's most recent consolidated balance sheet, of the Company or any Restricted Subsidiary (other than contingent liabilities and liabilities that are by their terms subordinated to the 2016 notes or any Note Guarantee) that are assumed by the transferee of any such assets pursuant to a customary novation agreement that releases the Company or such Restricted Subsidiary from further liability;
 - (b) any securities, 2016 notes or other obligations received by the Company or any such Restricted Subsidiary from such transferee that are within 180 days, converted by the Company or such Restricted Subsidiary into cash or Cash Equivalents, to the extent of the cash received in that conversion; and
 - (c) any stock or assets of the kind referred to in clauses (2) or (4) of the next paragraph of this covenant.

Within 365 days after the receipt of any Net Proceeds from an Asset Sale or a Casualty Event, the Company (or the applicable Restricted Subsidiary, as the case may be) may apply such Net Proceeds:

- (1) to repay Priority Lien Debt and, if such Priority Lien Debt is revolving credit Indebtedness, to correspondingly reduce commitments with respect thereto;
- (2) to acquire all or substantially all of the assets of, or any Capital Stock of, a Person engaged in a Permitted Business, if, after giving effect to any such acquisition of Capital Stock, the Permitted Business is or becomes a Restricted Subsidiary of the Company;
- (3) to make a capital expenditure; or
- (4) to acquire other assets that are not classified as current assets under GAAP and that are used or useful in a Permitted Business;

provided, that the application of any Net Proceeds from an Asset Sale that constitutes a Sale of Collateral or from a Casualty Event, in accordance with clauses (2) through (4) of this paragraph shall be used to purchase, acquire or improve assets that would constitute Collateral; and provided, further, that the requirements of clauses (2) through (4) of this paragraph shall be deemed to be satisfied if a binding agreement committing to make the acquisitions or expenditures referenced in such clauses is entered into by the Company or its Restricted Subsidiaries within 365 days after receipt of any Net Proceeds and such Net Proceeds are applied in accordance with such agreement; provided, however, that if the Net Proceeds to be applied pursuant to such agreement are not applied within 180 days of the date of such agreement, such Net Proceeds shall be considered Excess Proceeds.

Any Net Proceeds from Asset Sales that are not applied or invested as provided in the second paragraph of this covenant will constitute Excess Proceeds. When the aggregate amount of Excess Proceeds exceeds $15.0 million, within five days thereof, the Company will make an Asset Sale Offer to all holders of 2016 notes and all holders of other Parity Lien Debt containing provisions similar to those set forth in the 2016 notes Indenture with respect to offers to purchase or redeem with the proceeds of sales of assets to purchase the maximum principal amount of 2016 notes and such other Parity Lien Debt that may be purchased out of the Excess Proceeds. The offer price in any Asset Sale Offer will be equal to 100% of the principal amount plus accrued and unpaid interest to the date of purchase (or, in respect of such Parity Lien Debt, such lesser price, if only, as may be provided for by the terms of such Parity Lien Debt), and will be payable in cash. If any Excess Proceeds remain after consummation of an Asset Sale Offer, the Company may use those Excess Proceeds for any purpose not otherwise prohibited by the 2016 notes Indenture. If the aggregate principal amount of 2016 notes and other Parity Lien Debt tendered into such Asset Sale Offer exceeds the amount of Excess Proceeds, the trustee will select the 2016 notes and such other Parity Lien Debt to be purchased on a pro rata basis. Upon completion of each Asset Sale Offer, the amount of Excess Proceeds will be reset at zero.

The Company will comply with the requirements of Rule 14e-1 under the Exchange Act and any other securities laws and regulations thereunder to the extent those laws and regulations are applicable in connection with each repurchase of 2016 notes pursuant to an Asset Sale Offer. To the extent that the provisions of any securities laws or regulations conflict with the Asset Sale provisions of the 2016 notes Indenture, the Company will comply with the applicable securities laws and regulations and will not be deemed to have breached its obligations under the Asset Sale provisions of the 2016 notes Indenture by virtue of such compliance.

The agreements governing the Company's other Indebtedness contain, and future agreements may contain, prohibitions of certain events, including events that would constitute a Change of Control or an Asset Sale and including repurchases of or other prepayments in respect of the 2016 notes. The exercise by the holders of 2016 notes of their right to require the Company to repurchase the 2016 notes upon a Change of Control or an Asset Sale could cause a default under these other agreements, even if the Change of Control or Asset Sale itself does not, due to the financial effect of such repurchases on the Company. In the event a Change of Control or Asset Sale occurs at a time when the Company is prohibited from purchasing 2016 notes, the Company could seek the consent of its senior lenders to the purchase of 2016 notes or could attempt to refinance the borrowings that contain such prohibition. If the Company does not obtain a consent or repay those borrowings, the Company will remain prohibited from purchasing 2016 notes. In that case, the Company's failure to purchase tendered 2016 notes would constitute an Event of Default under the 2016 notes Indenture which could, in turn, constitute a default under the other indebtedness. Finally, the Company's ability to pay cash to the holders of 2016 notes upon a repurchase may be limited by the Company's then existing financial resources. See Risk factors We may be unable to purchase the 2016 notes upon a change of control.

Selection and Notice

If less than all of the 2016 notes are to be redeemed at any time, the trustee will select 2016 notes for redemption on a pro rata basis unless otherwise required by law or applicable stock exchange requirements.

No 2016 notes of $1,000 or less can be redeemed in part. Notices of redemption will be mailed by first class mail at least 30 but not more than 60 days before the redemption date to each holder of 2016 notes to be redeemed at its registered address, except that redemption notices may be mailed more than 60 days prior to a redemption date if the notice is issued in connection with a defeasance of the 2016 notes or a satisfaction and discharge of the 2016 notes Indenture. Notices of redemption may not be conditional.

If any note is to be redeemed in part only, the notice of redemption that relates to that note will state the portion of the principal amount of that note that is to be redeemed. A new note in principal amount equal to the unredeemed portion of the original note will be issued in the name of the holder of 2016 notes upon cancellation of the original note. 2016 notes called for redemption become due on the date fixed for redemption. On and after the redemption date, interest ceases to accrue on 2016 notes or portions of 2016 notes called for redemption.

The amount of all Restricted Payments (other than cash) will be the Fair Market Value on the date of the Restricted Payment of the asset(s) or securities proposed to be transferred or issued by the Company or such Restricted Subsidiary, as the case may be, pursuant to the Restricted Payment.

Incurrence of Indebtedness and Issuance of Disqualified Stock and Preferred Stock

The Company will not, and will not permit any of its Restricted Subsidiaries to, directly or indirectly, create, incur, issue, assume, guarantee or otherwise become directly or indirectly liable, contingently or otherwise, with respect to (collectively, incur) any Indebtedness (including Acquired Debt), and the Company will not issue any Disqualified Stock and will not permit any of its Restricted Subsidiaries to issue any shares of preferred stock; provided, however, that the Company may incur Indebtedness (including Acquired Debt) or issue Disqualified Stock, and the Guarantors may incur Indebtedness (including Acquired Debt) or issue preferred stock, if, the Fixed Charge Coverage Ratio for the Company's most recently ended four full fiscal quarters for which financial statements are available immediately preceding the date on which such additional Indebtedness is incurred or such Disqualified Stock or such preferred stock is issued, as the case may be, would have been at least 2.0 to 1.0, determined on a pro forma basis (including a pro forma application of the net proceeds therefrom), as if the additional Indebtedness had been incurred or the Disqualified Stock or the preferred stock had been issued, as the case may be, at the beginning of such four-quarter period.

