Commission File No. of Subject Company: 000-26247

The following communication contains forward-looking statements, including statements regarding benefits of the proposed merger involving Symantec Corporation and VERITAS Software Corporation, such as improved customer and platform coverage, improved product capabilities, post-closing integration of the businesses and product lines of Symantec and VERITAS, future product releases and other matters that involve known and unknown risks, uncertainties and other factors that may cause actual results, levels of activity, performance or achievements to differ materially from results expressed or implied by the statements in this communication. Such risk factors include, among others, uncertainties as to the timing of the merger, approval of the transaction by the stockholders of the companies, the satisfaction of closing conditions to the transaction, difficulties encountered in integrating merged businesses and product lines, whether certain market segments grow as anticipated, the competitive environment in the software industry and competitive responses to the proposed merger, and whether the companies can successfully develop new products and the degree to which these gain market acceptance.

Actual results may differ materially from those contained in the forward-looking statements in this communication. Additional information concerning these and other risk factors is contained in the sections of Symantec's and VERITAS' most recently filed Forms 10-K and 10-Q entitled Business Risk Factors or Factors That May Affect Future Results. Symantec and VERITAS undertake no obligation and do not intend to update these forward-looking statements to reflect events or expectations regarding the circumstances occurring after the date of this communication.

The following is a communication sent by Gary Bloom, President and Chief Executive Officer of VERITAS to customers of VERITAS, and posted by VERITAS on its intranet website on March 24, 2005.

Dear Valued Customer:

As we approach the closing of our proposed merger with Symantec Corporation, I would like to take this opportunity to personally thank you for your continued loyalty and partnership. Our ultimate commitment to you, as the merger proceeds, is to ensure a seamless transition at each step and to assure you of the highest standard of customer support from the day we complete our merger and into the future.

I am pleased to inform you that we are making substantial progress on all fronts of our integration planning activities and the merger is proceeding on target. Our effectiveness in research and development will be greatly enhanced by this merger and you can remain comfortable that we will continue to invest in all of our existing product lines with no disruption. We remain steadfastly committed to further developing and enhancing our products' abilities to address your business and technical requirements. Best of breed products such as VERITAS BackupExec, VERITAS NetBackup, VERITAS Storage Foundation, VERITAS i3 and Symantec LiveState Delivery/Recovery will continue their life cycles. Any products' end-of-life will only occur as a result of normal product portfolio management, and will be communicated with ample time for you to plan for a transition to new technologies, just as it would have been if the companies were to remain separate entities.

As we look to the future, our mission will be to find new and innovative ways of combining our existing and complementary security and availability products into new and compelling information integrity solutions that will enable you to more effectively manage risk, lower the cost and complexity of your IT infrastructure and better enable you to align your IT resources to the changing needs of your business. The new Symantec is committed to continuing to provide you with industry-leading integrated security protection at all tiers of the network, policy compliance management, data protection, storage and server management, high availability and application performance management products and services that you've come to rely upon.

We are committed to keeping your business up, running and growing no matter what happens.
