Dear Shareholder,

You are cordially invited to attend a special meeting of shareholders of Crescent Real Estate Equities Company, a Texas real estate investment trust (the Company), to be held at the Hotel Crescent Court, 400 Crescent Court, Dallas, Texas on August 1, 2007 at 10:00 a.m., Central Daylight Saving Time. At the special meeting, we will ask you to approve both the merger of the Company with and into Moon Acquisition LLC, a Delaware limited liability company and affiliate of Morgan Stanley Real Estate, which we refer to as the company merger, and the Agreement and Plan of Merger, dated as of May 22, 2007, by and among the Company, Crescent Real Estate Equities Limited Partnership, Moon Acquisition Holdings LLC, Moon Acquisition LLC and Moon Acquisition Limited Partnership, which we refer to as the merger agreement. If the company merger is completed, you, as a holder of our common shares of beneficial interest, will be entitled to receive $22.80 in cash in exchange for each share you own, as more fully described in the enclosed proxy statement.

After careful consideration, our board of trust managers unanimously (subject to the recusal of two trust managers) approved the company merger, the merger agreement and the other transactions contemplated by the merger agreement, and has declared the company merger, the merger agreement and the other transactions contemplated by the merger agreement advisable and in the best interests of the Company and our shareholders.

Our board of trust managers recommends (subject to the recusal of two trust managers) that you vote FOR the proposal to approve the company merger and the merger agreement.

The company merger and the merger agreement must be approved by the affirmative vote of holders of at least two-thirds of the outstanding common shares entitled to vote on the matter at the special meeting. The proxy statement accompanying this letter provides you with more specific information concerning the special meeting, the company merger, the merger agreement and the other transactions contemplated by the merger agreement. We encourage you to read carefully the enclosed proxy statement, including the exhibits. You may also obtain more information about the Company from us or from documents we have filed with the Securities and Exchange Commission.

Your vote is very important regardless of the number of our common shares that you own. Whether or not you plan to attend the special meeting, we request that you mark, sign, date and return the enclosed proxy card as promptly as possible in the postage-prepaid envelope provided to ensure your representation and the presence of a quorum at the meeting. Alternatively, you may vote by Internet. The enclosed proxy card contains instructions regarding voting, including instructions regarding Internet voting. If you attend the special meeting, you may continue to have your shares voted as instructed in the proxy, or, if you are a holder of record of our common shares, you may withdraw your proxy at the special meeting and vote your shares in person.

Be advised that if you fail to vote by proxy or in person, or fail to instruct your broker on how to vote, it will have the same effect as a vote against approval of the company merger, the merger agreement and the other transactions contemplated by the merger agreement.

Thank you for your cooperation and your continued support.

Sincerely,

John C. Goff
Vice-Chairman of the Board and

Chief Executive Officer

This proxy statement is dated June 26, 2007 and is first being mailed to our shareholders on or about June 28, 2007.

NOTICE OF SPECIAL MEETING OF SHAREHOLDERS TO BE HELD ON AUGUST 1, 2007

Dear Shareholder:

You are cordially invited to attend a special meeting of the shareholders of Crescent Real Estate Equities Company, a Texas real estate investment trust (the Company, we or us), which will be held at the Hotel Crescent Court, 400 Crescent Court, Dallas, Texas on August 1, 2007 at 10:00 a.m., Central Daylight Saving Time. The special meeting is being held for the purpose of acting on the following matters:

1. to consider and vote on a proposal to (a) approve the Agreement and Plan of Merger, dated as of May 22, 2007, by and among the Company, Crescent Real Estate Equities Limited Partnership, Moon Acquisition Holdings LLC, Moon Acquisition LLC and Moon Acquisition Limited Partnership, which we refer to as the merger agreement, and (b) approve the merger of the Company with and into Moon Acquisition LLC, which we refer to as the company merger; and
2. to consider and vote on any other business that properly comes before the special meeting or any adjournments or postponements of the special meeting, including adjournments and postponements for the purpose of soliciting additional proxies.

If the company merger is completed, you, as a holder of our common shares, will be entitled to receive $22.80 in cash in exchange for each share you own, as more fully described in the accompanying proxy statement.

After careful consideration, our board of trust managers unanimously (subject to the recusal of two trust managers) approved the company merger, the merger agreement and the other transactions contemplated by the merger agreement, and has declared the company merger, the merger agreement and the other transactions contemplated by the merger agreement advisable and in the best interests of the Company and its shareholders.

Our board of trust managers (subject to the recusal of two trust managers) recommends that you vote FOR the proposal to approve the company merger and the merger agreement.

All holders of record of our common shares and our Series A and Series B preferred shares, as of the close of business on the record date, which is June 22, 2007, are entitled to receive notice of this special meeting. However, only holders of our common shares at the close of business on the record date are entitled to vote at the special meeting or any postponements or adjournments of the special meeting. The vote of the holders of our Series A and Series B preferred shares is not required to approve the company merger or the merger agreement and is not being solicited.

The proposal to approve the merger agreement and approve the company merger must be approved by the affirmative vote of at least two-thirds of the outstanding common shares entitled to vote on the matter at the special meeting. Accordingly, regardless of the number of shares that you own, your vote is important.

Be advised, if you are a shareholder of record and you fail to authorize a proxy or attend the special meeting, the effect will be that the common shares that you own will not be counted for purposes of determining whether a quorum is present and will have the same effect as a vote against the proposal to approve the merger agreement and the company merger.

Even if you plan to attend the special meeting in person, we request that you authorize your proxy by either marking, signing, dating and promptly returning the enclosed proxy card in the postage-paid envelope or submitting your proxy or voting instructions by Internet.

If you own our common shares as a record holder, any proxy may be revoked at any time prior to its exercise by delivery of a properly executed, later-dated proxy card, by submitting your proxy or voting instructions by Internet at a later date than your previously submitted proxy, by filing a written revocation of your proxy with our Corporate Secretary at our address set forth above or by your voting in person at the special meeting. Attendance at the meeting will not, in itself, constitute revocation of a previously granted proxy. If you have instructed a broker to vote your shares, the above-described options for changing your vote do not apply and instead you must follow the instructions received from your broker to change your vote.

We encourage you to read this proxy statement carefully. If you have any questions or need assistance voting your shares, please call our proxy solicitor, MacKenzie Partners, Inc., toll-free at 1-800-322-2885. In addition, you may obtain information about us from certain documents that we have filed with the Securities and Exchange Commission and from our website at www.crescent.com. Information contained on our website is not part of, or incorporated in, the proxy statement.

The Special Meeting (Page 19)

The special meeting of our shareholders will be held at 10:00 a.m., Central Daylight Saving Time, on August 1, 2007 at the Hotel Crescent Court, 400 Crescent Court, Dallas, Texas. At the special meeting, you will be asked, by proxy or in person, to approve the company merger and the merger agreement.

The persons named in the accompanying proxy will also have discretionary authority to vote upon other business, if any, that properly comes before the special meeting and any adjournments or postponements of the special meeting, including any adjournments or postponements for the purpose of soliciting additional proxies to approve the company merger and the merger agreement.

Record Date, Notice and Quorum (Page 19)

All holders of record of our common shares and our Series A and Series B preferred shares as of the close of business on the record date, which is June 22, 2007, are entitled to receive notice of the special meeting. However, only holders of our common shares at the close of business on the record date are entitled to vote at the special meeting or any postponements or adjournments of the special meeting.

You will be entitled to cast one vote for each common share that you owned as of the record date. On the record date, there were 102,972,609 common shares outstanding and entitled to vote at the special meeting.

The presence, in person or by proxy, of holders of common shares entitled to cast a majority of the votes that are entitled to be cast at the meeting will constitute a quorum for purposes of the special meeting.

Required Vote (Page 20)

Completion of the mergers requires approval of the proposal to approve the merger agreement and the company merger by the affirmative vote of the holders of at least two-thirds of the outstanding common shares entitled to vote on the matter at the special meeting. Because the required vote is based on the number of votes entitled to be cast rather than on the number of votes cast, failure to vote your common shares (including as a result of broker non-votes) and abstentions will have the same effect as voting against the proposal to approve the merger agreement and the company merger. The vote of the holders of our Series A and Series B preferred shareholders is not required to approve the company merger or the merger agreement and is not being solicited. The operating partnership merger does not require the approval of any of the holders of our outstanding common shares.

Voting By Our Trust Managers and Executive Officers (Page 20)

As of the record date, our executive officers and trust managers beneficially owned an aggregate of approximately 8,041,814 of our common shares, entitling them to exercise in the aggregate approximately 7.8% of the voting power of our common shares entitled to vote at the special meeting. Our executive officers and trust managers have informed us that they intend to cast the votes they are entitled to cast in favor of the proposal to approve the merger agreement and the company merger. In addition, the Chairman of our board of trust managers, Richard E. Rainwater, who directly, indirectly or beneficially owns or controls, as of June 22, 2007, 4,429,245 common shares (other than those issuable upon conversion of partnership units) and 5,463,862 partnership units, has entered into an agreement with Moon Parent and REIT Merger Sub in which he has agreed to vote the common shares that he is entitled to vote in his capacity as the beneficial holder of such shares in favor of the proposal to approve the merger agreement and the company merger.

Proxies; Revocation (Page 21)

Any of our common shareholders of record entitled to vote may vote by authorizing a proxy by returning the enclosed proxy, submitting a proxy or voting instructions by Internet, or by appearing and voting at the special meeting in person. If the common shares that you own are held in street name by your broker, you should instruct your broker on how to vote your shares using the instructions provided by your broker.

If you own our common shares as a record holder, any proxy may be revoked at any time prior to its exercise by delivery of a properly executed, later-dated proxy card, by submitting your proxy or voting instructions by Internet at a later date than your previously submitted proxy, by filing a written revocation of your proxy with our Corporate Secretary at our address set forth above or by your voting in person at the special meeting. Attendance at the meeting will not, in itself, constitute revocation of a previously granted proxy. If you have instructed a broker to vote your shares, the above-described options for changing your vote do not apply and instead you must follow the instructions received from your broker to change your vote.

The Mergers and Related Transactions (Page 22)

Pursuant to the merger agreement, on the closing date, we will be merged with and into REIT Merger Sub with REIT Merger Sub continuing as the surviving entity. We sometimes use the term surviving entity in this proxy statement to refer to REIT Merger Sub as the surviving entity following the company merger. The company merger will be effective under all applicable laws upon the acceptance for record of the articles of merger in respect of the company merger by the county clerk of Tarrant County, Texas, in accordance with the Texas Real Estate Investment Trust Act (the Texas REIT Act) and the filing of a certificate of merger with the Secretary of State of the State of Delaware, in accordance with the Delaware Limited Liability Company Act. We sometimes use the term company merger effective time in this proxy statement to describe the time the company merger becomes effective under all applicable laws.

In the company merger, each of our common shares issued and outstanding immediately prior to the company merger effective time and not subject to dissenter's rights (other than shares held by us or our subsidiaries or REIT Merger Sub, which will be automatically canceled and retired and cease to exist with no payment being made) will automatically be canceled and converted into the right to receive cash, without interest, equal to $22.80 per common share, reduced by the per share amount, if any, distributed to holders of our common shares relating to distributions we make that are necessary for us either to maintain our status as a real estate investment trust or to avoid the imposition of corporate level tax or excise tax under the U.S. Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended (the Code).

We refer to this consideration to be received by our common shareholders in the company merger as the common share merger consideration.

Table of Contents

In addition, pursuant to the merger agreement, immediately following the company merger, Partnership Merger Sub will be merged with and into the operating partnership with the operating partnership continuing as the surviving entity. Each outstanding limited partnership unit in the operating partnership (other than restricted units and units held by Crescent entities) will receive cash, without interest, equal to $45.60 per partnership unit (assuming we do not make any distributions that are necessary for us either to maintain our status as a real estate investment trust or to avoid the imposition certain U.S. federal tax), which is the product of (A) the common share merger consideration multiplied by (B) two. We refer to this consideration to be received by the limited partners of the operating partnership in the operating partnership merger as the operating partnership merger consideration. The operating partnership merger consideration is calculated in accordance with the fourth amended and restated agreement of limited partnership of the operating partnership pursuant to which each partnership unit is exchangeable for two of our common shares, or the cash value thereof. We sometimes use the term surviving operating partnership in this proxy statement to refer to the operating partnership as the surviving entity following the operating partnership merger. We sometimes use the term operating partnership merger effective time in this proxy statement to describe the time the operating partnership merger becomes effective under all applicable laws.

Recommendation of Our Board of Trust Managers (Page 30)

On May 21, 2007, after careful consideration, our board of trust managers unanimously (subject to the recusal of two trust managers):

determined that it was advisable and in our and our common shareholders best interests for us to enter into the merger agreement and consummate the company merger and the other transactions contemplated by the merger agreement;

approved the company merger, the merger agreement and the other transactions contemplated by the merger agreement and directed that the company merger and the merger agreement be submitted to our common shareholders for approval at a special meeting of shareholders; and recommended that you vote FOR the proposal to approve the merger agreement and the company merger.

Opinion of Our Financial Advisor (Page 31)

On May 21, 2007, Greenhill & Co., LLC, which we refer to as Greenhill, rendered its oral opinion, which was subsequently confirmed in writing, to our board of trust managers that, as of May 21, 2007 and based upon and subject to the factors and assumptions set forth therein, the $22.80 in cash per common share to be received by our common shareholders pursuant to the merger agreement was fair from a financial point of view to such holders.

The full text of the written opinion of Greenhill, dated May 21, 2007, which sets forth assumptions made, procedures followed, matters considered and limitations on the review undertaken in connection with the opinion, is attached as Exhibit B to this proxy statement. Greenhill provided its opinion for the information and assistance of Crescent's board of trust managers in connection with its consideration of the company merger. The Greenhill opinion is not a recommendation as to how any common shareholder should vote with respect to the company merger.

Pursuant to a letter agreement, dated March 14, 2007, we engaged Greenhill to act as our financial advisor in connection with the transactions contemplated by the merger agreement. Pursuant to the terms of this engagement letter, upon execution of the engagement letter we paid Greenhill an advisory fee of $1.0 million. Upon announcement of the mergers, we paid Greenhill an opinion fee of $4.0 million. Finally, in the event of a sale of 50% or more of our outstanding common shares or assets, we have agreed to pay Greenhill a transaction fee equal to $7.5 million, all of which is payable upon consummation of the transactions contemplated by the merger agreement.

Financing Commitment and Guarantees (Page 37)

Moon Parent is paying an aggregate purchase price of approximately $6.5 billion. This amount, which we refer to as the aggregate purchase price, is expected to be funded by a combination of equity contributions by Moon Parent, debt financing and the assumption of existing debt.

In connection with the execution and delivery of the merger agreement, an affiliate of Moon Parent obtained a debt commitment letter from Barclays Capital Real Estate Inc., which we refer to as the lender, providing for debt financing in an aggregate principal amount not to exceed $3.8 billion (or 85% of our total capitalization excluding certain items, if such amount is less than $3.8 billion). The debt commitment letter terminates on October 31, 2007, unless extended in accordance with its terms and the closing of the loan is conditioned on the satisfaction of the conditions precedent to Moon Parent's obligation to consummate the mergers and other customary closing conditions. The lender has the right to terminate the debt commitment letter under certain circumstances, including if the merger agreement has been terminated prior to the closing of the mergers.

The merger agreement does not contain a financing condition. Moon Parent has agreed to use its reasonable best efforts to arrange the financing on the terms and conditions no less favorable than those described in the debt commitment letter in the event that the lender terminates or otherwise fails to perform pursuant to the debt commitment letter.

Additionally, affiliates of Morgan Stanley Real Estate have agreed to guarantee the payment obligations of Moon Parent, REIT Merger Sub and Partnership Merger Sub under the merger agreement in an amount up to $300 million.

If all other closing conditions have been satisfied or waived, but Moon Parent fails to obtain adequate financing to complete the mergers, such failure will constitute a breach of Moon Parent's covenants under the merger agreement. In that event, so long as we and the operating partnership are not in material breach of our respective obligations under the merger agreement, we would be able to (1) terminate the merger agreement, (2) receive from Moon Parent an amount equal to all our reasonable out-of-pocket costs and expenses incurred by us in connection with the proposed transaction in an amount not to exceed $10 million and (3) take legal action against the affiliates of Morgan Stanley Real Estate that provided the guarantees, to seek damages of up to a maximum of $300 million.

Treatment of Series A and Series B Preferred Shares (Page 50)

The merger agreement provides that prior to the company merger effective time, each of the Series A and Series B preferred shares issued and outstanding will be redeemed by us for cash pursuant to the terms of such securities; to the extent such redemptions do not occur, the Series A preferred shares issued and outstanding immediately prior to the company merger effective time will automatically be converted into, and canceled in exchange for, the right to receive the greater of (A) the redemption price per share specified in our charter documents and (B) the common share merger consideration on an as-converted basis pursuant to the terms of our charter documents, and the Series B preferred shares issued and outstanding immediately prior to the company merger effective time will automatically be converted into, and canceled in exchange for, the right to receive the redemption price per share specified in our charter documents.

While holders of Series A and Series B preferred shares are entitled to receive notice of the special meeting or any postponements or adjournments of the special meeting, they are not entitled to vote upon the company merger, the merger agreement or any of the other transactions contemplated by the merger agreement at the special meeting.

Treatment of Partnership Units in Crescent Real Estate Equities Limited Partnership (Page 50)

In connection with the operating partnership merger, at the operating partnership merger effective time, each limited partnership unit in the operating partnership issued and outstanding immediately prior to such time (other than units held by us, the general partner of the operating partnership or any of our subsidiaries, and restricted units) will automatically be canceled and converted into the right to receive cash, without interest, equal to the operating partnership merger consideration. This proxy statement does not constitute a solicitation of consents in respect of the operating partnership merger and does not constitute an offer to exchange or convert any partnership units in the operating partnership that you may own for or into newly issued preferred units or common units in the surviving operating partnership.

Treatment of Options to Purchase Common Shares, Options to Purchase Partnership Units and Restricted Unit Awards (Page 50)

In connection with the company merger:

Options to Purchase Common Shares

Any unexercised and unexpired option to purchase common shares issued under our equity incentive plans held immediately prior to the company merger effective time (regardless of whether it is vested or exercisable at that time) will, at the company merger effective time, be canceled upon the surrender and cancellation of the option agreement representing the option, together with the delivery of a written instrument executed by the holder thereof, and, in exchange therefor, REIT Merger Sub will pay to the holder thereof cash in an amount equal to the product of (A) the number of common shares issuable upon exercise of such option (assuming full vesting) and (B) the excess, if any, of the common share merger consideration over the exercise price per common share, which cash payment will be treated as compensation and will be net of any applicable federal or state withholding tax.

In connection with the operating partnership merger:

Options to Purchase Partnership Units

Any unexercised and unexpired option to purchase partnership units issued under our equity incentive plans held immediately prior to the company merger effective time (regardless of whether it is vested or exercisable at that time) will, at the company merger effective time, be canceled upon the surrender and cancellation of the option agreement representing the option, together with the delivery of a written instrument executed by the holder thereof, and, in exchange therefor, Partnership Merger Sub will pay to the holder thereof cash in an amount equal to the product of (A) the number of partnership units issuable upon exercise of such option (assuming full vesting) and (B) the excess, if any, of the operating partnership merger consideration over the exercise price per partnership unit, which cash payment will be treated as compensation and will be net of any applicable federal or state withholding tax.

Restricted Unit Awards

Other than certain restricted unit awards forfeited prior to the company merger effective time described in the following paragraph, any unpaid and unexpired restricted unit award held immediately prior to the company merger effective time (regardless of whether it is vested at that time) will, at the operating partnership merger effective time, be canceled upon the surrender of the agreement representing the restricted unit award (or a reasonably satisfactory affidavit of lost agreement), together with the delivery of a written instrument executed by the holder thereof, and, in exchange therefor, Partnership Merger Sub will pay to the holder thereof cash in an amount, without interest, per restricted unit equal to the operating partnership merger consideration, plus accrued and unpaid dividends.

John C. Goff, our Chief Executive Officer and Vice Chairman of our board of trust managers, and Dennis H. Alberts, our President and Chief Operating Officer, had each previously received restricted unit awards that would have fully vested in connection with the mergers. On May 21, 2007, Messrs. Goff and Alberts waived the vesting of and agreed to forfeit, for the benefit of the shareholders, the portions of their respective restricted stock awards that were designated for vesting when the share price targets of $25.50 and $27.00 were met and that would have vested in connection with the mergers. The forfeitures, the value of which totaled approximately $10.3 million, are applicable to the mergers or any transaction our board of trust managers determines to accept in lieu of the mergers.

Interests of Our Trust Managers and Executive Officers (Page 38)

Our trust managers and executive officers and certain other persons may have interests in the mergers that are different from, or in addition to, yours, including the following:

unvested common share options held by our trust managers and executive officers will be canceled at the company merger effective time in exchange for the right to receive a single lump sum cash payment equal to the product of (A) the number of common shares issuable upon exercise of such options (assuming full vesting) and (B) the excess, if any, of the common share merger consideration over the exercise price per common share;

unvested partnership unit options held by our executive officers will be canceled at the company merger effective time in exchange for the right to receive a single lump sum cash payment equal to the product of (A) the number of partnership units issuable upon exercise of such options (assuming full vesting) and (B) the excess, if any, of the operating partnership merger consideration over the exercise price per partnership unit;

restricted unit awards owned by our executive officers (whether or not then vested) will be accelerated in accordance with their terms and canceled at the operating partnership merger effective time in exchange for the right to receive a single lump sum cash payment equal to the product of (A) the number of partnership units issuable upon vesting of such awards (assuming full vesting) and (B) the operating partnership merger consideration, plus accrued but unpaid dividends; and each of our executive officers may, if terminated under certain circumstances within 12 months following the closing of the mergers, be entitled to severance benefits, comprised of (a) a lump sum severance payment equal to 12 months of the officer's base salary (18 months of base salary and 150% of the average of the bonuses paid in 2004, 2005 and 2006 for John C. Goff, our Chief Executive Officer, and Dennis H. Alberts, our President and Chief Operating Officer), (b) health care continuation coverage for up to 12 months following termination of employment, and (c) outplacement assistance.

All of our trust managers were fully aware of the foregoing interests of our trust managers and executive officers in the mergers and, except for Messrs. Goff and Alberts who recused themselves, considered them prior to approving the mergers and the merger agreement.

Morgan Stanley Real Estate is currently assessing its staffing requirements with respect to the ongoing business operations of the surviving entity. As a result, it is possible that the surviving entity might offer an employment opportunity to one or more of our executive officers upon or after the completion of the mergers. However, no determination has been made regarding which, if any, executive officers may be offered employment or the terms of any such employment opportunity, including compensation.

No Solicitation of Transactions (Page 58)

The merger agreement contains restrictions on our ability to solicit or engage in discussions or negotiations with a third party regarding specified transactions involving the company or our subsidiaries. Notwithstanding these restrictions, under certain circumstances and subject to certain conditions, our board of trust managers may respond to an unsolicited written acquisition proposal or terminate the merger agreement and enter into an acquisition agreement with respect to a superior proposal. Upon entering into an agreement for a transaction that constitutes a superior proposal, we will be obligated to pay a break-up fee to Moon Parent as described below under Termination Fees and Expenses.

Conditions to the Mergers (Page 61)

Completion of the mergers depends upon the satisfaction or waiver of a number of conditions, including, among others:

approval of the proposal to approve the merger agreement and the company merger by the requisite shareholder vote in accordance with the Texas REIT Act and our charter;

approval of the proposal to approve the merger agreement and the operating partnership merger by the requisite affirmative consent of the limited partners of the operating partnership in accordance with the Delaware Revised Uniform Limited Partnership Act, as amended, and the operating partnership agreement;

expiration or termination of any waiting period relating to and acquisition of any material governmental approvals, authorizations and consents applicable to the consummation of the mergers or the redemptions of our preferred shares;

no action by any governmental authority that would make illegal or prohibit the consummation of the mergers or the redemptions of our preferred shares;

our and the operating partnership's representations and warranties being true and correct, except where the failure of such representations and warranties to be true and correct in all respects without regard to any materiality or material adverse effect qualifications (other than the representation relating to any material adverse effect to us) does not and would not reasonably be expected to have, individually or in the aggregate, a material adverse effect;

the performance, in all material respects, by us and the operating partnership, of all material obligations under the merger agreement and compliance, in all material respects, with the material agreements and covenants to be performed or complied with under the merger agreement;

since May 22, 2007, there shall not have been an event, occurrence, effect or circumstance that has resulted or would reasonably be expected to result in, a material adverse effect on us; and the receipt of a tax opinion of our counsel, Pillsbury Winthrop Shaw Pittman LLP, opining on our qualification as a REIT under the Code, commencing with our first taxable year ended December 31, 1994, and that we have no liability for certain company-level taxes.

