Item 1.01. Entry into a Material Definitive Agreement

On August 25, 2004, Westamerica Bancorporation and Redwood Empire Bancorp announced the signing of a definitive agreement under which Westamerica will acquire Redwood Empire Bancorp, parent company of National Bank of the Redwoods. The transaction is currently valued at $148 million in a combination of approximately 60% stock and 40% cash. The transaction is intended to be a in a tax-free reorganization as to the stock portion of the merger consideration. Redwood Empire Bancorp, headquartered in Santa Rosa, California, reported approximately $515 million in assets at June 30, 2004. National Bank of the Redwoods operates through seven branches in three Northern California counties. Following consummation of the merger, National Bank of the Redwoods will be merged with and into Westamerica Bank, a wholly owned subsidiary of Westamerica.

All of the common shares of Redwood will be converted into a combination of stock and cash, and Westamerica will assume the unexercised options of Redwood Empire Bancorp. Redwood Empire Bancorp shareholders will receive consideration of approximately $28.74 per share, consisting of $11.49 in cash and, subject to certain adjustments, shares of Westamerica common stock valued at approximately $17.25. The Agreement, which has been approved by the Boards of Directors of both companies, is subject to conditions usual and customary for merger transactions of this type, including approval by Redwood Empire Bancorp shareholders, approval by bank regulatory authorities, and satisfaction of certain other terms and conditions.

Based on Westamerica's average closing price over the past 20 days, the merger would result in the issuance of approximately 1.7 million new shares of Westamerica common stock, and payment of cash of approximately $57 million. At June 30, 2004, Westamerica had approximately 31.8 million shares outstanding and Redwood Empire Bancorp had approximately 4.9 million shares outstanding. Although the parties have not adopted any formal timetable, it is estimated the merger will be completed in the fourth quarter of 2004 or early first quarter of 2005. Westamerica intends to reduce the allocation of its operating cash flow toward the repurchase and retirement of its common shares in order to meet the approximate $57 million cash payment for this transaction.

Five shareholders of Redwood Empire holding approximately 2,445,985 shares of common stock or 49.4% of its outstanding shares of common stock have entered into Voting Agreements and provided irrevocable proxies to Westamerica. Under these agreements, the shareholders agree to vote in favor of the definitive agreement described above at any meeting of shareholders of Redwood Empire and against any competing transaction that might be proposed.

The foregoing discussion is qualified by reference to the Agreement and Plan of Reorganization attached as Exhibit 2.1 which is incorporated herein by reference.

Westamerica will file a registration statement on Form S-4 with the SEC in connection with the proposed merger. Westamerica and Redwood Empire will also file a joint proxy statement/prospectus and other information with the SEC. Investors and security holders are advised to read the proxy statement/prospectus and these materials when they become available, because they will contain important information.

FORWARD-LOOKING INFORMATION:

The following appears in accordance with the Private Securities Litigation Reform Act of 1995:

This report may contain forward-looking statements about the Company, including descriptions of plans or objectives of its management for future operations, products or services, and forecasts of its revenues, earnings or other measures of economic performance. Forward-looking statements can be identified by the fact that they do not relate strictly to historical or current facts. They often include the words believe, expect, anticipate, intend, plan, estimate, or words of similar meaning, or future or conditional verbs such as will, would, should, could, or may. Forward-looking statements, by their nature, are subject to risks and uncertainties. A number of factors—many of which are beyond the Company's control—could cause actual conditions, events or results to differ significantly from those described in the forward-looking statements. The Company's most recent annual and quarterly reports filed with the Securities and Exchange Commission, including the Company's Form 10-Q for the quarter ended June 30, 2004 and Form 10-K for the year ended December 31, 2003, describe some of these factors, including certain credit, market, operational, liquidity and interest rate risks associated with the Company's business and operations. Other factors described in these reports include changes in business and economic conditions, competition, fiscal and monetary policies, disintermediation, legislation including the Sarbanes-Oxley Act of 2002 and the Gramm-Leach-Bliley Act of 1999, the combination of the former Kerman State Bank and other mergers and acquisitions.
