On May 10, 2007, the Board of Directors elected Timothy Y. Chen to the Board. Mr. Chen is Corporate Vice President and Chief Executive Officer, Greater China Region, of Microsoft Corporation. Mr. Chen has been appointed to the Compensation Committee of the Board of Directors. Upon his election to the Board, Mr. Chen received an option to purchase 30,000 shares of our common stock under our 1995 Director Option Plan. The option has a seven-year term, becomes exercisable in four equal annual installments and has an exercise price per share equal to the closing price of a share of our common stock on the date of grant.

Also on May 10, 2007, the Board named Gregorio Reyes, a current Director, Chairman of the Board of Directors, succeeding James H. Keyes, who remains a Director.

In May 2005, we hired Abhijit Talwalkar to be our President and Chief Executive Officer pursuant to an employment agreement that was described in a Current Report on Form 8-K that we filed with the Securities and Exchange Commission on May 24, 2005. In addition to providing for Mr. Talwalkar's salary, bonus and incentive and equity compensation, the employment agreement contained a number of relocation benefits. These benefits were provided because Mr. Talwalkar did not reside near our headquarters in Milpitas, California.

The relocation benefits included a $5,000 per month housing allowance and reimbursement of closing and moving costs if Mr. Talwalkar moved to the San Jose area, in each case for the first two years of Mr. Talwalkar's employment with the company. These amounts are grossed-up for taxes so that Mr. Talwalkar receives approximately $5,000 per month after taxes to use for housing expenses and an amount equal to his reimbursable closing and moving costs. Mr. Talwalkar has not relocated to the Milpitas area at this time. On May 9, 2007, the Compensation Committee of the Board of Directors extended these benefits for an additional one year period.

On May 9, 2007, the Compensation Committee also amended our commuter expense reimbursement policy. This policy provides that the company will reimburse covered expenses incurred by an employee residing more than 100 miles from their primary work location, if the company has approved the employee's participation in the program. Covered expenses include travel to the primary work location and lodging and meal expenses while at the primary work location. The policy also provides for a tax gross-up for participating employees. One of the amendments was to make the policy available to executive officers of the company.

The Compensation Committee approved the participation in that program of Mr. Talwalkar (other than for housing expenses); Mr. Phil Brace, Senior Vice President, Corporate Planning and Marketing; and Mr. Jeff Richardson, Executive Vice President, Network and Storage Products Group. A copy of this policy is attached to this report as exhibit 10.2.