Termination of the Merger Agreement (Page 63)

The merger agreement may be terminated and the mergers may be abandoned at any time prior to the company merger effective time, as follows:

by mutual written consent of Moon Parent and us;

by either Moon Parent or us if:

the company merger has not occurred on or before October 31, 2007, except under certain circumstances, provided that this right will not be available to a party whose failure to fulfill any obligation under the merger agreement materially contributed to the failure of the company merger to occur on or before such date;

any governmental authority shall have taken any action which has the effect of making consummation of either of the mergers or the redemptions of our preferred shares illegal or otherwise preventing or prohibiting the consummation of the mergers or the redemptions of our preferred shares, provided that this right will not be available to a party who failed to use reasonable best efforts to oppose such action by a governmental authority; or the requisite vote of our common shareholders to approve the company merger and the other transactions contemplated by the merger agreement is not obtained;

by Moon Parent if:

we or the operating partnership are in breach of the representations and warranties or covenants or agreements under the merger agreement and such breach results in the applicable closing condition regarding representations and warranties or covenants and agreements being incapable of being satisfied by October 31, 2007, so long as neither Moon Parent, REIT Merger Sub nor Partnership Merger Sub are in material breach of their obligations under the merger agreement;

our board of trust managers withdraws, modifies or amends its recommendation that shareholders vote to approve the merger agreement and the company merger in any manner adverse to Moon Parent; or our board of trust managers recommends or approves an acquisition proposal or fails to recommend against certain alternative takeover proposals;

by us if:

Moon Parent, REIT Merger Sub and Partnership Merger Sub are in breach of the representations and warranties or covenants or agreements under the merger agreement and such breach results in the applicable closing condition regarding representations and warranties or covenants and agreements being incapable of being satisfied by October 31, 2007, so long as we are not in material breach of our obligations under the merger agreement; or our board of trust managers approves an acquisition proposal so long as:

the requisite shareholder vote for the company merger has not been obtained;

we are not in or have not been in breach of our obligations under the merger agreement with regard to prohibitions on soliciting acquisition proposals or providing information regarding an acquisition proposal to Moon Parent in any material respects;

our board of trust managers has determined in good faith, after consulting with its financial advisor, that such definitive agreement constitutes a superior proposal and has determined in good faith, after consulting with its outside legal counsel, that the failure to take such actions would be inconsistent with trust managers' duties to our shareholders under applicable laws;

we have notified Moon Parent in writing that we intend to enter into such agreement;

during the three business days following the receipt by Moon Parent of our notice, we have offered to negotiate with, and if accepted, have negotiated in good faith with, Moon Parent to make adjustments to the terms and conditions of the merger agreement to enable us to proceed with the company merger;

our board of trust managers has determined in good faith, after the end of such three business day period, after considering the results of such negotiations and any revised proposals made by Moon Parent, that the superior proposal giving rise to such notice continues to be a superior proposal; and we pay to Moon Parent the termination fee and reasonable transaction expenses in accordance with the merger agreement simultaneously with the termination of the merger agreement.

Termination Fee and Expenses (Page 65)

Under certain circumstances, in connection with the termination of the merger agreement, we will be required to pay to Moon Parent a termination fee of $64.2 million, less any of Moon Parent's expenses we previously paid. The merger agreement also provides that if either party terminates the merger agreement in certain circumstances, the breaching party must reimburse the non-breaching party for its reasonable transaction expenses up to a limit of $10 million.

Regulatory Matters (Page 41)

We currently are unaware of any material federal, state or foreign regulatory requirements or approvals that are required for the execution of the merger agreement or the completion of either the company merger or the operating partnership merger other than potential filings and necessary approvals, if any, pursuant to the Hart-Scott-Rodino Antitrust Improvements Act of 1976, as amended, the acceptance for record of the articles of merger in respect of the company merger by the county clerk of Tarrant County, Texas, in accordance with the Texas REIT Act, and the filing of certificates of merger with the Secretary of State of the State of Delaware, in accordance with the Delaware Limited Liability Company Act and the Delaware Revised Uniform Limited Partnership Act.

Litigation Relating to the Mergers (Page 42)

On May 24, 2007, a purported shareholder class action lawsuit related to the merger agreement was filed in the District Court of Tarrant County, Texas, naming us and each of our trust managers as defendants. The lawsuit, Edward Tansey vs. Crescent Real Estate Equities Company, et al. (Cause No. 352-225130-07), alleges, among other things, that $22.80 per share in cash to be paid to our common shareholders in connection with the company merger is grossly unfair, that the individual trust manager defendants breached their fiduciary duties to our common shareholders in negotiating and approving the merger agreement, and that we aided and abetted our trust managers in such alleged breach.

On May 25, 2007, a shareholder derivative petition for breach of fiduciary duty related to the merger agreement was filed in the District Court of Tarrant County, Texas, naming each of our trust managers, as well as Morgan Stanley Real Estate and Morgan Stanley & Co., Inc. (the Morgan Stanley Defendants) as defendants and naming us as a nominal defendant. The lawsuit, John Gomez vs. Richard Rainwater, et al. (Cause No. 141-224134-07), alleges, among other things, that $22.80 per share in cash to be paid to our common shareholders in connection with the company merger substantially undervalues the Company and is an unfair price, that the individual trust manager defendants breached their fiduciary duties to our common shareholders in negotiating and approving the merger agreement, that the Morgan Stanley Defendants aided and abetted our trust managers in such alleged breach, that our trust managers abused their ability to control and influence us, that our trust managers committed waste of corporate assets, and that our trust managers usurped a corporate opportunity (and were aided and abetted by the Morgan Stanley Defendants in that wrongdoing).

On May 30, 2007, a shareholder derivative petition for breach of fiduciary duty related to the merger agreement was filed in the District Court of Tarrant County, Texas, naming each of our trust managers, as well as the Morgan Stanley Defendants as defendants and naming us as a nominal defendant. The lawsuit, Willard Nelson vs. Richard Rainwater, et al. (Cause No. 141-224214-07), alleges, among other things, that $22.80 per share in cash to be paid to our common shareholders in connection with the company merger substantially undervalues the Company and is an unfair price, that the individual trust manager defendants breached their fiduciary duties to our common shareholders in negotiating and approving the merger agreement, that the Morgan Stanley Defendants aided and abetted our trust managers in such alleged breach, that our trust managers abused their ability to control and influence us, that our trust managers committed waste of corporate assets, and that our trust managers usurped a corporate opportunity (and were aided and abetted by the Morgan Stanley Defendants in that wrongdoing).

On June 11, 2007, a purported shareholder class action lawsuit related to the merger agreement was filed in the District Court of Tarrant County, Texas, naming us and each of our trust managers, as well as Moon Acquisition Holdings, LLC, Moon Acquisition, LLC and Moon Acquisition Limited Partnership (the Moon Defendants), as defendants. The lawsuit, Edward Acuff vs. Richard Rainwater, et al. (Case No. 067-224428-07), alleges, among other things, that $22.80 per share in cash to be paid to our common shareholders in connection with the company merger is an insufficient price, that the individual trust manager defendants breached their fiduciary duties to our common shareholders in negotiating and approving the merger agreement, and that we and the Moon Defendants aided and abetted the trust managers in such alleged breach.

We intend to vigorously defend each of these actions. However, even if these lawsuits are determined to be without merit, they may potentially delay or, if the delay is substantial enough to prevent the closing of the mergers by October 31, 2007, prevent the closing of the mergers.

Dissenters Rights of Appraisal (Page 70)

Under the Texas REIT Act, our common shareholders may dissent from the plan of merger to which we are a party. If you dissent, you may file a petition in any court of competent jurisdiction in Tarrant County, Texas, which is where our principal office is located, asking for a finding and determination of the fair value of your common shares. A court may then appoint appraisers to examine our books and records and make a determination of the fair value of the common shares after finishing their investigation. After receiving the report of the appraisers regarding the fair value of the common shares, the court will then determine the fair value of the shares and will order payment to be made. If you demand payment for your common shares in accordance with the Texas REIT Act, you will not be entitled to vote or exercise other rights related to your shares, except the right to receive payment for your shares and the right to maintain an action to obtain relief on the ground that our action would be or was fraudulent.

We encourage you to read Section 25.20 of the Texas Real Estate Investment Trust Act carefully, which is attached as Exhibit C to this proxy statement.

Material United States Federal Income Tax Consequences (Page 43)

The receipt of the common share merger consideration for each of our common shares pursuant to the company merger will be a taxable transaction for U.S. federal income tax purposes. Generally, for U.S. federal income tax purposes, you will recognize gain or loss measured by the difference, if any, between the common share merger consideration received in exchange for our common shares and your adjusted tax basis in our common shares. In addition, under certain circumstances, we may be required to withhold a portion of your common share merger consideration under applicable tax laws. Tax matters can be complicated, and the tax consequences of the company merger to you will depend on your particular tax situation. We encourage you to consult your tax advisor regarding the tax consequences of the company merger to you.

Delisting and Deregistration of Our Common Shares and Our Series A and Series B Preferred Shares; Deregistration of Partnership Units (Page 47)

If the company merger is completed, our common shares and our Series A and Series B preferred shares will no longer be listed on the New York Stock Exchange and will be deregistered under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended, or the Exchange Act. In addition, the operating partnership's partnership units will be deregistered under the Exchange Act.

Market Price and Dividend Data (Page 66)

Our common shares, par value $0.01 per share, are listed on the New York Stock Exchange under the ticker symbol CEI. On May 22, 2007, the last trading day prior to the date of the public announcement of the merger agreement, the closing price of our common shares on the New York Stock Exchange was $21.62 per share. On June 25, 2007, the last trading day before the date of this proxy statement, the closing price of our common shares on the New York Stock Exchange was $22.15 per share. You are encouraged to obtain current market quotations for our common shares.

QUESTIONS AND ANSWERS ABOUT THE SPECIAL MEETING AND THE MERGERS

The following questions and answers address briefly some questions you may have regarding the special meeting and the proposed mergers. These questions and answers may not address all questions that may be important to you as a shareholder. Please refer to the more detailed information contained elsewhere in this proxy statement, as well as the additional documents to which it refers or which it incorporates by reference, including the merger agreement, a copy of which is attached to this proxy statement as Exhibit A. We encourage you to read the merger agreement carefully and in its entirety, as it is the principal document governing the mergers.

Q: Why am I receiving this proxy statement and proxy card?

A: You are being asked to consider and approve the company merger, the merger agreement and the transactions contemplated therein. You are being asked to cast one vote per common share of which you are the holder of record, for or against the above transaction. For additional information about the mergers, please review the merger agreement attached to this proxy statement as Exhibit A and incorporated by reference into this proxy statement.

Q: What is the proposed transaction?

A: The proposed transaction is the acquisition of the company and, through such acquisition, the ownership of its subsidiaries, including the operating partnership, by affiliates of Morgan Stanley Real Estate pursuant to the merger agreement. Once the company merger and the merger agreement have been approved by our shareholders and the other closing conditions under the merger agreement have been satisfied or waived, the company will be merged with and into REIT Merger Sub with REIT Merger Sub continuing as the surviving entity. Immediately after the company merger, Moon Acquisition Limited Partnership will merge with and into the operating partnership, with the operating partnership surviving the operating partnership merger and continuing to exist as a subsidiary of REIT Merger Sub. For additional information about the mergers, please review the merger agreement attached to this proxy statement as Exhibit A and incorporated by reference into this proxy statement.

Q: As a common shareholder of Crescent, what will I receive as a result of the company merger?

A: In exchange for each outstanding common share that you own immediately prior to the company merger effective time, you will receive the common share merger consideration, which is an amount equal to $22.80 in cash, without interest. The amount of the common share merger consideration will only be adjusted to the extent that we are required to make distributions for certain tax purposes prior to the company merger effective time.

Q: Will I receive any regular quarterly dividends with respect to the common shares that I own?

A: No. Under the terms of the merger agreement, we may not declare or pay any other dividends to you without the prior written consent of Moon Parent other than as may be required to maintain our qualification as a REIT and avoid certain company-level taxes. We do not anticipate making any further distributions to maintain our qualification as a REIT as a result of the receipt of the common share merger consideration by our common shareholders being able to qualify as a distribution for such purposes.

Q: Why are no regular quarterly dividends being paid?

A: Dividends paid year-to-date by us, combined with the payment of the common share merger consideration, are anticipated to exceed the minimum required distributions to maintain our qualification as a REIT.

Q: When do you expect the mergers to be completed?

A: We are working toward completing the mergers as quickly as possible, and we anticipate that the mergers will be completed in the third quarter of 2007. In order to complete the company merger, we must obtain the requisite shareholder approval of the company merger and satisfy, or have waived, the other closing conditions under the merger agreement. The operating partnership merger does not require the approval of any of our common shareholders.

Q: Who is soliciting my proxy?

A: This proxy is being solicited by our board of trust managers.

Q: What vote of common shareholders is required to approve the company merger and the merger agreement?

A: Approval of the proposal to approve the merger agreement and consummate the company merger requires the affirmative vote of the holders of at least two-thirds of the outstanding common shares entitled to vote on the matter at the special meeting. Because the required vote is based on the number of votes entitled to be cast in person or by proxy rather than on the number of votes cast in person or by proxy, failure to vote your shares (including as a result of broker non-votes) and abstentions will have the same effect as voting against the proposal to approve the merger agreement and the company merger. The operating partnership merger does not require the approval of any of our shareholders.

Q: If the company merger is completed, when can I expect to receive the common shares merger consideration for my common shares?

A: Promptly after the completion of the company merger, you will receive a letter of transmittal describing how you may exchange your common shares for the common share merger consideration. You should not send your share certificates to us or anyone else until you receive these instructions.

Q: When and where is the special meeting?

A: The special meeting of shareholders will take place on August 1, 2007 at 10:00 a.m., Central Daylight Saving Time, at the Hotel Crescent Court, 400 Crescent Court, Dallas, Texas.

Q: Who can vote and attend the special meeting?

A: All of our common shareholders of record as of the close of business on June 22, 2007, the record date for the special meeting, are entitled to receive notice of and attend the special meeting or any adjournments or postponements of the special meeting and are entitled to vote at the special meeting or any adjournments or postponements of the special meeting. Each common share entitles you to one vote on each matter properly brought before the special meeting. The vote of the holders of our Series A and Series B preferred shareholders is not required to approve the company merger or the merger agreement and is not being solicited.

Q: How does the common share merger consideration compare to the market price of the common shares?

A: The cash consideration of $22.80 for each of our common shares represents an approximate 8.8% premium to the closing price of our common shares on May 21, 2007, the last trading day before we received Greenhill's oral opinion with respect to the fairness of the mergers, an approximate 12.2% premium to the average closing price of our common shares for the 30-day period ended May 21, 2007, an approximate 12.2% premium to the average closing price of our common shares for the 60-day period ended May 21, 2007, and an approximate 11.2% premium to the average closing price of our common shares for the 90-day period ended May 21, 2007.

Q: How does our board of trust managers recommend that I vote?

A: Our board of trust managers (subject to the recusal of two trust managers) recommends that our common shareholders vote in favor of the proposal to approve the merger agreement and the company merger. In making this determination, John C. Goff, our Chief Executive Officer and Vice Chairman of our board of trust managers, and Dennis H. Alberts, our President and Chief Operating Officer, recused themselves.

Q: Do any of the company's executive officers and trust managers or any other person have any interest in the mergers that is different than mine?

A: Yes. Our trust managers and executive officers may have interests in the mergers that are different from, or in addition to, yours, including the consideration that they would receive with respect to their options to purchase our common shares, options to purchase partnership units, and restricted units in connection with the mergers. Further, under certain circumstances, our executive officers will be entitled to certain severance payments and benefits following the closing of the mergers. Please see The Mergers Interests of Our Trust Managers and Executive Officers on page 38 for additional information about possible interests that our trust managers and executive officers may have in the mergers that are different than yours.

Q: How do I cast my vote?

A: If you are a common shareholder of record on the record date, you may vote in person at the special meeting or authorize a proxy for the special meeting. You can authorize your proxy by completing, signing, dating and returning the enclosed proxy card in the accompanying pre-addressed, postage paid envelope, or, if you prefer, by following the instructions on your proxy card for Internet proxy authorization.

Q: How do I cast my vote if my common shares are held of record in street name ?

A: If you hold your common shares in street name through a broker, bank or other nominee, your broker, bank or nominee will not vote your shares unless you provide instructions on how to vote. You must obtain a proxy form from the broker, bank or other nominee that is the record holder of your shares and provide the record holder of your shares with instructions on how to vote your shares, in accordance with the voting directions provided by your broker, bank or nominee. If your shares are held in street name, please refer to the voting instruction card used by your broker, bank or other nominee, or contact them directly, to see if you may submit voting instructions using the Internet or telephone.

Q: What will happen if I abstain from voting or fail to vote?

A: If you abstain from voting, fail to cast your vote in person or by proxy or if you hold your shares in street name and fail to give voting instructions to the record holder of your shares, it will have the same effect as a vote against the proposal to approve the merger agreement and the company merger.

Q: How will proxy holders vote my shares?

A: If you properly submit a proxy prior to the special meeting, your common shares will be voted as you direct. If you submit a proxy but no direction is otherwise made, your common shares will be voted FOR the proposal to approve the merger agreement and the company merger.

Q: What happens if I sell my shares before the special meeting?

A: If you held your common shares on the record date but transfer them prior to the company merger effective time, you will retain your right to vote at the special meeting, but not the right to receive the common share merger consideration for the common shares. The right to receive such consideration will pass to the person who owns the shares you previously owned when the company merger becomes effective.

Q: Can I change my vote after I have mailed my proxy card?

A: Yes. If you own our common shares as a record holder, you may revoke a previously granted proxy at any time before it is exercised by filing with our Corporate Secretary a notice of revocation or a duly executed proxy bearing a later date, submitting voting instructions again by Internet, or by attending the meeting and voting in person. Attendance at the meeting will not, in itself, constitute revocation of a previously granted proxy. If you have instructed a broker to vote your shares, the above-described options for changing your vote do not apply and instead you must follow the instructions received from your broker to change your vote.

Q: Is the company merger expected to be taxable to me?

A: Yes. The receipt of the common share merger consideration for each common share pursuant to the company merger will be a taxable transaction for U.S. federal income tax purposes. Generally, for U.S. federal income tax purposes, you will recognize gain or loss measured by the difference, if any, between the common share merger consideration received in exchange for our common shares and your adjusted tax basis in our common shares. In addition, under certain circumstances, we may be required to withhold a portion of your common share merger consideration under applicable tax laws. You should read The Mergers Material United States Federal Income Tax Consequences on page 43 for a more complete discussion of the U.S. federal income tax consequences. Tax matters can be complicated, and the tax consequences of the company merger to you will depend on your particular tax situation. We encourage you to consult your tax advisor regarding the tax consequences of the company merger to you.

Q: Should I send in my share certificates now?

A: No. Shortly after the company merger is completed, you will receive a letter of transmittal with instructions informing you how to send your share certificates to the paying agent in order to receive the common share merger consideration. You should use the letter of transmittal to exchange share certificates for the common share merger consideration to which you are entitled. DO NOT SEND ANY SHARE CERTIFICATES WITH YOUR PROXY.

Q: What rights do I have if I oppose the company merger?

A: If you are a common shareholder of record, you can vote against the company merger by indicating a vote against the proposal on your proxy card and signing and mailing your proxy card, by submitting voting instructions against the proposal to approve the merger agreement and the company merger by Internet or voting against the proposal to approve the merger agreement and the company merger in person at the special meeting. If you hold your shares in street name, you can vote against the company merger in accordance with the voting instructions provided to you by the record holder of your shares. Subject to certain conditions, you are entitled to dissenters' rights under Texas law. Please see Dissenters' Rights of Appraisal on page 70.

Q: What will happen to the common shares that I currently own after completion of the company merger?

A: Following the completion of the company merger, your shares will be canceled and will represent only the right to receive your portion of the common share merger consideration. Trading in our common shares on the New York Stock Exchange will cease. Price quotations for our common shares will no longer be available and we will cease filing periodic reports with the Securities and Exchange Commission (the "SEC").

Q: Have any shareholders already agreed to approve the company merger or the operating partnership merger?

A: Yes. The Chairman of our board of trust managers, Richard E. Rainwater, who directly, indirectly or beneficially owns or controls, as of June 22, 2007, 4,429,245 common shares (other than those issuable upon conversion of partnership units) and 5,463,862 partnership units, has entered into an agreement with Moon Parent and REIT Merger Sub in which he has agreed to vote the common shares that he is entitled to vote in his capacity as the beneficial holder of such shares in favor of the proposal to approve the merger agreement and the company merger. Similarly, we and Crescent Real Estate Equities, Ltd., the sole general partner of the operating partnership, have entered into an agreement with Moon Parent, REIT Merger Sub and Partnership Merger Sub pursuant to which we and Crescent Real Estate Equities, Ltd. have agreed to vote all of our interests in the operating partnership in favor of the proposal to approve the merger agreement approve the operating partnership merger. In addition, our executive officers and trust managers have informed us that they intend to vote our common shares that they beneficially own in favor of the proposal to approve the merger agreement and the company merger.

Q: Where can I find more information about the company?

A: We file certain information with the SEC. You may read and copy this information at the SEC's public reference facilities. You may call the SEC at 1-800-SEC-0330 for information about these facilities. This information is also available at the Internet site the SEC maintains at www.sec.gov and on our website at www.crescent.com. See "Where You Can Find More Information" on page 72.

Q: Who will solicit and pay the cost of soliciting proxies?

A: We will bear the cost of soliciting proxies for the special meeting. Our board of trust managers is soliciting your proxy on our behalf. Our officers, trust managers and employees may solicit proxies by telephone and facsimile, by mail, on the Internet or in person. They will not be paid any additional amounts for soliciting proxies. We have retained MacKenzie Partners, Inc. to assist us in the solicitation of proxies, and will pay up to $30,000, plus reimbursement of out-of-pocket expenses, to MacKenzie Partners, Inc. for its services. proxy indicating that it does not have discretionary authority as to certain shares to vote on a particular matter (broker non-votes), those shares will not be considered as present with respect to such matter. Under the rules of the New York Stock Exchange, brokers are precluded from exercising their voting discretion with respect to the approval of non-routine matters, such as the company merger or the merger agreement.

Required Vote

Completion of the mergers requires approval of the proposal to approve the merger agreement and the company merger by the affirmative vote of the holders of at least two-thirds of the outstanding common shares entitled to vote on the matter at the special meeting. Each common share that was outstanding on the record date entitles the holder to cast one vote at the special meeting.

Record holders may vote or cause their shares to be voted using one of the following methods:

If you are a record holder of common shares, you may revoke your proxy at any time, but only before the proxy is voted at the special meeting, in any of three ways:

by delivering, prior to the date of the special meeting, a written revocation of your proxy dated after the date of the proxy that is being revoked to our Corporate Secretary at 777 Main Street, Suite 2100, Fort Worth, Texas 76102; or

Attendance at the special meeting will not, in itself, constitute revocation of a previously authorized proxy.

If you own our common shares in street name, you may revoke or change a previously authorized proxy by following the instructions provided by the bank, brokerage firm, nominee or other party that is the registered owner of our common shares.

We do not expect that any matter other than (i) the proposal to approve the merger agreement and the company merger and (ii) to consider and vote on any other business that properly comes before the special meeting or any adjournments or postponements of the special meeting, including adjournments and postponements for the purpose of soliciting additional proxies, will be brought before the special meeting. If, however, such a matter is properly presented at the special meeting or any adjournments or postponements of the special meeting, the persons appointed as proxies will have discretionary authority to vote the shares represented by duly executed proxies in accordance with their discretion and judgment.

We will pay the costs of soliciting proxies for the special meeting. Our officers, trust managers and employees may solicit proxies by telephone and facsimile, by mail, on the Internet or in person. They will not be paid any additional amounts for soliciting proxies. We will also request that individuals and entities holding our common shares in their names, or in the names of their nominees, that are beneficially owned by others, send proxy materials to and obtain proxies from those beneficial owners, and, upon request, will reimburse those holders for their reasonable expenses in performing those services. We have retained MacKenzie Partners, Inc. to assist us in the solicitation of proxies, and will pay up to $30,000, plus reimbursement of out-of-pocket expenses, to MacKenzie Partners, Inc. for its services. In addition, our arrangement with MacKenzie Partners, Inc. includes provisions obligating us to indemnify it for certain liabilities that could arise in connection with its solicitation of proxies on our behalf.

