Forward-Looking Statements

This summary contains "forward-looking statements" that involve significant risks and uncertainties. All statements other than statements of historical fact are statements that could be deemed forward-looking statements, including: statements regarding the anticipated timing of filings and approvals relating to the Merger; statements regarding the expected timing of the completion of the Merger; statements regarding the ability to complete the Merger considering the various closing conditions; any statements of expectation or belief; and any statements of assumptions underlying any of the foregoing. Investors and security holders are cautioned not to place undue reliance on these forward-looking statements. Actual results could differ materially from those currently anticipated due to a number of risks and uncertainties. Risks and uncertainties that could cause results to differ from expectations include, among others: the possibility that one or more closing conditions for the Merger may not be satisfied or waived, including the failure to obtain the requisite approval of Mariner's stockholders or the possibility that a governmental entity may prohibit, delay or refuse to grant approval for the consummation of the Merger; the effects of disruption from the Merger making it more difficult to maintain relationships with employees, business partners or governmental entities; other business effects, including the effects of industry, economic or political conditions outside of the control of Mariner or Apache; and other risks and uncertainties discussed in documents filed with the SEC by Mariner and Apache.

Section 5.9(c) of the Company Schedule

The Parent [Apache], Merger Sub and Company [Mariner] agree to implement the following employment arrangements; provided, however, that the provisions of Sections 2 and 3 of this Schedule 5.9(c) shall not apply to any employee hired by the Company on or after May 21, 2010.

1. Employment; Service.

At Closing, all Company employees will become employees of Apache (or one of its Subsidiaries) and receive credit for all periods of service with the Company (and with predecessor employers with respect to which the Company and its Subsidiaries shall have granted service credit) for all purposes.

2. Retention.

(a) An employee who remains employed until the Closing Date shall be paid a cash closing bonus within 10 days after the Closing Date of not less than 100% of his or her 2009 bonus (as paid in 2010). For purposes of determining the minimum closing bonus for an employee who did not have a full year of service in 2009, the amount of the closing bonus will be determined by the Company in its discretion.

(b) An employee who remains employed on February 15, 2011 shall be paid a cash retention bonus of not less than 100% of his or her 2009 bonus (as paid in 2010) on February 15, 2011. The amount of the minimum cash retention bonus paid on February 15, 2011 will equal the amount of the closing bonus.

3. Severance.

(a) An employee who (i) is covered by a change of control agreement or employment agreement and (ii) accepts a formal written offer of permanent employment with Apache that includes a work assignment, compensation and benefits package will be required to waive his or her rights under such agreement effective December 31, 2010.

(b) If, during the period beginning on the Closing Date and ending on December 30, 2010, an employee voluntarily terminates his or her employment for a reason that is not a Qualifying Termination (as defined below) or if an employee is terminated due to failure to satisfy Apache's background check and drug testing requirements, and if in either case such employee is not entitled to benefits pursuant to paragraph (e) below, he or she will be entitled to a lump sum payment of an amount equal to severance under the Second Amended and Restated Mariner Energy, Inc. Employee Severance Plan, effective as of December 1, 2009 (the Mariner Severance Plan), payable as if subject to the terms of the Mariner Severance Plan.

(c) If, during the period beginning on the Closing Date and ending on December 31, 2010, the employment of an employee terminates as a result of a Qualifying Termination (as defined below), he or she will be entitled to a lump sum payment of an amount equal to his or her annual base salary plus severance under the Mariner Severance Plan, payable as if subject to the terms of the Mariner Severance Plan.

October 13, 2010

- (d) Notwithstanding the foregoing Section 3(c), if during the period beginning on the Closing Date and ending on December 31, 2010, an employee who has an employment agreement or a change of control agreement with the Company terminates as a result of a Qualifying Termination, he or she will be entitled to (1) a lump sum payment of an amount equal to (i) his or her annual base salary, plus (ii) the severance payment payable under the Applicable Agreement, and (2) the welfare benefit continuation coverage provided under the terms of the Applicable Agreement. The Applicable Agreement means the applicable employment or change of control agreement covering the employee.
- (e) If an employee remains employed on December 30, 2010, and terminates his or her employment for any reason as of December 31, 2010, then he or she will be entitled to a lump sum payment of an amount equal to his or her annual base salary, and either (i) severance under the Mariner Severance Plan, payable as if subject to the terms of the Mariner Severance Plan, or (ii) severance under any Applicable Agreement, plus the welfare benefit continuation coverage provided under the terms of the Applicable Agreement.
- (f) A Qualifying Termination shall mean (i) if an employee is subject to an employment agreement or a change in control agreement, a termination of employment that would entitle the employee to separation benefits under that document, or (ii) if the employee is not subject to such an agreement, a Qualifying Event as defined under the Mariner Severance Plan.
- (g) In no event shall an employee be entitled to receive payment under more than one Section of Sections 3(b), 3(c), 3(d) or 3(e) above.
- (h) All of the Company's existing waiver and release requirements to receipt of severance shall continue to be a condition to receive severance.

4. Vacation.

From and after the Closing Date through December 31 of the calendar year in which the Closing Date occurs, employees shall continue to earn vacation at a rate no less favorable than under the Company's vacation policy in effect on the date of this Agreement ( Vacation Policy ) and be entitled to use any unused vacation in the subsequent calendar year on a basis no less favorable than under such Vacation Policy, and shall be entitled to receive payment for any unused vacation upon termination of employment in accordance with the Vacation Policy.