The first paragraph of this covenant will not prohibit the incurrence of any of the following items of Indebtedness (collectively, Permitted Debt):

- (1) the incurrence by the Company and any Guarantor of (i) Indebtedness and letters of credit under Credit Facilities (with letters of credit being deemed to have a principal amount equal to the maximum potential liability of the Company and its Restricted Subsidiaries thereunder) and (ii) Indebtedness under any receivables facility (such amounts outstanding under any such receivables facility not to exceed $125.0 million outstanding at any given time), collectively in an aggregate principal amount at any one time outstanding under this clause (1) not to exceed the sum of (i) the Borrowing Base and (ii) $75.0 million;
- (2) the incurrence by the Company or any of its Restricted Subsidiaries of Existing Indebtedness and Existing Disqualified Stock;
- (3) the incurrence by the Company and the Guarantors of Indebtedness represented by the 2016 notes and the related Note Guarantees to be issued on the date of the 2016 notes Indenture and additional 2016 notes, or other Parity Lien Debt, to be issued on a future date in exchange for 2012 notes;
- (4)

- (5) the incurrence by the Company or any of its Restricted Subsidiaries of Permitted Refinancing Indebtedness in exchange for, or the net proceeds of which are used to renew, refund, refinance, replace, defease or discharge any Indebtedness (other than intercompany Indebtedness) that was permitted by the 2016 notes Indenture to be incurred under the first paragraph of this covenant or clauses (2), (3), or (5) of this paragraph;
- (6) the incurrence by the Company or any of its Restricted Subsidiaries of intercompany Indebtedness between or among the Company and any of its Restricted Subsidiaries; provided, however, that:
 - (a) if the Company or any Guarantor is the obligor on such Indebtedness and the payee is not the Company or a Guarantor, such Indebtedness must be expressly subordinated, upon an Event of Default, to the prior payment in full in cash of all Obligations then due with respect to the 2016 notes, in the case of the Company, or the Note Guarantee, in the case of a Guarantor; and
 - (b) (i) any subsequent issuance or transfer of Equity Interests that results in any such Indebtedness being held by a Person other than the Company or a Restricted Subsidiary of the Company and (ii) any sale or other transfer of any such Indebtedness to a Person that is not either the Company or a Restricted Subsidiary of the Company, will be deemed, in each case, to constitute an incurrence of such Indebtedness by the Company or such Restricted Subsidiary, as the case may be, that was not permitted by this clause (6);
- (7) the issuance by any of the Company's Restricted Subsidiaries to the Company or to any of its Restricted Subsidiaries of shares of preferred stock; provided, however, that:
 - (a) any subsequent issuance or transfer of Equity Interests that results in any such preferred stock being held by a Person other than the Company or a Restricted Subsidiary of the Company; and
 - (b) any sale or other transfer of any such preferred stock to a Person that is not either the Company or a Restricted Subsidiary of the Company, will be deemed, in each case, to constitute an issuance of such preferred stock by such Restricted Subsidiary that was not permitted by this clause (7);
- (8) the incurrence by the Company or any of its Restricted Subsidiaries of Hedging Obligations in the ordinary course of business;
- (9) the guarantee by the Company or any of the Guarantors of Indebtedness of the Company or a Restricted Subsidiary of the Company that was permitted to be incurred by another provision of this covenant; provided that if the Indebtedness being guaranteed is subordinated to or pari passu with the 2016 notes, then the guarantee shall be subordinated or pari passu, as applicable, to the same extent as the Indebtedness guaranteed;
- (10) the incurrence by the Company or any of its Restricted Subsidiaries of Indebtedness in respect of workers compensation claims, self-insurance obligations, bankers' acceptances, trade letters of credit, performance and surety bonds in the ordinary course of business;

Table of Contents

- (11) the incurrence by the Company or any of its Restricted Subsidiaries of Indebtedness arising from the honoring by a bank or other financial institution of a check, draft or similar instrument inadvertently drawn against insufficient funds, so long as such Indebtedness is covered within five business days;
- (12) Indebtedness arising from any agreement entered into by the Company or any of its Restricted Subsidiaries providing for indemnification, purchase price adjustment, holdback, contingency payment obligations based on the performance of the acquired or disposed assets or similar obligations (other than Guarantees of Indebtedness) incurred by any Person in connection with the acquisition or disposition of assets permitted by the 2016 notes Indenture;
- (13) the incurrence by the Company or any of its Restricted Subsidiaries of Acquired Debt of Restricted Subsidiaries acquired or assumed by the Company or another Restricted Subsidiary of the Company, or resulting from the merger or consolidation of one or more Persons into or with one or more Restricted Subsidiaries of the Company; provided that (a) such Acquired Debt is not incurred in contemplation of the respective acquisition, merger or consolidation, and (b) after giving effect to any Acquired Debt acquired or assumed pursuant to this clause (13),
 - (a) the Company would be permitted to incur at least $1.00 of additional Indebtedness pursuant to the Fixed Charge Coverage Ratio test set forth in the first paragraph of this Incurrence of Indebtedness and Issuance of Disqualified Stock and Preferred Stock covenant; or
 - (b) the Company's Fixed Charge Coverage Ratio at the time of such acquisition or merger, after giving pro forma effect to such acquisition or merger, would be greater than the Company's actual Fixed Charge Coverage Ratio immediately prior to such acquisition or merger;
- (14) the incurrence by the Company or any of its Restricted Subsidiaries of Indebtedness incurred for the sole purpose of financing the payment of insurance premiums in the ordinary course of business;
- (15) the incurrence by the Company of Disqualified Capital Stock issued to any officer, director or employee of the Company or any of its Restricted Subsidiaries pursuant to any equity subscription agreement, stock option agreement, shareholder's agreement or similar agreement, or otherwise approved by the Board of Directors; and
- (16) the incurrence by the Company or any of its Restricted Subsidiaries of additional Indebtedness in an aggregate principal amount (or accreted value, as applicable) at any time outstanding, including all Indebtedness incurred to renew, refund, refinance, replace, defease or discharge any Indebtedness incurred pursuant to this clause (16), not to exceed $50.0 million.

The Company will not incur, and will not permit any Guarantor to incur, any Indebtedness (including Permitted Debt) that is contractually subordinated in right of payment to any other Indebtedness of the Company or such Guarantor unless such Indebtedness is also contractually subordinated in right of payment to the 2016 notes and the applicable Note Guarantee on substantially identical terms; provided, however, that no Indebtedness will be deemed to be contractually subordinated in right of payment to any other Indebtedness of the Company solely by virtue of being unsecured or by virtue of being secured on a first or junior Lien basis.

For purposes of determining compliance with this Incurrence of Indebtedness and Issuance of Disqualified Stock and Preferred Stock covenant, in the event that an item of proposed Indebtedness meets the criteria of more than one of the categories of Permitted Debt described in clauses (1) through (16) above, or is entitled to be incurred pursuant to the first paragraph of this covenant, the Company will be permitted to classify such item of Indebtedness on the date of its incurrence, or later reclassify all or a portion of such item of Indebtedness, in any manner that complies with this covenant. Indebtedness under Credit Facilities outstanding on the date on which 2016 notes are first issued and authenticated under the 2016 notes Indenture will initially be deemed to have been incurred on such date in reliance on the exception provided by clause (1) of the definition of Permitted Debt. The accrual of interest, the accretion or amortization of original issue discount, the payment of interest on any Indebtedness in the form of additional Indebtedness with the same terms, the reclassification of preferred stock as Indebtedness due to a change in accounting principles, and the payment of dividends on Disqualified Stock in the form of additional shares of the same class of Disqualified Stock will not be deemed to be an incurrence of Indebtedness or an issuance of Disqualified Stock for purposes of this covenant; provided, in each such case, that the amount of any such accrual, accretion or payment is included in Fixed Charges of the Company as accrued. Notwithstanding any other provision of this covenant, the maximum amount of Indebtedness that the Company or any Restricted Subsidiary may incur pursuant to this covenant shall not be deemed to be exceeded solely as a result of fluctuations in exchange rates or currency values.

The amount of any Indebtedness outstanding as of any date will be:

- (1) the accreted value of the Indebtedness, in the case of any Indebtedness issued with original issue discount;
- (2) the principal amount of the Indebtedness, in the case of any other Indebtedness; and
- (3) in respect of Indebtedness of another Person secured by a Lien on the assets of the specified Person, the lesser of:
 - (a) the Fair Market Value of such assets at the date of determination; and
 - (b) the amount of the Indebtedness of the other Person.

Liens

The Company will not, and will not permit any of its Restricted Subsidiaries to, directly or indirectly, create, incur, assume or suffer to exist any Lien of any kind on any asset now owned or hereafter acquired, except Permitted Liens.

Dividend and Other Payment Restrictions Affecting Subsidiaries

The Company will not, and will not permit any of its Restricted Subsidiaries to, directly or indirectly, create or permit to exist or become effective any consensual encumbrance or restriction on the ability of any Restricted Subsidiary to:

- (1) pay dividends or make any other distributions on its Capital Stock to the Company or any of its Restricted Subsidiaries, or with respect to any other interest or participation in, or measured by, its profits, or pay any indebtedness owed to the Company or any of its Restricted Subsidiaries;
- (2) make loans or advances to the Company or any of its Restricted Subsidiaries; or
- (3) sell, lease or transfer any of its properties or assets to the Company or any of its Restricted Subsidiaries (including for purposes of this clause (3) distributions of property as dividends on capital stock).