Adjournments and Postponements

Although it is not currently expected, the special meeting may be adjourned or postponed for the purpose of soliciting additional proxies if we have not received sufficient proxies to constitute a quorum or sufficient votes to approve the merger agreement and the company merger at the special meeting of shareholders. Any adjournments or postponements may be made without notice, other than by an announcement at the special meeting, by approval of the holders of a majority of the votes cast on the matter at the special meeting, whether or not a quorum exists. If no instructions are indicated on your signed proxy card, your shares will be voted in favor of an adjournment. Any adjournment or postponement of the special meeting for the purpose of soliciting additional proxies will allow shareholders who have already sent in their proxies to revoke them at any time prior to their use.

THE MERGERS

General Description of the Mergers

Under the terms of the merger agreement, certain funds managed by Morgan Stanley Real Estate will indirectly acquire us and our subsidiaries, including the operating partnership, through their ownership of Moon Parent. To accomplish this, the following transactions will occur:

On the closing date of the mergers, we will be merged with and into REIT Merger Sub with REIT Merger Sub continuing as the surviving entity following the company merger and our common shares issued and outstanding immediately prior to the company merger effective time and not subject to dissenters' rights (other than shares held by us or our subsidiaries or REIT Merger Sub, which will be automatically canceled and retired and cease to exist with no payment being made, and shares held by properly dissenting shareholders) will automatically be canceled and converted into the right to receive cash, without interest, equal to $22.80 per common share, reduced by the per share amount, if any, distributed to holders of our common shares relating to distributions we make that are necessary for us either to maintain our status as a real estate investment trust or to avoid the imposition of corporate level tax or excise tax under the U.S. Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended;

Immediately following the company merger, Partnership Merger Sub will merge with and into the operating partnership with the operating partnership surviving and each limited partnership unit of the operating partnership (other than units held by Crescent affiliates or restricted units) will receive cash, without interest, equal to $45.60 per unit (assuming we do not make any distributions that are necessary for us either to maintain our status as a real estate investment trust or to avoid the imposition certain U.S. federal tax), which is the product of (A) the common share merger consideration multiplied by (B) two;

Any unexercised and unexpired option to purchase common shares issued under our equity incentive plans held immediately prior to the company merger effective time (regardless of whether it is vested or exercisable at that time) will, at the company merger effective time, be canceled upon the surrender and cancellation of the option agreement representing the option, together with the delivery of a written instrument executed by the holder thereof, and, in exchange therefor, REIT Merger Sub will pay to the holder thereof cash in an amount equal to the product of (A) the number of common shares issuable upon exercise of such option (assuming full vesting) and (B) the excess, if any, of the common share merger consideration over the exercise price per common share, which cash payment will be treated as compensation and will be net of any applicable federal or state withholding tax;

Any unexercised and unexpired option to purchase partnership units issued under our equity incentive plans held immediately prior to the company merger effective time (regardless of whether it is vested or exercisable at that time) will, at the company merger effective time, be canceled upon the surrender and cancellation of the option agreement representing the option, together with the delivery of a written instrument executed by the holder thereof, and, in exchange therefor, Partnership Merger Sub will pay to the holder thereof cash in an amount equal to the product of (A) the number of partnership units issuable upon exercise of such option (assuming full vesting) and (B) the excess, if any, of the operating partnership merger consideration over the exercise price per partnership unit, which cash payment will be treated as compensation and will be net of any applicable federal or state withholding tax;

Other than certain restricted unit awards forfeited prior to the company merger effective time, any unpaid and unexpired restricted unit award held immediately prior to the company merger effective time (regardless of whether it is vested at that time) will, at the operating partnership merger effective time, be canceled upon the surrender of the agreement representing the restricted unit award (or a reasonably satisfactory affidavit of lost agreement), together with the delivery of a written instrument executed by the holder thereof, and, in exchange therefor, Partnership Merger Sub will pay to the holder thereof cash in an amount, without interest, per restricted unit equal to the operating partnership merger consideration, plus accrued and unpaid dividends; and

Prior to the company merger effective time, each of the Series A and Series B preferred shares issued and outstanding will be redeemed by us for cash pursuant to the terms of such securities; to the extent such redemptions do not occur, the Series A preferred shares issued and outstanding immediately prior to the company merger effective time will automatically be converted into, and canceled in exchange for, the right to receive the greater of (A) the redemption price per share specified in our charter documents and (B) the common share merger consideration on an as-converted basis pursuant to the terms of our charter documents, and the Series B preferred shares issued and outstanding immediately prior to the company merger effective time will automatically be converted into, and canceled in exchange for, the right to receive the redemption price per share specified in our charter documents.

After completion of the redemptions and the consummation of the mergers, REIT Merger Sub will own all of the equity interests previously owned by us in the operating partnership and other subsidiaries, including Crescent Real Estate Equities, Ltd.'s general partnership interest and our approximately 81% limited partnership interest in the operating partnership.

This proxy statement does not constitute a solicitation of consents in respect of the operating partnership merger and does not constitute an offer to exchange or convert any partnership units in the operating partnership that you may own for or into newly issued preferred units or common units in the surviving operating partnership.

Background of the Mergers

In late 2005, our board of trust managers began to consider whether we could enhance shareholder value by taking advantage of abundant private acquisition capital and historically high real estate values in many of our markets by selling our office and hotel properties. Our board of trust managers considered the advice of management and Lehman Brothers Inc. (Lehman) and decided to explore the possibility of effecting a strategic recapitalization of the Company. The central elements of this plan involved the selling of our office properties and our resort and hotel properties in separate portfolio transactions and thereafter recapitalizing and transitioning Crescent into a taxable corporation, rather than a real estate investment trust, to focus on and pursue the lifestyle and wellness business associated with its resort residential development and Canyon Ranch businesses.

With the assistance of Lehman, we conducted a targeted and confidential sales process for our office portfolio beginning in early 2006, which was to be followed by a similar sales process for our resort and hotel portfolio. In connection with the potential office portfolio sale, we executed confidentiality agreements with a number of prospective purchasers, including Morgan Stanley Real Estate. The office portfolio sales process yielded two offers to acquire the entire portfolio of office properties, as well as offers for certain components of the portfolio. Neither of the portfolio offers was at a price that our board of trust managers believed, after consultation with Lehman, was reflective of the aggregate market value of our office properties if sold individually. As a result, our board of trust managers determined not to proceed with the prospective office portfolio bidders and elected instead to pursue marketing the properties and addressing the offers for components separately through sales of smaller portfolios and individual assets.

We also undertook a sales process for our resort and hotel properties portfolio beginning in May 2006. We executed confidentiality agreements with a number of prospective purchasers of the properties. The sales process yielded two offers to acquire the portfolio of resort and hotel properties at prices reasonably acceptable to our board of trust managers. We negotiated a sales contract with one of the prospective purchasers, who eventually determined not to move forward on its initially indicated price. We then entered into negotiations with the second prospective purchaser.

Contemporaneously with the office and resort and hotel marketing efforts, our board of trust managers authorized our management to determine if there were any investors with an interest in participating in the contemplated recapitalization of the remaining assets of the company into a publicly traded corporation that would not be a real estate investment trust. During the spring of 2006, our representatives informally discussed possible recapitalization transactions with several potential counterparties, including Morgan Stanley Real Estate. Although these discussions did not generate acceptable pricing or terms for the recapitalization component of the strategic recapitalization plan for the Company, during the spring and early summer of 2006 several of these counterparties did express an interest in exploring the possibility of acquiring the company. However, except as described below, none of these parties made a formal offer to us.

By August 2006, these discussions resulted in a formal offer from an investment group to purchase all of our assets other than our office and hotel assets, with the expectation that we would then liquidate our office, resort and hotel assets as part of the continuing sales activities described above. As a part of its offer (the August Offer), the investment group required the continued participation of, and a significant equity investment from, senior management. In addition, an affiliate of Morgan Stanley had agreed to provide certain senior subordinated debt as a part of the financing of the August Offer being arranged by the investment group. After receipt of the August Offer, we suspended our negotiations with the second bidder from the sales process for our resort and hotel portfolio and any sales efforts on the office portfolio.

In contemplation of receiving the August Offer, our board of trust managers formed a special committee of independent trust managers composed of Paul E. Rowsey, III, Anthony M. Frank, William F. Quinn and Terry N. Worrell (the Special Committee) to represent our public shareholders in considering the offer as well as alternative transactions. The Special Committee hired Greenhill & Co., LLC (Greenhill) as its financial adviser and Carrington, Coleman, Sloman & Blumenthal, L.L.P. as its legal counsel. During the fall of 2006 the Special Committee considered the August Offer and, on October 23, 2006, formally rejected the August Offer due to execution and structuring risks associated with that offer.

On November 7, 2006, we announced that [d]uring 2006, the Company has conducted an extensive review of its strategic alternatives, that we had received the August Offer, that our board had established a special committee of independent trust managers to assist in its consideration of strategic alternatives and to respond to the [August Offer], that we had rejected the August Offer and that we were continuing to review our strategic alternatives.

From November 2006 to February 2007, management and our board of trust managers continued to analyze the prospects for our various assets and business lines in light of the evolving market conditions and the results of our strategic process to date. In early 2007, our board of trust managers decided to implement a new strategic plan (the Plan) which was designed to simplify our business model in order to become a pure-play office REIT. We announced the Plan on March 1, 2007. Under the Plan, we intended to (i) sell our resort and hotel properties, our resort residential developments, virtually all of our suburban Dallas office properties, all of our Austin office properties and our single office properties in Phoenix, Arizona, and Seattle, Washington, (ii) reduce our general and administrative expenses, (iii) retire debt and (iv) consider alternatives for our investment in Canyon Ranch in conjunction with the founders of Canyon Ranch.

Since March 1, we have been engaged in implementing the Plan. As of today, we have made the following progress with implementing the Plan:

sold our resort and hotel portfolio other than the Fairmont Sonoma Mission Inn, which is under contract to be sold;

sold our property in Seattle, Washington, and an office property under development and another office property in Austin, Texas;

placed our portfolio of selected Dallas office properties under contract;

contracted for the sale of our remaining Austin office properties and our Phoenix office property; commenced the initial marketing process for our resort residential development investments, which we have suspended as a result of our entry into the merger agreement; and commenced our reduction of general and administrative expenses.

During late 2006 and early 2007, representatives of a number of companies, including Morgan Stanley Real Estate and another party (the Other Party), had indicated an interest to our management and Greenhill regarding the possibility of acquiring us. With the exception of the contacts described below with Morgan Stanley Real Estate and the Other Party, none of these discussions led to any proposals by any of the parties.

Table of Contents

On March 6, 2007, representatives of Morgan Stanley Real Estate contacted our management to express a preliminary interest in acquiring us. Management discussed this interest with our chairman of the board, our lead independent director, the chairman of the Special Committee and Greenhill. Based on those discussions, we and Greenhill indicated to Morgan Stanley Real Estate that our board of trust managers would entertain offers for our entire business. No details regarding any potential transaction were discussed.

Also during March 2007, our board of trust managers authorized management and Greenhill to work with the founders of Canyon Ranch to evaluate a variety of options for that business, including a possible sale of our interest to the founders and a joint sale of all of the Canyon Ranch businesses. This process has been suspended as a result of our entry into the merger agreement.

On March 9, 2007, Morgan Stanley Real Estate delivered a letter (the March 9 Letter) to us indicating its interest in purchasing us for a price of between $22.50 and $23.00 per share, subject to due diligence. Morgan Stanley Real Estate indicated that it was a sophisticated, experienced and capable purchaser of companies like us and that its bid did not contemplate the participation of our management. It also indicated that its offer was subject to two to three weeks of customary due diligence. The offer also recognized that a potential transaction may have important tax and structuring considerations, which referred primarily to its desire to purchase assets, its concern regarding possible tax liabilities, and its requirement that we suspend further dividend payments.

On March 10, 2007, our board of trust managers held a special meeting to discuss the progress of our implementation of the Plan and the March 9 Letter. At that meeting our board of trust managers created a working group composed of members of our board of trust managers, our management and our advisors to develop and recommend a response to the March 9 Letter. Our board of trust managers determined that it was appropriate for our management to work with the board in connection with the March 9 Letter since the letter did not contemplate management's participation in the transaction.

On March 12, 2007, our board of trust managers held a special meeting to consider approval of the resort and hotel portfolio sale contract and to hear and consider the working group's recommendation for responding to the March 9 Letter. At that meeting our board of trust managers approved the resort and hotel portfolio sale contract, authorized the retention of Greenhill to represent us in connection with the Morgan Stanley Real Estate proposal and authorized the working group to engage in discussions with Morgan Stanley Real Estate regarding a possible acquisition of us.

On March 14, 2007, we entered into an engagement letter with Greenhill regarding its representation of us. Greenhill met with Morgan Stanley Real Estate and conveyed that our board of trust managers believed the offer contained in the March 9 Letter was inadequate, but indicated that our board of trust managers would be willing to consider an offer in excess of $24 per share for us and that our board of trust managers believed that any offer would require a fiduciary-out provision with a low break-up fee in order to permit a realistic opportunity for other bidders to make offers for us following announcement of a transaction. At that meeting, Morgan Stanley Real Estate indicated that it would need to obtain a step-up in tax basis in our assets and that it would need to consider the cost and structuring implications associated with obtaining the basis step-up.

Between March 14 and March 24, 2007, Morgan Stanley Real Estate was provided with limited confidential information relating to us, under the terms of a pre-existing confidentiality agreement. Additionally, our representatives and Morgan Stanley Real Estate had informal discussions in which we reiterated our concerns with the price offered in the March 9 Letter and the need for an ability to entertain other offers. Morgan Stanley Real Estate indicated that our assets did not support a valuation of over $24 per share and disagreed with our assessment of the appropriate size of a break-up fee in connection with the board's fiduciary out provision (i.e., that provision in the deal that would allow our board to accept a higher price for the company) because the proposed transaction was not a management buy-out and because the Company had been actively entertaining offers for parts or all of the company since the end of 2005. Though there was a difference between the parties in values and other terms, each party believed that the other was sufficiently interested in a transaction to engage in a serious exploration of a transaction.

On March 24, 2007, we entered into a confidentiality agreement with Morgan Stanley Real Estate pursuant to which, among other things, we agreed to negotiate exclusively with Morgan Stanley Real Estate until April 9, 2007, which period would automatically extend until April 16, 2007 if we did not terminate the exclusivity period.

Between March 24, 2007 and April 9, 2007, Morgan Stanley Real Estate conducted extensive due diligence. During this time, our representatives, Greenhill and our other advisors participated in numerous meetings and telephone conversations during which information was conveyed to Morgan Stanley Real Estate.

On April 10, 2007, Morgan Stanley Real Estate delivered a letter to our board of trust managers (the April 10 Letter) offering to purchase us for $22.75 per common share (based on a share count of 128.2 million). The April 10 Letter contemplated that any further declared dividends would be considered a deduction from the proposed purchase price. The offer was not contingent on receipt of financing and contemplated a deal protection and fiduciary out structure similar to a recent Morgan Stanley Real Estate acquisition which provided for a break-up fee of approximately 3% of equity value, among other items.

On April 10, 2007, our board of trust managers met to discuss the April 10 Letter. At that meeting our board of trust managers discussed the offer contained in the April 10 Letter, including the deal protection mechanisms and dividend restrictions included in the offer. Our board of trust managers also discussed the asset valuations likely underlying the proposal as well as the progress we had made at executing our Plan and the various execution risks inherent in fully executing the Plan. Specifically, our board of trust managers considered execution risks inherent in selling our interests in joint venture arrangements, such as our resort residential development and Canyon Ranch business, which involve complex ownership and control structures and long-standing personal relationships with the joint venture partners.

On April 16, 2007, our board of trust managers declared our expected first quarter dividend of $0.375 per common share. This dividend was paid on May 15, 2007 to common shareholders of record on April 30, 2007.

On April 19, 2007, our board of trust managers met to discuss the status of the discussions with Morgan Stanley Real Estate. Our board of trust managers discussed the status of our hotel and office sale processes, as well as the prospects for the marketing and sale of the resort residential business, which was expected to commence soon. Our board of trust managers then received a presentation from Greenhill relating to the valuation of the company and trading multiples for the company as a whole and the company after complete implementation of the Plan. Our board of trust managers also discussed our management's views on valuation of different assets. Our board of trust managers discussed the long-term prospects for the value of the company, as well as the importance of the fiduciary-out provisions in any transaction with a prospective purchaser. Pillsbury Winthrop Shaw Pittman LLP, company counsel, also advised our board of trust managers on its fiduciary duties in the context of the offer made in the April 10 Letter and the likely process if our board of trust managers elected to negotiate a transaction with Morgan Stanley Real Estate.

Based on the April 19, 2007 board deliberations and at the direction of our board of trust managers, the working group requested that Greenhill deliver a counterproposal of $23.25 per common share with payment of the $0.375 per share dividend declared on April 16, 2007 not deducted, but with no future payment of dividends, and a fiduciary out provision that included a break-up fee equal to 1% of equity value for 45 days, which would increase to 3% thereafter. Greenhill delivered the offer to Morgan Stanley Real Estate on April 22, 2007.

Also on April 19, 2007, certain members of our management met with representatives of the Other Party and its investment banker. At that meeting, the representatives indicated that the Other Party had access to unspecified sources of equity capital and debt financing that would permit it to make an offer to acquire us. On April 24, 2007, we received a letter from the Other Party offering to acquire us for $24 per common share (the April 24 Letter). The April 24 Letter contemplated, among other things, that we and the Other Party would enter into a preliminary agreement, after which the Other Party would conduct due diligence. If at the end of the due diligence period, the Other Party was willing to execute a definitive purchase agreement on the terms outlined in the preliminary agreement and, if we were unwilling to do so, we would owe the Other Party an unspecified break-up fee. Our board of trust managers authorized Greenhill to meet with the Other Party to discuss the April 24 Letter and attempt to ascertain if the Other Party had access to the necessary equity and debt to finance the offer represented in the April 24 Letter.

On April 26, 2007, our board of trust managers met to discuss and approve the sales of its portfolios of suburban Dallas and Austin office properties. At the meeting our board of trust managers also discussed the status of the discussions with Morgan Stanley Real Estate. As of the time of that meeting, we had not received a response from Morgan Stanley Real Estate to the offer delivered by Greenhill on April 22.

After our board of trust managers meeting on April 26, Morgan Stanley Real Estate contacted Greenhill to indicate that it would change its offer to $22.75 per common share, with no deduction for the dividend declared by us on April 16, 2007, no further dividend payments, and a reduced break-up fee of $0.50 per common share (or approximately 2.2% of equity value). Members of the working group discussed the Morgan Stanley Real Estate offer and determined to counter with a price of $23 per share and a break-up fee of 1.5% of equity value for the first 45 days, rising to 3% thereafter. Morgan Stanley Real Estate declined to accept the counteroffer. On April 27, 2007, our board of trust managers met, and Greenhill described these discussions.

On May 1, 2007, our board of trust managers met to discuss the status of the discussions with Morgan Stanley Real Estate. At the meeting our board of trust managers discussed the course of negotiations with Morgan Stanley Real Estate in detail. Our board of trust managers determined to defer the question of whether to continue discussions with Morgan Stanley Real Estate to a meeting to be held in the following few days.

On May 2, 2007, Greenhill met with representatives of the Other Party and its financial backer. At that meeting Greenhill indicated that the Other Party would need to demonstrate the availability of equity and debt financing in order for us to consider further discussions with the Other Party. Our board of trust managers considered the Other Party's position in the marketplace and its lack of equity as a deterrent to entering into further discussions with the Other Party. On May 8, 2007, the Other Party contacted Greenhill and stated that the Other Party was not interested in pursuing a transaction with us due to complications concerning our joint venture holdings, difficulty obtaining financing, uncertainty regarding tax structuring, and concern over transaction-related costs.

On May 7, 2007, our board of trust managers met to continue deliberations relating to the discussions with Morgan Stanley Real Estate. At the beginning of the meeting, John C. Goff, our Chief Executive Officer and Vice Chairman of our board of trust managers, and Dennis H. Alberts, our President and Chief Operating Officer, offered of their own volition to waive the vesting of and to forfeit, for the benefit of the shareholders, the portions of their respective restricted stock awards that were designated for vesting when the share price targets of $25.50 and $27.00 were hit and that would have vested in connection with an acquisition of the company by Morgan Stanley Real Estate. They explained that the proposed forfeitures, the value of which totaled approximately $10.3 million, were intended to be for the benefit of the shareholders. Thereafter, our board of trust managers received a presentation from Greenhill describing the Morgan Stanley Real Estate offer. Our board of trust managers discussed the alternatives available to us in light of the offer received from Morgan Stanley Real Estate, including continuing to implement the Plan, accepting the offer from Morgan Stanley Real Estate, or conducting a more formal sale process for our business. Our board of trust managers considered the valuation information provided by Greenhill as well as net asset value information provided by our management. In addition, our board of trust managers considered the execution risks inherent in the Plan. Based on these considerations, our board of trust managers decided to authorize the working group to negotiate with Morgan Stanley Real Estate to attempt to reach a definitive agreement for the acquisition of us at a price of $22.75 per common share (plus the value of the forfeitures by Messrs. Goff and Alberts described above), with no right to pay future dividends, and a fiduciary out provision that included a break-up fee of $0.50 per share (approximately 2.2% of equity value). The forfeitures, which were accepted by our board of trust managers on May 21, 2007, are applicable to the mergers or any other transaction our board of trust managers determines to accept in lieu of the mergers.

On May 9, 2007, we and Morgan Stanley Real Estate entered into an exclusivity agreement pursuant to which both of us agreed to negotiate exclusively with the other until 12:00 p.m., Central Daylight Saving Time, on May 19, 2007.

Table of Contents

From May 10 through May 22, 2007, our representatives and Morgan Stanley Real Estate engaged in an intensive due diligence process and negotiated a definitive merger agreement. The merger agreement negotiations addressed, among other areas, the scope of the fiduciary protections to be included in the agreement, the guarantees to be given by affiliates of Morgan Stanley Real Estate, the scope of the limitations on our business activities between execution and the closing of the mergers, the conditions to each party's obligations to close the mergers and each party's rights to terminate the merger agreement, the nature and breadth of the representations and warranties to be made by us and the terms of severance to be provided to any of our employees terminated in connection with the mergers. During this period, the parties also continued to negotiate the price per share to be paid by Morgan Stanley Real Estate in connection with the mergers. The final purchase price of $22.80 per common share was agreed based on the $22.75 per share price offered by Morgan Stanley Real Estate, and a proportional increase to such price to reflect the value of the equity award forfeitures by Messrs. Goff and Alberts that was partially offset by additional costs of the transaction identified by Morgan Stanley Real Estate.

On May 20, 2007 and continuing to May 21, our board of trust managers met twice to consider the merger agreement and the transactions contemplated by the merger agreement. At those meetings members of the working group briefed our board of trust managers on the content of the merger agreement and the few remaining open issues on the merger agreement. Greenhill made a presentation to the board of trust managers and provided its oral advice that the consideration to be received by our common shareholders pursuant to the merger agreement was fair to our common shareholders from a financial point of view. The board of trust managers considered the merger agreement and the transactions contemplated by the merger agreement, Greenhill's advice as to the fairness of the merger consideration, the execution risks associated with the Plan, the future prospects for shareholders to realize value from implementation of the Plan, and other factors discussed below under Reasons for the Merger. Based on these deliberations, the board of trust managers accepted the recommendation of the working group and approved the mergers and the merger agreement, subject to appropriate resolution of the remaining open issues on the merger agreement.

On May 21, 2007, consistent with their offers made on May 7, Messrs. Goff and Alberts waived the vesting of and agreed to forfeit, for the benefit of the shareholders, the portions of their respective restricted stock awards that were designated for vesting when the share price targets of $25.50 and $27.00 were hit and that would have vested in connection with the mergers.

On May 21 and 22, 2007, the parties resolved the remaining open issues on the merger agreement consistent with the direction and authorization of our board of trust managers.

The merger agreement was signed on May 22, 2007, and we issued a press release announcing the execution of the merger agreement that evening.

Certain of the factors considered by our board of trust managers are described in greater detail under the heading Reasons for the Mergers.

