ITEM 1. SECURITY AND ISSUER.

This Amendment No. 1 ("Amendment No. 1") to Schedule 13D relates to the common stock, $1.00 par value (the "Common Stock"), of Synovus Financial Corp. ("Synovus"), a Georgia business corporation. The address of Synovus' principal executive offices is 901 Front Avenue, Suite 301, Columbus, Georgia 31901.

ITEM 2. IDENTITY AND BACKGROUND.

Amendment No. 1 amends and restates the Schedule 13D of William B. Turner, Jr., originally filed in March 1995. Amendment No. 1 is being filed by Mr. Turner, both in his individual capacity and as trustee of his grantor retained annuity trust ("GRAT") described in Item 3 below. The address of Mr. Turner is c/o Synovus Trust Company, Post Office Box 120, Columbus, Georgia 31902.

Mr. Turner is the President of the W. C. Bradley Co., a metal manufacturing and real estate holding company, the address of which is 1017 Front Avenue, Columbus, Georgia 31901.

Mr. Turner has not been convicted during the last five years in any criminal proceeding (excluding traffic violations or similar misdemeanors). Mr. Turner has not been a party during the last five years to a civil proceeding of a judicial or administrative body of competent jurisdiction and as a result of such proceeding was or is subject to a judgment, decree or final order enjoining future violations of, or prohibiting or mandating activities subject to, federal or state securities laws, or finding any violation with respect to such laws.

Mr. Turner is a citizen of the United States of America.

ITEM 3. SOURCE AND AMOUNT OF FUNDS OR OTHER CONSIDERATION.

Amendment No. 1 is being filed pursuant to Rule 13d-2 promulgated under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended, to report a transaction involving TB&C Bancshares, Inc., a Georgia corporation ("TB&C"), through which Mr. Turner may be deemed to beneficially own certain shares of Synovus Common Stock. The transaction reduced by 13,311,843 shares the Synovus Common Stock deemed to be beneficially owned by Mr. Turner indirectly through TB&C. This reduction resulted from the termination of an agreement (the "Voting Lease") pursuant to which TB&C had leased certain rights in all shares of Common Stock held in trust by Synovus Trust Company ("STC"), a wholly owned subsidiary of Synovus, under each of the following trusts (collectively, the "Series 600 Trusts"): (a) STC as Trustee u/w/o W. C. Bradley 6/22/45 for Sarah T. Butler; (b) STC as Trustee u/w/o W. C. Bradley 6/22/45 for Elizabeth T. Corn; and (c) STC as Trustee u/w/o W. C. Bradley 6/22/45 for William B. Turner.

In addition, there has been one other recent transaction in the stock of TB&C that affected Mr. Turner's beneficial ownership of Synovus Common Stock, although it was not separately material. On December 22, 2000, Mr. Turner transferred 93,440 shares of TB&C common stock (0.6% of the outstanding TB&C voting stock) to the 2000 W. B. Turner, Jr. Trust, a GRAT of which Mr. Turner is the sole trustee.

The only funds or other consideration that has been or will be given in connection with the transactions described above was a refund by each of the 600 Series Trusts of a pro rata portion ($51,074.95 by each of the three trusts or $153,224.85 in the aggregate) of the quarterly lease payments that had been paid by TB&C to each such trust in advance as required under the Voting Lease, for the three-month period ending March 1, 2001. The Series 600 Trusts funded these payments with cash on hand.

TB&C was formed in 1986 by William B. Turner (Mr. Turner's father), and Mr. Turner's aunts, Elizabeth T. Corn and Sarah T. Butler, to effect various family, financial and estate planning goals. There have been three splits of Synovus Common Stock since Mr. Turner filed his initial Schedule 13D in March 1995. As a result, each share of Synovus Common Stock outstanding in March 1995 now represents 3.375 shares of Synovus Common Stock. These stock splits account for the vast majority of increases since 1995 in the number of shares shown as beneficially owned by Mr. Turner.

As of the date of this report, the voting stock of TB&C is beneficially owned primarily by: (1) William B. Turner and his wife, who together own 28.9% through GRATs that they established, (2) Mrs. Corn and her husband, who together own 29.4% through GRATs that they established and (3) Mrs. Butler and her husband, who together own 30.8% through GRATs that they established. Mr. Turner is one of six directors of TB&C.

As of the date of this report, TB&C beneficially owns 14,309,182 shares of Synovus Common Stock directly. Prior to January 22, 2001, TB&C may also have been deemed to be the beneficial owner of 13,311,843 shares of Synovus Common Stock indirectly pursuant to the Voting Lease, whereby TB&C had leased from STC the right to vote and the right to tender all, but not less than all, of the Common Stock of Synovus held by the Series 600 Trusts. The TB&C Board of Directors (which includes Mr. Turner) made all decisions as to voting of these shares under the Voting Lease and, if it had become relevant, would have made any decision as to any tender offer.