However, the preceding restrictions will not apply to encumbrances or restrictions existing under or by reason of:

- (1) agreements governing Existing Indebtedness, any Credit Facility, including the Credit Agreement, and any other agreements as in effect on the date of the 2016 notes Indenture, and any amendments, restatements, modifications, renewals, supplements, refundings, replacements or refinancings of those agreements; provided that the amendments, restatements, modifications, renewals, supplements, refundings, replacements or refinancings are not materially more restrictive, taken as a whole, with respect to such dividend and other payment restrictions than those contained in those agreements on the date of the 2016 notes Indenture;
- (2) the 2016 notes Indenture, the 2016 notes, the Note Guarantees and the security documents;
- (3) applicable law, rule, regulation or order;

- (4) any instrument governing Indebtedness or Capital Stock of a Person acquired by the Company or any of its Restricted Subsidiaries as in effect at the time of such acquisition (except to the extent such Indebtedness or Capital Stock was incurred in connection with or in contemplation of such acquisition), which encumbrance or restriction is not applicable to any Person, or the properties or assets of any Person, other than the Person, or the property or assets of the Person, so acquired; provided that, in the case of Indebtedness, such Indebtedness was permitted by the terms of the 2016 notes Indenture to be incurred;
- (5) customary non-assignment provisions in contracts, leases and licenses entered into in the ordinary course of business;
- (6) purchase money obligations for property or equipment acquired for use in the business of the Company or any of its Restricted Subsidiaries and Capital Lease Obligations that impose restrictions on the property purchased or leased of the nature described in clause (3) of the preceding paragraph;
- (7) any agreement for the sale or other disposition of a Restricted Subsidiary that restricts distributions by that Restricted Subsidiary pending the sale or other disposition;
- (8) Permitted Refinancing Indebtedness; provided that the restrictions contained in the agreements governing such Permitted Refinancing Indebtedness are not materially more restrictive, taken as a whole, than those contained in the agreements governing the Indebtedness being refinanced;
- (9) Liens permitted to be incurred under the provisions of the covenant described above under the heading Liens that limit the right of the debtor to dispose of the assets subject to such Liens;
- (10) provisions limiting the disposition or distribution of assets or property in joint venture agreements, asset sale agreements, sale-leaseback agreements, stock sale agreements and other similar agreements entered into with the approval of the Company's Board of Directors, which limitation is applicable only to the assets that are the subject of such agreements; and
- (11) restrictions on cash or other deposits or net worth imposed by customers under contracts entered into in the ordinary course of business.

Merger, Consolidation or Sale of Assets

The Company will not, directly or indirectly: (1) consolidate or merge with or into another Person (whether or not the Company is the surviving corporation); or (2) sell, assign, transfer, convey or otherwise dispose of all or substantially all of the properties or assets of the Company and its Restricted Subsidiaries taken as a whole, in one or more related transactions, to another Person, unless:

- (1) either: (a) the Company is the surviving corporation; or (b) the Person formed by or surviving any such consolidation or merger (if other than the Company) or to which such sale, assignment, transfer, conveyance or other disposition has been made is a corporation organized or existing under the laws of the United States, any state of the United States or the District of Columbia;
- (2) the Person formed by or surviving any such consolidation or merger (if other than the Company) or the Person to which such sale, assignment, transfer, conveyance or other disposition has been made assumes all the obligations of the Company under the 2016 notes, the 2016 notes Indenture, and the security documents pursuant to agreements reasonably satisfactory to the trustee;
- (3) immediately after such transaction, no Default or Event of Default exists; and
- (4)

the Company or the Person formed by or surviving any such consolidation or merger (if other than the Company), or to which such sale, assignment, transfer, conveyance or other disposition has been made would, on the date of such transaction after giving pro forma effect thereto and any related financing transactions as if the same had occurred at the beginning of the applicable four full fiscal quarter period:

Table of Contents

- (a) be permitted to incur at least $1.00 of additional Indebtedness pursuant to the Fixed Charge Coverage Ratio test set forth in the first paragraph of the covenant described above under the heading Incurrence of Indebtedness and Issuance of Disqualified Stock and Preferred Stock, or
- (b) have a Fixed Charge Coverage Ratio that is greater than the actual Fixed Charge Coverage Ratio of the Company immediately prior to such transaction.

In addition, the Company will not, directly or indirectly, lease all or substantially all of its and its Restricted Subsidiaries, taken as a whole, properties or assets, in one or more related transactions, to any other Person.

This Merger, Consolidation or Sale of Assets covenant will not apply to:

- (1) a merger of the Company with an Affiliate solely for the purpose of reincorporating the Company in another jurisdiction; or
- (2) any consolidation or merger, or any sale, assignment, transfer, conveyance, lease or other disposition of assets between or among the Company and its Restricted Subsidiaries.

Transactions with Affiliates

The Company will not, and will not permit any of its Restricted Subsidiaries to, make any payment to, or sell, lease, transfer or otherwise dispose of any of its properties or assets to, or purchase any property or assets from, or enter into or make or amend any transaction, contract, agreement, understanding, loan, advance or guarantee with, or for the benefit of, any Affiliate of the Company (each, an Affiliate Transaction"), unless:

- (1) the Affiliate Transaction is on terms that are no less favorable to the Company or the relevant Restricted Subsidiary than those that would have been obtained in a comparable transaction by the Company or such Restricted Subsidiary with an unrelated Person; and
- (2) the Company delivers to the trustee:
 - (a) with respect to any Affiliate Transaction or series of related Affiliate Transactions involving aggregate consideration in excess of $7.5 million, a resolution of the Board of Directors of the Company set forth in an officers' certificate certifying that such Affiliate Transaction complies with this covenant and that such Affiliate Transaction has been approved by a majority of the disinterested members, if any, of the Board of Directors of the Company; and
 - (b) with respect to any Affiliate Transaction or series of related Affiliate Transactions involving aggregate consideration in excess of $20.0 million, an opinion as to the fairness to the Company or such Subsidiary of such Affiliate Transaction from a financial point of view issued by an accounting, appraisal or investment banking firm of national standing.

The following items will not be deemed to be Affiliate Transactions and, therefore, will not be subject to the provisions of the prior paragraph:

- (1) any employment agreement, employee benefit plan, officer, employee or director indemnification agreement or any similar arrangement entered into by the Company or any of its Restricted Subsidiaries in the ordinary course of business and payments pursuant thereto;
- (2) transactions between or among the Company and/or its Restricted Subsidiaries;
- (3) transactions with a Person (other than an Unrestricted Subsidiary of the Company) that is an Affiliate of the Company solely because the Company owns, directly or through a Restricted Subsidiary, an Equity Interest in, or controls, such Person;

Table of Contents

- (4) payment of reasonable directors' fees to Persons who are not otherwise Affiliates of the Company;
- (5) any issuance of Equity Interests (other than Disqualified Stock) of the Company to Affiliates of the Company;
- (6) Restricted Payments that do not violate the provisions of the 2016 notes Indenture described above under the heading "Restricted Payments";
- (7) Permitted Payments to Sponsor;
- (8) loans or advances to employees in the ordinary course of business not to exceed $3.0 million in the aggregate at any one time outstanding;
- (9) payments of cash bonuses to officers and employees approved by the Board of Directors; and
- (10) consummation of the Recapitalization Transactions and payments made in connection therewith.

Business Activities

The Company will not, and will not permit any of its Restricted Subsidiaries to, engage in any business other than Permitted Businesses, except to such extent as would not be material to the Company and its Restricted Subsidiaries taken as a whole.

Additional Note Guarantees

If the Company or any of its Restricted Subsidiaries acquires or creates another Domestic Restricted Subsidiary after the date of the 2016 notes Indenture, then that newly acquired or created Domestic Restricted Subsidiary will become a Guarantor and execute a supplemental indenture and deliver an opinion of counsel satisfactory to the trustee within 30 business days of the date on which it was acquired or created; provided that any Domestic Restricted Subsidiary that constitutes an Immaterial Subsidiary need not become a Guarantor until such time as it ceases to be an Immaterial Subsidiary.

Designation of Restricted and Unrestricted Subsidiaries

The Board of Directors of the Company may designate any Restricted Subsidiary to be an Unrestricted Subsidiary if that designation would not cause a Default. If a Restricted Subsidiary is designated as an Unrestricted Subsidiary, the aggregate Fair Market Value of all outstanding Investments owned by the Company and its Restricted Subsidiaries in the Subsidiary designated as Unrestricted will be deemed to be an Investment made as of the time of the designation and will reduce the amount available for Restricted Payments under the covenant described above under the heading "Restricted Payments" or under one or more clauses of the definition of Permitted Investments, as determined by the Company. That designation will only be permitted if the Investment would be permitted at that time and if the Restricted Subsidiary otherwise meets the definition of an Unrestricted Subsidiary.