Reasons for the Mergers

Our board of trust managers considered both our short-term and long-term interests, as well as those of our shareholders and the holders of units of limited partnership interest in the operating partnership. In particular, our board of trust managers considered the following factors, which in the aggregate it deemed favorable, in reaching its decision to approve the mergers, the merger agreement and the other transactions contemplated by the merger agreement and to recommend approval of the merger agreement and the company merger to our common shareholders:

the current and historical market prices of our common shares, specifically the fact that our common shares traded below management's net asset value estimates until August 2006, when market rumors of our possible sale apparently began to circulate, and the fact that the cash merger consideration of $22.80 per share represented an approximate 8.8% premium to the closing price of our common shares on May 21, 2007, the last trading day before we received Greenhill's oral opinion with respect to the fairness of the mergers, an approximate 12.2% premium to the average closing price of our common shares for the 30-day period ended May 21, 2007, an approximate 12.2% premium to the average closing price of our common shares for the 60-day period ended May 21, 2007, and an approximate 11.2% premium to the average closing price of our common shares for the 90-day period ended May 21, 2007;

although we had begun to implement the Plan, the mergers provide greater certainty of enhanced value to our shareholders than pursuing the Plan as a result of the risks and uncertainties in implementing the Plan, including the execution risks associated with selling our joint venture investments, and the costs associated with implementing the Plan, including sales costs, debt pre-payment penalties and tax costs that may have been incurred as a result of selling assets held in our taxable REIT subsidiaries;

assuming we were able to fully implement our Plan, although we had been successful in the past in implementing our business strategy, the mergers provide greater certainty of enhanced value to our shareholders than pursuing our business strategy of operating a pure-play office REIT as a result of the risks and uncertainties associated with that business, including those associated with changes in general economic conditions, changes in supply or demand for properties, market fluctuations in rental rates, fluctuations in interest rates, and changes in the debt and equity markets;

favorable conditions for sale transactions in the real estate markets generally, including prices for real estate assets being extremely high and the number of large portfolio acquisitions and public real estate mergers in recent years occurring at favorable pricing;

the high probability that the mergers would be completed based on, among other things, Morgan Stanley Real Estate's proven ability to complete large acquisition transactions, Morgan Stanley Real Estate's extensive experience in the real estate industry, the lack of a financing condition, and the $300 million guarantee of Moon Parent's, REIT Merger Subsidiaries and Partnership Merger Subsidiaries obligations under the merger agreement by affiliates of Morgan Stanley Real Estate;

the terms and conditions of the merger agreement, which were reviewed by our board of trust managers with our financial and legal advisors, and in particular the fact that such terms were the product of arm's-length negotiations between the parties with management not participating as equity investors with Morgan Stanley Real Estate and the break-up fee of 2.2% of the equity value of the transaction being below the average break-up fee of several recent transactions identified by Greenhill;

the financial analysis of Greenhill, and its oral opinion, which was subsequently confirmed in writing, to our board of trust managers that as of May 21, 2007, and based upon and subject to the factors and assumptions set forth therein, the consideration of $22.80 per common share, in cash, to be received by our common shareholders pursuant to the merger agreement was fair from a financial point of view to such shareholders, and the consideration of $45.60 per partnership unit, in cash, to be received by the holders of partnership units pursuant to the merger agreement was fair from a financial point of view to such holders (see Opinion of Our Financial Advisor on page 31);

our ability, under the merger agreement, under certain circumstances, to consider and respond to an unsolicited written acquisition proposal, and if, after consultation with our financial advisors, the board of trust managers determines in good faith that such acquisition proposal is a superior proposal and determines in good faith, after consultation with legal counsel, that failure to take such action would be inconsistent with the board's duties to our shareholders under applicable law, and Moon Parent chooses not to negotiate improvements to the merger agreement to make it superior, our ability to terminate the merger agreement upon the payment of a termination fee of $64.2 million;

the fact that our management team recommended the mergers to our board of trust managers; the fact that the all cash merger consideration will provide our shareholders with immediate fair value, in cash, for their investment in our shares; and the fact that the company merger and merger agreement is subject to the approval of our common shareholders.

Table of Contents

Our board of trust managers also considered the following potentially negative factors in its deliberations concerning the merger agreement and the mergers:

the company merger would preclude our shareholders from having the opportunity to participate in the future performance of our assets, future earnings growth, future appreciation of the value of our common shares or future dividends that could be expected if the Plan were successfully implemented;

the significant costs involved in connection with entering into and completing the mergers and the substantial time and effort of management required to consummate the mergers and related disruptions to the operation of our business;

the restrictions on the conduct of our business prior to the completion of the mergers, which could delay or prevent us from undertaking business opportunities that may arise pending completion of the mergers;

the pending mergers or failure to complete the mergers may cause substantial harm to relationships with our employees and may divert management and employee attention away from the day to day operation of our business;

our inability to solicit competing acquisition proposals and the possibility that the $64.2 million termination fee or up to $10 million expense reimbursement payable by us upon the termination of the merger agreement under certain circumstances could discourage other potential bidders from making a competing bid to acquire us;

the fact that an all-cash merger would be taxable to our shareholders for U.S. federal income tax purposes;

our inability to take action to cause specific performance or require Moon Parent to complete the mergers, and our exclusive remedy for such failure to complete the mergers being to seek damages up to the amount of Morgan Stanley Real Estate affiliates' $300 million guarantee; and some of our trust managers and executive officers may have interests in the mergers that are different from, or in addition to, Crescent's shareholders (see "Interests of Our Trust Managers and Executive Officers" on page 38).

The foregoing discussion of the factors considered by our board of trust managers is not intended to be exhaustive, but rather includes the material factors considered by our board of trust managers. In reaching its decision to approve the mergers, the merger agreement and the other transactions contemplated by the merger agreement, our board of trust managers did not quantify or assign any relative weights to the factors considered and individual trust managers may have given different weights to different factors. In the event the mergers are not completed for any reason, we expect to continue to pursue the Plan with the intention of delivering further improvement in our financial results and enhanced shareholder value.

Recommendation of Our Board of Trust Managers

After careful consideration, our board of trust managers has unanimously (subject to the recusal of two trust managers) approved the company merger, the merger agreement and the other transactions contemplated by the merger agreement and has declared the company merger, the merger agreement and the other transactions contemplated by the merger agreement advisable and in the best interests of Crescent and our shareholders. In making this determination, John C. Goff, our Chief Executive Officer and Vice Chairman of our board of trust managers, and Dennis H. Alberts, our President and Chief Operating Officer, recused themselves. Our board of trust managers (subject to the recusal of two trust managers) recommends that you vote FOR the proposal to approve the merger agreement and the company merger.

Opinion of Our Financial Advisor

On May 21, 2007, Greenhill & Co., LLC, which we refer to as Greenhill, rendered its oral opinion, which was subsequently confirmed in writing, to our board of trust managers that, as of May 21, 2007 and based upon and subject to the factors and assumptions set forth therein, the $22.80 in cash per common share to be received by our common shareholders pursuant to the merger agreement was fair from a financial point of view to such holders.

The full text of the written opinion of Greenhill, dated May 21, 2007, which sets forth assumptions made, procedures followed, matters considered and limitations on the review undertaken in connection with the opinion, is attached as Exhibit B to this proxy statement. The summary of Greenhill's opinion that is set forth below is qualified in its entirety by reference to the full text of the opinion. You are urged to read the opinion in its entirety.

Greenhill provided its opinion for the information and assistance of our board of trust managers in connection with its consideration of the mergers. The Greenhill opinion is not a recommendation as to how any common shareholder should vote with respect to the company merger.

In connection with rendering the opinion described above, Greenhill reviewed, among other things:

the draft of the merger agreement presented to our board of trust managers on May 21, 2007;

the guarantees described in Guarantees and Remedies ;

certain of our publicly available financial statements;

certain research analysts' estimates of our future financial performance;

certain other publicly available business and financial information relating to us that Greenhill deemed relevant; and certain information, including financial forecasts and projections and other financial and operating data concerning us, prepared by our management.

Greenhill also held discussions with members of our senior management regarding their assessment of the past and current business operations, financial condition, and future prospects of Crescent. In addition, Greenhill reviewed the reported price and trading activity for Crescent common shares, compared certain financial and stock market information for Crescent with similar information for certain other companies the securities of which are publicly traded, reviewed the financial terms of certain recent business combinations in the office real estate industry specifically and in other real estate industries generally and performed such other studies and analyses, and considered such other factors, as it considered appropriate.

Greenhill assumed and relied upon, without independent verification, the accuracy and completeness of all of the financial, accounting, legal, tax and other information discussed with or reviewed by it for purposes of rendering its opinion. In that regard, Greenhill assumed, with the consent of our board of trust managers, that the financial forecasts prepared by our management were reasonably prepared on a basis reflecting our best currently available estimates and good faith judgments as to our future financial performance, and Greenhill relied upon such forecasts in arriving at its opinion. Greenhill expressed no opinion with respect to such forecasts or the assumptions upon which they are based.

In addition, Greenhill did not conduct a physical inspection of our properties or facilities, nor did we make any independent evaluation or appraisal of our assets and liabilities (including any contingent, derivative or off-balance-sheet assets and liabilities) or any of our subsidiaries, nor was any such evaluation or appraisal of our assets or liabilities or any of our subsidiaries furnished to Greenhill. Greenhill's opinion does not address our underlying business decision to engage in the transaction. Greenhill's opinion is necessarily based on economic, monetary, market and other conditions as in effect on, and the information made available to Greenhill as of, May 21, 2007. Subsequent developments may affect Greenhill's opinion, but it has no obligation to update, revise or reaffirm its opinion.

The preparation of a fairness opinion is a complex process and is not necessarily suited to partial analysis or summary description. Selecting portions of the analyses or of the summary set forth below, without considering the analyses as a whole, could create an incomplete view of the processes underlying Greenhill's opinion. In arriving at its fairness determination, Greenhill considered the results of all of its analyses and did not attribute any particular weight to any single factor or analysis considered by it. Rather, Greenhill made its determination as to fairness on the basis of its experience and professional judgment after considering the results of all of its analyses. No company or transaction used in Greenhill's analyses as a comparison is directly comparable to us or the contemplated transaction.

The following is a summary of the material financial analyses delivered by Greenhill to our board of trust managers in connection with rendering the opinion described above, but does not purport to be a complete description of the financial analyses performed by Greenhill. Some of the summaries of the financial analyses include information presented in tabular format. The tables must be read together with the full text of each summary and are alone not a complete description of Greenhill's financial analyses. We provided Greenhill with 127,694,812 as the number of fully diluted outstanding common shares of Crescent for purposes of this analysis. This number of fully diluted outstanding common shares of Crescent included 102,893,011 outstanding shares, 17,022,346 shares issuable upon conversion of partnership units, 4,813,500 shares issuable upon conversion of Series A and B restricted units net of forfeitures, 664,294 shares issuable pursuant to an exchange agreement with a joint venture partner, and 2,301,661 shares issuable with respect to options to purchase common shares of Crescent (calculated using the treasury method). Except as otherwise noted, the following quantitative information, to the extent that it is based on market data, is based on market data as it existed on or before May 21, 2007 and is not necessarily indicative of current market conditions.

Net Asset Value Analysis. Greenhill analyzed our net asset value per share using asset valuations provided by our management, based on our current asset holdings and assuming no discount attributable to the various assets in which we own a joint venture share. Using this information provided by our management, Greenhill calculated an illustrative per diluted share net asset value of the common shares of Crescent equal to between $23.92 and $24.14.

In addition, Greenhill performed a net asset value analysis on us using net asset valuations provided by the our management, but assuming execution of our strategic plan, announced on March 1, 2007, which contemplated various asset sales and debt prepayments as well as the disposition of our interests in Canyon Ranch. These transactions would have resulted in the incurrence by us of various costs, including transaction costs, debt prepayment penalties, and taxes owed by our taxable REIT subsidiary upon the sale of certain hotel assets and resort residential properties, and potential capital gains taxes due on the sale of other assets. Accordingly, using information provided by our management, Greenhill adjusted the net asset value downward for these costs.

Additionally, Greenhill added to the net asset value the projected dividends to be paid to shareholders for the remainder of 2007, representing the estimated cash flows to shareholders during such period. After making such adjustments, and based on information provided by our management, Greenhill estimated our net asset value after costs related to executing our strategic plan at between $22.91 and $23.10 per diluted share.

Greenhill also noted public research analysts' estimates of per share net asset value of the common shares of Crescent obtained from BB&T Capital Markets, Bear Stearns, Citigroup, Green Street Advisors, Merrill Lynch, Morgan Stanley, and RBC Capital Markets as of May 21, 2007, ranging from $18.00 to $28.00, with an average estimate of $22.40 and a median estimate of $21.62. A subset of the firms providing estimates of per share net asset value also provided per share target prices for the common shares of Crescent. These firms included BB&T Capital Markets, Bear Stearns, Green Street Advisors, Morgan Stanley, and RBC Capital Markets. Their per share target price ranged from $20.00 to $28.00, with an average target price of $21.93 and a median target price of $20.66.

In addition to considering the net asset value estimates described above, Greenhill also examined our significant holdings of non-control positions in a number of joint ventures with other parties and their potential adverse impact on valuation. Greenhill believes, in its professional judgment, that as a result of reduced decision and management rights and other structural complexities inherent in these holdings, it is appropriate to consider a minority-discount to the above net asset value estimates with respect to such joint venture holdings. In estimating a reasonable discount to net asset value as a result of these positions, Greenhill reviewed the ownership structures and key terms of selected major joint ventures in which we are a stakeholder and applied a range of minority discounts of between 5% and 10% to our management's valuation estimates (which on their own did not include any adjustment for minority holdings) for those holdings. This analysis yielded potential discount related to our joint venture holdings of between $81 and $161 million, or approximately $0.63 and $1.26 per diluted share.

Dividend Discount Analysis. Greenhill calculated illustrative net present value ranges of the common shares of Crescent by using projected dividend payments for Crescent for the five years from 2007 through 2011 and illustrative residual value indications at the end of the year 2011 based on multiples ranging from 16.0x to 18.0x forward (2012) estimated funds from operations (FFO) per diluted common share, assuming full implementation of our strategic plan. The projected dividend payments and projected FFO per share were based on information provided by our management to our board of trust managers. The FFO multiple range selected was based on Greenhill's professional judgment, which included an analysis of the FFO trading multiples of other publicly traded companies which Greenhill considered most relevant to us after implementation of our strategic plan. The comparable companies selected are identified in the following section entitled "Trading Multiple Analysis." The projected dividend payments and the illustrative residual value indications derived from this analysis were then discounted to an illustrative present value using equity discount rates ranging from 8.25% to 8.75%. This range of discount rates was based on Greenhill's professional judgment, including an analysis of the cost of equity and weighted average cost of capital for comparable companies. The results of this analysis are summarized below:

Net Present Value Per Share

		Equity Discount Rate
		8.25%	8.50%	8.75%
Terminal	16.0x	$ 21.41	$ 21.19	$ 20.97
Multiple of	17.0x	$ 22.61	$ 22.38	$ 22.14
2012E FFO	18.0x	$ 23.81	$ 23.56	$ 23.32

Although none of the selected companies is directly comparable to us, the companies included were selected because they are publicly traded companies with operations that for purposes of analysis may be considered similar to certain of our operations based on the industry in which the companies operate, and the property characteristics and asset quality of the companies. Accordingly, a complete analysis of the results of the following calculations cannot be limited to a quantitative review of such results and involves complex considerations and judgments concerning the differences in the financial and operating characteristics of the comparable companies and other factors that could affect the public share prices of the comparable companies, as well as the price of our common shares.

The multiples and ratios for us and each of the selected companies were calculated using their respective closing prices on May 21, 2007 and were based on the most recent publicly available information at that time.

Greenhill calculated illustrative implied prices of our common shares by multiplying the SNL Financial Consensus forward estimated FFO per common share for the year 2007 as of May 21, 2007 by a range of multiples from 13.0x to 16.5x. This range of multiples was chosen based upon estimated 2007 FFO multiples per diluted share for the selected comparable companies. This analysis yielded illustrative implied prices for our common shares ranging from $16.77 to $21.29 per diluted share.

In addition, Greenhill calculated illustrative implied prices of our common shares by multiplying the SNL Financial Consensus forward estimated adjusted funds from operations (AFFO) per common share for the year 2007 as of May 21, 2007 by a range of multiples from 18.0x to 21.5x. This range of multiples was chosen based upon estimated 2007 AFFO multiples per diluted share for the selected comparable companies. This analysis yielded illustrative implied prices for our common shares ranging from $17.82 to $21.29 per diluted share.

Historical Trading Analysis. Greenhill reviewed the historical trading prices for Crescent common shares for the five-year period ended May 21, 2007. In addition, Greenhill analyzed the relationship between the $22.80 per diluted Crescent common share, in cash, to be received by our common shareholders pursuant to the merger agreement and the prices of Crescent common shares during certain periods within the one-year period ended May 21, 2007. This analysis indicated that the price per diluted share to be paid to our common shareholders pursuant to the merger agreement represented:

	Metric	Premium
One Day Prior Price (May 21, 2007)	$ 20.95	8.8%
30-Day Average Price	$ 20.32	12.2%
60-Day Average Price	$ 20.32	12.2%
90-Day Average Price	$ 20.50	11.2%

Precedent Transactions Analysis. Using publicly available information, Greenhill analyzed premiums paid in selected announced transactions across all REIT sectors during the period from 2005 through May 21, 2007, based on the closing price one day prior to announcement, 30-days prior to announcement and 90-days prior to announcement. Additionally, Greenhill reviewed the estimated FFO multiples paid in transactions within the office REIT sector. Specifically, Greenhill reviewed the following transactions:

Greenhill prepared these analyses for purposes of providing its opinion to our board of trust managers as to the fairness from a financial point of view of the $22.80 per diluted common share, in cash, to be received by our common shareholders pursuant to the merger agreement. These analyses do not purport to be appraisals nor do they necessarily reflect the prices at which businesses or securities actually may be sold. Analyses based upon forecasts of future results are not necessarily indicative of actual future results, which may be significantly more or less favorable than suggested by these analyses. Because these analyses are inherently subject to uncertainty, being based upon numerous factors or events beyond the control of the parties or their respective advisors, none of Crescent, Morgan Stanley or Greenhill or any other person assumes responsibility if future results are materially different from those forecast.

The common share merger consideration was determined through arms length negotiations between us and Morgan Stanley and its affiliates and was approved by our board of trust managers. Greenhill provided advice to us during these negotiations. Greenhill did not, however, recommend any specific amount of consideration to us or our board of trust managers or that any specific amount of consideration constituted the only appropriate consideration for the company merger. Greenhill was not requested by our board of trust managers to address, nor does the opinion delivered by Greenhill address, the consideration to be received by the holders of the Series A or Series B preferred shares upon their redemption.

Greenhill, as part of its investment banking business, is continually engaged in performing financial analyses with respect to businesses and their securities in connection with mergers and acquisitions and other transactions as well as for corporate and other purposes. Greenhill has acted as financial advisor to us in connection with, and has participated in certain of the negotiations leading to, the transactions contemplated by the merger agreement. In addition, Greenhill has provided certain investment banking services to us from time to time, including having acted as advisor to a special committee of our board of trust managers in connection with the evaluation of several potential transactions and other corporate actions. The aggregate fees received by Greenhill from the investment banking services it rendered to us and our affiliates as described above were approximately $1.5 million (excluding fees in connection with the mergers and related transactions).

Our board of trust managers selected Greenhill as our financial advisor because Greenhill is a recognized investment banking firm whose professionals have substantial experience in transactions similar to the transactions contemplated by the merger agreement. Pursuant to a letter agreement, dated March 14, 2007, we engaged Greenhill to act as our financial advisor in connection with the transactions contemplated by the merger agreement. Pursuant to the terms of this engagement letter, upon execution of the engagement letter we paid Greenhill an advisory fee of $1.0 million. Upon announcement of the mergers, we paid Greenhill an opinion fee of $4.0 million. Finally, in the event of a sale of 50% or more of our outstanding common shares or assets, we have agreed to pay Greenhill a transaction fee equal to $7.5 million, all of which is payable upon consummation of the transactions contemplated by the merger agreement. In addition, we have agreed to reimburse Greenhill for its reasonable expenses, including attorneys' fees and disbursements, and to indemnify Greenhill and related persons against various liabilities, including certain liabilities under the federal securities laws.

Financing Commitment

Moon Parent is paying an aggregate purchase price of approximately $6.5 billion. This amount, which we refer to as the aggregate purchase price, is expected to be funded by a combination of equity contributions by Moon Parent, debt financing and assumption of outstanding debt.

In connection with the execution and delivery of the merger agreement, an affiliate of Moon Parent obtained a debt commitment letter from Barclays Capital Real Estate Inc., which we refer to as the lender, providing for debt financing in an aggregate principal amount not to exceed the lesser of (i) $3.8 billion and (ii) 85% of our total capitalization (including property debt and corporate debt) excluding property-level debt, existing mezzanine loans and subordinate debt, corporate debt and cash. The debt commitment letter terminates on October 31, 2007, unless extended in accordance with its terms and the closing of the loan is conditioned on the satisfaction of the conditions precedent to Moon Parent's obligation to consummate the mergers and other customary closing conditions. The lender has the right to terminate the debt commitment letter under certain circumstances, including if the merger agreement has been terminated prior to the closing of the mergers.

The merger agreement does not contain a financing condition. Moon Parent has agreed to use its reasonable best efforts to arrange the financing on the terms and conditions described in the debt commitment letter in the event that the lender terminates or otherwise fails to perform pursuant to the debt commitment letter. If any portion of Moon Parent's debt financing becomes unavailable on the terms and conditions contemplated in the debt commitment letter, Moon Parent is obligated to use its reasonable best efforts to arrange to obtain that portion from alternative sources on comparable or more favorable terms. Moon Parent is obligated to keep us informed of the status of its efforts to arrange debt financing and to give us prompt notice of any material breach by any party of the debt commitment letter or of any termination of the debt commitment letter. Before it permits any material amendment or modification to be made to, or any waiver of any material provision or remedy under, the debt commitment letter which would or would be reasonably expected to materially and adversely affect or delay in any material respect Moon Parent's ability to consummate the mergers, Moon Parent must first obtain our written consent (which shall not be unreasonably withheld or delayed). With certain exceptions, we have agreed to provide, and to cause our subsidiaries and our and their representatives to provide, all reasonable cooperation in connection with the arrangement of the debt financing as may be reasonably requested by Moon Parent.

Guarantees and Remedies

In connection with the merger agreement, affiliates of Morgan Stanley Real Estate have agreed unconditionally and irrevocably to guarantee the punctual and complete payment when due of the payment obligations, and the timely performance when required of all other obligations, of Moon Parent, REIT Merger Sub and Partnership Merger Sub under the merger agreement, up to a maximum amount, in the aggregate of $300 million. The guarantees will terminate on the final release or discharge of the guaranteed obligations.

We cannot seek specific performance to require Moon Parent, REIT Merger Sub or Partnership Merger Sub to complete the mergers, and our exclusive remedy for the failure of Moon Parent, REIT Merger Sub and Partnership Merger Sub to complete the mergers is to seek damages up to the amount of the $300 million guarantee from the guarantors, affiliates of Morgan Stanley Real Estate. If all other closing conditions have been satisfied or waived, but Moon Parent fails to obtain adequate financing to complete the mergers, such failure will constitute a breach of Moon Parent's covenants under the merger agreement. In that event, so long as we and the operating partnership are not in material breach of our respective obligations under the merger agreement, we would be able to (1) terminate the merger agreement, (2) receive from Moon Parent an amount equal to all our reasonable out-of-pocket costs and expenses incurred by us in connection with the proposed transaction in an amount not to exceed $10 million and (3) take legal action against the affiliates of Morgan Stanley Real Estate that provided the guarantees, to seek damages of up to a maximum of $300 million.

Interests of Our Trust Managers and Executive Officers

Our trust managers and executive officers may have interests in the mergers that are different from, or in addition to, yours, including the following:

unvested common share options held by our trust managers and executive officers will be canceled at the company merger effective time in exchange for the right to receive a single lump sum cash payment equal to the product of (A) the number of common shares issuable upon exercise of such options (assuming full vesting) and (B) the excess, if any, of the common share merger consideration over the exercise price per common share;

unvested partnership unit options held by our executive officers will be canceled at the company merger effective time in exchange for the right to receive a single lump sum cash payment equal to the product of (A) the number of partnership units issuable upon exercise of such options (assuming full vesting) and (B) the excess, if any, of the operating partnership merger consideration over the exercise price per partnership unit; and restricted unit awards owned by our executive officers (whether or not then vested) will be accelerated in accordance with their terms and canceled at the operating partnership merger effective time in exchange for the right to receive a single lump sum cash payment equal to the product of (A) the number of partnership units issuable upon vesting of such awards (assuming full vesting) and (B) the operating partnership merger consideration, plus accrued but unpaid dividends.

Also, John C. Goff, our Chief Executive Officer and Vice Chairman of our board of trust managers, and Dennis H. Alberts, our President and Chief Operating Officer, had each previously received restricted unit awards that would have fully vested in connection with the mergers. On May 21, 2007, Messrs. Goff and Alberts waived the vesting of and agreed to forfeit, for the benefit of the shareholders, the portions of their respective restricted stock awards that were designated for vesting when the share price targets of $25.50 and $27.00 were hit and that would have vested in connection with the mergers. The forfeitures, the value of which totaled approximately $10.3 million, are applicable to the mergers or any transaction our board of trust managers determines to accept in lieu of the mergers.

