Item Entry into a Material Definitive Agreement.

1.01

On November 15, 2007, Kraft Foods Inc. (the “Company”) announced that it had entered into a “Reverse-Morris Trust” transaction agreement (the “RMT Transaction Agreement”) dated as of November 15, 2007 among the Company; Cable Holdco, Inc. (“Splitco”), a Delaware corporation and an indirect, wholly-owned subsidiary of the Company; Ralcorp Holdings, Inc. (“Ralcorp”), a Missouri corporation; and Ralcorp Mailman LLC (“Merger Sub”), a Delaware limited liability company and a direct, wholly-owned subsidiary of Ralcorp, pursuant to which the Post cereals business (the “Business”) of the Company will be combined with Ralcorp in a tax efficient transaction.

Pursuant to the RMT Transaction Agreement, a wholly-owned subsidiary of the Company, Kraft Foods Global, Inc. (“Kraft Global”), will incur $300 million in debt (the “RMT Debt”) under a credit facility on the terms and conditions set forth in a commitment letter entered into with certain financial institutions. Kraft Global will retain the proceeds of the RMT Debt.

Pursuant to the “Contribution” described in the RMT Transaction Agreement, (i) the Company will transfer or cause to be transferred to Cable Newco, LLC (“Newco”), a Delaware limited liability company and a direct, wholly-owned subsidiary of Kraft Global, the U.S. assets of the Business and Newco will assume the U.S. liabilities of the Business and (ii) the limited liability company interests in Newco will be contributed to Splitco. As consideration in the Contribution, Splitco will assume the RMT Debt obligations and will issue to Kraft Global (x) approximately $662 million in debt securities (the “Splitco Securities”) having terms determined pursuant to the RMT Transaction Agreement (or, under certain circumstances described in the RMT Transaction Agreement, a demand note will be issued instead of the Splitco Securities) and (y) a number of shares of Splitco common stock determined in accordance with a formula set forth in the RMT Transaction Agreement. In addition, immediately after the short form merger (described below), the Company will transfer or cause to be transferred the Canadian and any other non-U.S. assets to Canadian or other non-U.S. subsidiaries of Ralcorp and those subsidiaries will assume the applicable non-U.S. liabilities.

Kraft Global (i) will distribute all the issued and outstanding shares of Splitco common stock held by Kraft Global to the Company, (ii) will transfer the RMT Debt proceeds to the Company in retirement of outstanding intercompany debt and (iii) may transfer the Splitco Securities to the Company in retirement of outstanding intercompany debt. The Company will use the proceeds of the RMT Debt and the Splitco Securities to repay debt obligations of the Company.

Pursuant to the RMT Transaction Agreement, the Company will distribute the shares of Splitco common stock to its shareholders (and possibly to a limited number of holders of Company deferred stock awards). At the Company’s election, it may distribute the Splitco common stock by means of a pro rata dividend in a spin-off or pursuant to an exchange offer in a split-off, or a combination of a spin-off and a split-off (the “Distribution”). The Company has not yet made a decision as to the form of the Distribution.

Immediately after the Distribution, Splitco will merge with and into Merger Sub (the “Merger”), whereby each issued share of Splitco common stock will be converted into the right to receive one fully paid and nonassessable share of Ralcorp’s common stock.

Consummation of the transactions contemplated by the RMT Transaction Agreement will result in the Company's shareholders holding approximately 54% of Ralcorp's common stock and existing Ralcorp shareholders holding approximately 46% of Ralcorp's common stock immediately after the Merger, in each case on a fully diluted basis.

Immediately following the Merger, Merger Sub will merge with and into Ralcorp in a "short form" merger. Upon consummation of the short form merger, the RMT Debt and the Splitco Securities will become debt obligations of Ralcorp.

Consummation of the transactions contemplated by the RMT Transaction Agreement is subject to customary joint closing conditions, including the absence of legal impediments to the consummation of the transactions, the receipt of governmental approvals with respect to or the expiration or termination of any required waiting periods under the Hart-Scott-Rodino Antitrust Improvements Act of 1976 and the Competition Act (Canada), the effectiveness of certain filings with the Securities and Exchange Commission and approval by Ralcorp's shareholders of the issuance of Ralcorp common stock in the Merger. In addition, it is a condition to the Company's obligations that the Company receive tax opinions and a favorable ruling from the Internal Revenue Service with respect to certain aspects of the transactions.

The foregoing description of the RMT Transaction Agreement and the transactions contemplated thereby does not purport to be complete and is qualified in its entirety by the terms and conditions of the RMT Transaction Agreement, which is filed as Exhibit 2.1 hereto, and incorporated into this report by reference. All stockholders of the Company are urged to read the RMT Transaction Agreement carefully and in its entirety. The RMT Transaction Agreement has been included to provide you with information regarding its terms. It is not intended to provide any other factual information about the Company.

The RMT Transaction Agreement contains representations and warranties that the Company, on the one hand, and Ralcorp and Merger Sub, on the other hand, have made to each other as of specific dates. The assertions embodied in those representations and warranties were made solely for purposes of the contract between the parties to the RMT Transaction Agreement and may be subject to important qualifications and limitations agreed to by the parties in connection with negotiating the terms of the contract. Moreover, some of those representations and warranties may not be accurate or complete as of any specified date, may be subject to a contractual standard of materiality different from those generally applicable to shareholders, or may have been used for the purpose of allocating risk between the parties rather than establishing matters as facts. For the foregoing reasons, investors should not rely on the representations and warranties as statements of factual information.