Any designation of a Subsidiary of the Company as an Unrestricted Subsidiary will be evidenced to the trustee by filing with the trustee a certified copy of a resolution of the Board of Directors giving effect to such designation and an officers' certificate certifying that such designation complied with the preceding conditions and was permitted by the covenant described above under the heading "Restricted Payments." If, at any time, any Unrestricted Subsidiary would fail to meet the preceding requirements as an Unrestricted Subsidiary, it will thereafter cease to be an Unrestricted Subsidiary for purposes of the 2016 notes Indenture and any Indebtedness of such Subsidiary will be deemed to be incurred by a Restricted Subsidiary of the Company as of such date and, if such Indebtedness is not permitted to be incurred as of such date under the covenant described under the heading "Incurrence of Indebtedness and Issuance of Disqualified Stock and Preferred Stock," the Company will be in default of such covenant. The Board of Directors of the Company may at any time, redesignate any Unrestricted Subsidiary to be a Restricted Subsidiary of the Company if that redesignation would not cause a Default; provided that such designation will be deemed to be an incurrence of Indebtedness by a Restricted Subsidiary of the Company of any outstanding Indebtedness of such Unrestricted Subsidiary, and such designation will only be permitted if (1) such Indebtedness is permitted under the covenant described under the heading Incurrence of Indebtedness and Issuance of Disqualified Stock and Preferred Stock, calculated on a pro forma basis as if such designation had occurred at the beginning of the four-quarter reference period; and (2) no Default or Event of Default would be in existence following such designation.

Limitation on Issuances and Sales of Equity Interests in Wholly-Owned Subsidiaries

The Company will not, and will not permit any of its Restricted Subsidiaries to, transfer, convey, sell, lease or otherwise dispose of any Equity Interests in any Wholly-Owned Restricted Subsidiary of the Company to any Person (other than the Company or a Wholly-Owned Subsidiary of the Company), unless:

- (1) such transfer, conveyance, sale, lease or other disposition is of all the Equity Interests in such Wholly-Owned Restricted Subsidiary; and
- (2) the Net Proceeds from such transfer, conveyance, sale, lease or other disposition are applied in accordance with the covenant described above under the heading Repurchase at the Option of Holders Asset Sales.

In addition, the Company will not permit any Wholly-Owned Restricted Subsidiary of the Company to issue any of its Equity Interests (other than, if necessary, shares of its Capital Stock constituting directors' qualifying shares) to any Person other than to the Company or a Wholly-Owned Restricted Subsidiary of the Company.

Limitation on Issuances of Guarantees of Indebtedness

The Company will not permit any of its Restricted Subsidiaries which is not a Guarantor, directly or indirectly, to Guarantee or pledge any assets to secure the payment of any other Indebtedness of the Company unless such Restricted Subsidiary simultaneously executes and delivers a supplemental indenture providing for the Guarantee of the payment of the 2016 notes by such Restricted Subsidiary, which Guarantee will be senior to or pari passu with such Restricted Subsidiary's Guarantee of or pledge to secure such other Indebtedness.

The Note Guarantee of a Guarantor will automatically and unconditionally be released:

- (1) in connection with any sale or other disposition of all or substantially all of the assets of that Guarantor (including by way of merger or consolidation) to a Person that is not (either before or after giving effect to such transaction) the Company or a Restricted Subsidiary of the Company, if the sale or other disposition does not violate the Asset Sale provisions of the 2016 notes Indenture;
- (2) in connection with any sale or other disposition of all of the Capital Stock of that Guarantor (or that Guarantor's direct or indirect parent) to a Person that is not (either before or after giving effect to such transaction) the Company or a Restricted Subsidiary of the Company, if the sale or other disposition does not violate the Asset Sale provisions of the 2016 notes Indenture;
- (3) if the Company designates any Restricted Subsidiary that is a Guarantor to be an Unrestricted Subsidiary in accordance with the applicable provisions of the 2016 notes Indenture; or
- (4) upon legal defeasance or satisfaction and discharge of the 2016 notes Indenture as provided below under the headings Legal Defeasance and Covenant Defeasance and Satisfaction and Discharge.

The form of the Note Guarantee is attached as an exhibit to the 2016 notes Indenture.

Payments for Consent

The Company will not, and will not permit any of its Restricted Subsidiaries to, directly or indirectly, pay or cause to be paid any consideration to or for the benefit of any holder of 2016 notes for or as an inducement to any consent, waiver or amendment of any of the terms or provisions of the 2016 notes Indenture or the 2016 notes unless such consideration is offered to be paid and is paid to all holders of the 2016 notes that consent, waive or agree to amend in the time frame set forth in the solicitation documents relating to such consent, waiver or agreement.

Reports

Whether or not required by the rules and regulations of the SEC, so long as any 2016 notes are outstanding, the Company will furnish to the holders of 2016 notes or cause the trustee to furnish to the holders of 2016 notes, within the time periods specified in the SEC's rules and regulations applicable to filers other than large accelerated filers and accelerated filers (as such terms are used in Rule 12b-2 under the Exchange Act):

- (1) all quarterly and annual reports that would be required to be filed with the SEC on Forms 10-Q and 10-K if the Company were required to file such reports; and
- (2) all current reports that would be required to be filed with the SEC on Form 8-K if the Company were required to file such reports.

The availability of the foregoing materials on either the SEC's EDGAR database service or on the Company's website shall be deemed to satisfy the Company's delivery obligation to deliver such reports.

All such reports will be prepared in all material respects in accordance with all of the rules and regulations applicable to such reports. Each annual report on Form 10-K will include a report on the Company's consolidated financial statements by the Company's certified independent accountants. In addition, the Company will file a copy of each of the reports referred to in clauses (1) and (2) above with the SEC for public availability within the time periods specified in the rules and regulations applicable to such reports for filers other than large accelerated filers and accelerated filers (as such terms are used in Rule 12b-2 under the Exchange Act) (unless the SEC will not accept such a filing) and will post the reports on its website within those time periods.

If at any time the Company is no longer subject to the periodic reporting requirements of the Exchange Act and the rules and regulations promulgated thereunder for any reason, the Company will nevertheless continue filing the reports specified in the preceding paragraphs of this covenant with the SEC within the time periods specified above unless the SEC will not accept such a filing. The Company will not take any action for the purpose of causing the SEC not to accept any such filings. If, notwithstanding the foregoing, the SEC will not accept the Company's filings for any reason, the Company will post the reports referred to in the preceding paragraphs on its website within the time periods that would apply if the Company were required to file those reports with the SEC.

If the Company has designated any of its Subsidiaries as Unrestricted Subsidiaries, then the quarterly and annual financial information required by the preceding paragraphs will include a reasonably detailed presentation, either on the face of the financial statements or in the footnotes thereto, and in Management's discussion and analysis of financial condition and results of operations, of the financial condition and results of operations of the Company and its Restricted Subsidiaries separate from the financial condition and results of operations of the Unrestricted Subsidiaries of the Company.

In addition, the Company and the Guarantors agree that, for so long as any 2016 notes remain outstanding, if at any time they are not required to file with the SEC the reports required by the preceding paragraphs, they will furnish to the holders of 2016 notes and prospective investors, upon the request of such holders, the information required to be delivered pursuant to Rule 144A(d)(4) under the Securities Act.

- (5) default under any mortgage, indenture or instrument under which there may be issued or by which there may be secured or evidenced any Indebtedness for money borrowed by the Company or any of its Restricted Subsidiaries (or the payment of which is guaranteed by the Company or any of its Restricted Subsidiaries), whether such Indebtedness or Guarantee now exists, or is created after the date of the 2016 notes Indenture, if that default:
 - (a) is caused by a failure to pay the principal of such Indebtedness at the final Stated Maturity of such Indebtedness (a Payment Default); or
 - (b) results in the acceleration of such Indebtedness prior to its express maturity, and, in each case, the principal amount of any such Indebtedness, together with the principal amount of any other such Indebtedness under which there has been a Payment Default or the maturity of which has been so accelerated, aggregates $20.0 million or more;
- (6) failure by the Company or any of its Restricted Subsidiaries to pay final judgments entered by a court or courts of competent jurisdiction aggregating in excess of $20.0 million (net of any amount covered by insurance of a reputable and creditworthy insurer that has not contested coverage or reserved rights with respect to the underlying claim), which judgments are not paid, discharged or stayed for a period of 60 days;
- (7) the occurrence of any of the following:
 - (a) except as permitted by the 2016 notes Indenture, any security document ceases for any reason to be fully enforceable; provided, that it will not be an Event of Default under this clause (7)(a) if the sole result of the failure of one or more security documents to be fully enforceable is that any Parity Lien purported to be granted under such security documents on Collateral, individually or in the aggregate, having an estimated good faith value of not more than $10.0 million ceases to be an enforceable and perfected Lien, subject as to priority only to Permitted Prior Liens;
 - (b) any Parity Lien purported to be granted under any security document on Collateral, individually or in the aggregate, having an estimated good faith value in excess of $10.0 million ceases to be an enforceable and perfected Lien, subject as to priority only to Permitted Prior Liens; or

- (9) certain events of bankruptcy or insolvency described in the 2016 notes Indenture with respect to the Company or any of its Restricted Subsidiaries that is a Significant Subsidiary or any group of Restricted Subsidiaries that, taken together, would constitute a Significant Subsidiary.