In addition, each of our executive officers will be entitled to severance benefits pursuant to our Change in Control Separation Plan, which became effective as of May 22, 2007, if the mergers are completed and within the 12-month period thereafter the executive officer (i) terminates his or her employment for good reason, other than at a time when a basis for termination for cause (as defined in the Change in Control Separation Plan) exists, or (ii) is terminated without cause. Good reason for termination means the occurrence, without the executive officer's prior written consent, of one or more of the following events following the completion of the mergers:

the assignment of the executive officer to any employment status or position other than a position reasonably equivalent to the position or offices that the executive officer performs (including without limitation a diminution in the nature or scope of the executive officer's authority or responsibilities, a material change to the executive officer's reporting responsibilities or the duties that the executive officer performs);

a reduction in the executive officer's aggregate cash compensation (including base salary and any bonus potential); or the relocation of the executive officer's office or principal place of work from its current location to a location more than 50 miles from such current location.

The severance benefits will be comprised of (a) a lump sum severance payment equal to 12 months of the executive officer's base salary, except that John C. Goff, our Chief Executive Officer, and Dennis H. Alberts, our President and Chief Operating Officer, will receive 18 months of their respective base salary and 150% of the average of their respective cash bonuses paid to them in 2004, 2005 and 2006; (b) health care continuation coverage for up to 12 months following termination of employment; and (c) outplacement assistance.

Table of Contents

The following table sets forth an estimate of the potential cash severance payments that could be payable as described above in the event the executive officer becomes entitled to such severance amount pursuant to our Change in Control Separation Plan following the mergers (assuming for illustrative purposes that the executive officer's employment is terminated on August 31, 2007 and utilizing current base salaries). This table does not include an amount attributable to the value of the health care continuation coverage and outplacement assistance to be received by the executive officer.

All of our trust managers were fully aware of the foregoing interests of our executive officers, trust managers and certain other persons in the mergers and, except for Messrs. Goff and Alberts who recused themselves, considered them prior to approving the mergers and the merger agreement.

Morgan Stanley Real Estate is currently assessing its staffing requirements with respect to the ongoing business operations of the surviving entity. As a result, it is possible that the surviving entity might offer an employment opportunity to one or more of our executive officers upon or after the completion of the mergers. However, no determination has been made regarding which, if any, executive officers may be offered employment or the terms of any such employment opportunity, including compensation.

Indemnification of Our Trust Managers and Officers

The merger agreement provides that for a period of at least six years after the company merger effective time, the organizational documents of REIT Merger Sub, the partnership agreement of the operating partnership and the organizational documents of any applicable subsidiary of ours or any primarily controlled company (as defined in the merger agreement) will contain indemnification provisions that are no less favorable than the indemnification provisions in our existing charter and bylaws, the operating partnership's partnership agreement or the applicable organizational documents of our subsidiaries, and that those provisions will not be amended, repealed or modified during that period in any manner that would affect adversely the rights of any person who at or prior to the company merger effective time were our, our subsidiaries' or any primarily controlled company's trust managers, officers, directors, employees, agents, or fiduciaries, except as required by law and then only to the minimum extent required by law.

Moon Parent, REIT Merger Sub and Partnership Merger Sub have agreed to indemnify, to the fullest extent we or any of our subsidiaries, as the case may be, are authorized or permitted to indemnify our own managers, directors, trust managers, officers or trustees under Texas law or the applicable law of the jurisdiction where any such subsidiary was formed (as applicable), persons who were, at or before the date of the merger agreement or during the period between the signing of the merger agreement and the company merger effective time, our, our subsidiaries' or any related entities (as defined in the merger agreement) managers, directors, trust managers, officers or trustees with respect to any legal action arising out of or relating to their duties or services as our, our subsidiaries' or any related entities managers, directors, trust managers, officers or trustees occurring at or prior to the company merger effective time and, subject to certain conditions, shall pay related reasonable legal fees, costs and expenses incurred by them.

The merger agreement permits, with respect to claims arising from facts or events that occurred on or prior to the company merger effective time, us to purchase a tail insurance policy of at least the same coverage and amounts and containing terms and conditions that are no less favorable to our, our subsidiaries' or any primarily controlled company's managers, directors, trust managers, officers, employees, agents, partners or fiduciaries as our and our subsidiaries' existing policy or policies, for the benefit of our, our subsidiaries' or any primarily controlled company's current and former managers, directors, trust managers, officers, employees, agents, or fiduciaries with a claims period of six years from the closing with respect to trust managers' and officers' liability insurance for claims arising from facts or events that occurred on or prior to the closing. The obligations described above must be assumed by any successor entity to the surviving corporation as a result of any consolidation, merger or transfer of all or substantially all of its properties and assets.

Regulatory Matters

We currently are unaware of any material federal, state or foreign regulatory requirements or approvals that are required for the execution of the merger agreement or the completion of either the company merger or the operating partnership merger other than potential filings and necessary approvals, if any, pursuant to the Hart-Scott-Rodino Antitrust Improvements Act of 1976, as amended, the acceptance for record of the articles of merger in respect of the company merger by the country clerk of Tarrant County, Texas, in accordance with the Texas REIT Act, and the filing of certificates of merger with the Secretary of State of the State of Delaware, in accordance with the Delaware Limited Liability Company Act and the Delaware Revised Uniform Limited Partnership Act.

Litigation Relating to the Mergers

On May 24, 2007, a purported shareholder class action lawsuit related to the merger agreement was filed in the District Court of Tarrant County, Texas, naming us and each of our trust managers as defendants. The lawsuit, Edward Tansey vs. Crescent Real Estate Equities Company, et al. (Cause No. 352-225130-07), alleges, among other things, that $22.80 per share in cash to be paid to our common shareholders in connection with the company merger is grossly unfair, that the individual trust manager defendants breached their fiduciary duties to our common shareholders in negotiating and approving the merger agreement, and that we aided and abetted our trust managers in such alleged breach. The complaint seeks relief (i) declaring that the action is properly maintainable as a class action; (ii) declaring that the merger agreement was entered into in breach of the fiduciary duties of defendants; (iii) enjoining defendants from consummating the company merger; (iv) directing defendants to exercise their fiduciary duties to obtain a transaction that is in the best interests of our shareholders; (v) rescinding, to the extent that it has already been implemented, the merger agreement; (vi) imposing a constructive trust; and (vii) awarding attorneys' and experts' fees to the plaintiff.

On May 25, 2007, a shareholder derivative petition for breach of fiduciary duty related to the merger agreement was filed in the District Court of Tarrant County, Texas, naming each of our trust managers, as well as Morgan Stanley Real Estate and Morgan Stanley & Co., Inc. (the Morgan Stanley Defendants) as defendants and naming us as a nominal defendant. The lawsuit, John Gomez vs. Richard Rainwater, et al. (Cause No. 141-224134-07), alleges, among other things, that $22.80 per share in cash to be paid to our common shareholders in connection with the company merger substantially undervalues the Company and is an unfair price, that the individual trust manager defendants breached their fiduciary duties to our common shareholders in negotiating and approving the merger agreement, that the Morgan Stanley Defendants aided and abetted our trust managers in such alleged breach, that our trust managers abused their ability to control and influence us, that our trust managers committed waste of corporate assets, and that our trust managers usurped a corporate opportunity (and were aided and abetted by the Morgan Stanley Defendants in that wrongdoing). The complaint seeks relief (i) enjoining defendants from consummating the company merger; (ii) directing defendants to exercise their fiduciary duties to obtain a transaction that is in the best interests of our shareholders; (iii) rescinding, to the extent that it has already been implemented, the merger agreement; (iv) imposing a constructive trust; and (v) awarding attorneys' and experts' fees to the plaintiff.

On May 30, 2007, a shareholder derivative petition for breach of fiduciary duty related to the merger agreement was filed in the District Court of Tarrant County, Texas, naming each of our trust managers, as well as the Morgan Stanley Defendants as defendants and naming us as a nominal defendant. The lawsuit, Willard Nelson vs. Richard Rainwater, et al. (Cause No. 141-224214-07), alleges, among other things, that $22.80 per share in cash to be paid to our common shareholders in connection with the company merger substantially undervalues the Company and is an unfair price, that the individual trust manager defendants breached their fiduciary duties to our common shareholders in negotiating and approving the merger agreement, that the Morgan Stanley Defendants aided and abetted our trust managers in such alleged breach, that our trust managers abused their ability to control and influence us, that our trust managers committed waste of corporate assets, and that our trust managers usurped a corporate opportunity (and were aided and abetted by the Morgan Stanley Defendants in that wrongdoing). The complaint seeks relief (i) enjoining defendants from consummating the company merger; (ii) directing defendants to exercise their fiduciary duties to obtain a transaction that is in the best interests of our shareholders; (iii) rescinding, to the extent that it has already been implemented, the merger agreement; (iv) imposing a constructive trust; and (v) awarding attorneys' and experts' fees to the plaintiff.

On June 11, 2007, a purported shareholder class action lawsuit related to the merger agreement was filed in the District Court of Tarrant County, Texas, naming us and each of our trust managers, as well as Moon Acquisition Holdings, LLC, Moon Acquisition, LLC and Moon Acquisition Limited Partnership (the Moon Defendants), as defendants. The lawsuit, Edward Acuff vs. Richard Rainwater, et al. (Case No. 067-224428-07), alleges, among other things, that $22.80 per share in cash to be paid to our common shareholders in connection with the company merger is an insufficient price, that the individual trust manager defendants breached their fiduciary duties to our common shareholders in negotiating and approving the merger agreement, and that we and the Moon Defendants aided and abetted the trust managers in such alleged breach.

The complaint seeks relief (i) declaring that the action is properly maintainable as a class action; (ii) enjoining defendants from consummating the company merger; (iii) declaring that the termination fee provisions of the merger agreement are unfair and enjoining the payment of such termination fees; (iv) declaring that the merger agreement was entered into in breach of the fiduciary duties of defendants and that the Moon Defendants aided and abetted such breach; and (v) awarding interest, attorneys' fees and experts' fees to the plaintiff.

We intend to vigorously defend each of these actions. However, even if these lawsuits are determined to be without merit, they may potentially delay or, if the delay is substantial enough to prevent the closing of the mergers by October 31, 2007, prevent the closing of the mergers.

Material United States Federal Income Tax Consequences

The following is a summary of the material United States federal income tax consequences of the merger to holders of our common shares who receive cash for their shares pursuant to the company merger. This summary is based on current law, is for general information only and is not tax advice. This summary is based on the Code, applicable Treasury Regulations, and administrative and judicial interpretations thereof, each as in effect as of the date hereof, all of which are subject to change or different interpretations, possibly with retroactive effect. This summary assumes that our common shares are held as capital assets. We have not requested, and do not plan to request, any rulings from the Internal Revenue Service (IRS) concerning the tax treatment to our shareholders of the merger, and the statements in this proxy statement are not binding on the IRS or any court. We can provide no assurance that the tax consequences contained in this discussion will not be challenged by the IRS, or if challenged, will be sustained by a court.

This summary does not address all of the tax consequences that may be relevant to us or to particular holders of our common shares in light of their personal circumstances. In particular, this summary does not address the tax consequences of:

banks, insurance companies or other financial institutions;

broker-dealers;

traders;

expatriates and former long-term residents;

tax-exempt organizations;

individual retirement accounts and other tax-deferred accounts;

persons who are subject to alternative minimum tax;

persons who hold their common shares as a position in a straddle or as part of a hedging, conversion or other risk-reduction transaction;

persons deemed to sell their common shares under the constructive sale provisions of the Code;

United States persons that have a functional currency other than the United States dollar; except to the extent specifically discussed below, non-U.S. Holders (as defined below);

non-U.S. Holders who at any time have held, directly and by attribution, more than 5% of our common shares; regulated investment companies;

real estate investment trusts;

mutual funds;

subchapter S corporations;

partnerships or other entities treated as partnerships for United States federal income tax purposes and partners in such partnerships; or persons who acquired our common shares upon the exercise of stock options or otherwise as compensation.

In addition, this discussion does not address any state, local or foreign tax consequences of the company merger. You are urged to consult your tax advisors regarding the specific tax consequences to you of the company merger and our election to be taxed as a REIT.

For purposes of this discussion, a U.S. Holder means a holder of our common shares that is:

a citizen or resident of the United States as determined under the Code;

a corporation or other entity treated as a corporation for United States federal income tax purposes created or organized in or under the laws of the United States or any state or the District of Columbia;

an estate, the income of which is subject to United States federal income taxation regardless of its source; or a trust (a) the administration of which is subject to the primary supervision of a United States court and which has one or more United States persons who have the authority to control all substantial decisions of the trust, or (b) that was in existence on August 20, 1996, was treated as a United States person on the previous day, and elected to continue to be so treated.

If any entity that is treated as a partnership for United States federal income tax purposes holds our common shares, the tax treatment of its partners or members generally will depend upon the status of the partner or member and the activities of the entity. If you are a partner of a partnership or a member of a limited liability company or other entity classified as a partnership for United States federal income tax purposes and that entity is holding our common shares, you should consult your tax advisor.

As used in this section, a non-U.S. Holder means a beneficial owner of our common shares that is an individual, corporation, estate or trust that is not a U.S. Holder as described above.

Consequences of the Company Merger to Us

We elected to be taxed as a REIT under the Code beginning with our taxable year ended December 31, 1994. We believe that we have been organized and have operated in a manner that will allow us to qualify for taxation as a REIT under the Code commencing with our taxable year ended December 31, 1994 and continuing through the closing date. Qualification and taxation as a REIT depend upon our ability to meet, through actual annual (or in some cases quarterly) operating results, requirements relating to income, asset ownership, income distribution levels and diversity of share ownership, and the various other REIT qualification requirements imposed under the Code. In any year in which we qualify as a REIT, in general, we will not be subject to U.S. federal income tax on that portion of our net taxable income that we timely distribute to shareholders.

Under the merger agreement, we will merge with and into REIT Merger Sub, and REIT Merger Sub will be the surviving corporation.

For United States federal income tax purposes, we will treat the company merger as if we had sold all of our assets to REIT Merger Sub and, then, made a liquidating distribution of all of the common share merger consideration to our common shareholders in exchange for our common shares. Provided that we retain our qualification as a REIT through the company merger effective time, and certain other conditions are met, we generally can deduct such deemed liquidating distribution against our net taxable income for our taxable year which includes the company merger and, therefore, we would not expect to be taxed on any of our income and gain realized from the sale of our assets or ordinary income earned during our taxable year which includes the company merger.

Table of ContentsConsequences of the Company Merger to U.S. Holders of Our Common Shares

In general, a U.S. Holder's receipt of cash in exchange for common shares pursuant to the company merger will be a taxable transaction for United States federal income tax purposes. In general, a U.S. Holder will recognize capital gain or loss as a result of the company merger measured by the difference, if any, between the common share merger consideration received in exchange for our common shares and the holder's adjusted tax basis in our common shares. Gain or loss will be calculated separately for each block of common shares, with a block consisting of common shares acquired at the same cost in a single transaction. Such gain or loss will constitute long-term capital gain or loss if the U.S. Holder held such shares for more than one year as of the effective time of the company merger. However, if a U.S. Holder recognizes loss upon the receipt of cash in the company merger in exchange for common shares that it has held for six months or less, at the effective time of the company merger, after applying certain holding period rules, the loss recognized will be treated as a long-term capital loss to the extent such holder received distributions from us which were required to be treated as long-term capital gains. Long-term capital gains of noncorporate taxpayers generally are taxable at a maximum federal income tax rate of 15%. Capital gains of corporate stockholders generally are taxable at the regular tax rates applicable to corporations. The deductibility of capital losses may be subject to limitations. In addition, the IRS has the authority to prescribe, but has not yet prescribed, regulations that would apply a tax rate of 25% to a portion of capital gain realized by a noncorporate shareholder on the sale of REIT shares that would correspond to the REIT's unrecaptured Section 1250 gain.

Consequences of the Company Merger to Non-U.S. Holders of Our Common Shares

Generally, a non-U.S. Holder's gain or loss from the company merger will be determined in the same manner as that of a U.S. Holder. The United States federal income tax consequences of the company merger to a particular non-U.S. Holder will depend on various factors, including whether the receipt of the common share merger consideration is taxed under the provisions of Foreign Investment in Real Property Tax Act of 1980, or FIRPTA, governing sales of REIT shares or whether the receipt of the common share merger consideration is taxed under the provisions of FIRPTA governing distributions from REITs. If the FIRPTA provisions governing sales of REIT shares apply, the non-U.S. Holder will be taxed as described below under Taxable Sale of Shares. If the provisions governing distributions from REITs apply, for United States federal income tax purposes, the company merger will be treated as a sale of our assets followed by a liquidating distribution from us to our common shareholders of the net proceeds from the asset sale, with the tax consequences described below under Distribution of Gain from the Disposition of U.S. Real Property Interests by the Company. The IRS has taken a position in a recent pronouncement that would result in application of the distribution provisions to the extent the merger consideration is attributable to gain from our sale of United States real property interests, and not the taxable sale provisions, at least if a special exception (the 5% Exception) does not apply. Because the question may not be fully settled at this point, both sets of provisions are discussed below. In general, the provisions governing the taxation of distributions by REITs can be less favorable to non-U.S. Holders than the taxation of sales or exchanges of REIT shares by non-U.S. Holders, and non-U.S. Holders should consult their tax advisors regarding the possible application of those provisions. A non-U.S. Holder that sells its shares separately from the company merger should be taxed in any event as described below under Taxable Sale of Shares.

Distribution of Gain from the Disposition of U.S. Real Property Interests. The IRS stated in recently-released Notice 2007-55 that it is taking the position that REIT liquidating distributions are subject to tax under Section 897(h)(1) of the Code to the extent attributable to gain from the sale of U.S. real estate assets. Thus, under Notice 2007-55, the common share merger consideration received by a non-U.S. Holder is subject to tax under FIRPTA as a distribution to the extent it is attributable to gain from the deemed sale of our U.S. real estate assets in the merger, and not as a sale of our common shares, unless the 5% Exception (described below) applies. If the distribution were taxed under FIRPTA, the gain recognized by a non-U.S. Holder generally would be subject to United States federal income tax on a net basis to the extent attributable to gain from the deemed sale of our real estate assets, and a corporate non-U.S. Holder could also be subject to the branch profits tax on such FIRPTA gain. On the other hand, if the non-U.S. Holder does not own more than 5% of our common shares at any time during the one-year period ending on the date of the distribution (the 5% Exception), the FIRPTA tax would not apply. In that event, the non-U.S. Holder may be taxed as described below under Taxable Sale of Shares. However, there is also a risk that rules applicable to capital gains distributions made to non-U.S. Holders qualifying for the 5% Exception would apply. These rules provide that capital gains distributions are treated as ordinary dividends to such non-U.S. Holders. Accordingly, the common share merger consideration could be treated as an ordinary dividend distribution from us to the extent attributable to capital gain from the deemed sale of our assets, in which case that portion of the common share merger consideration you receive would be subject to United States federal withholding tax at a 30% rate.

Taxable Sale of Shares. Subject to the discussion of backup withholding and of distribution of gain from the disposition of U.S. real property interests above, to the extent the company merger is treated as a taxable sale of our common shares, the non-U.S. Holder should not be subject to United States federal income taxation on any gain or loss from the company merger unless: (i) the gain is effectively connected with the non-U.S. Holder's conduct of a trade or business in the United States; (ii) the non-U.S. Holder is an individual present in the United States for 183 days or more in the taxable year of the company merger and certain other requirements are met; or (iii) such common shares constitute a U.S. real property interest under FIRPTA.

A non-U.S. Holder whose gain is effectively connected with the conduct of a trade or business in the United States will be subject to United States federal income tax on such gain on a net basis in the same manner as a U.S. Holder. In addition, a non-U.S. Holder that is a corporation may be subject to the 30% branch profits tax on such effectively connected gain.

A non-U.S. Holder who is an individual present in the United States for 183 days or more in the taxable year of the company merger and who meets certain other requirements will be subject to a flat 30% tax on the gain derived from the merger, which may be offset by United States source capital losses. In addition, the non-U.S. Holder may be subject to applicable alternative minimum taxes.

If a non-U.S. Holder's common shares constitute a U.S. real property interest under FIRPTA, such holder will be subject to United States federal income tax on the gain recognized in the company merger on a net basis in the same manner as a U.S. Holder. A non-U.S. Holder's common shares generally will not constitute a U.S. real property interest if (i) we are a domestically controlled qualified investment entity at the effective time of the merger, or (ii) the non-U.S. Holder holds, directly and by attribution, 5% or less of the total fair market value of our common shares at all times during the shorter of (a) the five-year period ending with the effective date of the company merger and (b) the non-U.S. Holder's holding period for the shares. A qualified investment entity includes a REIT. Assuming we qualify as a REIT, we will be a domestically controlled qualified investment entity at the effective time of the company merger if non-U.S. Holders held directly or indirectly less than 50% in value of our shares (including our Series A and Series B preferred shares while they are outstanding) at all times during the five-year period ending with the effective time of the merger. No assurances can be given that the actual ownership of our shares has been or will be sufficient for us to qualify as a domestically controlled qualified investment entity at the effective time of the merger.

In addition, our common shares will not constitute a U.S. real property interest if (i) as of the effective date of the merger, we did not hold any U.S. real property interests, and (ii) all of the U.S. real property interests held by us during the five-year period ending with the effective date of the company merger were disposed of in transactions in which the full amount of the gain (if any) was recognized. The application of this rule in a transaction such as the company merger is not entirely clear. You should consult your tax advisor regarding the possible FIRPTA tax consequences to you of the merger.

Income Tax Treaties. If a non-U.S. Holder is eligible for treaty benefits under an income tax treaty with the United States, the non-U.S. Holder may be able to reduce or eliminate certain of the United States federal income tax consequences discussed above, such as the branch profits tax. Non-U.S. Holders should consult their tax advisor regarding possible relief under an applicable income tax treaty.

U.S. Withholding Tax Under FIRPTA. As described above, IRS Notice 2007-55 takes the position that the receipt of the common share merger consideration by a non-U.S. Holder not qualifying for the 5%

Table of Contents

Exception will be treated as a distribution from us to the extent it is attributable to gain from the deemed sale of our U.S. real estate assets in the merger. Accordingly, we intend to withhold U.S. federal income tax at a rate of 35% from the portion of the common share merger consideration that is, or is treated as, attributable to gain from the sale of U.S. real property interests and paid to a non-U.S. Holder unless such holder qualifies for the 5% Exception.

A non-U.S. Holder may be entitled to a refund or credit against the holder's United States tax liability, if any, with respect to any amount withheld pursuant to FIRPTA, provided that the required information is furnished to the IRS on a timely basis. Non-U.S. Holders should consult their tax advisor regarding withholding tax considerations.

Information Reporting and Backup Withholding

Under the Code, a U.S. Holder of our shares may be subject to information reporting on the cash received for the shares, unless an exemption applies. Backup withholding, currently at a rate of 28%, may also apply to payments made in connection with the merger. Backup withholding will not apply, however, to a holder who (a) in the case of a U.S. Holder, furnishes a correct taxpayer identification number and certifies that the holder is not subject to backup withholding on the substitute IRS Form W-9 or successor form, (b) in the case of a non-U.S. Holder, furnishes an applicable IRS Form W-8 or successor form, or (c) is otherwise exempt from backup withholding and complies with other applicable rules and certification requirements. Any amounts withheld under the backup withholding rules may be allowed as a refund or a credit against such holder's United States federal income tax liability provided the required information is timely furnished to the IRS.

THE FOREGOING DOES NOT PURPORT TO BE A COMPLETE ANALYSIS OF THE POTENTIAL TAX CONSIDERATIONS RELATING TO THE COMPANY MERGER AND IS NOT TAX ADVICE. THEREFORE, HOLDERS OF OUR COMMON SHARES ARE URGED TO CONSULT THEIR TAX ADVISORS AS TO THE SPECIFIC TAX CONSEQUENCES TO THEM OF THE COMPANY MERGER, INCLUDING THE APPLICABILITY AND EFFECT OF UNITED STATES FEDERAL, STATE, LOCAL, FOREIGN AND OTHER TAX LAWS.

Delisting and Deregistration of Our Common Shares and Our Series A and Series B Preferred Shares; Deregistration of Partnership Units

If the company merger is completed, our common shares and our Series A and Series B preferred shares will no longer be traded on the New York Stock Exchange and will be deregistered under the Exchange Act. In addition, the operating partnership's partnership units will be deregistered under the Exchange Act.

