ITEM 8.01 OTHER EVENTS

On Tuesday December 2, 2008, at the request of the U.S. government, General Motors Corporation (GM) submitted to the Senate Banking Committee and the House of Representatives Financial Services Committee the General Motors Corporation: Restructuring Plan for Long-Term Viability, which is attached as Exhibit 99.1. The plan contains certain non-GAAP financial measures, as defined in Regulation G. The reconciliations of these non-GAAP financial measures to the closest equivalent item presented in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles in the United States are attached as Exhibit 99.2.

Forward-Looking Language

In this filing and in related comments by our management, our use of the words expect, anticipate, estimate. goal, target, believe, improve, intend, potential, continue, designed, opportunity, positioned or similar expressions is intended to identify forward-looking statements that represent project, projected. our current judgment about possible future events. We believe these judgments are reasonable, but these statements are not guarantees of any events or financial results, and our actual results may differ materially due to a variety of important factors. Among other items, such factors might include: market acceptance of our products; shortages of and price volatility for fuel; significant changes in the competitive environment and the effect of competition on our markets, including on our pricing policies; our ability to maintain adequate liquidity and financing sources and an appropriate level of debt; and changes in general economic conditions. Our most recent reports on SEC Forms 10-K, 10-Q and 8-K provide information about these and other factors, which may be revised or supplemented in future reports to the SEC on those forms.