Table of Contents

In the case of an Event of Default arising from certain events of bankruptcy or insolvency, with respect to the Company, any Restricted Subsidiary of the Company that is a Significant Subsidiary or any group of Restricted Subsidiaries of the Company that, taken together, would constitute a Significant Subsidiary, all outstanding 2016 notes will become due and payable immediately without further action or notice. If any other Event of Default occurs and is continuing, the trustee or the holders of at least 25% in aggregate principal amount of the then outstanding 2016 notes may declare all the 2016 notes to be due and payable immediately.

Subject to certain limitations, holders of a majority in aggregate principal amount of the then outstanding 2016 notes may direct the trustee in its exercise of any trust or power. The trustee may withhold from holders of the 2016 notes notice of any continuing Default or Event of Default if it determines that withholding notice is in their interest, except a Default or Event of Default relating to the payment of principal, interest or premium, if any.

Subject to the provisions of the 2016 notes Indenture relating to the duties of the trustee, in case an Event of Default occurs and is continuing, the trustee will be under no obligation to exercise any of the rights or powers under the 2016 notes Indenture at the request or direction of any holders of 2016 notes unless such holders have offered to the trustee reasonable indemnity or security against any loss, liability or expense. Except to enforce the right to receive payment of principal or premium, if any, when due, no holder of a note may pursue any remedy with respect to the 2016 notes Indenture or the 2016 notes unless:

- (1) such holder has previously given the trustee notice that an Event of Default is continuing;
- (2) holders of at least 25% in aggregate principal amount of the then outstanding 2016 notes have requested the trustee to pursue the remedy;
- (3) such holders have offered the trustee reasonable security or indemnity against any loss, liability or expense;
- (4) the trustee has not complied with such request within 60 days after the receipt of the request and the offer of security or indemnity; and
- (5) holders of a majority in aggregate principal amount of the then outstanding 2016 notes have not given the trustee a direction inconsistent with such request within such 60-day period.

The holders of a majority in aggregate principal amount of the then outstanding 2016 notes by notice to the trustee may, on behalf of the holders of all of the 2016 notes, rescind an acceleration or waive any existing Default or Event of Default and its consequences under the 2016 notes Indenture except a continuing Default or Event of Default in the payment of interest or premium, if any, on, or the principal of, the 2016 notes.

The Company is required to deliver to the trustee annually a statement regarding compliance with the 2016 notes Indenture. Upon becoming aware of any Default or Event of Default, the Company is required to deliver to the trustee a statement specifying such Default or Event of Default.

No Personal Liability of Directors, Officers, Employees and Stockholders

No director, officer, employee, incorporator or stockholder of the Company or any Guarantor, as such, will have any liability for any obligations of the Company or the Guarantors under the 2016 notes, the 2016 notes Indenture, the Note Guarantees, and the Note Documents or for any claim based on, in respect of, or by reason of, such obligations or their creation. Each holder of 2016 notes by accepting a note waives and releases all such liability. The waiver and release are part of the consideration for issuance of the 2016 notes. The waiver will not be effective to waive liabilities under the federal securities laws.

Legal Defeasance and Covenant Defeasance

The Company may at any time, at the option of its Board of Directors evidenced by a resolution set forth in an officers certificate, elect to have all of its obligations discharged with respect to the outstanding 2016 notes and all obligations of the Guarantors discharged with respect to their Note Guarantees (Legal Defeasance) except for:

Table of Contents

- (1) the rights of holders of outstanding 2016 notes to receive payments in respect of the principal of, or interest or premium, if any, on, such 2016 notes when such payments are due from the trust referred to below;
- (2) the Company's obligations with respect to the 2016 notes concerning issuing temporary 2016 notes, registration of the transfer or exchange of 2016 notes, mutilated, destroyed, lost or stolen 2016 notes and the maintenance of an office or agency for payment and money for security payments held in trust;
- (3) the rights, powers, trusts, duties and immunities of the trustee, and the Company's and the Guarantors obligations in connection therewith; and
- (4) the Legal Defeasance and Covenant Defeasance provisions of the 2016 notes Indenture.

In addition, the Company may, at its option and at any time, elect to have the obligations of the Company and the Guarantors released with respect to certain covenants under the 2016 notes Indenture (including, without limitation, its obligation to make Change of Control Offers and Asset Sale Offers) that are described above under the heading

Certain Covenants in the 2016 notes Indenture (Covenant Defeasance) and thereafter any omission to comply with those covenants will not constitute a Default or Event of Default with respect to the 2016 notes. In the event Covenant Defeasance occurs, certain events (not including non-payment, bankruptcy, receivership, rehabilitation and insolvency events) described under Events of Default and Remedies will no longer constitute an Event of Default with respect to the 2016 notes.

In order to exercise either Legal Defeasance or Covenant Defeasance:

- (1) the Company must irrevocably deposit with the trustee, in trust, for the benefit of the holders of the 2016 notes, cash in U.S. dollars, non-callable Government Securities, or a combination of cash in U.S. dollars and non-callable Government Securities, in amounts as will be sufficient, in the opinion of a nationally recognized investment bank, appraisal firm or firm of independent public accountants, to pay the principal of, or interest and premium, if any, on, the outstanding 2016 notes on the stated date for payment thereof or on the applicable redemption date, as the case may be, and the Company must specify whether the 2016 notes are being defeased to such stated date for payment or to a particular redemption date;
- (2) in the case of Legal Defeasance, the Company must deliver to the trustee an opinion of counsel reasonably acceptable to the trustee confirming that (a) the Company has received from, or there has been published by, the Internal Revenue Service a ruling or (b) since the date of the 2016 notes Indenture, there has been a change in the applicable federal income tax law, in either case to the effect that, and based thereon such opinion of counsel will confirm that, the holders of the outstanding 2016 notes will not recognize income, gain or loss for federal income tax purposes as a result of such Legal Defeasance and will be subject to federal income tax on the same amounts, in the same manner and at the same times as would have been the case if such Legal Defeasance had not occurred;
- (3) in the case of Covenant Defeasance, the Company must deliver to the trustee an opinion of counsel reasonably acceptable to the trustee confirming that the holders of the outstanding 2016 notes will not recognize income, gain or loss for federal income tax purposes as a result of such Covenant Defeasance and will be subject to federal income tax on the same amounts, in the same manner and at the same times as would have been the case if such Covenant Defeasance had not occurred;
- (4) no Default or Event of Default has occurred and is continuing on the date of such deposit (other than a Default or Event of Default resulting from the borrowing of funds to be applied to such deposit and the granting of Liens in connection therewith) and the deposit will not result in a breach or violation of, or constitute a default under, any other instrument to which the Company or any Guarantor is a party or by which the Company or any Guarantor is bound;

- (5) such Legal Defeasance or Covenant Defeasance will not result in a breach or violation of, or constitute a default under, any material agreement or instrument (other than the 2016 notes Indenture) to which the Company or any of its Subsidiaries is a party or by which the Company or any of its Subsidiaries is bound;

Table of Contents

(6) the Company must deliver to the trustee an officers certificate stating that the deposit was not made by the Company with the intent of preferring the holders of 2016 notes over the other creditors of the Company with the intent of defeating, hindering, delaying or defrauding any creditors of the Company or others; and

(7) the Company must deliver to the trustee an officers certificate and an opinion of counsel, each stating that all conditions precedent relating to the Legal Defeasance or the Covenant Defeasance have been complied with.

The Collateral will be released from the Lien securing the 2016 notes, as provided under the heading Collateral Trust Agreement Release of Liens in Respect of 2016 Notes, upon a Legal Defeasance or Covenant Defeasance in accordance with the provisions described above.

Amendment, Supplement and Waiver

Except as provided in the next three succeeding paragraphs, the 2016 notes Indenture or the 2016 notes or the Note Guarantees may be amended or supplemented with the consent of the holders of at least a majority in aggregate principal amount of the 2016 notes then outstanding (including, without limitation, consents obtained in connection with a purchase of, or tender offer or exchange offer for, 2016 notes), and any existing Default or Event of Default or compliance with any provision of the 2016 notes Indenture or the 2016 notes or the Note Guarantees may be waived with the consent of the holders of a majority in aggregate principal amount of the then outstanding 2016 notes (including, without limitation, consents obtained in connection with a purchase of, or tender offer or exchange offer for, 2016 notes).