Options to Purchase Common Shares

Any unexercised and unexpired option to purchase common shares issued under our equity incentive plans held immediately prior to the company merger effective time (regardless of whether it is vested or exercisable at that time) will, at the company merger effective time, be canceled upon the surrender and cancellation of the option agreement representing the option, together with the delivery of a written instrument executed by the holder thereof, and, in exchange therefor, REIT Merger Sub will pay to the holder thereof cash in an amount equal to the product of (A) the number of common shares issuable upon exercise of such option (assuming full vesting) and (B) the excess, if any, of the common share merger consideration over the exercise price per common share, which cash payment will be treated as compensation and will be net of any applicable federal or state withholding tax.

In connection with the operating partnership merger:

Options to Purchase Partnership Units

Any unexercised and unexpired option to purchase partnership units issued under our equity incentive plans held immediately prior to the company merger effective time (regardless of whether it is vested or exercisable at that time) will, at the company merger effective time, be canceled upon the surrender and cancellation of the option agreement representing the option, together with the delivery of a written instrument executed by the holder thereof, and, in exchange therefor, Partnership Merger Sub will pay to the holder thereof cash in an amount equal to the product of (A) the number of partnership units issuable upon exercise of such option (assuming full vesting) and (B) the excess, if any, of the operating partnership merger consideration over the exercise price per partnership unit, which cash payment will be treated as compensation and will be net of any applicable federal or state withholding tax.

time (other than units held by us, the general partner of the operating partnership or any of our subsidiaries, and restricted units) will automatically be canceled and converted into the right to receive cash, without interest, equal to $45.60 per unit (assuming we do not make any distributions that are necessary for us either to maintain our status as a real estate investment trust or to avoid the imposition certain U.S. federal tax), which is the product of (A) the common share merger consideration multiplied by (B) two.

This proxy statement does not constitute a solicitation of consents in respect of the operating partnership merger and does not constitute an offer to exchange or convert any partnership units in the operating partnership that you may own for or into newly issued preferred units or common units in the surviving operating partnership.

No Further Ownership Rights

At the company merger effective time, holders of our common shares, restricted units, options to purchase our common shares, partnership units and options to purchase partnership units will cease to be, and have no rights as, our shareholders or limited partners of the operating partnership other than the right to receive the applicable merger consideration. Upon the redemption of our Series A and Series B preferred shares immediately prior to the company merger effective time, holders will cease to be, and have no rights as, our shareholders other than the right to receive the redemption price to be paid to the holders of our Series A and Series B preferred shares. The merger consideration paid to our shareholders and holders of restricted units, options to purchase our common shares, partnership units and options to purchase partnership units in accordance with the exchange and payment procedures contained in the merger agreement will be deemed to have been paid in full satisfaction of all rights and privileges pertaining to our common shares, our Series A and Series B preferred shares, the restricted units, the options to purchase our common shares, the partnership units and the options to purchase partnership units.

Payment Procedures

On or before the company merger effective time, REIT Merger Sub and Partnership Merger Sub will deposit the merger consideration for the benefit of the holders of our common shares, Series A and Series B preferred shares, options to purchase common shares, options to purchase operating partnership units, restricted unit awards, and operating partnership units, respectively, with a paying agent reasonably satisfactory to us. Promptly after the company merger effective time (but in any event within five business days), the surviving entity will cause the paying agent to mail a letter of transmittal and, if applicable, instructions for surrendering certificates for our common shares, Series A and Series B preferred shares, options to purchase common shares, options to purchase operating partnership units, restricted unit awards, and operating partnership units to each holder thereof. The letter of transmittal and instructions or notice of redemption will tell you how to surrender your common share certificates, Series A and Series B preferred share certificates, options to purchase common shares, options to purchase operating partnership units, restricted unit awards, and any interest in operating partnership units, as applicable, in exchange for the applicable merger consideration, cash payment or redemption price.

You should not return your share certificates with the enclosed proxy card, and you should not forward your share certificates to the paying agent without a letter of transmittal.

You will not be entitled to receive the merger consideration until you surrender your share certificate or certificates to the paying agent, together with a duly completed and executed letter of transmittal and any other documents as the paying agent may reasonably require. The merger consideration may be paid to a person other than the person in whose name the corresponding certificate is registered if the certificate is properly endorsed or is otherwise in the proper form for transfer. In addition, the person requesting payment must either pay any applicable stock transfer taxes or establish to the satisfaction of Moon Parent that such stock transfer taxes have been paid or are not applicable.

No interest will be paid or will accrue on the cash payable upon surrender of the certificates. Each of the paying agent, REIT Merger Sub and Moon Parent will be entitled to deduct and withhold any applicable taxes from the merger consideration. At the company merger effective time or redemption effective time, our share transfer books will be closed, and there will be no further registration of transfers of our common shares or Series A and Series B preferred shares.

None of the paying agent, Moon Parent, REIT Merger Sub, Partnership Merger Sub, the operating partnership or any of their respective employees, officers, trust managers, agents or affiliates will be liable to any person for any (i) common share merger consideration, (ii) operating partnership merger consideration, (iii) any cash payments in exchange for restricted unit awards, (iv) any cash payments in exchange for options to purchase common shares or operating partnership units, or (v) any cash payments to redeem the Series A and Series B preferred shares pursuant to the terms of such securities delivered to a public official pursuant to any applicable abandoned property, escheat or similar law. Any portion of (i) common share merger consideration, (ii) operating partnership merger consideration, (iii) any cash payments in exchange for restricted unit awards, (iv) any cash payments in exchange for options to purchase common shares or operating partnership units, or (v) any cash payments to redeem the Series A and Series B preferred shares pursuant to the terms of such securities deposited with the paying agent that remains undistributed to the holders of our common shares for 12 months after the company merger effective time will be delivered to REIT Merger Sub. Holders of our common shares prior to the applicable merger who have not complied with the exchange and payment procedures contained in the merger agreement within twelve months after the company merger effective time may only look to REIT Merger Sub for the payment of the company share merger consideration or any cash payments to redeem the Series A and Series B preferred shares pursuant to the terms of such securities.

If you have lost a certificate, or if it has been stolen or destroyed, then before you are entitled to receive the merger consideration, you will be required to deliver an affidavit stating that fact and, if required by REIT Merger Sub or paying agent, to post a bond in the form and amount reasonably required by REIT Merger Sub or the paying agent as indemnity against any claim that may be made against REIT Merger Sub and the paying agent on account of the alleged loss, theft or destruction of such certificate.

Covenants Relating to Conduct of Our Business

Under the merger agreement, we have agreed that, subject to certain exceptions in the merger agreement and the disclosure letter delivered in connection therewith, between May 22, 2007 and the company merger effective time, we, the operating partnership, our other subsidiaries and our joint ventures will:

conduct our business only in the ordinary course of business consistent with past practice; and

Table of Contents

We have agreed to promptly notify Moon Parent (but no less than 24 hours after initial receipt) of our, the operating partnership's, our other subsidiaries' or our representative's receipt of any acquisition proposal, or any material modification or amendment to any acquisition proposal. In our notice to Moon Parent, we have agreed to provide a copy of any documents or agreements provided in contemplation of an acquisition proposal, the identity of the Person making such acquisition proposal and our intentions, if any, to furnish information or enter into discussions with such Person. Neither we, the operating partnership, any of our other subsidiaries nor our joint ventures will be permitted to pay or commit to pay any consideration, make any commitment or incur any liability or other obligation in connection with obtaining any approval or consent from any non-governmental third party unless Moon Parent has provided its prior written consent, which Moon Parent cannot unreasonably withhold. In addition, neither Moon Parent nor its affiliates will be required to pay any consideration, make any commitment or incur any liability or other obligation in connection with obtaining any approval or consent from any non-governmental third party.

DISSENTERS RIGHTS OF APPRAISAL

The following description of the rights of shareholders who elect to assert their appraisal rights does not purport to be complete and is qualified in its entirety by, and is subject to, Section 25.20 of the Texas Real Estate Investment Trust Act, attached as Exhibit C to this proxy statement, and which you are encouraged to read carefully.

Any of our common shareholders may dissent from the plan of merger to which we are a party only by complying with the following procedures.

A common shareholder must file with us, before the special meeting of shareholders to be held on August 1, 2007, a written objection to the approval of the company merger and the merger agreement at the special meeting (the "action"). A common shareholder's failure to vote against the action will not constitute a waiver of its right to dissent, and a vote against this action will not be deemed to satisfy the notice requirements under Texas law with respect to the shareholder's right to dissent. The shareholder's objection must state that the shareholder will exercise the shareholder's right to dissent if the action is effective and must contain the shareholder's address, to which notice of the action shall be delivered or mailed in that event. If the action is effected and the shareholder did not vote in favor of the action, the surviving entity shall deliver or mail to the shareholder written notice that the action has been effected within 10 days after the action is effected. The shareholder may make a written demand on the surviving entity for payment of the fair value of the shareholder's common shares within 10 days from the delivery or mailing of the notice. The fair value of the common shares shall be the value of the common shares on the day before the meeting, excluding any appreciation or depreciation in anticipation of the proposed action. The demand shall state the number and class of the shares owned by the shareholder and the fair value of the shares as estimated by the shareholder. A shareholder who fails to make a demand within the 10-day period is bound by the action.

Within 20 days after receipt by the surviving entity of a demand for payment made by a dissenting shareholder, the surviving entity shall deliver or mail to the shareholder a written notice that shall either set out that the entity accepts the amount claimed in the demand and agrees to pay that amount within 90 days after the date on which the action was effected, and, in the case of common shares represented by certificates, on the surrender of the certificates duly endorsed, or shall contain an estimate by the surviving entity of the fair value of the common shares and an offer to pay the amount of that estimate within 90 days after the date on which the action was effected, on receipt of notice within 60 days after that date from the shareholder that the shareholder agrees to accept that amount and, in the case of shares represented by certificates, on the surrender of the certificates duly endorsed.

If, within 60 days after the date on which the action was effected, the value of the common shares is agreed on between the shareholder and the surviving entity, payment for the common shares shall be made within 90 days after the date on which the action was effected and, in the case of common shares represented by certificates, on surrender of the certificates duly endorsed. On payment of the agreed value, the shareholder will cease to have any interest in the common shares or in us.

If, within 60 days after the date on which the action was effected, the shareholder and the surviving entity do not agree on the value of the common shares, the shareholder or surviving entity, within 60 days after the expiration of the 60-day period, may file a petition in any court of competent jurisdiction in Tarrant County, Texas, which is where our principal office is located, asking for a finding and determination of the fair value of the shareholder's common shares. On the filing of a petition by the shareholder, service of a copy of the petition must be made on the surviving entity. The surviving entity, within 10 days after receiving the service, shall file in the office of the clerk of the court in which the petition was filed a list containing the names and addresses of all of our shareholders who have demanded payment for their common shares and with whom agreements as to the value of their common shares have not been reached by the surviving entity. If the petition is filed by the surviving entity, the list described in the preceding sentence must be attached to the petition. The clerk of the court shall give notice of the time and place fixed for the hearing of the petition by registered mail to the surviving entity and to the shareholders named on the list at the addresses stated in the list. The court shall approve the forms of notices sent by mail. All shareholders notified in such manner and the surviving entity are bound by the final judgment of the court.

After the hearing of a petition, the court shall determine which shareholders have complied with the provisions of Section 25.20 of the Texas Real Estate Investment Trust Act and have become entitled to the valuation of and payment of their common shares. The court shall appoint one or more qualified appraisers to determine that value. The appraisers may examine any of our books and records that relate to the common shares the appraisers are charged with the duty of valuing. The appraisers shall make a determination of the fair value of the common shares after conducting an investigation. The appraisers shall also afford a reasonable opportunity to allow interested parties to submit to the appraisers pertinent evidence relating to the value of the common shares. The appraisers also have the power and authority that may be conferred on masters in chancery by the Texas Rules of Civil Procedure.

The appraisers shall determine the fair value of the common shares of the shareholders adjudged by the court to be entitled to payment for their shares and shall file their report of that value in the office of the clerk of the court. The clerk shall give notice of the filing of the appraisers report to interested parties. The appraisers report shall be subject to exceptions to be heard before the court both on the law and the facts. The court shall determine the fair value of the common shares of the shareholders entitled to payment for their shares and shall order the surviving entity to pay that value, together with interest on the value of shares to the shareholders entitled to payment, beginning 91 days after the date on which the action was effected to the date of such judgment. The judgment shall be immediately payable to the holders of uncertificated common shares. The judgment shall be payable to the holders of common shares represented by certificates only on, and simultaneously with, the surrender to the surviving entity of duly endorsed certificates for those shares. On payment of the judgment, the dissenting shareholders cease to have any interest in those shares or in us. The court shall allow the appraisers a reasonable fee as court costs, and all court costs shall be allocated between the parties in the manner that the court determines to be fair and equitable.

Common shares acquired by the surviving entity, pursuant to the payment of the agreed value of the shares or to payment of the judgment entered for the value of the shares, as provided above, shall be treated as provided in the merger agreement.

In the absence of fraud in the company merger, the remedy provided by Section 25.20 of the Texas Real Estate Investment Trust Act to a shareholder objecting to the approval of the company merger and the merger agreement at the special meeting is the exclusive remedy for the recovery of the value of the shareholder's common shares or money damages to the shareholder with respect to the action. If the surviving entity complies with the requirements of Section 25.20 of the Texas Real Estate Investment Trust Act, any shareholder who fails to comply with the requirements of that Section is not entitled to bring suit for the recovery of the value of the shareholder's common shares or money damages to the shareholder with respect to the action.

MULTIPLE SHAREHOLDERS SHARING ONE ADDRESS

We are sending only one proxy statement to shareholders that share a single address unless we received contrary instructions from any shareholder at that address. This practice, known as "householding," is designed to reduce our printing and postage costs. However, if any shareholder residing at such an address wishes to receive a separate proxy statement, they may telephone Jeremy Sweek/Investor Relations at (817) 321-1464 or write to Crescent Real Estate Equities Company at 777 Main Street, Suite 2100, Fort Worth, Texas 76102, Attention: Investor Relations. If you have received multiple copies of our proxy statement, you can request householding by contacting us in the same manner, and if you did not receive an individual copy of this proxy statement, you can obtain a copy by contacting us in the same manner.

SUBMISSION OF SHAREHOLDER PROPOSALS

We intend to hold an annual meeting in 2007 only if the mergers are not completed. If we hold such an annual meeting, it will be more than 30 days after the anniversary date of the mailing of the notice for the 2006 annual meeting. To be eligible for inclusion in our proxy materials for our 2007 annual meeting, if such meeting is held, written notice of any shareholder proposal must be received by us a reasonable time before we begin to print and send our proxy materials for such annual meeting. In addition, nominations by shareholders of candidates for trust manager and proposals by shareholders other than pursuant to Rule 14a-8 under the Exchange Act process must be submitted in accordance with our current bylaws. Our bylaws currently provide that in order for a shareholder to nominate a candidate for election as a trust manager at an annual meeting of shareholders or propose business for consideration at an annual meeting that is delayed by more than 60 days from the first anniversary of date of mailing of the notice for the previous year's annual meeting, written notice must be delivered to our Secretary, at our principal executive offices, no sooner than the 90th day prior to the date of mailing of the notice for such annual meeting and not later than either (1) the 70th day prior to the date of mailing of the notice for such annual meeting or (2) the 10th day following the day on which public announcement of the date of such annual meeting is first made, whichever is later. Our Secretary will provide a copy of our bylaws upon written request and without charge.

OTHER MATTERS

We currently are not aware of any business or matter other than as indicated above, which may be properly presented at the special meeting. If, however, any other matter properly comes before the special meeting, the persons named as proxies in the accompanying proxy will, in their discretion, vote thereon in accordance with their best judgment.

WHERE YOU CAN FIND MORE INFORMATION

We file annual, quarterly and special reports, proxy statements and other information with the SEC. These reports, proxy statements and other information contain additional information about us. We will make these materials available for inspection and copying by any shareholder, or representative of a shareholder who is so designated in writing, at our executive offices during regular business hours.

Our shareholders may read and copy any reports, statements or other information filed by us at the SEC public reference room at 100 F Street, N.E., Washington, D.C. 20549. Our filings with the SEC are also available to the public from commercial document retrieval services and at the website maintained by the SEC located at: <http://www.sec.gov>.

The SEC allows us to incorporate by reference information into this proxy statement. This means that we can disclose important information by referring to another document filed separately with the SEC. The information incorporated by reference is considered to be part of this proxy statement. If we file with the SEC and incorporate by reference any information so filed after the date of this proxy statement, then that information may update and supersede the information in this proxy statement.

We incorporate by reference each document we file under Sections 13(a), 13(c), 14 or 15(d) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 after the date on which we file this proxy statement and before the special meeting.

This proxy statement does not constitute an offer to sell, or a solicitation of an offer to buy, any securities, or the solicitation of a proxy, in any jurisdiction to or from any person to whom it is not lawful to make any offer or solicitation in that jurisdiction. The delivery of this proxy statement should not create an implication that there has been no change in our affairs since the date of this proxy statement or that the information herein is correct as of any later date.

Shareholders should not rely on information other than that contained in this proxy statement. We have not authorized anyone to provide information that is different from that contained in this proxy statement. This proxy statement is dated June 26, 2007. and documents were made only for the purposes of the merger agreement and those other contracts or documents and solely for the benefit of the parties to the merger agreement and those other contracts or documents as of specific dates. Those representations and warranties may be subject to important limitations and qualifications agreed to by the contracting parties, and may not be complete as of the date of this proxy statement. Some of those representations and warranties may not be accurate or complete as of any particular date because they are subject to contractual standards of materiality different from that generally applicable to public disclosures to shareholders. Furthermore, these representations and warranties may have been made for the purposes of allocating contractual risk between the parties to such contract or other document instead of establishing these matters as facts, and they may or may not have been accurate as of any specific date and do not purport to be accurate as of the date of this proxy statement. Accordingly, you should not rely upon the descriptions of representations and warranties in the merger agreement that are contained in this proxy statement or upon the actual representations and warranties contained in the merger agreement or the other contracts and documents incorporated by reference into this proxy statement as statements of factual information.

(h) Lost Certificates. If any Certificate shall have been lost, stolen or destroyed, upon the making of an affidavit of that fact by the person claiming such Certificate to be lost, stolen or destroyed and, if required by the Surviving Entity or the Paying Agent, the posting by such person of a bond in such amount as the Surviving Entity or the Paying Agent reasonably may direct, the Paying Agent will issue in exchange for such lost, stolen or destroyed Certificate the appropriate form of Merger Consideration payable in respect thereof pursuant to this Agreement.

To the extent that amounts are so withheld by the Surviving Entity, Operating Partnership, Parent or the Paying Agent, as applicable, such withheld amounts shall be treated for all purposes of this Agreement as having been paid to such holder in respect of which such deduction and withholding was made by the Surviving Entity, Operating Partnership, Parent or the Paying Agent, as applicable.

Except as may be permitted by Section 7.04(c), the Company Board shall recommend to holders of the Company Common Shares that they approve this Agreement and approve the Merger and the other transactions contemplated hereby and shall include such recommendations in the Proxy Statement. Except to the extent required by Law or with Parent's written consent, the Company shall not (i) change the date specified in the Proxy Statement for the Company Shareholders Meeting or (ii) postpone or delay the Company Shareholders Meeting, except (x) to the extent necessary to ensure that any amendment or supplement to the Proxy Statement required by applicable Law is provided to the shareholders of the Company sufficiently in advance of the Company Shareholders Meeting or (y) if there are an insufficient number of Company Common Shares represented in person or by proxy at the Company Shareholders Meeting to constitute a quorum or to approve this Agreement, the Merger and the other transactions contemplated hereby, in which case the Company may, and, at Parent's request, shall, adjourn the Company Shareholders Meeting and use its reasonable best efforts to obtain a quorum and the requisite vote to approve this Agreement, the Merger and the transactions contemplated hereby as promptly as practicable. Approval of this Agreement, the Merger and the other transactions contemplated hereby are the only matters (other than adjournment as contemplated by the preceding sentence) which the Company will propose to be acted on by the shareholders of the Company at the Company Shareholders Meeting.

Section 7.03 Access to Information: Confidentiality.

(a) Subject to applicable Law, from the date hereof until the Effective Time, the Company shall, and shall cause its Subsidiaries and the officers, managers, directors, employees, auditors and agents of the Company and the Operating Partnership and the Company's other Subsidiaries to, and to the extent permissible under the contractual obligations of the Company and its Subsidiaries to each Primarily Controlled Company and Partially Controlled Company shall cause or encourage each Primarily Controlled Company and Partially Controlled Company to, afford Parent, following notice from Parent to the Company in accordance with this Section 7.03, reasonable access during normal business hours to the officers, employees, agents, properties, offices, plants and other facilities, books and records of the Company and each of its Subsidiaries and the Primarily Controlled Companies and the Partially Controlled Companies, and all other financial, operating and other data and information as Parent may reasonably request. Notwithstanding the foregoing, neither Parent nor any of its representatives shall (i) contact or have any discussions with any of the employees, agents, or representatives of the Company, its Subsidiaries or the Primarily Controlled Companies and the Partially Controlled Companies (other than the Company's executive officers, investment bankers or counsel), unless in each case Parent obtains the prior written consent of the Company, which shall not be unreasonably withheld, conditioned or delayed, (ii) contact or have any discussions with any of the landlords/sublandlords, tenants/subtenants, or licensors or franchisors of the Company or its Subsidiaries or the Related Entities, unless in each case Parent obtains the prior written consent of the Company, which shall not be unreasonably withheld, conditioned or delayed, or (iii) damage any property or any portion thereof. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in the foregoing, subject to the rights of any property manager, landlord/sublandlord or tenant/subtenant of any Company Property, so long as they do not unreasonably disrupt the operations of the Company or any of the Company's Subsidiaries, Parent and its representatives (including its financing sources) shall have the right to conduct, at Parent's expense, appraisal and environmental and engineering inspections of each of the Company Properties; provided, however, that neither Parent nor its representatives shall have the right to conduct Phase I testing of the Company Properties without the Company's consent unless so directed by prior written direction of Parent's financing sources, and that none of Parent, its representatives or its financing sources shall have the right to sample any environmental media (including soil, groundwater, surface water, air or sediment) or any building material or perform any invasive testing procedure on any building or property unless such sample or testing procedure is recommended by virtue of the results of the Phase I testing referred to above. Parent shall indemnify and hold the Company harmless from and against any and all losses or damages incurred by the Company as a result of the Parent's or the Parent representatives' inspection of the Company Properties, provided, however, that the Parent's indemnification obligations hereunder shall not include any obligation whatsoever with respect to any such losses or damages (including claims that any Company Property has declined in value) arising out of or resulting from the discovery of any existing condition at a Company Property. Subject to the foregoing, Parent shall schedule and coordinate all inspections with the Company and shall give the Company at least three (3) Business Days prior written notice thereof, setting forth the inspection that Parent or its representatives intend to conduct. The Company shall be entitled to have representatives present at all times during any such inspection. Notwithstanding the foregoing, none of the Company, any of its Subsidiaries, any Primarily Controlled Company or any Partially Controlled Company shall be required to provide access to or to disclose information where such access or disclosure would jeopardize the attorney-client privilege of the Company or its Subsidiaries or any Related Entity or contravene any Law or binding agreement entered into prior to the date of this Agreement (provided, however, that the Company and its Subsidiaries shall use commercially reasonable efforts to obtain consent from the applicable third party or enter into a customary joint defense agreement to enable the disclosure of such information).

(b) Notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained in this Agreement, Parent (i) may contact and have discussions with any joint venture partner or other equity co-investor of the Company, the Operating Partnership or any of the Company's other Subsidiaries without the prior written consent of the Company and (ii) may disclose only such information obtained from the Company, the Operating Partnership or any of the Company's other Subsidiaries or their respective representatives to any such joint venture partner or other equity co-investor that Parent reasonably believes is necessary to discuss any strategic alternatives with respect to any joint venture, its properties or business. The Company shall have the right to have a representative present at any such meetings or on any telephone calls and shall cooperate with any reasonable requests of Parent in connection with such discussions.

(c) All information obtained by Parent pursuant to this Section 7.03 and pursuant to the confidentiality agreement, dated March 24, 2007 (the Confidentiality Agreement), between an affiliate of Parent and the Company, shall be kept confidential in accordance with the Confidentiality Agreement.

(d) No investigation pursuant to this Section 7.03 or otherwise, or information obtained as a result thereof, shall affect any representation or warranty in this Agreement of any party hereto or any condition to the obligations of the parties hereto.

Section 7.04 No Solicitation of Transactions.

