Item 1.02. Termination of a Material Definitive Agreement.

As previously disclosed, on September 8, 2006, Champion Retail, Inc. (Champion Retail), an indirect wholly-owned subsidiary of Champion Enterprises, Inc. (the Company), entered into a Stock Purchase Agreement (the Stock Purchase Agreement) with Bayshore Advantage LLC (Bayshore), an affiliate of Encore Partners, LLC, a private investment group. On November 19, 2006, Champion Retail terminated the Stock Purchase Agreement as a result of Bayshore s failure to secure financing required to complete the transactions contemplated by the Stock Purchase Agreement.

The Stock Purchase Agreement had originally provided that Champion Retail would sell to Bayshore (the Transaction) all of the outstanding equity interest of San Jose Advantage Homes (Advantage Homes) which is engaged in retail home sales in the state of California. The aggregate purchase price for Advantage Homes would have consisted of approximately $44 million in cash, subject to a working capital adjustment, and a subordinated 5-year interest bearing note of approximately $8 million.