Without the consent of each holder of 2016 notes affected, an amendment, supplement or waiver may not (with respect to any 2016 notes held by a non-consenting holder):

- (1) reduce the principal amount of 2016 notes whose holders must consent to an amendment, supplement or waiver;
- (2) reduce the principal of or change the fixed maturity of any note or reduce the premium payable upon redemption of any note or change the time at which any note may be redeemed (other than provisions relating to the covenants described above under the heading Repurchase at the Option of Holders);
- (3) reduce the rate of or change the time for payment of interest, including default interest, on any note;
- (4) waive a Default or Event of Default in the payment of principal of, or interest or premium, if any, on, the 2016 notes (except a rescission of acceleration of the 2016 notes by the holders of at least a majority in aggregate principal amount of the then outstanding 2016 notes and a waiver of the payment default that resulted from such acceleration);
- (5) make any note payable in money other than that stated in the 2016 notes;
- (6) make any change in the provisions of the 2016 notes Indenture relating to waivers of past Defaults, Events of Default or the rights of holders of 2016 notes to receive payments of principal of, or interest or premium, if any, on, the 2016 notes;
- (7) waive a redemption payment payable with respect to any note (other than a payment required by one of the covenants described above under the heading Repurchase at the Option of Holders);
- (8) release any Guarantor from any of its obligations under its Note Guarantee or the 2016 notes Indenture, except in accordance with the terms of the 2016 notes Indenture; or
- (9) make any change in the preceding amendment and waiver provisions.

In addition, any amendment to, or waiver of, the provisions of the 2016 notes Indenture or any security document that has the effect of releasing all or substantially all of the Collateral from the Liens securing the 2016 notes will require the consent of the holders of at least 66 2/3% in aggregate principal amount of the 2016 notes then outstanding.

Table of Contents

Notwithstanding the preceding, without the consent of any holder of 2016 notes, the Company, the Guarantors and the trustee may amend or supplement the 2016 notes Indenture, the 2016 notes or the Note Guarantees:

- (1) to cure any ambiguity, defect or inconsistency;
- (2) to provide for uncertificated 2016 notes in addition to or in place of certificated 2016 notes;

- (4) to make any change that would provide any additional rights or benefits to the holders of 2016 notes or that does not adversely affect the legal rights under the 2016 notes Indenture of any such holder;
- (5) to comply with requirements of the SEC in order to effect or maintain the qualification of the 2016 notes Indenture under the Trust Indenture Act, if applicable;
- (6) to conform the text of the 2016 notes Indenture, the Note Guarantees, the security documents or the 2016 notes to any provision of this Description of 2016 notes to the extent that such provision in this Description of 2016 notes was intended to be a verbatim recitation of a provision of the 2016 notes Indenture, the Note Guarantees, the security documents or the 2016 notes;
- (7) to provide for the issuance of additional 2016 notes in accordance with the limitations set forth in the 2016 notes Indenture as of the date of the 2016 notes Indenture; or
- (8) to allow any Guarantor to execute a supplemental indenture and/or a Note Guarantee with respect to the 2016 notes, to add additional Guarantors or release Guarantors from Note Guarantees, each in accordance with the terms of the 2016 notes Indenture; or
- (9) to make, complete or confirm any grant of Collateral permitted or required by the 2016 notes Indenture or any of the security documents or any release of Collateral that becomes effective as set forth in the 2016 notes Indenture or any of the security documents.

Satisfaction and Discharge

The 2016 notes Indenture will be discharged and will cease to be of further effect as to all 2016 notes issued thereunder, when:

- (1) either:
 - (a) all 2016 notes that have been authenticated, except lost, stolen or destroyed 2016 notes that have been replaced or paid and 2016 notes for whose payment money has been deposited in trust and thereafter repaid to the Company, have been delivered to the trustee for cancellation; or
 - (b) all 2016 notes that have not been delivered to the trustee for cancellation have become due and payable by reason of the mailing of a notice of redemption or otherwise or will become due and payable within one year and the Company or any Guarantor has irrevocably deposited or caused to be deposited with the trustee as trust funds in trust solely for the benefit of the holders, cash in U.S. dollars, non-callable Government Securities, or a combination of cash in U.S. dollars and non-callable Government Securities, in amounts as will be sufficient, without consideration of any reinvestment of interest, to pay and discharge the entire Indebtedness on the 2016 notes not delivered to the trustee for cancellation for principal, premium, if any, and accrued interest to the date of maturity or redemption;

Table of Contents

- (2) no Default or Event of Default has occurred and is continuing on the date of the deposit as a result of the Company's failure to comply with the provisions described under the heading "Repurchase at the Option of Holders Change of Control" and the deposit will not result in a breach or violation of, or constitute a default under, any other instrument to which the Company or any Guarantor is a party or by which the Company or any Guarantor is bound;
- (3) the Company or any Guarantor has paid or caused to be paid all sums payable by it under the 2016 notes Indenture; and
- (4) the Company has delivered irrevocable instructions to the trustee under the 2016 notes Indenture to apply the deposited money toward the payment of the 2016 notes at maturity or on the redemption date, as the case may be.

In addition, the Company must deliver an officers' certificate and an opinion of counsel to the trustee stating that all conditions precedent to satisfaction and discharge have been satisfied.

The Collateral will be released from the Lien securing the 2016 notes, as provided under the heading "Collateral Trust Agreement Release of Liens in Respect of 2016 notes," upon a satisfaction and discharge in accordance with the provisions described above.

Concerning the Trustee

If the trustee becomes a creditor of the Company or any Guarantor, the 2016 notes Indenture limits the right of the trustee to obtain payment of claims in certain cases, or to realize on certain property received in respect of any such claim as security or otherwise. The trustee will be permitted to engage in other transactions; however, if it acquires any conflicting interest it must eliminate such conflict within 90 days, apply to the SEC for permission to continue as trustee (if the 2016 notes Indenture has been qualified under the Trust Indenture Act) or resign.

The holders of a majority in aggregate principal amount of the then outstanding 2016 notes will have the right to direct the time, method and place of conducting any proceeding for exercising any remedy available to the trustee, subject to certain exceptions. The 2016 notes Indenture provides that in case an Event of Default occurs and is continuing, the trustee will be required, in the exercise of its power, to use the degree of care of a prudent man in the conduct of his own affairs. Subject to such provisions, the trustee will be under no obligation to exercise any of its rights or powers under the 2016 notes Indenture at the request of any holder of 2016 notes, unless such holder has offered to the trustee security and indemnity satisfactory to it against any loss, liability or expense.

DESCRIPTION OF CAPITAL STOCK

The following is a summary of the material terms of our capital stock. You are strongly encouraged, however, to read our amended and restated certificate of incorporation, amended and restated bylaws, and other agreements, copies of which are available from us upon request or may be found in the Investor section of our website at www.bldr.com under the heading Governance. The information on our website is not, and should not be, considered part of this prospectus, is not incorporated by reference into this document, and should not be relied upon in connection with making any investment decision with respect to our common stock.

General Matters

Our amended and restated certificate of incorporation provides that we are authorized to issue 200,000,000 shares of common stock, par value $0.01 per share, and 10,000,000 shares of undesignated preferred stock, par value $0.01 per share.

As of January 20, 2010, we had outstanding 36,347,490 shares of common stock (including 61,098 shares of restricted common stock) held by approximately 100 stockholders of record. As of January 20, 2010, we had outstanding options (including vested and unvested options) to purchase 2,283,561 shares of our common stock.

Common Stock

Shares of our common stock have the following rights, preferences, and privileges:

Voting rights. Each outstanding share of common stock entitles its holder to one vote on all matters submitted to a vote of our stockholders, including the election of directors. There are no cumulative voting rights.

Generally, all matters to be voted on by stockholders must be approved by a majority of the votes entitled to be cast by all shares of common stock present or represented by proxy.

Dividends. Holders of common stock are entitled to receive dividends as, when, and if dividends are declared by our board of directors out of assets or funds legally available for the payment of dividends.

Liquidation. In the event of a liquidation, dissolution, or winding up of our affairs, whether voluntary or involuntary, after payment of our liabilities and obligations to creditors, our remaining assets will be distributed ratably among the holders of shares of common stock on a per share basis.

Rights and preferences. Our common stock has no preemptive, redemption, conversion, or subscription rights. The rights, powers, preferences, and privileges of holders of our common stock are subject to, and may be adversely affected by, the rights of the holders of shares of any series of preferred stock that we may designate and issue in the future.

Preferred Stock

Our amended and restated certificate of incorporation provides that the board of directors has the authority, without action by the stockholders, to designate and issue up to 10,000,000 shares of preferred stock in one or more classes or series and to fix for each class or series the powers, rights, preferences, and privileges of each series of preferred stock, including dividend rights, conversion rights, voting rights, terms of redemption, liquidation preferences, and the number of shares constituting any class or series, which may be greater than the rights of the holders of the common stock. There will be no shares of preferred stock outstanding immediately after the closing of the Recapitalization Transactions. Any issuance of shares of preferred stock could adversely affect the voting power of holders of common stock. The likelihood that the holders will receive dividend payments and payments upon liquidation could have the effect of delaying, deferring, or preventing a change in control. We have no present plans to issue any shares of preferred stock.