(a) None of the Company, the Operating Partnership and the Company's other Subsidiaries shall, nor shall they authorize or permit any officer, manager, director, employee, or agent or any investment banker, financial advisor, attorney, accountant or other representative (collectively, the Representatives) to, directly or indirectly, (i) solicit, or initiate or knowingly encourage or knowingly facilitate any inquiries or offers with respect to, or that reasonably may be expected to lead to the submission of, any Acquisition Proposal or (ii) participate in any discussions or negotiations regarding, or that reasonably may be expected to lead to, or furnish to any Person any non-public information with respect to, or otherwise cooperate with respect to, any Acquisition Proposal. Without limiting the foregoing, the Company shall be responsible for any failure on the part of its Representatives to comply with this Section 7.04. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in this Section 7.04, nothing contained in this Agreement shall prohibit the Company from, at any time prior to receipt of the Company Shareholder Approval, furnishing any information to, or entering into or participating in discussions or negotiations with, or releasing from any standstill agreement or similar obligation to the Company or any Company Subsidiary, any Person that makes an unsolicited bona fide Acquisition Proposal in writing that did not otherwise result from a breach of this Section 7.04, if (i) the Company Board determines in good faith after consulting with its legal counsel and financial advisors that such Acquisition Proposal constitutes or is reasonably likely to result in a Superior Proposal, (ii) prior to furnishing such non-public information to, or entering into discussions or negotiations with, such Person, the Company notifies Parent that it is furnishing information to, or entering into discussions or negotiations with, such Person, and (iv) prior to furnishing such non-public information to such Person, the Company (A) provides Parent with the information to be provided to such Person which Parent has not previously been provided, and (B) receives from such Person an executed confidentiality and standstill agreement no less favorable to the Company than the Confidentiality Agreement. Without the prior written consent of Parent, the Company will not release any Person from any standstill agreement or similar obligation to the Company or any Company Subsidiary which is set forth on Item 7.04(a) of the Disclosure Letter.

(b) The Company shall provide prompt (but in no event more than twenty-four (24) hours following receipt thereof) oral and written notice to Parent of (i) the receipt of any Acquisition Proposal, or any material modification or amendment to any Acquisition Proposal, by the Company, the Operating Partnership, any other Subsidiary of the Company or any Representative, (ii) a copy of any documents or agreements provided in contemplation of such Acquisition Proposal (including any amendments, supplements or modifications thereto), (iii) the identity of such Person making any such Acquisition Proposal and (iv) the Company's intention, if any, to furnish information to, or enter into discussions or negotiations with, such Person. The Company shall keep Parent reasonably informed in all material respects of the status and details (including any change to the material terms and conditions) of any such Acquisition Proposal. The Company shall not, and shall cause each of its Subsidiaries not to, enter into any confidentiality agreement with any Person subsequent to the date hereof which prohibits the Company from providing such information to Parent.

(c) Except as set forth in this Section 7.04(c), the Company Board shall not (i) withdraw or modify, or propose to withdraw or modify, in a manner adverse to Parent, the Company Board Recommendation, (ii) approve or recommend, or publicly propose to approve or recommend, any Acquisition Proposal or (iii) enter into any agreement with respect to any Acquisition Proposal (other than a confidentiality agreement referred to in Section 7.04(a)). Notwithstanding the foregoing, at any time prior to receipt of the Company Shareholder Approval, (x) if the Company Board determines in good faith after consulting with its outside legal counsel that the failure to do so would be inconsistent with its duties to the Company's shareholders under applicable Law, then the Company Board may withdraw, or modify or change in a manner adverse to Parent, the Company Board Recommendation (Change in Recommendation) and (y) in the case of any Change in Recommendation being made in response to an unsolicited bona fide written Acquisition Proposal (that did not otherwise result from a breach of this Section 7.04) that the Company Board has determined in good faith, after consultation with its independent financial advisor, is a Superior Proposal, the Company Board may approve and recommend such Superior Proposal concurrently with terminating this Agreement pursuant to Section 9.01(h); provided, however, that such actions may only be taken at a time that is after (I) the third (3rd) Business Day following Parent's receipt of written notice from the Company that the Company Board is prepared to take such action, and (II) at the end of such period, the Company Board determines in good faith, after taking into account all amendments or revisions committed to by Parent and after consultation with its independent financial advisors, that such Acquisition Proposal remains a Superior Proposal relative to the REIT Merger and the other transactions contemplated hereby, as supplemented by any Counterproposal to which the Purchaser Parties have irrevocably committed. Any such written notice shall specify the material terms and conditions of such Acquisition Proposal, include the most current version of any agreement relating to such Acquisition Proposal (including any amendments, supplements or modifications thereto), identify the person making such Acquisition Proposal and state that the Company Board otherwise intends to make a Change in Recommendation (subject to compliance with this subsection (c)). During any such three (3) Business Day period, Parent shall be entitled to deliver to the Company a counterproposal to such Acquisition Proposal (a Counterproposal) and Parent and the Company shall negotiate in good faith in respect of any such Counterproposal with the objective of reaching an agreement such that the relevant Acquisition Proposal is not a Superior Proposal. For the avoidance of doubt, the parties hereto acknowledge and agree that any amendment to the financial terms or any other material amendment to any material term of an Acquisition Proposal which amendment affects the determination of whether the Acquisition Proposal is a Superior Proposal to any Counterproposal shall be treated as a new Acquisition Proposal for the purposes of this Section 7.04(c) (requiring a new written notice by the Company and a new three (3) Business Day period).

(d) Nothing contained in this Agreement shall prevent the Company or the Company Board from taking and disclosing to its shareholders a position contemplated by Rule 14d-9 and Rule 14e-2(a) promulgated under the Exchange Act (or any similar communication to shareholders) or from making any legally required disclosure to shareholders; provided, however, that, for the avoidance of doubt, any action in violation of Section 7.04(c) shall be a breach of such Section. Further, any stop-look-and-listen communication by the Company or the Company Board to the shareholders of the Company pursuant to Rule 14d-9(f) promulgated under the Exchange Act (or any similar communication to the shareholders of the Company) shall not be considered a failure to make, or a withdrawal, modification or change in any manner adverse to Parent of, all or a portion of the Company Board Recommendation.

(e) Upon execution of this Agreement, the Company, the Operating Partnership and the Company's other Subsidiaries shall cease immediately and cause to be terminated any and all existing activities, discussions or negotiations with any parties conducted heretofore with respect to an Acquisition Proposal by or on behalf of the Company or any of the Representatives and shall inform each of the Representatives of its obligations under this Section 7.04 and instruct each of them to act in a manner consistent with such obligations; provided, however, that the Company shall comply with the next sentence. The Company shall promptly request each Person with whom it has executed a confidentiality agreement within the twelve (12) months prior to the date hereof in connection with its consideration of any Acquisition Proposal to return or, if permitted by such confidentiality agreement, destroy all confidential or other non-public information heretofore furnished to such Person by or on behalf of the Company or any of the Representatives.

Section 7.05 Employee Benefits Matters.

(a) From and after the Effective Time, Parent shall cause the Surviving Entity to assume and honor in accordance with their terms the Company's obligations under the agreements set forth in Item 4.11(j) of the Disclosure Letter.

(b) For a period of not less than twelve (12) months after the Closing Date, for each employee of the Company or any of its Subsidiaries who remains an employee of the Surviving Entity or its successors or assigns or any of their subsidiaries (collectively, the Continuing Employees), Parent shall or shall cause the Surviving Entity to provide cash compensation (including base compensation and annual bonus) and benefits (including group health, life, disability and severance and retention plans, but excluding personal perquisites, equity compensation or profits or promoted interests or comparable forms of compensation) that are not less favorable in the aggregate to such Continuing Employee and the Continuing Employee's dependents and beneficiaries, as appropriate, as the Company or such Subsidiary of the Company provided to such Continuing Employee immediately prior to the Effective Time, through the maintenance of any one or more of the Benefit Plans, the adoption of new plans, programs, or arrangements for the benefit of Continuing Employees, or a combination thereof. With respect to any employee benefit plan, program, or arrangement maintained by Parent or its Affiliates in which Continuing Employees become eligible to participate after the Closing Date (each, a Parent Plan), a Continuing Employee will be credited with his or her years of service with the Company and its Subsidiaries (and any predecessor entities thereof) before the Closing Date for purposes of vesting and eligibility (but not accrual of benefits) under such Parent Plan to the same extent as such Continuing Employee was entitled, before the Effective Time, to credit for such service under the respective Benefit Plan (except to the extent such credit would result in the duplication of benefits). In addition, with respect to each Parent Plan providing medical or health benefits in which Continuing Employees become eligible to participate during the calendar year that includes the Closing Date, each Continuing Employee shall be given credit for amounts paid by the Continuing Employee under the respective Benefit Plan for purposes of applying deductibles, co-payments and out-of-pocket maximums as though such amounts had been paid in accordance with the terms and conditions of such Parent Plan.

(c) Except as otherwise provided in this Section 7.05(c), nothing in this Agreement shall be interpreted as limiting the power of the Surviving Entity to amend or terminate any particular Benefit Plan or any other particular employee benefit plan, program, agreement or policy pursuant to its terms or as requiring the Surviving Entity to continue (other than as required by its terms) any written employment contract; provided, however, that no such termination or amendment may impair the rights of any Person with respect to benefits or any other payments already accrued as of the time of such termination or amendment without the consent of such Person.

(d) Prior to the Effective Time, the Company Board, or an appropriate committee of non-employee managers thereof, shall adopt a resolution consistent with the interpretive guidance of the SEC so that the disposition by any officer or manager of the Company who is a covered person of the Company for purposes of Section 16 of the Exchange Act and the rules and regulations thereunder (Section 16) of Company Common Shares pursuant to this Agreement and the Merger shall be an exempt transaction for purposes of Section 16.

(e) The provisions of this Section 7.05 shall survive the Closing and are for the sole benefit of the parties to this Agreement and nothing herein, expressed or implied, is intended or shall be construed to confer upon or to give to any Person other than the parties hereto and their respective permitted successors and assigns any legal or equitable or other rights or remedies (with respect to the matters provided for in this Section 7.05) under or by reason of any provision of this Agreement. Nothing in this Section 7.05 is intended as or shall be construed to be an amendment to any Benefit Plan.

Section 7.06 Managers and Officers Indemnification and Insurance.

(a) Without limiting any additional rights that any manager, director, trust manager, officer, trustee, employee, agent, partner or fiduciary may have under any employment or indemnification agreement or under the Company Charter, the Company Bylaws, the Operating Partnership Agreement or this Agreement or, if applicable, similar organizational documents or agreements of any of the Company's Subsidiaries or Related Entities, from and after the Effective Time, the Purchaser Parties, jointly and severally, shall, with respect to any such individual serving in such capacity at the appointment or designation of the Crescent Parties: (i) indemnify and hold harmless each person who is at the date hereof, was previously, or during the period from the date hereof through the date of the Effective Time serving as a manager, director, trust manager, officer, trustee, partner or fiduciary of the Company or any of its Subsidiaries or Related Entities and acting in its capacity as such or as a fiduciary under or with respect to any employee benefit plan (within the meaning of Section 3(3) of ERISA) (collectively, the Indemnified Parties) to the fullest extent that the Company or Company Subsidiary, as the case may be, is authorized or permitted to indemnify its own managers, directors, trust managers, officers or trustees under the applicable Law of the jurisdiction of formation of the Company or such Subsidiary (as applicable), as now or hereafter in effect, in connection with any Claim and any losses, claims, damages, liabilities, costs, Expenses, judgments, fines, penalties and amounts paid in settlement (including all interest, assessments and other charges paid or payable in connection with or in respect of any thereof) relating to or resulting from such Claim; and (ii) promptly pay on behalf of or, within ten (10) Business Days after any request for advancement, advance to each of the Indemnified Parties, to the fullest extent that the Company or Subsidiary, as the case may be, is authorized or permitted to indemnify its own managers, directors, trust managers, officers or trustees under the applicable Law of the jurisdiction of formation of the Company or such Subsidiary (as applicable), as now or hereafter in effect, any Expenses incurred in defending, serving as a witness with respect to or otherwise participating with respect to any Claim in advance of the final disposition of such Claim, including payment on behalf of or advancement to the Indemnified Party of any Expenses incurred by such Indemnified Party in connection with enforcing any rights with respect to such indemnification and/or advancement, in each case without the requirement of any bond or other security, but subject to (x) receipt of documentation by the Purchaser Parties reasonably evidencing the existence of the applicable expenses, and (y) the Purchaser Parties' receipt of an undertaking by or on behalf of such Indemnified Party to repay such Expenses if it is ultimately determined under applicable Laws that such Indemnified Party is not entitled to be indemnified); provided, however, that none of the Purchaser Parties shall be liable for any amounts paid in settlement effected without Parent's or the Surviving Entity's prior written consent (which consent shall not be unreasonably withheld or delayed) and shall not be obligated to pay the fees and expenses of more than one counsel (selected by a plurality of the applicable Indemnified Parties) for all Indemnified Parties in any jurisdiction with respect to any single Claim except to the extent that two or more of such Indemnified Parties shall have conflicting interests in the outcome of such action. The indemnification and advancement obligations of the Purchaser Parties pursuant to this Section 7.06(a) shall extend to acts or omissions occurring at or before the Effective Time and any Claim relating thereto (including with respect to any acts or omissions occurring in connection with the approval of this Agreement, the Mergers and the consummation of the other transactions contemplated hereby, including the consideration and approval thereof and the process undertaken in connection therewith and any Claim relating thereto), and all rights to indemnification and advancement conferred hereunder shall continue after the date hereof as to a person who has ceased to be a manager, director, trust manager, officer, trustee, employee, agent, partner or fiduciary of the Company or any of its Subsidiaries or Related Entities to the extent appointed or designated by the Company and shall inure to the benefit of such person's heirs, executors and personal and legal representatives. As used in this Section 7.06(a): (x) the term Claim means any threatened, asserted, pending or completed Action, suit or proceeding or inquiry or investigation, whether instituted by any party hereto, any Governmental Authority or any other Person, that any Indemnified Party in good faith believes might lead to the institution of any Action, suit or proceeding, whether civil, criminal, administrative, investigative or other, including any arbitration or other

No Purchaser Party shall settle, compromise or consent to the entry of any judgment in any actual or threatened Claim in respect of which indemnification has been sought by such Indemnified Party hereunder unless such settlement, compromise or judgment includes an unconditional release of such Indemnified Party from all liability arising out of such Claim, or such Indemnified Party otherwise consents thereto.

(b) Without limiting the foregoing, the Purchaser Parties agree that all rights to indemnification and exculpation from liabilities for acts or omissions occurring at or prior to the Effective Time now existing in favor of the current or former managers, directors, trust managers, officers, agents, partners or fiduciaries of the Company or any Company Subsidiary or any Primarily Controlled Company as provided in the Company Charter and Company Bylaws (or, as applicable, the charter, bylaws, partnership agreement, limited liability company agreement, or other organizational documents of any of the Company's Subsidiaries or any Primarily Controlled Company) and those indemnification agreements of the Company or any of its Subsidiaries or any Primarily Controlled Company listed in Item 7.06(b) of the Disclosure Letter shall be assumed by the Surviving Entity in the REIT Merger, without further action, at the Effective Time and shall survive the REIT Merger and shall continue in full force and effect in accordance with their terms. (c) Parent shall have delivered to the Company a certificate, dated the date of the Effective Time, signed by an officer of the Parent and certifying as to the satisfaction of the conditions specified in Sections 8.03(a) and 8.03(b).

Section 8.04 Delay. If Parent delays the Closing Date either pursuant to a Delayed Closing or pursuant to Section 8.02(f), such conditions shall be deemed to have been satisfied as of the Closing Date irrespective of any fact, circumstances or events subsequent to the Closing Date (disregarding for such purposes any Delayed Closing or delay of the Closing Date pursuant to Section 8.02(f) if the Company confirms in writing to Parent that it is willing and able to deliver the certificates referred to in Section 8.02(c) and the opinion referred to in Section 8.02(d) on the Closing Date (disregarding for such purposes any Delayed Closing or delay of the Closing Date pursuant to Section 8.02(f)). If the Closing Date has been delayed either pursuant to a Delayed Closing or pursuant to Section 8.02(f), then notwithstanding anything to the contrary herein, the certificates referred to in Section 8.02(c) and the opinion referred to in Section 8.02(d) shall be delivered on the Closing Date but shall be dated as of, and deemed to have been delivered on, the date on which, pursuant to the preceding sentence, the Company confirmed in writing that it was willing and able to deliver such certificates and opinion. For the avoidance of doubt, Section 7.07 shall apply to a Delayed Closing or if the Closing Date occurs after a delay pursuant to Section 8.02(f).

ARTICLE IX

TERMINATION, AMENDMENT AND WAIVER

Section 9.01 Termination. This Agreement may be terminated and the Mergers may be abandoned at any time prior to the Effective Time, whether before or after the Company Shareholder Approval, as follows (the date of any such termination, the Termination Date):

(a) by mutual written consent of Parent and the Company;

(b) by either Parent or the Company if the Effective Time shall not have occurred on or before 11:59 p.m., Eastern Time, October 31, 2007 (the Drop Dead Date); provided, however, that (i) the right to terminate this Agreement under this Section 9.01(b) shall not be available to a party whose failure to fulfill any obligation under this Agreement materially contributed to the failure of the Effective Time to occur on or before such date and (ii) if the Purchaser Parties have invoked the failure of the condition contained in Section 8.02(f) and the ten Business Day period contemplated therein would expire on or after October 31, 2007, then the Drop Dead Date shall be the date of the third Business Day following expiration of such ten Business Day period;

(c) by either Parent or the Company if any Governmental Authority in the United States shall have enacted, issued, promulgated, enforced or entered any injunction, order, decree or ruling or taken any other action (including the failure to have taken an action) which, in either such case, has become final and non-appealable and makes consummation of the Redemptions or the Mergers illegal or otherwise prohibits consummation of the Mergers or Redemptions (Governmental Order); provided, however, that the terms of this Section 9.01(c) shall not be available to any party unless such party shall have used its reasonable best efforts to oppose any such Governmental Order or to have such Governmental Order vacated or made inapplicable to the Redemptions or the Mergers, as applicable;

(d) by Parent if each of it, REIT Merger Sub and Partnership Merger Sub is not in material breach of its obligations under this Agreement, and if (i) any of the representations and warranties of the Company or the Operating Partnership herein are or become untrue or incorrect such that the condition set forth in Section 8.02(a) would be incapable of being satisfied by the Drop Dead Date or (ii) there has been a breach on the part of the Company or the Operating Partnership of any of its covenants or agreements herein such that the condition set forth in Section 8.02(b) would be incapable of being satisfied by the Drop Dead Date;

(e) by the Company if it is not in material breach of its obligations under this Agreement, and if (i) any of the representations and warranties of Parent, REIT Merger Sub and Partnership Merger Sub herein are or become untrue or inaccurate such that the condition set forth in Section 8.03(a) would be incapable of being satisfied by the Drop Dead Date or (ii) there has been a breach on the part of Parent, REIT Merger Sub and Partnership Merger Sub or any of their respective covenants or agreements herein such that the conditions set forth in Section 8.03(b) would be incapable of being satisfied by the Drop Dead Date.

(f) by the Company or Parent if the Company Shareholder Approval is not obtained at the Company Shareholders Meeting;

(g) by Parent if (i) the Company Board has effected a Change in Recommendation, (ii) the Company enters into an agreement with respect to an Acquisition Proposal (other than a confidentiality agreement entered into in compliance with Section 7.04(a)), (iii) a tender offer or exchange offer relating to the Company Common Shares and constituting an Acquisition Proposal shall have been commenced by a third party prior to obtaining the Company Shareholder Approval and the Company Board shall not have recommended that the Company's shareholders reject such tender or exchange offer within ten (10) Business Days following commencement thereof or, in the event of any change in the terms of the tender offer, within ten (10) Business Days of the announcement of such changes, (it being understood that, for these purposes, taking no position with respect to acceptance or rejection of such tender or exchange offer by the Company's shareholders, shall constitute a failure to recommend rejection of such tender or exchange offer), (iv) the Company shall have intentionally breached its obligation to call or hold the Company Shareholders Meeting or to cause the Proxy Statement to be mailed to its shareholders or the Operating Partnership shall have intentionally breached its obligation to cause the Partnership Information Statement to be mailed to its limited partners or (v) the Company publicly announces its intention to do any of the foregoing; or

(h) by the Company, at any time prior to obtaining the Company Shareholder Approval, if the Company Board has approved an Acquisition Proposal; provided, however, that the right to terminate this Agreement under this Section 9.01(h) shall not be available to the Company if Section 7.04 has been breached; provided further, however, that no termination of this Agreement under this Section 9.01(h) shall be effective unless the Company simultaneously pays the Company Termination Fee required by Section 9.03(b)(ii) (any purported termination under this Section 9.01(h) shall be void and of no force and effect unless the Company has made such payment).

The right of any party hereto to terminate this Agreement pursuant to this Section 9.01 shall remain operative and in full force and effect regardless of any investigation made by or on behalf of any party hereto, any Person controlling any such party or any of their respective representatives, whether prior to or after the execution of this Agreement

Section 9.02 Effect of Termination. In the event of the termination of this Agreement pursuant to Section 9.01, this Agreement shall forthwith become void, and there shall be no liability under this Agreement on the part of any party hereto except that the Guarantees referred to in Section 5.08 (and the respective obligations guaranteed by the Guarantees) and the provisions of Sections 7.03(a), 7.03(c), 7.09, 7.10(e), this Section 9.02, Section 9.03, Section 9.04 and Article X shall survive any such termination; provided, however, that nothing herein shall relieve any party hereto from liability for any fraud or willful breach of any of its representations, warranties, covenants or agreements set forth in this Agreement prior to such termination.

Section 9.03 Fees and Expenses.

(a) Except as otherwise set forth in this Section 9.03, all expenses incurred in connection with this Agreement shall be paid by the party incurring such expenses, whether or not the Mergers are consummated.

(b) The Company agrees that if this Agreement shall be terminated:

(i) by Parent or the Company pursuant to Section 9.01(f), and (A) at or prior to the Termination Date, an Acquisition Proposal shall have been publicly announced that is not subsequently withdrawn prior to such Termination Date, and (B) concurrently with such termination or within twelve (12) months following the Termination Date, the Company enters into an agreement with respect to any Acquisition Proposal that is ultimately consummated, or any Acquisition Proposal is consummated, then the Company shall pay to Parent, if and when such agreement is entered into (or, if no agreement is entered into, upon consummation of the Acquisition Proposal) the Company Termination Fee less any Parent Expenses previously paid (and for purposes of this Section 9.03(b)(i) 50% shall be substituted for 25% and 75% in the definition of Acquisition Proposal); or

(ii) by Parent pursuant to Section 9.01(g) or the Company pursuant to Section 9.01(h), then the Company shall pay to Parent the Company Termination Fee.

(c) The Company Termination Fee shall be paid by the Company as directed by Parent in writing in immediately available funds within three (3) Business Days after the date of the event giving rise to the obligation to make such payment, except in connection with a termination under Section 9.01(h), in which case the Company must pay the Company Termination Fee simultaneously with such termination.

(d) For purposes of this Agreement, Company Termination Fee means an amount equal to $64,200,000.

(e) If this Agreement is terminated by the Company pursuant to Section 9.01(e), Parent shall pay to the Company within three (3) Business Days after the date of termination all reasonable out-of-pocket costs and expenses, including, the reasonable fees and expenses of lawyers, accountants, consultants, financial advisors, lenders and investment bankers, incurred by the Company or its Subsidiaries from March 1, 2007 to the date of termination in connection with the entering into of this Agreement and the carrying out of any and all acts contemplated hereunder up to an aggregate maximum amount of $10,000,000 (the Company Expenses). If this agreement is terminated by Parent pursuant to Section 9.01(d) or 9.01(f), the Company shall pay to Parent, within three (3) Business Days after the date of termination, all reasonable out-of-pocket costs and expenses including, the reasonable fees and expenses of lawyers, accountants, consultants, financial advisors, lenders and investment bankers, incurred by Parent from March 1, 2007 to the date of termination in connection with the entering into of this Agreement and the carrying out of any and all acts contemplated hereunder up to an aggregate maximum amount of $10,000,000 (the Parent Expenses). The payment of expenses set forth in this Section 9.03(e) is not an exclusive remedy, but is in addition to any other rights or remedies available to the parties hereto (whether at law or in equity), and in no respect is intended by the parties hereto to constitute liquidated damages, or be viewed as an indicator of the damages payable, or in any other respect limit or restrict damages available in case of any breach of this Agreement

(f) Each of the Company and Parent acknowledges that the agreements contained in this Section 9.03 are an integral part of the transactions contemplated by this Agreement. In the event that the Company shall fail to pay the Company Termination Fee or Parent Expenses when due or Parent shall fail to pay the Company Expenses when due, the Company or Parent, as the case may be, shall reimburse the other party for all reasonable costs and expenses actually incurred or accrued by such other party (including reasonable fees and expenses of counsel) in connection with the collection under and enforcement of this Section 9.03.

