Disclosure Regarding Private Securities Litigation Reform Act of 1995

This press release contains certain forward-looking statements with respect to our future performance that involve risks and uncertainties. Various factors could cause actual results to differ materially from those projected in such statements. These factors include, but are not limited to: concentration of sales to certain customers, changes in our relationship with any of our customers, including the increasing customer pressure for lower prices and more favorable payment and other terms, our ability to renew the contract with our largest customer that is scheduled to expire in August 2008 and the terms of any such renewal, the increasing demands on our working capital, including the significant strain on working capital associated with large remanufactured core inventory purchases from customers of the type we have increasingly made, our ability to obtain any additional financing we may seek or require, our ability to achieve positive cash flows from operations, potential future changes in our previously reported results as a result of the identification and correction of errors in our accounting policies or procedures or the material weaknesses in our internal controls over financial reporting, the outcome of the existing review of our custom duties payments and procedures, lower revenues than anticipated from new and existing contracts, our failure to meet the financial covenants or the other obligations set forth in our bank credit agreement and the bank s refusal to waive any such defaults, any meaningful difference between projected production needs and ultimate sales to our customers, increases in interest rates, changes in the financial condition of any of our major customers, the impact of high gasoline prices, the potential for changes in consumer spending, consumer preferences and general economic conditions, increased competition in the automotive parts industry, including increased competition from Chinese manufacturers, difficulty in obtaining used cores and component parts or increases in the costs of those parts, political or economic instability in any of the foreign countries where we conduct operations, unforeseen increases in operating costs and other factors discussed herein and in the Company's filings with the SEC.

Item 4.01 Changes in Registrant's Certifying Accountant.

(i) On November 30, 2007, Motorcar Parts of America, Inc. (the Company) dismissed Grant Thornton LLP (GT) as its independent registered public accounting firm.

(ii) The reports of GT on the Company's financial statements as of and for the fiscal years ended March 31, 2006 and March 31, 2007 contained no adverse opinion or disclaimer of opinion and were not qualified or modified as to uncertainty, audit scope or accounting principles.

(iii) During the fiscal years ended March 31, 2006 and March 31, 2007 and through November 30, 2007, there were (1) no disagreements with GT on any matter of accounting principles or practices, financial statement disclosure, or auditing scope or procedure, which disagreements, if not resolved to the satisfaction of GT, would have caused GT to make reference thereto in their reports on the Company's financial statements for such years, and (2) no reportable events, as that term is defined in Item 304(a)(1)(v) of Regulation S-K, except for the material weaknesses in internal control over financial reporting described in the following paragraph.

In the Annual Report on Form 10-K (as amended by Amendments Nos. 1 and 2 thereto) for the year ended March 31, 2007, the Company reported the following material weaknesses and significant deficiency in internal controls:

a material weakness in its control environment, as evidenced by: its finance and accounting department being understaffed and lacking sufficient training or experience;

a material weakness in its control activities, as evidenced by: its internal controls being inadequately designed or operated in a manner to effectively support the requirements of the financial reporting and period-end close process; and a significant deficiency in its entity level controls, as evidenced by: the lack of documentation in the planning for IT strategy, asset protection programs, and comprehensive accounting and human resources policies and procedures manuals; the failure of its Audit Committee to conduct a self assessment; and the lack of a formalized Disclosure Committee.

GT's report on the Company's internal control over financial reporting stated that based on the effect of these material weaknesses on the achievement of the objectives of the control criteria, the Company had not maintained effective internal control over financial reporting as of March 31, 2007.

GT discussed these matters with the Audit Committee, and the Company has authorized GT to respond fully to the inquiries of its successor as the Company's independent registered public accounting firm concerning the subject matter of these material weaknesses.

(iv) The Company has requested that GT furnish it with a letter addressed to the Securities and Exchange Commission stating whether or not GT agrees with the above statements. A copy of such letter dated December 4, 2007 from GT is being filed as Exhibit 16.1 to this Form 8-K.

(v) On December 4, 2007, the Company engaged Ernst & Young LLP as its new independent registered public accounting firm for the fiscal year ended March 31, 2008. During the fiscal years ended March 31, 2006 and March 31, 2007 and through December 4, 2007, the Company did not consult with Ernst & Young LLP regarding either (1) the application of accounting principles to a specified transaction, either completed or proposed, or the type of audit opinion that might be rendered on the Company's financial statements, or (2) any matter that was either the subject of a disagreement, as that term is defined in Item 304(a)(1)(iv) of Regulation S-K and the related instructions to Item 304 of Regulation S-K, or a reportable event, as that term is defined in Item 304(a)(1)(v) of Regulation S-K.

(vi) The decision to change independent registered public accounting firms was initiated and approved by the Audit Committee of the Company's Board of Directors.

Item 9.01 Financial Statements and Exhibits.