Registration Rights

Pursuant to the Investment Agreement, dated as of October 23, 2009, as amended, by and among the Company, JLL, and Warburg Pincus, we have agreed that, at the closing of the Recapitalization Transactions, we will enter into a registration rights agreement with each of JLL and Warburg Pincus with respect to the shares of common stock owned by them and their affiliates. The agreement will provide that, upon the request of JLL or Warburg Pincus, we will register under the Securities Act of 1933, as amended, the shares of our common stock held by JLL or Warburg Pincus (or any of their affiliates), as applicable, for sale in accordance with its intended method of disposition, and will take other actions as are necessary to permit the sale of the shares in various jurisdictions. In addition, if we register any of our equity securities either for our own account or for the account of other security holders, JLL and Warburg Pincus will be entitled to notice of the registration and may include their shares in the registration, subject to certain customary underwriters' cut-back provisions. All fees, costs, and expenses of underwritten registrations will be borne by us, other than underwriting discounts and selling commissions, which will be borne by each stockholder selling its shares. Our obligation to register the shares and take other actions is subject to certain restrictions on, among other things, the frequency of requested registrations, the number of shares to be registered, and the duration of these rights. In connection with the closing of the Recapitalization Transactions and the execution of the registration rights agreement with JLL and Warburg Pincus, we will terminate our second amended and restated stockholders agreement, dated as of June 2, 2005, among Building Products, LLC and some of our executive officers.

Pursuant to the Support Agreement, we have agreed to file the registration statement of which this prospectus forms a part with the SEC and to cause this registration statement to become effective in accordance with the requirements of the Securities Act prior to the closing of the debt exchange in order to register offers and sales of 2016 notes and shares of our common stock received by the Selling Securityholders in the debt exchange and to maintain the effectiveness of such resale registration statement for 180 days following the closing of the debt exchange.

Anti-Takeover Effects of Certain Provisions of Our Certificate of Incorporation and Bylaws

Our amended and restated certificate of incorporation and amended and restated bylaws contain provisions that are intended to enhance the likelihood of continuity and stability in the composition of the board of directors and that may have the effect of delaying, deferring, or preventing a future takeover or change in control of our company unless the takeover or change in control is approved by our board of directors. These provisions include the following:

Staggered Board of Directors. Our amended and restated certificate of incorporation and bylaws provide for a staggered board of directors, divided into three classes, with our stockholders electing one class each year. Between stockholders' meetings, the board of directors will be able to appoint new directors to fill vacancies or newly created directorships so that no more than the number of directors in any given class could be replaced each year and it would take three successive annual meetings to replace all directors.

Elimination of stockholder action through written consent. Our amended and restated certificate of incorporation and bylaws provide that stockholder action can be taken only at an annual or special meeting of stockholders and cannot be taken by written consent in lieu of a meeting.

Elimination of the ability to call special meetings. Our amended and restated certificate of incorporation and bylaws provide that, except as otherwise required by law, special meetings of our stockholders can only be called pursuant to a resolution adopted by a majority of our board of directors, a committee of the board of directors that has been duly designated by the board of directors and whose powers and authority include the power to call such meetings, or by our chief executive officer or the chairman of our board of directors. Stockholders are not permitted to call a special meeting or to require our board to call a special meeting.

Advance notice procedures for stockholder proposals. Our amended and restated bylaws establish an advance notice procedure for stockholder proposals to be brought before an annual meeting of our stockholders, including proposed nominations of persons for election to our board. Stockholders at our annual meeting may only consider proposals or nominations specified in the notice of meeting or brought before the meeting by or at the direction of our board or by a stockholder who was a stockholder of record on the record date for the meeting, who is entitled to vote at the meeting and who has given to our secretary timely written notice, in proper form, of the stockholder's intention to bring that business before the meeting.

Removal of Directors; Board of Directors Vacancies. Our amended and restated certificate of incorporation and bylaws provide that members of our board of directors may not be removed without cause. Our bylaws further provide that only our board of directors may fill vacant directorships, except in limited circumstances. These provisions would prevent a stockholder from gaining control of our board of directors by removing incumbent directors and filling the resulting vacancies with such stockholder's own nominees.

Amendment of certificate of incorporation and bylaws. The General Corporation Law of the State of Delaware (the DGCL) provides generally that the affirmative vote of a majority of the outstanding shares entitled to vote is required to amend or repeal a corporation s certificate of incorporation or bylaws, unless the certificate of incorporation requires a greater percentage. Our amended and restated certificate of incorporation generally requires the approval of the holders of at least two-thirds of the voting power of the issued and outstanding shares of our capital stock entitled to vote in connection with the election of directors to amend any provisions of our certificate of incorporation described in this section. Our amended and restated bylaws provide that a majority of our board of directors or, in most cases, the holders of at least a majority of the voting power of the issued and outstanding shares of our capital stock entitled to vote thereon have the power to amend or repeal our bylaws, except that the affirmative vote of holders of at least two-thirds of the voting power of the issued and outstanding shares of our capital stock entitled to vote thereon shall be required to amend or repeal certain provisions of our bylaws. In addition, our amended and restated certificate of incorporation grants our board of directors the authority to amend and repeal our bylaws without a stockholder vote in any manner not inconsistent with the laws of the State of Delaware or our certificate of incorporation.

The foregoing provisions of our amended and restated certificate of incorporation and amended and restated bylaws could discourage potential acquisition proposals and could delay or prevent a change in control. These provisions are intended to enhance the likelihood of continuity and stability in the composition of our board of directors and in the policies formulated by our board of directors and to discourage certain types of transactions that may involve an actual or threatened change of control. These provisions are designed to reduce our vulnerability to an unsolicited acquisition proposal. The provisions also are intended to discourage certain tactics that may be used in proxy fights. However, such provisions could have the effect of discouraging others from making tender offers for our shares, and, as a consequence, they also may inhibit fluctuations in the market price of the common stock that could result from actual or rumored takeover attempts. Such provisions also may have the effect of preventing changes in our management or delaying or preventing a transaction that might benefit you or other minority stockholders.

Limitations on Liability and Indemnification of Officers and Directors

Our amended and restated certificate of incorporation and amended and restated bylaws provide indemnification for our directors and officers to the fullest extent permitted by the DGCL. We have entered into indemnification agreements with each of our directors that are, in some cases, broader than the specific indemnification provisions contained under Delaware law. In addition, as permitted by Delaware law, our amended and restated certificate of incorporation includes provisions that eliminate the personal liability of our directors for monetary damages resulting from breaches of certain fiduciary duties as a director. The effect of this provision is to restrict our rights and the rights of our stockholders in derivative suits to recover monetary damages against a director for breach of fiduciary duties as a director, except that a director will be personally liable for:

- any breach of his or her duty of loyalty to us or our stockholders;
- acts or omissions not in good faith or which involve intentional misconduct or a knowing violation of law;
- any transaction from which the director derived an improper personal benefit; or
- improper distributions to stockholders.

These provisions may not be held to be enforceable for violations of the federal securities laws of the United States.

PLAN OF DISTRIBUTION

The Selling Securityholders and any of their pledgees, assignees and successors-in-interest may, from time to time, sell any or all of their securities offered hereby on any stock exchange, market, or trading facility (including, without limitation, the Nasdaq Global Select Market and the over-the-counter market) on which the securities are traded or in private transactions, subject to applicable law. These sales may be public or private at prices prevailing in such market, fixed prices, or prices negotiated at the time of sale. The securities may be sold by the Selling Securityholders directly to one or more purchasers, through agents designated from time to time, or to or through broker-dealers designated from time to time. In the event the securities are publicly offered through broker-dealers or agents, the Selling Securityholders may enter into agreements with respect thereto. The Selling Securityholders may, subject to applicable law, also use any one or more of the following methods when selling the securities offered hereby:

ordinary brokerage transactions and transactions in which the broker-dealer solicits purchasers;

block trades in which the broker-dealer will attempt to sell the securities as agent but may position and resell a portion of the block as principal to facilitate the transaction;

purchases by a broker-dealer as principal and resale by the broker-dealer for its account;

an exchange distribution in accordance with the rules of the applicable exchange;

privately negotiated transactions;

short sales;

sales by broker-dealers of a specified number of such securities at a stipulated price per share;

a combination of any such methods of sale; or any other method permitted pursuant to applicable law.

The Selling Securityholders may also sell the securities offered hereby under Rule 144 under the Securities Act of 1933, as amended, if available, rather than under this prospectus. Broker-dealers engaged by the Selling Securityholders may arrange for other brokers-dealers to participate in sales. Broker-dealers may receive commissions or discounts from the Selling Securityholders (or, if any broker-dealer acts as agent for the purchaser of shares, from the purchaser) in amounts to be negotiated. The Selling Securityholders do not expect these commissions and discounts to exceed what is customary in the types of transactions involved.

The Selling Securityholders may from time to time pledge or grant a security interest in some or all of the securities offered hereby owned by them and, if they default in the performance of their secured obligations, the pledgees or secured parties may offer and sell the securities offered hereby from time to time under this Prospectus, or under an amendment to this Prospectus, amending the list of Selling Securityholders to include the pledgee, transferee or other successors in interest as Selling Securityholders under this prospectus.

