Lake Forest, Illinois (March 17, 2005) CNH America LLC, a wholly owned subsidiary of CNH Global N.V. (NYSE:CNH), today announced that the company and the United Auto Workers have reached a proposed settlement agreement affecting approximately 650 workers in Burlington, Iowa, Racine, Wisconsin and two other locations.

CNH presented the agreement to the UAW Wednesday evening, and the union has agreed to take the company's proposal to its membership for a ratification vote this weekend.

We are glad that we have this proposed agreement with the UAW and look forward to a positive ratification vote this weekend so our employees can return to work, said Tom Graham, CNH lead negotiator.

Further details about the proposed agreement will not be released until the UAW presents the proposal to its members.

Lake Forest, Illinois (March 19, 2005) CNH America LLC, a wholly owned subsidiary of CNH Global N.V. (NYSE:CNH), announced that approximately 650 CNH employees represented by the United Auto Workers (UAW) will return to work following ratification of a settlement agreement today.

We are pleased that our UAW-represented employees ratified the contract and are returning to work, said Tom Graham, CNH lead negotiator. We believe the agreement is good for the company, our employees, our dealers and the communities in which we do business.

The UAW notified CNH of the positive ratification vote Saturday afternoon. Most UAW-represented employees are expected to be back at work Monday morning, and in any case no later than the end of the day Tuesday. Supervisors are contacting workers to let them know when to return.

The agreement affects CNH employees in Burlington, Iowa; Racine, Wisconsin; Burr Ridge, Illinois; and St. Paul, Minnesota.