The Voting Lease had an initial five-year term, beginning March 2, 1995, and was renewed on February 29, 2000 for another five years. In exchange for the lease of such rights, TB&C was required to make quarterly payments to STC for the initial lease term of five years, equal to $.03 per share of Synovus Common Stock, which was .17% of $19.50, the closing price of a share of Synovus Common Stock on the New York Stock Exchange on March 2, 1995. The quarterly lease payments during the renewal term of the Voting Lease were equal to $.0265625 per share of Synovus Common Stock, which was .17% of $15.625, the closing price of a share of Synovus Common Stock on the New York Stock Exchange on March 2, 2000. TB&C used the quarterly cash dividends that it received with respect to the shares of Synovus Common Stock it owned directly as the source of funds to pay these lease payments. On January 22, 2001, TB&C terminated the Voting Lease for the reasons described in Item 4. As a result, no person, other than STC as trustee of each of the Series 600 Trusts, continues to have any beneficial ownership as a result of sharing voting or investment power as to these shares.

ITEM 4. PURPOSE OF TRANSACTION.

As indicated under Item 3, TB&C was formed to allow William B. Turner, Mrs. Butler and Mrs. Corn to effect various family, financial and estate planning goals for themselves and their lineal descendants. The transfer of TB&C shares described under Item 3 was effected by Mr. Turner in furtherance of these goals. In addition, Mr. Turner and the other family members who are directors of TB&C concluded, based on their continuing evaluation of the families' circumstances and on the advice of their professional advisors, that achievement of these goals would be advanced by the termination of the Voting Lease and the reorganization of TB&C described below. Accordingly, the Voting Lease was terminated on January 22, 2001.

In addition, on January 17, 2001, the Board of Directors of Synovus approved a plan of reorganization involving TB&C and Synovus pursuant to which TB&C would transfer all of its assets, consisting primarily of 14,309,182 shares of Synovus Common Stock, to Synovus in exchange for 14,309,182 shares of Synovus Common Stock. Following the transfer, TB&C would liquidate and distribute all of its assets to its shareholders. This transaction is intended to qualify as a tax-free reorganization pursuant to Section 368(a)(1)(C) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986. The completion of the transaction is subject to numerous conditions precedent, including execution of a definitive agreement, approval of TB&C's shareholders and various regulatory approvals.

Except for the proposed reorganization and related liquidation of TB&C described above, Mr. Turner does not have any plans or proposals that relate to or would result in: (a) any person acquiring additional securities of Synovus or disposing of securities of Synovus; (b) an extraordinary corporate transaction involving Synovus; (c) a sale or transfer of a material amount of the assets of Synovus or any of its subsidiaries; (d) any change in the present board of directors or management of Synovus; (e) any material change in the present capitalization or dividend policy of Synovus; (f) any other material change in Synovus' business or corporate structure; (g) any changes in Synovus' charter or bylaws or other actions that might impede the acquisition of control of Synovus; (h) the delisting of Synovus Common Stock from the New York Stock Exchange; (i) the eligibility of Synovus Common Stock for termination of registration pursuant to Section 12(g)(4) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended; or (j) any action similar to any of those enumerated in items (a) through (i) above.

ITEM 5. INTEREST IN SECURITIES OF THE ISSUER.

(a) and (b) The percentages set forth below and on pages 2-3 hereof are based on 285,584,009 shares of Synovus Common Stock outstanding on January 30, 2001, as provided by Synovus.

Mr. Turner could be construed to be the beneficial owner of 16,967,828 shares (5.9%) of Synovus Common Stock. Mr. Turner has sole voting and investment power as to 15,641 of these shares, all of which are held by Mr. Turner in custodial accounts for his children. Mr. Turner has sole voting power as to an additional 74,800 shares, shared voting power as to 16,877,387 shares and shared investment power as to 16,952,187 shares of Synovus Common Stock, consisting of: (a) 74,800 shares owned by a revocable trust for the benefit of Mr. Turner and subject to his directions as to distributions and his right to vote the Synovus shares, as to which Mr. Turner has sole voting power, but shares investment power (based on Mr. Turner's power to direct distributions from and to revoke the trust) with STC, as trustee of such trust; (b) 2,568,205 shares owned by the Bradley-Turner Foundation (the "B-T Foundation"), a charitable foundation of which Mr. Turner is a trustee and as to which voting power and investment power are shared with the other trustees of such foundation; and (c) 14,309,182 shares owned by TB&C, as to which voting power and investment power are shared by Mr. Turner (as a TB&C director) with the other directors of TB&C. The Bylaws of TB&C provide that voting power over all of the shares owned or otherwise voted by TB&C shall be shared by the directors of TB&C.

Additional information regarding the persons and entities with whom Mr. Turner shares voting power and/or investment power is included on the next page.