The Selling Securityholders also may transfer the securities offered hereby in other circumstances, in which case the transferees, pledges, or other successors in interest will be the selling beneficial owners for purposes of this prospectus. The Selling Securityholders and the broker-dealers or agents that participate in the distribution of the securities may be deemed to be underwriters within the meaning of the Securities Act in connection with such sales. In such event, any discounts and any commissions received by such broker-dealers or agents and any profit on the sale of such securities purchased by them and any discounts or commissions might be deemed to be underwriting discounts or commissions under the Securities Act. Any such broker-dealers and agents may engage in transactions with, and perform services for, us. At the time a particular offer of the securities offered hereby is made by the Selling Securityholders, to the extent required, a prospectus will be distributed which will set forth the aggregate amount of securities being offered and the terms of the offering, including the public offering price thereof, the name or names of any broker-dealers or agents, and any discounts, commissions and other items constituting compensation from, and the resulting net proceeds to, the Selling Securityholders.

Table of Contents

In order to comply with the securities laws of certain states, sales of securities offered hereby to the public in such states may be made only through broker-dealers who are registered or licensed in such states. Sales of securities offered hereby must also be made by the Selling Securityholders in compliance with other applicable state securities laws and regulations. We are required to pay all fees and expenses incident to the registration of the securities; provided, that the Selling Securityholders are required, severally and not jointly, to pay all underwriting fees and discounts, selling commissions, brokerage fees, and stock transfer taxes applicable to securities sold by such Selling Securityholders hereby. We have agreed to indemnify the Selling Securityholders against certain losses, claims, damages, and liabilities, including liabilities under the Securities Act.

The Selling Securityholders have represented to us that they have not taken, and do not presently plan to take, directly or indirectly, any action designed to or which might reasonably be expected to cause, or result in, or which had constituted, under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended, the stabilization or manipulation of the price of any of our securities to facilitate the sale or resale of the securities offered hereby. In general, Rule 102 under Regulation M prohibits any person connected with a distribution of securities from directly or indirectly bidding for, or purchasing for any account in which he or she has a beneficial interest, any such securities or any right to purchase such securities for a period of one business day before and after completion of his or her participation in the distribution. During the this period, Rule 104 under Regulation M prohibits the Selling Securityholders or any other person engaged in the distribution from engaging in any stabilizing bid or purchasing of our common stock. No such person may effect any stabilizing transaction to facilitate any offering at the market. Inasmuch as the Selling Securityholders will be reoffering or reselling our common stock at the market, Rule 104 prohibits them from effecting any stabilizing transaction in contravention of Rule 104 with respect to our common stock.

Item 15. Indemnification of Directors and Officers.

Section 145 of the Delaware General Corporation Law (the "DGCL") provides, in summary, that directors and officers of Delaware corporations are entitled, under certain circumstances, to be indemnified against all expenses and liabilities (including attorneys' fees) incurred by them as a result of suits brought against them in their capacity as directors or officers if they acted in good faith and in a manner they reasonably believed to be in or not opposed to the company's best interests and, with respect to any criminal action or proceeding, if they had no reasonable cause to believe their conduct was unlawful; provided that no indemnification may be made against expenses in respect of any claim, issue, or matter as to which they shall have been adjudged to be liable to us, unless and only to the extent that the court in which such action or suit was brought shall determine upon application that, despite the adjudication of liability but in view of all the circumstances of the case, they are fairly and reasonably entitled to indemnity for such expenses as the court shall deem proper. Any such indemnification may be made by us only as authorized in each specific case upon a determination by the stockholders, disinterested directors, or independent legal counsel that indemnification is proper because the indemnitee has met the applicable standard of conduct.

Section 102(b)(7) of the DGCL permits a corporation to provide in its certificate of incorporation that a director of the corporation shall not be personally liable to the corporation or its stockholders for monetary damages for breach of fiduciary duty as a director except for liability for any breach of the director's duty of loyalty to the corporation or its stockholders, for acts or omissions not in good faith or that involve intentional misconduct or a knowing violation of law, for unlawful payments of dividends, or unlawful stock repurchases, redemptions, or other distributions, or for any transaction from which the director derived an improper personal benefit.

The company's amended and restated certificate of incorporation and amended and restated bylaws provide that the company shall indemnify its directors and officers to the fullest extent permitted by law and that no director shall be liable for monetary damages to the company or its stockholders for any breach of fiduciary duty, except to the extent provided by applicable law. The subsidiary guarantors' governing documents provide that each subsidiary guarantor shall indemnify its managers, directors and officers to the fullest extent permitted by law and that no manager or director, as applicable, shall be liable for monetary damages to such subsidiary or its members or stockholders, as applicable, for any breach of fiduciary duty, except to the extent provided by applicable law. Such indemnity is permitted by the jurisdiction of each subsidiary guarantor. The company has entered into indemnification agreements with its directors. The indemnification agreements provide indemnification to the company's directors under certain circumstances for acts or omissions that may not be covered by directors' and officers' liability insurance and may, in some cases, be broader than the specific indemnification provisions contained under Delaware law. The company currently maintains liability insurance for its directors and officers.

Item 17. Undertakings.

(a) The undersigned registrant hereby undertakes:

(1) To file, during any period in which offers or sales are being made, a post-effective amendment to this registration statement:

- i. To include any prospectus required by Section 10(a)(3) of the Securities Act of 1933;
- ii. To reflect in the prospectus any facts or events arising after the effective date of the registration statement (or the most recent post-effective amendment thereof) which, individually or in the aggregate, represent a fundamental change in the information set forth in the registration statement. Notwithstanding the foregoing, any increase or decrease in volume of securities offered (if the total dollar value of securities offered would not exceed that which was registered) and any deviation from the low or high end of the estimated maximum offering range may be reflected in the form of prospectus filed with the Commission pursuant to Rule 424(b) if, in the aggregate, the changes in volume and price represent no more than 20 percent change in the maximum aggregate offering price set forth in the Calculation of Registration Fee table in the effective registration statement;
- iii. To include any material information with respect to the plan of distribution not previously disclosed in the registration statement or any material change to such information in the registration statement;

provided however, that paragraphs (a)(1)(i), (a)(1)(ii) and (a)(1)(iii) of this Section do not apply if the registration statement is on Form S-3 or Form F-3 and the information required to be included in a post-effective amendment by those paragraphs is contained in reports filed with or furnished to the Commission by the registrant pursuant to section 13 or section 15(d) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 that are incorporated by reference in the registration statement, or is contained in a form of prospectus filed pursuant to Rule 424(b) that is part of the registration statement.

- (2) That, for the purpose of determining any liability under the Securities Act of 1933, each such post-effective amendment shall be deemed to be a new registration statement relating to the securities offered therein, and the offering of such securities at that time shall be deemed to be the initial bona fide offering thereof.
- (3) To remove from registration by means of a post-effective amendment any of the securities being registered which remain unsold at the termination of the offering.
- (4) Each prospectus filed pursuant to Rule 424(b) as part of a registration statement relating to an offering, other than registration statements relying on Rule 430B or other than prospectuses filed in reliance on Rule 430A, shall be deemed to be part of and included in the registration statement as of the date it is first used after effectiveness. Provided, however, that no statement made in a registration statement or prospectus that is part of the registration statement or made in a document incorporated or deemed incorporated by reference into the registration statement or prospectus that is part of the registration statement will, as to a purchaser with a time of contract of sale prior to such first use, supersede or modify any statement that was made in the registration statement or prospectus that was part of the registration statement or made in any such document immediately prior to such date of first use.
- (5) The undersigned registrant hereby undertakes that, for purposes of determining any liability under the Securities Act of 1933, each filing of the registrant's annual report pursuant to section 13(a) or section 15(d) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 (and, where applicable, each filing of an employee benefit plan's annual report pursuant to section 15(d) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934) that is incorporated by reference in the registration statement shall be deemed to be a new registration statement relating to the securities offered therein, and the offering of such securities at that time shall be deemed to be the initial bona fide offering thereof.
- (6) Insofar as indemnification for liabilities arising under the Securities Act of 1933 may be permitted to directors, officers and controlling persons of the registrant pursuant to the foregoing provisions, or otherwise, the registrant has been advised that in the opinion of the Securities and Exchange Commission such indemnification is against public policy as expressed in the Act and is, therefore, unenforceable. In the event that a claim for indemnification against such liabilities (other than the payment by the registrant of expenses incurred or paid by a director, officer or controlling person of the registrant in the successful defense of any action, suit or proceeding) is asserted by such director, officer or controlling person in connection with the securities being registered, the registrant will, unless in the opinion of its counsel the matter has been settled by controlling precedent, submit to a court of appropriate jurisdiction the question whether such indemnification by it is against public policy as expressed in the Act and will be governed by the final adjudication of such issue.