Section 9.04 Escrow of Company Expenses.

(a) In the event that Parent is obligated to pay the Company Expenses set forth in Section 9.03(e), Parent shall pay to the Operating Partnership from the Company Expenses deposited into escrow in accordance with the next sentence, an amount equal to the lesser of (i) the Company Expenses and (ii) the sum of (1) the maximum amount that can be paid to the Operating Partnership without causing the Company to fail to meet the requirements of Sections 856(c)(2) and (3) of the Code determined as if the payment of such amount did not constitute income described in Sections 856(c)(2)(A)-(H) or 856(c)(3)(A)-(I) of the Code (Qualifying Income), as determined by the Company's independent certified public accountants, plus (2) in the event the Company receives either (A) a letter from the Company's counsel indicating that the Company has received a ruling from the IRS described in Section 9.04(b) or (B) an opinion from the Company's outside counsel as described in Section 9.04(b), an amount equal to the Company Expenses less the amount payable under clause (1) above. To secure Parent's obligation to pay these amounts, Parent shall deposit into escrow an amount in cash equal to the Company Expenses with an escrow agent selected by Parent and on such terms (subject to Section 9.04(b)) as shall be mutually agreed upon by the Operating Partnership, Parent and the escrow agent. The payment or deposit into escrow of the Company Expenses pursuant to Section 9.04(b) shall be made at the time Parent is obligated to pay the Operating Partnership such amount pursuant to Section 9.03(e) by wire transfer or bank check.

(b) The escrow agreement shall provide that the Company Expenses in escrow or any portion thereof shall not be released to the Operating Partnership unless the escrow agent receives any one or combination of the following: (i) a letter from the Company's independent certified public accountants indicating the maximum amount that can be paid by the escrow agent to the Operating Partnership without causing the Company to fail to meet the requirements of Sections 856(c)(2) and (3) of the Code determined as if the payment of such amount did not constitute Qualifying Income or a subsequent letter from the Company's accountants revising that amount, in which case the escrow agent shall release such amount to the Company, or (ii) a letter from the Company's counsel indicating that the Company received a ruling from the IRS holding that the Company Expenses would either constitute Qualifying Income or would be excluded from gross income within the meaning of Sections 856(c)(2) and (3) of the Code (or alternatively, the Company's outside counsel has rendered a legal opinion reasonably satisfactory to the Company with respect to the qualification of the Company as a REIT after the receipt by the Operating Partnership of the Company Expenses), in which case the escrow agent shall release the remainder of the Company Expenses to the Operating Partnership. Parent agrees to amend this Section 9.04 or the escrow agreement at the request of the Company in order to (x) maximize the portion of the Company Expenses that may be distributed to the Operating Partnership hereunder without causing the Company to fail to meet the requirements of Sections 856(c)(2) and (3) of the Code, (y) improve the Company's chances of securing a favorable ruling described in this Section 9.04(b) or (z) assist the Company in obtaining a favorable legal opinion from its outside counsel as described in this Section 9.04(b). The escrow agreement shall also provide that any portion of the Company Expenses held in escrow for five years shall be released by the escrow agent to Parent.

Section 9.05 Waiver. At any time prior to the Effective Time, the Company (on behalf of the Company and the Operating Partnership), on the one hand, and Parent, REIT Merger Sub and Partnership Merger Sub, on the other hand, may (a) extend the time for the performance of any obligation or other act of the other party, (b) waive any inaccuracy in the representations and warranties of the other party contained herein or in any document delivered pursuant hereto and (c) waive compliance with any agreement of the other party or any condition to its own obligations contained herein. Any such extension or waiver shall be valid if set forth in an instrument in writing signed by the Company (on behalf of the Company and the Operating Partnership) or Parent (on behalf of Parent, REIT Merger Sub and Partnership Merger Sub). The failure of any party to assert any of its rights under this Agreement or otherwise shall not constitute a waiver of those rights.

Section 10.03 Severability. If any term or other provision of this Agreement is invalid, illegal or incapable of being enforced by any rule of law, or public policy, all other conditions and provisions of this Agreement shall nevertheless remain in full force and effect so long as the economic or legal substance of the transactions contemplated by this Agreement is not affected in any manner materially adverse to any party. Upon such determination that any term or other provision is invalid, illegal or incapable of being enforced, the parties hereto shall negotiate in good faith to modify this Agreement so as to effect the original intent of the parties as closely as possible in a mutually acceptable manner in order that the transactions contemplated by this Agreement be consummated as originally contemplated to the fullest extent possible.

Section 10.04 Amendment. This Agreement may be amended by the parties hereto at any time prior to the Effective Time; provided, however, that, after approval of the Merger by the shareholders of the Company, no amendment may be made without further shareholder approval which, by Law or in accordance with the rules of the NYSE, requires further approval by such shareholders. This Agreement may not be amended except by an instrument in writing signed by the parties hereto.

Section 10.05 Entire Agreement; Assignment. This Agreement, the Disclosure Letter, the Guarantees, the Voting Agreement and the Confidentiality Agreement constitute the entire agreement among the parties with respect to the subject matter hereof and supersede all prior agreements and undertakings, both written and oral, among the parties, or any of them, with respect to the subject matter hereof. This Agreement shall not be assigned (whether pursuant to a merger, by operation of law or otherwise), except that Parent may assign all or any of its rights and obligations hereunder to any Affiliate of Parent, provided, however, that no such assignment shall relieve the assigning party of its obligations hereunder if such assignee does not perform such obligations.

Section 10.06 Performance Guarantee. Parent hereby guarantees the due, prompt and faithful performance and discharge by, and compliance with, all of the obligations, covenants, terms, conditions and undertakings of each of the Purchaser Parties under this agreement in accordance with the terms hereof, including any such obligations, covenants, terms, conditions and undertakings that are required to be performed discharged or complied with following the Effective Time.

Section 10.07 Remedies; Specific Performance.

(a) Except as otherwise provided in Section 10.07(b) or elsewhere in this Agreement, any and all remedies expressly conferred upon a party to this Agreement shall be cumulative with, and not exclusive of, any other remedy contained in this Agreement, at law or in equity and the exercise by a party to this Agreement of any one remedy shall not preclude the exercise by it of any other remedy. Except as otherwise provided in Section 10.07(b) for breaches of Sections 7.03(a), 7.03(b), 7.03(c) and 7.10(e), the Company agrees that, to the extent it or the Company Subsidiaries or Related Entities have incurred losses or damages in connection with this Agreement, (i) the maximum aggregate liability, directly or indirectly, of Parent and the Guarantors for such losses or damages shall be limited to $300,000,000, and the sole and exclusive remedy shall be the Guarantees in accordance with the terms thereof and (ii) in no event shall the Company or the Company Subsidiaries or Related Entities seek to recover any money damages in excess of such amount in clause (i) from Parent, REIT Merger Sub, Partnership Merger Sub or the Guarantors or any of their respective shareholders, partners, members, managers, directors, officers, agents, and Affiliates in connection therewith.

(b) The parties hereto agree that irreparable damage would occur in the event any provision of this Agreement were not performed by the Company or the Operating Partnership in accordance with the terms hereof or were otherwise breached and that, prior to the termination of this Agreement pursuant to Section 9.01, Parent and the Partnership Merger Sub shall be entitled to specific performance of the terms and provisions of this Agreement or an injunction to prevent any breach of this Agreement, in addition to any other remedy at law or equity. The parties acknowledge that the Company and the Operating Partnership shall not be entitled to specific performance or an injunction or injunctions to prevent breaches of this Agreement or to enforce specifically the terms and provisions of this Agreement and that the Company's and the Operating Partnership's sole and exclusive remedy with respect to any such breach shall be the remedy set forth in Sections 9.01, 9.03 and 10.07(a); provided, however, the Company and the Operating Partnership shall be entitled to seek specific performance to prevent any breach by Parent of Sections 7.03(a), 7.03(b), 7.03(c) and 7.10(e).

Section 10.08 Parties in Interest. This Agreement shall be binding upon and inure solely to the benefit of each party hereto, and nothing in this Agreement, express or implied, is intended to or shall confer upon any other person any right, benefit or remedy of any nature whatsoever under or by reason of this Agreement, other than (i) the right of the holders of Company Common Shares, Company Series A Preferred Shares, Company Series B Preferred Shares, Options or Units to receive the consideration described in Article III and (ii) Section 7.06 (which is intended to be for the benefit of the persons covered thereby or the persons entitled to payment thereunder and may be enforced by such persons).

Section 10.09 Governing Law; Forum. This Agreement shall be governed by, and construed in accordance with, the laws of the State of Delaware applicable to contracts executed in and to be performed in that State. All actions and proceedings arising out of or relating to this Agreement shall be heard and determined exclusively in any Delaware state or federal court. The parties hereto hereby (a) submit to the exclusive jurisdiction of any Delaware state or federal court for the purpose of any Action arising out of or relating to this Agreement brought by any party hereto, and (b) irrevocably waive, and agree not to assert by way of motion, defense, or otherwise, in any such Action, any claim that it is not subject personally to the jurisdiction of the above-named courts, that its property is exempt or immune from attachment or execution, that the Action is brought in an inconvenient forum, that the venue of the Action is improper, or that this Agreement or the transactions contemplated by this Agreement may not be enforced in or by any of the above-named courts.

Section 10.10 Headings. The descriptive headings contained in this Agreement are included for convenience of reference only and shall not affect in any way the meaning or interpretation of this Agreement.

Section 10.11 Counterparts. This Agreement may be executed and delivered (including by facsimile transmission) in two or more counterparts, and by the different parties hereto in separate counterparts, each of which when executed shall be deemed to be an original but all of which taken together shall constitute one and the same agreement.

Section 10.12 Waiver of Jury Trial. Each of the parties hereto hereby waives to the fullest extent permitted by applicable Law any right it may have to a trial by jury with respect to any litigation directly or indirectly arising out of, under or in connection with this Agreement or the transactions contemplated by this Agreement. Each of the parties hereto (a) certifies that no representative, agent or attorney of any other party has represented, expressly or otherwise, that such other party would not, in the event of litigation, seek to enforce that foregoing waiver and (b) acknowledges that it and the other hereto have been induced to enter into this Agreement and the transactions contemplated by this Agreement, as applicable, by, among other things, the mutual waivers and certifications in this Section 10.12.

CONFIDENTIAL

May 21, 2007

Board of Trust Managers
Crescent Real Estate Equities Company
777 Main Street, Suite 2100
Fort Worth, TX 76102

Members of the Board of Trust Managers:

We understand that Moon Holdings LLC (Parent), Moon Acquisition LLC (REIT Merger Sub), Moon Acquisition Limited Partnership (Partnership Merger Sub), Crescent Real Estate Equities Company (Crescent or the Company) and Crescent Real Estate Equities Limited Partnership (Operating Partnership) propose to enter into an Agreement and Plan of Merger (the Merger Agreement), which provides, among other things, for the merger of the Company with and into REIT Merger Sub (the Company Merger) and the merger of Partnership Merger Sub with and into the Operating Partnership (the Partnership Merger , and together with the Company Merger, the Mergers). We understand that, as a result of the Mergers, each outstanding share of common stock, par value $0.01 per share of the Company (Crescent Common Stock) (other than shares of Crescent Common Stock owned by the Company and any Dissenting Shares, as defined in the Merger Agreement), shall be converted into the right to receive $22.80 in cash (the Company Common Share Consideration) and each unit of common and preferred limited partnership interest in the Operating Partnership (Crescent Unit) (other than any Crescent Units held by the Company, the General Partner or any of the Company s Subsidiaries) shall be converted into the right to receive $45.60 in cash plus, in the case of Restricted Units, accrued and unpaid dividends (the Partnership Merger Consideration , and together with the Company Common Share Consideration, the Consideration). We understand that Parent is an affiliate of Morgan Stanley. The terms and conditions of the Mergers are more fully set forth in the Merger Agreement. Capitalized terms used but not separately defined herein shall have the meaning assigned to such terms in the Merger Agreement.

You have asked for our opinion as to whether, as of the date hereof, the Company Common Share Consideration to be received by the holders of Crescent Common Stock (other than Parent and its affiliates) in the Company Merger is fair, from a financial point of view, to such holders, and the Partnership Merger Consideration to be received by the holders of Crescent Units (other than the Company, the General Partner and the Company s Subsidiaries) in the Partnership Merger is fair, from a financial point of view, to such holders, considered as if such Crescent Units were converted into or redeemed for shares of Crescent Common Stock in accordance with their terms prior to the Effective Time, from a financial point of view. We have not been requested to opine as to, and our opinion does not in any manner address, the underlying business decision to proceed with or effect the Mergers.

For purposes of the opinion set forth herein, we have:

1. reviewed the draft of the Merger Agreement presented to the Board of Trust Managers of the Company (the Board) on May 21, 2007;

Table of Contents

2. reviewed certain publicly available financial statements of the Company;
3. reviewed certain other publicly available business and financial information relating to the Company that we deemed relevant;
4. reviewed certain information, including financial forecasts and projections and other financial and operating data concerning Crescent, prepared by the management of Crescent;
5. discussed the past and current operations, the financial condition and prospects of Crescent, with senior executives of Crescent;
6. reviewed the historical market prices and trading activity for Crescent Common Stock and analyzed its implied valuation multiples;
7. compared the value of the Consideration with estimates of Crescent's net asset value prepared by research analysts and Crescent's management;
8. compared the financial performance of Crescent with that of certain publicly traded companies that we deemed relevant;
9. compared the value of the Consideration with the trading valuations of certain publicly traded companies that we deemed relevant;
10. compared the value of the Consideration with that received, to the extent publicly available, in certain publicly available transactions that we deemed relevant;
11. compared the value of the Consideration to the valuation derived by discounting future dividends and a terminal value of the business at discount rates that we deemed appropriate; and
12. performed such other analyses and considered such other factors as we deemed appropriate.

We have assumed and relied upon, without independent verification, the accuracy and completeness of the information publicly available or supplied or otherwise made available to us by representatives of Crescent and have further relied upon the assurances of the representatives of Crescent that they are not aware of any facts or circumstances that would make such information inaccurate or misleading. With respect to the financial forecasts and projections that have been furnished to us by the management of Crescent, we have assumed such forecasts have been reasonably prepared on a basis reflecting the best currently available estimates and good faith judgment of the management of Crescent as to the future financial performance of Crescent, and we relied upon such forecasts in arriving at our opinion. We express no opinion with respect to such forecasts or projections or the assumptions upon which they are based. In addition, in arriving at our opinion, we have not conducted a physical inspection of the properties or facilities of Crescent, nor have we undertaken an independent valuation or appraisal of the assets or liabilities of Crescent, nor have any such valuations or appraisals been provided to us. We have assumed that the Mergers will be consummated in accordance with the terms set forth in a final Merger Agreement, the terms of which we have assumed will be identical in all material respects to the latest draft thereof we have reviewed, without any waiver of any material terms or conditions set forth in the Merger Agreement. We have further assumed that all material governmental regulatory and other consents and approvals necessary for the consummation of the Mergers, and the other transactions contemplated by the Merger Agreement will be obtained without any effect on the Company in any way meaningful to our analysis. In addition, we have relied as to all legal, including tax, matters relevant to rendering our opinion on advice of counsel for Crescent. We are not expressing an opinion as to any aspect of the Merger Agreement or the Mergers other than the fairness from a financial point of view to the holders of Crescent Common Stock and Crescent Units of the Consideration to be received by such holders in the Mergers. In particular, we are not expressing any opinion as to the consideration to be received by the holders of the Company Series A Preferred Shares or Company Series B Preferred Shares.

Our opinion is necessarily based on financial, economic, market and other conditions as in effect on, and the information made available to us as of, the date hereof. No opinion is expressed as to whether any alternative transaction might produce consideration for the stockholders of the Company or the unitholders of the Operating Partnership in an amount in excess of that contemplated in the Mergers.

We have acted as financial advisor to Crescent in connection with the Merger Agreement and will receive a fee from the Company for our services, a portion of which is contingent on the consummation of the Mergers. In addition, the Company has agreed to indemnify us for certain liabilities arising out of our engagement.

It is understood that this letter is for the information of the Board and is rendered to the Board in connection with its consideration of the Merger Agreement and may not be disclosed, referred to or communicated to any third party for any purpose without our prior written consent, except that this opinion may be included in its entirety when required in any filing made by the Company or the Operating Partnership with the Securities and Exchange Commission. This opinion is not intended to be, and does not constitute, a recommendation to the Board as to whether it should approve any of the Mergers or the Merger Agreement, nor does it constitute a recommendation as to whether or not the holders of Crescent Common Stock or Crescent Units should vote in favor of any of the Mergers or the Merger Agreement.

Based upon and subject to the foregoing, including the limitations and assumptions set forth herein, we are of the opinion that, as of the date hereof, the Company Common Share Consideration to be received by the holders of Crescent Common Stock (other than Parent and its affiliates) in the Company Merger is fair from a financial point of view to such holders, and the Partnership Merger Consideration to be received by the holders of Crescent Units (other than the Company, the General Partner and the Company's Subsidiaries) in the Partnership Merger is fair from a financial point of view to such holders, considered as if such Crescent Units were converted into or redeemed for shares of Crescent Common Stock in accordance with their terms prior to the Effective Time, from a financial point of view.

Very truly yours,

Exhibit C

PROCEDURE FOR DISSENT BY SHAREHOLDERS AS TO ACTIONS

Sec. 25.20. (A) Any shareholder of any domestic real estate investment trust who has the right to dissent from any of the actions referred to in Section 25.10 of this Act may exercise that right to dissent only by complying with the following procedures:

(1)(a) With respect to a proposed action that is submitted to a vote of shareholders at a meeting, the shareholder shall file with the real estate investment trust, before the meeting, a written objection to the action. The shareholder's objection must state that the shareholder will exercise the shareholder's right to dissent if the action is effective and must contain the shareholder's address, to which notice of the action shall be delivered or mailed in that event. If the action is effected and the shareholder did not vote in favor of the action, the real estate investment trust, in the case of action other than a merger, or the surviving or new entity that is liable in the case of a merger to discharge the shareholder's right of dissent, shall deliver or mail to the shareholder written notice that the action has been effected within 10 days after the action is effected. The shareholder may make a written demand on the existing, surviving, or new entity for payment of the fair value of the shareholder's shares within 10 days from the delivery or mailing of the notice. The fair value of the shares shall be the value of the shares on the day before the meeting, excluding any appreciation or depreciation in anticipation of the proposed action. The demand shall state the number and class of the shares owned by the shareholder and the fair value of the shares as estimated by the shareholder. A shareholder who fails to make a demand within the 10-day period is bound by the action.

(b) With respect to a proposed action that is approved pursuant to Subsection (A) of Section 10.30 of this Act, the real estate investment trust, in the case of action other than a merger, and the surviving or new entity that is liable in the case of a merger to discharge the shareholder's right of dissent, within 10 days after the date the action takes effect, shall mail to each shareholder of record as of the date the action takes effect notice of the fact and date of the action and that the shareholder may exercise the shareholder's right to dissent from the action. The notice shall be accompanied by a copy of this Section and any articles or documents filed by the real estate investment trust with the secretary of state to effect the action. If the shareholder did not consent to the taking of the action, the shareholder may make written demand on the existing, surviving, or new entity for payment of the fair value of the shareholder's shares within 20 days after the mailing of the notice. The fair value of the shares shall be the value of the shares on the date the written consent authorizing the action was delivered to the real estate investment trust pursuant to Subsection (A) of Section 10.30 of this Act, excluding any appreciation or depreciation in anticipation of the action. The demand shall state the number and class of shares owned by the dissenting shareholder and the fair value of the shares as estimated by the shareholder. Any shareholder failing to make demand within the 20-day period is bound by the action.

(2) Within 20 days after receipt by the existing, surviving, or new entity of a demand for payment made by a dissenting shareholder in accordance with Subdivision (1) of this Subsection, the entity shall deliver or mail to the shareholder a written notice that shall either set out that the entity accepts the amount claimed in the demand and agrees to pay that amount within 90 days after the date on which the action was effected, and, in the case of shares represented by certificates, on the surrender of the certificates duly endorsed, or shall contain an estimate by the entity of the fair value of the shares and an offer to pay the amount of that estimate within 90 days after the date on which the action was effected, on receipt of notice within 60 days after that date from the shareholder that the shareholder agrees to accept that amount and, in the case of shares represented by certificates, on the surrender of the certificates duly endorsed.

(3) If, within 60 days after the date on which the real estate investment trust action was effected, the value of the shares is agreed on between the shareholder and the existing, surviving, or new entity, payment for the shares shall be made within 90 days after the date on which the action was effected and, in the case of shares represented by certificates, on surrender of the certificates duly endorsed. On payment of the agreed value, the shareholder ceases to have any interest in the shares or in the real estate investment trust.

(B) If, within 60 days after the date on which the action was effected, the shareholder and the existing, surviving, or new entity do not agree on the value of the shares, the shareholder or entity, within 60 days after the expiration of the 60-day period, may file a petition in any court of competent jurisdiction in the county in which the principal office of the domestic real estate investment trust is located, asking for a finding and determination of the fair value of the shareholder's shares. On the filing of a petition by the shareholder, service of a copy of the petition must be made on the entity. The entity, within 10 days after receiving the service, shall file in the office of the clerk of the court in which the petition was filed a list containing the names and addresses of all shareholders of the domestic real estate investment trust who have demanded payment for their shares and with whom agreements as to the value of their shares have not been reached by the entity. If the petition is filed by the entity, the list described in this Subsection must be attached to the petition. The clerk of the court shall give notice of the time and place fixed for the hearing of the petition by registered mail to the entity and to the shareholders named on the list at the addresses stated in the list. The court shall approve the forms of notices sent by mail. All shareholders notified as required by this Subsection and the entity are bound by the final judgment of the court.

(C) After the hearing of a petition filed under this Section, the court shall determine which shareholders have complied with the provisions of this Section and have become entitled to the valuation of and payment of their shares. The court shall appoint one or more qualified appraisers to determine that value. The appraisers may examine any books and records of the real estate investment trust that relate to the shares the appraisers are charged with the duty of valuing. The appraisers shall make a determination of the fair value of the shares after conducting an investigation. The appraisers shall also afford a reasonable opportunity to allow interested parties to submit to the appraisers pertinent evidence relating to the value of the shares. The appraisers also have the power and authority that may be conferred on masters in chancery by the Texas Rules of Civil Procedure.

(D) The appraisers shall determine the fair value of the shares of the shareholders adjudged by the court to be entitled to payment for their shares and shall file their report of that value in the office of the clerk of the court. The clerk shall give notice of the filing of the appraisers report to interested parties. The appraisers report shall be subject to exceptions to be heard before the court both on the law and the facts. The court shall determine the fair value of the shares of the shareholders entitled to payment for their shares and shall order the existing, surviving, or new entity to pay that value, together with interest on the value of shares to the shareholders entitled to payment, beginning 91 days after the date on which the applicable action from which the shareholder elected to dissent was effected to the date of such judgment. The judgment shall be immediately payable to the holders of uncertificated shares. The judgment shall be payable to the holders of shares represented by certificates only on, and simultaneously with, the surrender to the existing, surviving, or new entity of duly endorsed certificates for those shares. On payment of the judgment, the dissenting shareholders cease to have any interest in those shares or in the real estate investment trust. The court shall allow the appraisers a reasonable fee as court costs, and all court costs shall be allocated between the parties in the manner that the court determines to be fair and equitable.

(E) Shares acquired by the existing, surviving, or new entity, pursuant to the payment of the agreed value of the shares, to the payment of the agreed value of the shares, or to payment of the judgment entered for the value of the shares, as provided in this Section, in the case of a merger, shall be treated as provided in the plan of merger and, in all other cases, may be held and disposed of by the real estate investment trust as in the case of other treasury shares.

(F) This Section does not apply to a merger if, on the date of the filing of the articles of merger, the surviving entity is the owner of all the outstanding shares of the other entities, domestic or foreign, that are parties to the merger.

(G) In the absence of fraud in the transaction, the remedy provided by this Section to a shareholder objecting to any action referred to in Section 25.10 of this Act is the exclusive remedy for the recovery of the value of the shareholder's shares or money damages to the shareholder with respect to the action. If the existing, surviving, or new entity complies with the requirements of this Section, any shareholder who fails to comply with the requirements of this Section is not entitled to bring suit for the recovery of the value of the shareholder's shares or money damages to the shareholder with respect to the action.
